#6 Edinboro Returns Home – Battles Shippensburg

The Game

The #6 ranked Fighting Scots take on the visiting Red Raiders of Shippensburg University. The game is sponsored by McDonald's. Today will mark the Boro's fourth home game in six starts.

The Records

Edinboro enters the PSAC West clash unbeaten in five games while Shippensburg is 2-4. The Scots are 2-0 in western division play while the Raiders are 0-2.

The Scots have opened the season with consecutive wins over Buffalo (35-13), Northwood (37-13), Southern Connecticut (41-0), Clarion (26-17) and Lock Haven (38-10). Edinboro has trailed only in the Clarion contest but responded with 19 fourth quarter points to seal the win. The Scots exploded for 18 in the final stanza at Lock Haven last weekend. Edinboro continues to be tough at home under coach Tom Hollman winning 22 games in 25 tries (22-2-1) since 1988.

Shippensburg started with wins over Shepherd (21-7) and Bloomsburg (20-14) but have recently dropped to Kutztown (3-16), Millersville (10-35), Slippery Rock (3-20) and #2 IUP (16-35).

The Series

The Scots have won eight of the last ten games but trail 13-17-1 in the series dating back to 1957. The Raiders drilled the Boro 45-7 last year in Shippensburg. The most memorable game of the series was in 1986 when the Scots won a 66-53 decision at Sox Harrison Stadium. The two most recent affairs in Edinboro have been much different with the Scots winning 19-10 in 1988 and 10-3 in 1990.

The Coaches

Hollman is 34-14-1 (.701) directing the Scots including 20 wins in 26 tries (20-5-1, .784%) in the rugged PSAC Western Division. The Scots have earned two trips to the NCAA II playoffs under Hollman including a share of the PSAC crown in 1989.

His nine-year collegiate head coaching mark of 58-25-2 (.690) includes four years at the College of Wooster (Ohio).

The Red Raiders are led by third-year coach Rocky Rees (17-13) who led Shippensburg to a 10-3 slate and a trip to the NCAA II playoffs in 1991. Shippensburg advanced past East Stroudsburg in the final round of the playoffs before bowing to IUP.

Inside the Numbers (per game averages)

	Edinboro	Shippensburg
Scoring	35.4 PPG	12.2 PPG
Total Offense	435.8 YPG	301.5 YPG
Rushing Offense	265.6 YPG	87.7 YPG
Passing Offense	170.2 YPG	213.8 YPG
Scoring Defense	10.6 PPG	21.2 PPG
Total Defense	232.8 YPG	342.7 YPG
Rushing Defense	88.8 YPG	96.3 YPG
Passing Defense	144.0 YPG	246.4 YPG

The Offenses

The Scots continue to rely on the ground attack but will be tested against the stingy Raiders. Larry Jackson (94 att., 687 yds, 11 tds, 7.3 ypc) leads the PSAC in the rushing but is nursing a pulled quad muscle and is questionable for this week. Derrick Russell (54, 249, 4 tds) is an able backup.

Injuries have hampered the fullback spot for the Scots as Tom Tedder (11, 38, 2 tds) is expected to miss his second straight game. Chris Snyder (11, 72) and William Mills (10, 41) will share time replacing Tedder. Up front, look for tackles Mike Kegarise and Tony Tighe, guards Chad Wallick and Scott Nickel and center Gordy Hitchcock to clear the way. Guard Bill Sparenberg has shared starting time with Wallick this season and will also see action.

Sophomore quarterback Jody Dickerson (49-93, 777 yds., 5 tds) continues to improve as he gets his 17th consecutive start under center. He can also rush the ball (32, 109, 1 TD). Primary targets are Wrentie Martin (27 recp., 484 yds, 2 tds), Dave Ashton (8, 114, 1 TD), Paul Stone (6, 54, 1 td) and Brian Heebsh (6, 123, 1 td). Martin averages nearly 97 yards per game receiving and nets 17.9 ypc.

Shippensburg goes to quarterback Brian Gilbert (103, 208, 1,283 yds, 3 tds) for the big play. The junior signal caller has tossed 11 interceptions this season but none in the loss to IUP. Top receivers include Ed Minogue (27, 433, 3 tds), Leon Davis (20, 281) and Tom Coleman (17, 182).

