BORO WELCOMES UNBEATEN IUP; DIVISION CROWN AT STAKE

The Game

Aside from the national and regional importance of the upcoming Edinboro/IUP clash today, the first matter at hand is the Scots' shot at claiming the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference western division crown.

The Records

The two nationally-ranked teams have combined for fifteen consecutive wins entering Saturday's clash. The Scots stand at 7-1 overall and 5-0 in the PSAC-West while the Indians are a perfect 8-0, 4-0.

The Scots stumbled in their opener to the region's #3 ranked team, Ferris State (23-9), but have strung consecutive wins over Elizabeth City (34-27), Buffalo (28-17), Clarion (28-0), Lock Haven (52-20), Shippensburg (34-17), California (32-7) and Slippery Rock (41-38). IUP has been simply dominant in '93, scoring no less than 34 points against any NCAA Division II opponent. The Indians own consecutive margins over Kutztown (54-9), Grand Valley (34-3), West Chester (37-26), I-AA Liberty (23-7), Lock Haven (52-14), Shippensburg (45-10), California (52-13) and Slippery Rock (45-24).

The Series

The Scots trail IUP 41-16-4 dating back to 1926. Since 1980, Edinboro is 3-10-1 including a 14-7 setback in the quarterfinals of the 1990 NCAA II playoffs. The last four games, in which IUP has claimed three wins, have all been decided by seven points or less. In 1992, the Scots jumped to a 21-7 advantage before watching IUP tie (21-21) the game with less than a minute remaining.

The Coaches

Saturday's encounter pits two of the nation's top Division II coaches. Edinboro's Tom Hollman is 44-17-2 (.714) in his sixth season with the Scots, including an outstanding 27-6-2 (.800) slate in the PSAC-West. He was tabbed the region's and conference's top coach in 1989.

IUP counters with eight-year mentor Frank Cignetti, Division II's 1991 national coach of the year. The Indians have posted 77 wins against just 14 losses and a tie under his leadership. IUP was the national runner-up in 1990.

The Offenses

Quarterback Jody Dickerson and tailback Larry Jackson give the Scots solid balance offensively. Dickerson will start in his 31st consecutive game, a stretch where he has led the Scots to 22 wins (22-7-1). In 1992, Dickerson ranks as the PSAC's second-best passer with his 91 completions in 185 attempts for 1,561 yards and 17 touchdowns. He has tossed seven interceptions and boasts a 142.8 efficiency rating. A plethora of receivers include Marcus Griffin (26, 352, 4 td), Scott Mikowicz (18, 306, 2), Dave Ashton (15, 224, 1) and Lateef Walters (12, 361, 4, 30.1 ypc).

Jackson has upped his season rushing total to 867 yards, with 731 tallies coming in the last four wins. That is an average of over 180 yards per game. He has 145 carries for the year and six rushing scores. Jackson also has six catches for 109 yards and a touchdown out of the backfield. Fullbacks Tom Tedder (27, 89, 4) and Chris Snyder (22, 84, 1) have been solid all year. Clearing the way up front is expected to be tackles Mike Kegaris and

Tony Tighe, guards Jeremy O'Day and Det Betti and center Gordie Hitchcock.

IUP has an array of weapons led by running back Michael Mann and quarterback Scott Woods. Mann, the 1991 West player of the year, is on his way to a repeat of the honor in '93. Totalling 1,248 yards and a dozen scores, Mann needs just 144 yards to become the conference's all-time career rushing leader (4,169-Ricke Stonewall-Millersville). Woods is the PSAC's top passer with 1,471 yards on 91 completions. He has connected on 55% of his tosses with 11 scores and six interceptions. Mann (18, 213, 2) JeMone Smith (22, 385, 3) and Derek Smith (18, 382, 4) are all dangerous catching the ball.

The Defenses

The Scots had their hands full with the Rock's LaMonte Coleman and will be tested heavily against Mann. All-American linebacker Jason Perkins (92 tackles) continues to shine for the Scots. Through eight games, Perkins has registered 62 solo stops, 12 tackles for loss, forced one fumble, recovered another, blocked three extra points and has picked off six enemy passes. Linebacker Michael Edwards played well against the Rock (19 stops) and is second to Perkins on the team with 91 tackles. Rahshahn Alston (54) rounds out the second line of defense.