The Red Raider running attack is very young with three "true-freshmen" scheduled to start today. Seth Holderman (25, 159) sat out the Indiana game but is expected back. Other starters are Shawn Brown (24, 49) and Brian Gallagher (16, 77). Backup fullback Ed Madden (13, 38) leads the squad with two rushing touchdowns.

The Defenses

The Scots adjusted to the Lock Haven aerial show but Gilbert will be a more polished test for the Boro secondary.

Linebacker Jason Perkins (55 tackles, 3 sacks, 3 others for loss, 4 fumbles caused) continues to play at All-American levels and will get help from linebackers Michael Sims (30, 8 pass deflections) and Michael Edwards (22). Up front, ends Anthony Ross (36, 6 sacks, 6 for loss, 1 recovery) and Devas Simmons (28, 3 sacks, 6 for loss) and tackles Russell Cray (33, 3 sacks, 5 for loss) and Rob Harmer (17) have been the difference in the Boro's nationally ranked defense. Otha Davidson (7, 1 sack, 3 for loss) is also likely to get more time.

The secondary is secured by corners Mario Houston (18, 3 blocked punts) and All-American Georj Lewis (17, 1 int) and safeties Mike Barnes (27, 1 int) and Steve Russell (13).

Shippensburg features a trio of All-Conference players in linebacker Shayne Mains (104, 2 sacks, 7 for loss) and tackles Mark Maciejewski (39, 3 sacks) and Robert Davis (57, 6 for loss). Linebacker Mike Stofflet (60) is second to Mains in tackles.

The pass defense is secured by corner Doug Seidenstricker (42) who leads the team with two interceptions.

Special Teams/Kicking Game

The Scots have been solid with PK Scott Rupert (3, 7 fg, 20-23 pat) and punter Gary Lhotsky (22, 41.3 ypp). Lhotsky had a banner day in Lock Haven averaging over 44 yards per punt with a long of 50.

Shippensburg features PK Joel Yohn (6-8 fg, 7-8 pat) and punter Paul Dormer (23, 37.3 ypp).

President Foster F. Diebold

Foster F. Diebold

Now in his thirteenth year as president of Edinboro University of Pennsylvania, Foster F. Diebold is the fourteenth chief executive officer of the institution of higher learning that has come to acclaim in the last decade as one of Pennsylvania's and the nation's finest. He has brought a vigorous educational and moral leadership, a strengthening of the spirit of community, a clear sense of direction and purpose, and a dimension of multicultural pluralism and diversity.

Much has been accomplished during President Diebold's tenure. The University has returned to financial health. Significant facilities and grounds improvements have been achieved, with several of the historic structures on campus restored to their original splendor. Academic programs have been emphasized and improved, with more than 100 degree offerings now available. Enrollment gains have been unprecedented in both numbers and academic quality. International linkages have been established with institutions in several other countries, and Edinboro University's disabled student services program continues to garner acclaim as one of the finest among all colleges and universities in the United States. Widely recognized as a leader in education both here and abroad, President Diebold has positioned Edinboro University to meet the challenges of the 1990s, as well as those that will face public higher education in the 21st century.

The Orange, New Jersey, native is a graduate of Monmouth College and also holds a master of arts in educational administration from Seton Hall University. He has met coursework requirements for a doctorate in education at Rutgers University and is currently completing the dissertation requirement for the Ph.D. program in higher education at the University of Pittsburgh.

Prior to his presidency of Edinboro University, President Diebold was president of the University of Alaska from 1977 to 1979. Before that, he was executive secretary to the Board of Regents and special assistant to the president of the University of Alaska Statewide System. From 1969 to 1976, he was director of Development and Planning at Kean College in New Jersey and a member of the graduate faculty at that institution; and from 1965 to 1969, he was assistant superintendent of the Neptune Township (New Jersey) Public Schools.

Recognized for his extensive experience in the field of education management, President Diebold's scholarly achievements in the discipline of applied ethics in higher education deserve special mention. The model statement he authored for the American Association of State Colleges and Universities, "Ethical Practices for College Presidents," was unanimously adopted by that professional organization and published as policy for the chief executives of its nearly 400 member institutions nationwide. It is the first formally adopted ethical practices and policy statement for higher education presidents.

For his leadership on an international scale and for his many contributions to the advancement of higher education and enrichment of an emerging culture in Pakistan, President Diebold was decorated with prestigious gold medals from three Pakistani universities. The awards for educational eminence were presented during visits to the Edinboro campus by official Pakistani delegations.

Most recently, President Diebold was honored by the Government of Pakistan with the presentation of the degree of Doctor of Laws (honoris causa) presented at the Government House in the City of Karachi. The ceremony was attended by the presidents of the various universities holding linkage agreements together with Edinboro University and many high-ranking officials of the Government of Pakistan.

A staunch advocate of a statewide system of public universities in Pennsylvania, President Diebold supported the enabling legislation for the State System of Higher Education (Act 188 of 1982) and saw the State System come to existence in 1983 as a member of the transition team. He currently serves on the System's Executive Council of Presidents and on the boards of the Pennsylvania Academy for the Profession of Teaching, the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference, and the University Center at Harrisburg.

Active in community affairs, he serves on the Board of Directors of the Erie Conference on Community Development and the United Way of Erie County, the Board of Corporators of both St. Vincent Health Center and Hamot Medical Center, and on the Executive Committee of the French Creek Council, Boy Scouts of America. He is also a member of the Marine Bank Advisory Board, the Advisory Board of the McMannis Educational Trust Fund, and the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Corporation Scholarship Review Committee.

Athletic Director James K. McDonald

Edinboro University's athletic program was placed under the talented and aggressive leadership of Jim McDonald in July of 1981. Increased emphasis on fund raising to provide a sound scholarship foundation has become his top priority while numerous changes and innovations have also keyed the Scots' athletic program under his direction.

Through his efforts more than $4 million has been raised during the past eleven years. The funds generated by the energetic athletic director's efforts will be used to assist Edinboro's men and women athletes who compete in the Scots sixteen intercollegiate sports.

In addition to maintaining Edinboro's respected winning tradition in intercollegiate athletics, the former health and physical education professor has vastly expanded the University's summer activities.

Sixty camps were sponsored by the Fighting Scots Booster Club this past summer on the University's campus. Sox Harrison Stadium was the site for the Buffalo Bills-Pittsburgh Steelers first scrimmage, an event the veteran athletic director hopes to bring back to the area each year.

The personable athletic director also introduced Edinboro's Hall of Fame program which has evolved into an annual year-ending event to honor present and past athletes.

McDonald has been at Edinboro since 1962 and for 12 years served as the Fighting Scot basketball coach (1962-1975) and never experienced a losing season while his teams compiled an impressive 181 wins against only 89 losses. During that span, his cagers won four Western Division Pennsylvania Conference crowns, the PC state championship and two District 18 titles that netted trips to the NAIA National Tournament. His teams set 27 University records and made 19 post-season appearances while four of his players were named All-Americans.

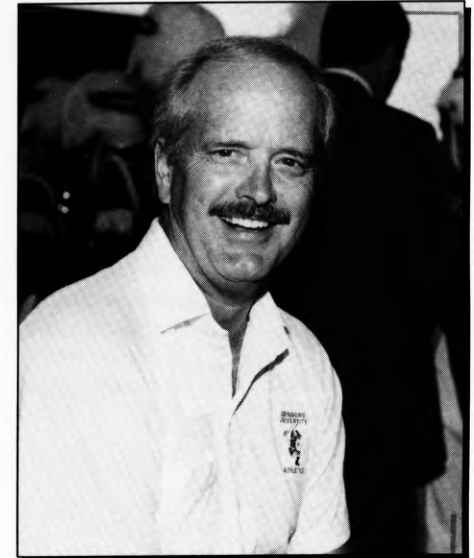

Prior to accepting his position at Edinboro, McDonald served as assistant basketball coach in Erie, Pa. He is a 1956 graduate of Bridgeport High School in his home town of Bridgeport, West Virginia.

In 1960 he received a degree in chemistry and physical education from West Virginia Wesleyan College and he also holds a master's degree in health from the University of Buffalo.

As an undergraduate, he set nine school records at Wesleyan and was twice voted both AP and UPI basketball All-American. In 1960, he was the second leading scorer in the United States, averaging slightly over 33 points a game, and led his team to the national basketball tournament in Kansas City, Missouri. He was named to the NAIA's All-Tournament Team in 1959 and 1960.

In 1966, McDonald was selected Area Eight Coach of the Year by the eastern seaboard coaches and that same year was honored as one of the top ten finalists in the Coach of the Year national poll. McDonald's honors also include selection to the West Virginia All-Time College Basketball Team and membership in the West Virginia Sports Hall of Fame.