Up front, the foursome has combined for 28 of the team's 32 sacks. End Pat Schuster (61) leads the team with 11 quarterback drops while tackle Russell Cray (61) is close behind with eight. Captain Rob Harmer (39, 6 sacks) anchors the other tackle spot while Devas Simmons (40, 3 sacks) is the bookend opposite Schuster.

In the secondary, strong safety Steve Russell is turning in an All-American season. He is tied with Perkins for the team-lead with six interceptions and has been in on 37 stops. Russell's career interception mark of 13 ties the Edinboro school record. Free safety Rick Walker (35, 1 int) and cornerbacks Mario Houston (57, 2 int, 7 deflections, 3 blocked kicks) and Marty Williams (45, 2 int, 7 break ups) will also get the start for the Scots.

IUP has restructured its defense into one of the best in the PSAC. Their 17 interceptions and 29 sacks will pose a big test for the Boro offensive attack.

Leading the charge will be defensive end Mike Callahan (40 stops, team-high 7 sacks and 11 tackles for loss) and linebackers Omar Stewart (51, 3 int), Andre Hilliard (41, 2 int), Lewis Choice (39, 2 int) and Jack Creech (35).

The secondary is strong with cornerback Harold Brister leading the team with four interceptions. He has been in on 21 stops. Corner John Stuart (20, 2 int, 3 deflections) can also make the big play.

Special Teams/Kicking Game

The Boro may have slid a bit against the Rockets, but the squad continues to get good efforts out of punter Gary Lhotsky (39.7 ypp) and kicker Scott Rupert (29-32 PAT; 3-9 field goals). IUP will counter with punter John McGhee (39.7) and veteran kicker Mike Geary (41-43 PAT; 11-14 fg). Geary played for the Scots during the 1990 season (3-3 fg) before transferring to IUP.

Edinboro looks to Steve Russell (5 ret., 36.4 ypr, 1 td-92 yards) to bring back kickoffs and Marcus Griffin (6.6 ypr) to return punts while IUP's Derek Smith (21.6 ypr) is dangerous on kickoff returns and Mario Hardison (7.1 ypr) handles punt returns.

President Foster F. Diebold

Foster F. Diebold

Now in his fourteenth year as president of Edinboro University of Pennsylvania, Foster F. Diebold is the fourteenth chief executive officer of the institution of higher learning that has come to acclaim in the last decade as one of Pennsylvania's and the nation's finest. He has brought a vigorous educational and moral leadership, a strengthening of the spirit of community, a clear sense of direction and purpose, and a dimension of multicultural pluralism and diversity.

Much has been accomplished during President Diebold's tenure. The University has returned to financial health. Significant facilities and grounds improvements have been achieved, with several of the historic structures on campus restored to their original splendor. Academic programs have been emphasized and improved, with more than 100 degree offerings now available. Enrollment gains have been unprecedented in both numbers and academic quality. International linkages have been established with institutions in several other countries, and Edinboro University's program for students with disabilities continues to garner acclaim as one of the finest among all colleges and universities in the United States. Widely recognized as a leader in education both here and abroad, President Diebold has positioned Edinboro University to meet the challenges of the 1990s, as well as those that will face public higher education in the 21st century.

The Orange, New Jersey, native is a graduate of Monmouth College and also holds a master of arts in educational administration from Seton Hall University. He has met coursework requirements for a doctorate in education at Rutgers University and is currently completing the dissertation requirement for the Ph.D. program in higher education at the University of Pittsburgh.

Prior to his presidency of Edinboro University, President Diebold was president of the University of Alaska from 1977 to 1979. Before that, he was executive secretary to the Board of Regents and special assistant to the president of the University of Alaska Statewide System. From 1969 to 1976, he was director of Development and Planning at Kean College in New Jersey and a member of the graduate faculty at that institution; and from 1965 to 1969, he was assistant superintendent of the Neptune Township (New Jersey) Public Schools.

Recognized for his extensive experience in the field of education management, President Diebold's scholarly achievements in the discipline of applied ethics in higher education deserve special mention. The model statement he authored for the American Association of State Colleges and Universities, "Ethical Practices for College Presidents," was unanimously adopted by that professional organization and published as policy for the chief executives of its nearly 400 member institutions nationwide. It is the first formally adopted ethical practices and policy statement for higher education presidents.