As a resident of Edinboro, McDonald has a record of extensive community involvement. He was Little League Baseball director for four years and also held a four-year post as a member of the General McLane School Board. He and his wife, Mary Lou, have three sons - Mark, Mike and Matthew.

The funds generated by the energetic athletic director's efforts will be used to assist Edinboro's men and women athletes.

Scots Look to Rebound; Eye Trip to the NCAA IIs

It's hard to say that a 7-4 season was disappointing. But when expectations were to advance to the NCAA II playoffs for the third consecutive year, the 1991 won-lost mark was not what the Scots had envisioned.

Anticipating that the 1992 pre-season polls will have Edinboro back in the national picture, Football Gazette will rank the Scots number eight. It appears the pressure will be on once again. Expectations yes, but the Fighting Scots' recent success has created them.

The Hollman Era of 1988-92 has Edinboro posting a 29-14-1 slate, including 18 of 24 wins in the rugged Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference Western Division. Two trips to the national playoffs, co-championship of the PSAC, forty school records, two Division II Player of the Year finalists and 17 All-Americans are among the accomplishments. All in the last four years.

Tom Hollman begins his fifth season with the Scots and boasts a 53-25-2 record in eight years on the Division II level. His winning percentage of .663 is among the nation's best in small-college football.

Edinboro returns 33 lettermen and 17 starters (including specialties) in 1992 and should once again battle for the PSAC West title. Home encounters include the University of Buffalo and Northwood (MI), as well as PSAC western division rivals Clarion (Homecoming), Slippery Rock and Shippensburg.

The Scots travel to Southern Connecticut, Lock Haven, California, IUP and Millersville with hopes of extending their season beyond November 14.

In 1991, Edinboro played five of their first seven games on the road, and ultimately it cost them a trip to the national playoffs. This season shows more of a balance, with the Plaid hosting three of the first four games at Sox Harrison Stadium. With a 19-2-1 home record under Hollman, look for the Scots to come out of the blocks quickly in '92.

A LOOK AT THE SCOTS

Skill Positions

PSAC West Rookie of the Year Jody Dickerson returns at quarterback with veteran Sean Seibert ready to step in if needed. Dickerson connected on 53 percent of his passes last year, covering 1,382 yards and eight scores, while rushing for another 240 yards and three touchdowns.

Seibert can still lay claim to Edinboro's lone NCAA II playoff win when he engineered a convincing 38-14 margin at Virginia Union in 1990.

A veteran crew of receivers returns, led by Wrentie Martin (39-607-3 TDs), Paul Stone (9-117) and tight end Brian Heebsh (13-162-2 TDs). Martin and Heebsh were PSAC West second team selections in '91 and all three bring a wealth of game experience to the offense.

The running back position is solid with Derrick Russell (68-403-3 TDs), Larry Jackson (29-188-2 TDs), Corey Hill and Vidal Farr. Someone will have to carry the bulk with the departure of All-American Lester Frye. Three-year starter Tom Tedder (41-173-1 TD) returns at full-back and could be the PSAC West's best at this spot. Tedder will get plenty of backup support from sophomore Chris Snyder.

Offensive Line

With the graduation of All-American Curtis Rose and All-PSAC pick Wally Spisak, the Scots must fill two rather large pairs of shoes. PSAC West second team choice Mike Kegarise has pro potential with his 6-7, 300 pound frame. Starters Scott Nickel, Tony Tighe and Gordy Hitchcock also return, as will Chad Wallick, Det Betti and Dave Nowacki. Quality depth is key, so Hollman will most likely call on a pair of top recruits to help anchor the offensive front.

Defensive Line

Gone is All-American tackle John Messura, so the interior will highlight some new faces. Experience does return in Otha Davidson (22 tackles) and Russell Cray (42) while LB Devas Simmons (36) is likely to convert to a down lineman spot. End Anthony Mariani (48 tackles, 8 for loss) also returns and had a solid '91 in his initial year. Messura's spot must be filled if the Scots are to improve on their 150-yard per game rushing yield of last year.

Linebackers

All-American and All-PSAC West choice Jason Perkins (135 tackles) returns to solidify a very good corps of linebackers. Perkins was sensational in '91, picking off two passes, recording nine tackles for losses and adding four sacks to his team high tackle mark. Perkins has been chosen as a 1992 pre-season first team All-American by the Sporting News. Returning sophomore Steve Russell will give help after recording 41 tackles in '91 and tying Perkins for the team lead in interceptions with two.

Veteran Steve Nagy and newcomer Mike Edwards both looked good in spring workouts and will make heavy contributions. Simmons can play both the down position and linebacker and should be an impact player in 1992.

Secondary

With the return of All-American Georj Lewis and PSAC West second team pick Mike Barnes, the Scots' defensive backfield returns plenty of experience. 1990 PSAC West Rookie of the Year Mario Houston will be at the other corner spot. Houston was in on 75 stops last year and led the team with 12 pass deflections.

Lewis was a third team choice by Football Gazette last year and has started 34 consecutive games at the corner. His 50 tackles also earned him a first-team spot on the PSAC West All-Star squad. Barnes, a free safety/linebacker with outstanding speed and toughness, was third on the squad in '91 with 83 tackles. Only linebackers Perkins and Joel Marratta (88) were in on more tackles than Barnes.

Backup quarterback Sean Seibert has the inside track at the vacant free safety spot, vacated by four-year starter Wade Smith. Mike White and a host of top caliber freshmen give Edinboro a great secondary in 1992.

Specialties

A pair of starters return in punter Gary Lhotsky and place-kicker Scott Rupert. Lhotsky earned second team PSAC West honors a year ago with his 38.1 yards per punt. His average was second best in the division and fifth overall in the state. Lhotsky has averaged just under 37 ypp over his two-year career.

Rupert, just a sophomore, had a solid freshman year in '91, finishing second on the team with 36 points. He was true on 5-of-7 field goal tries and converted 21 extra point attempts. A great all-around athlete, Rupert led the Scot baseball team last spring with a .398 batting average.

Head Coach Tom Hollman

Tom Hollman

In January 1988, Edinboro University hired Tom Hollman, Athens, Ohio, as its eleventh head football coach in the school's history. Hollman came to Edinboro from Ohio University, where he was the defensive coordinator.

Hollman, beginning his fifth year, has the Scot program back in the national spotlight. At Edinboro, he has earned 29 wins against just 14 losses and one tie and owns an impressive 18-5-1 slate against the PSAC Western Division.

In 1989, he was named the top coach in the East Region by the National Football Coaches Association and also tabbed the top coach in the PSAC West. In 1990, he guided the Scots to their first-ever NCAA II playoff win as Edinboro routed Virginia Union and advanced to the national quarterfinals.

"Edinboro has been a great experience, and I like the direction of the program," Hollman said.

"As a coach, I have been fortunate to coach at many different levels, from high school to Division I. The Division II level here at Edinboro is very appealing to me in relation to my career goals. It is a great feeling to be a head coach at this level."

Hollman's educational background begins with a high school diploma from Memorial High School in St. Mary's, Ohio, followed by his undergraduate degree in education from Ohio Northern University in 1968. Three years later Hollman received his master of science degree in education from Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio.

While at Ohio Northern, Hollman was a three-year starter for the football team and a two-way performer as a defensive back and offensive end during his junior and senior years. He holds the school record with 13 career interceptions and earned All-American and All-District honors during the 1966 and 1967 seasons. Hollman also lettered in baseball for three years during his stay at Ohio Northern.

A chronological look at Hollman's coaching career begins in 1968 as an assistant coach at Sidney High School in Sidney, Ohio. From there, Hollman moved on to Greenville High School in Ohio where he became head coach from 1971-73. His Greenville squads posted an impressive 26-2-2 mark during his three-year stay.

Hollman then moved on to Fremont Ross High School as head coach for the 1974 and 1975 seasons, where his squad recorded 15 wins against three setbacks and two ties. Fremont was the Buckeye Conference champ in '74, unbeaten at 9-0-1.

In '76, Hollman moved on to the collegiate ranks where he was the defensive coordinator for his alma mater at Ohio Northern University.

The following year, Hollman accepted the head coach position at Wooster College (OH) and guided his squad to the best four-year record in the school's history (24-11-1).

In 1981, Hollman took an assistant coaching spot with Ball State University which he held through the '84 campaign. Then, beginning in 1985 Hollman held the defensive coordinator position at Ohio University.

"It has been a very comfortable transition for me," Hollman added. "I have found the community to be supportive and the administration is giving me every opportunity to be successful here at Edinboro," he concluded.

Tom resides in Edinboro with his wife, Kandi, and four children, Mari, Jon, Tim and Denise.

"Edinboro has been a great experience, and I like the direction of the program."

Elbert Cole, Running Back
NCAA II Player of the Year
(second runner up 1989)
Kodak first team All-American
Career: 642 attempts, 3,341 yards, 48 touchdowns

"I still feel one of the most important things about football on the Division II level is to make it fun for the players involved . . . My initial goal for this team when I got here (Edinboro), and it still remains today, was to make football an enjoyable experience for this team and its coaching staff."

Assistant Coaches

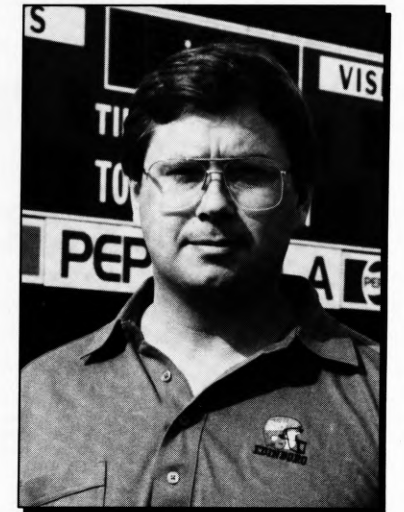

Scott Browning – Secondary

Moving to the defensive side of the ball, from the offensive backfield, Scott brings a wealth of coaching experience in his seventh year at the 'Boro. Under his guidance the Scot defense has intercepted 63 passes the past four seasons. He has guided the fortunes of All-Americans Wade Smith and Georj Lewis, and PSAC Rookie of the Year Mario Houston.

Scott came to Edinboro from Ohio State University, where he coached receivers and runningbacks including Keith Byers. Prior to his start at OSU, Browning coached at Worthington and Dayton-Fairview High Schools in Ohio, from 1979-81. Then, as a graduate assistant, he coached the defensive secondary at New Mexico State in 1982.

In 1983, he mentored the receivers at Idaho State University which advanced to the Division I-AA playoffs.

Browning earned a master's degree in education administration from New Mexico State in 1983, and a BS in education from Ohio State in 1981. Earlier, before transferring to OSU, Scott attended Capital University where he played football for one season. Browning was a four-year letterman in four sports at Loudenville High School (OH) prior to his collegiate days. Scott is married to the former Lynn Hook and resides in Edinboro.

Dan Gierlak – Running Backs

Dan Gierlak enters his sixth season as a full-time coach with his responsibilities concerning the running backs. He is also the head women's softball coach for the Scots and led the squad to the PSAC playoffs in 1990.

Gierlak came to the 'Boro from Thiel College (Pa.) where he coached the defensive secondary for the 1984 season. Dan, a starter and three-year letterwinner for the Plaid in the secondary, moved on to the semi-pro ranks with the Chicago Cowboys. During his short stint with the Cowboys, Gierlak's squad gained national championship honors in 1984 and runner up nationally in the 1985 season. Gierlak brings both playing and coaching experience to the staff, giving the Scot players an added plus on the offensive side of the ball. As backfield coach, he has guided former Harlon Hill finalist Elbert Cole and Boro All-American Lester Frye.

Originally from Buffalo, New York, Dan graduated from Edinboro with a degree in health and physical education. He and his wife, the former Amy Adams and one-year-old daughter, Alexandria Alicia, reside in Edinboro.

Mark Niswonger – Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

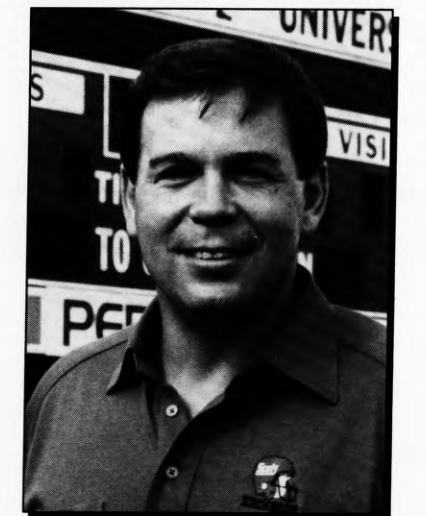

Mark Niswonger, a veteran of the coaching ranks for 19 years, begins his fifth year with the Plaid as defensive coordinator and linebacker coach. Former understudy of head coach Tom Hollman at Greenville High School, Mark brings extensive experience both on and off the field to the Scot coaching staff. He has helped mold the Scot defense into one of the most respected squads in the country over the past four years.

His coaching stint began back while attending Findlay when he was the head scout for Arlington High School. His first job after college was as defensive coordinator for Bryan High School (OH) where the team earned a 9-1 record. The next two seasons, Niswonger was the defensive coordinator at West Carrollton High School (OH) where his squad posted an impressive 17-1-2 slate.

After West Carrollton, he then returned to graduate school at Ball State University where he helped coach the tight ends and offensive linemen.

From 1981-84, Niswonger was the head coach at Franklin City Schools and was named "coach of the year" in 1982 when his squad won its first league championship in 18 years. He then moved on to the collegiate ranks in 1984 at Manchester College as defensive coordinator and then back to his alma mater from 85-87 as their secondary coach.

Niswonger's education includes an undergraduate degree in physical education and political science from Findlay and a MA in physical education from Ball State. Mark and his wife Patty and one-year-old daughter, Megan Marie, reside in Edinboro.

Gene Smith - Defensive Line

Gene Smith will enter his fifth year directing the Scot defensive line. The Scots defensive line was ranked first in the PSAC and in the NCAA top ten nationally last season in rushing defense. He aided in the development of Scot All-Americans Jeff Jacobs and John Messura.

Smith also has past association with Coach Hollman as he was a graduate assistant working with the defensive line under Hollman at Ohio University. The following season with the Bobcats, Smith moved to the offensive side of the ball as tight end/tackle coach for OU. He also worked extensively with the weight training program as a strength coach. Gene is the coordinator of strength and conditioning for the Scot football squad.

As a player, he enjoyed an outstanding career at Heidelberg College. Smith captained Heidelberg his senior season. He obtained his B.S. degree in education during his undergraduate years and later completed his M.S. in athletic administration from Ohio University. Smith has also completed post-graduate hours.

Smith, originally from Monroeville, Ohio, resides in Edinboro.

Ed Stults - Offensive Line

Ed Stults enters his fourth year directing the Scot offensive line. In his initial year with Edinboro, Stults organized an offensive front that was one of the best in the country. He directed the fortunes of three All-Americans including Scot first-teamer Curtis Rose and numerous All-Conference players. Rose recently signed a free agent contract with the Miami Dolphins of the National Football League.

He brings over ten years of coaching experience to the Scot linemen. He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Blufton College, in 1981 directing the linebackers. Later on in his coaching stint he turned his attention to the offensive line. He played linebacker at Blufton from 1976-79 and he graduated in 1980 with a BA in education.

After his coaching tenure at Blufton that spanned 1981-87, Stults took the offensive line duties at the University of Cincinnati in 1988.

Stults is married to the former Pamela Lewis and resides in Edinboro.

Academic All-America Hall of Fame

Three former college football stars and the leading scorer in women's college basketball history are the newest members of the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame.

Joining the 24-member hall of fame are the late Alan Ameche, the 1954 Heisman Trophy winner; Stephen Eisenhower, a two-time all-American lineman; Randy Gradishar, a consensus all-American linebacker, and Lynette Woodard, the first woman inducted into the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame.

The four honorees represent the fifth class of inductees named to the hall of fame. They were selected from among 25 nominees chosen by the 1,400-member College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

The academic all-America program was established in 1952 by CoSIDA and has been sponsored by GTE since 1985. The program honors the top collegiate athletes who also excel in the classroom.

In 1988, GTE and CoSIDA established the hall of fame to honor former academic all-Americans who have attained high achievement in their chosen professions and have made substantial contributions to their communities.

The 1992 inductees:

Alan Ameche

A 1955 graduate of Wisconsin, Ameche maintained a 3.200 grade-point average as a communications arts major and was named academic all-American in 1954. An outstanding fullback who was nicknamed "The Horse," he was an all-American in 1953 and 1954, and the 1954 Heisman Trophy winner.

Ameche was the Baltimore Colts' first-round draft choice in 1955, and enjoyed a stellar eight-year NFL career. In the 1958 NFL championship game, he scored one of the most famous touchdowns in NFL history—a one-yard plunge in overtime to defeat the New York Giants, 23-17. The contest became known as the greatest football game ever played, and Ameche's name was forever linked with it. He was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 1975. Ameche died in August 1988.

Stephen Eisenhower

Eisenhower graduated from the U.S. Naval Academy in 1954 with a 3.280 GPA as an engineering major. One of the country's premier offensive linemen, he was a first-team all-American in 1952 and 1953. He was an academic all-American in 1953, and eventually became a decorated Navy pilot during the Vietnam conflict.

After his graduation, Eisenhower was a Designated Naval Aviator in 1956 and participated in Lebanon Operations in 1958, earning an Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal. He went on to earn a degree in aeronautical engineering from the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School in 1964.

Randy Gradishar

Gradishar was an education major at Ohio State who graduated in 1974 with a 3.260 GPA. He was an academic all-American in 1973.

A three-year (1971-73) starter at inside linebacker, he was a consensus all-America selection his final two seasons and finished among the top three tacklers each year.

Gradishar was the Denver Broncos' first-round draft choice in 1974, and went on to star in the NFL for 10 seasons. In addition to never missing a game, he made the Pro Bowl seven times and was the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year in 1978.

Lynette Woodard

Woodard graduated from Kansas in 1981 with a 3.160 GPA as a communications studies major. A four-time all-American and two-time academic all-American, Woodard enjoyed a record-setting career at Kansas. The leading scorer in the history of women's college basketball with 3,649 points, she won the Wade Trophy as the nation's top women's college basketball player in 1981.

Woodard also enjoyed a sensational international career. She helped the U.S. team win a gold medal at the World University Games in 1979, was a member of the U.S. Olympic team in 1980, and captained the 1984 Olympic team, which won a gold medal in Los Angeles. ■

STATE SYSTEM OF HIGHER EDUCATION
COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

James H. McCormick
Chancellor

Greetings:

On behalf on the Board of Governors for the State System of Higher Education and the Office of the Chancellor, I am pleased to welcome you to today's exciting athletic event.

The Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) is a nationally respected athletic association. Last season, over 40 teams were among the best in the country, competing in regional and national championship competitions in football, basketball, swimming, track and field, wrestling, field hockey, tennis, lacrosse, cross country, softball, and baseball. Many athletes earned All-American and top scholar recognition for their work in the classroom and in the athletic arena. The efforts of these women and men who represent their universities and the entire State System, in victory or defeat, are supported and applauded.

The outstanding university coaching staffs that provide leadership, instruction, and encouragement also are to be commended for their contributions to the PSAC. Nothing can replace the time and talent they give to their students and universities.

The Board of Governors, the university presidents, the campus communities, and I hope you will continue supporting our State System universities and their athletic programs during the 1992-93 academic year. Your attendance is appreciated.

Sincerely,

James H. McCormick

Rolling Scots vs. Fighting Scots – October 29

The Organization for Disability Awareness and the Office of Disabled Student Services are sponsoring Ability Awareness Week from October 26 through October 30. This year's events intend to promote an awareness of the many abilities of persons who have disabilities.

On Tuesday, October 27, a group of U.S., state and local government officials will participate in a wheelchair tour of the Edinboro campus. Participants and campus officials who participate in this tour will be our guests at a wheelchair luncheon. After lunch, we will conduct a round table discussion with select members of the administration and student body which highlights the observations of the tour members.

Wednesday, October 28 will feature a seminar on Job Readiness conducted by Mr. James Prentice. Mr. Prentice now works at the Westinghouse Energy Center in Pittsburgh. It is interesting to note that he has a severe speech problem and must communicate through a speech synthesis device.

Thursday is sports day! At 3:30 p.m. the Edinboro Rolling Scots football team will take on the Edinboro Fighting Scots football team in a wheelchair football game at Crawford Gymnasium. Wheelchair football is an action packed sport which promises to be fun for all who attend. Thursday evening will feature a lecture by Mr. Todd Bittner, an athlete with a disability who has competed with able bodied athletes since he was eight years old. His lecture will begin at 7:30 in Butterfield 137.

Throughout the week there will be display tables set up in the University Center to help promote awareness of achievements of students with disabilities. Of special interest will be the display and practical demonstration of computer equipment Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in the University Center lounge.