For his leadership on an international scale and for his many contributions to the advancement of higher education and enrichment of an emerging culture in Pakistan, President Diebold was decorated with prestigious gold medals from three Pakistani universities. The awards for educational eminence were presented during visits to the Edinboro campus by official Pakistani delegations.

President Diebold was also honored by the Government of Pakistan with the awarding of the degree of Doctor of Laws (honoris causa), presented at the Government House in the City of Karachi. The ceremony was attended by the presidents of the several Pakistani universities holding linkage agreements with Edinboro University, as well as many high-ranking officials of the Government of Pakistan and U.S. diplomatic officials.

A recently bestowed honor was President Diebold's appointment to the National Committee on U.S.-China Relations, the leading national, non-partisan, public affairs organization devoted to building constructive and durable relationships between the two countries. The appointment recognized his insight into the Chinese people and his experience with the academic linkage agreement he established with Zibo College in China's Shandong Province. Students and scholars have been at Edinboro University under terms of the formal linkage agreement since the 1986-87 academic year.

A staunch advocate of a statewide system of public universities in Pennsylvania, President Diebold supported the enabling legislation for the State System of Higher Education (Act 188 of 1982) and saw the State System come to existence in 1983 as a member of the transition team. He currently serves on the System's Executive Council of Presidents and on the boards of the Pennsylvania Academy for the Profession of Teaching, the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference, and the Dixon University Center at Harrisburg.

Athletic Director James K. McDonald

Edinboro University's athletic program was placed under the talented and aggressive leadership of Jim McDonald in July of 1981. Increased emphasis on fund raising to provide a sound scholarship foundation has become his top priority while numerous changes and innovations have also keyed the Scots' athletic program under his direction.

Through his efforts more than $5 million has been raised during the past twelve years. The funds generated by the energetic athletic director's efforts will be used to assist Edinboro's men and women athletes who compete in the Scots sixteen intercollegiate sports.

In addition to maintaining Edinboro's respected winning tradition in intercollegiate athletics, the former health and physical education professor has vastly expanded the University's summer activities.

Sixty camps were sponsored by the Fighting Scots Booster Club this past summer on the University's campus. Sox Harrison Stadium was the site for the Buffalo Bills-Pittsburgh Steelers first scrimmage, an event the veteran athletic director hopes to bring back to the area each year.

The personable athletic director also introduced Edinboro's Hall of Fame program which has evolved into an annual year-ending event to honor present and past athletes.

McDonald has been at Edinboro since 1962 and for 12 years served as the Fighting Scot basketball coach (1962-1975) and never experienced a losing season while his teams compiled an impressive 181 wins against only 89 losses. During that span, his cagers won four Western Division Pennsylvania Conference crowns, the PC state championship and two District 18 titles that netted trips to the NAIA National Tournament. His teams set 27 University records and made 19 post-season appearances while four of his players were named All-Americans.

Prior to accepting his position at Edinboro, McDonald served as assistant basketball coach in Erie, Pa. He is a 1956 graduate of Bridgeport High School in his home town of Bridgeport, West Virginia.

In 1960 he received a degree in chemistry and physical education from West Virginia Wesleyan College and he also holds a master's degree in health from the University of Buffalo.

As an undergraduate, he set nine school records at Wesleyan and was twice voted both AP and UPI basketball All-American. In 1960, he was the second leading scorer in the United States, averaging slightly over 33 points a game, and led his team to the national basketball tournament in Kansas City, Missouri. He was named to the NAIA's All-Tournament Team in 1959 and 1960.

In 1966, McDonald was selected Area Eight Coach of the Year by the eastern seaboard coaches and that same year was honored as one of the top ten finalists in the Coach of the Year national poll. McDonald's honors also include selection to the West Virginia All-Time College Basketball Team and membership in the West Virginia Sports Hall of Fame.

As a resident of Edinboro, McDonald has a record of extensive community involvement. He was Little League Baseball director for four years and also held a four-year post as a member of the General McLane School Board. He and his wife, Mary Lou, have three sons - Mark, Mike and Matthew.

1993 - Take "It" to Another Level

"It" in this case means success. Having made the NCAA II playoffs three of the past five years under head coach Tom Hollman, the Edinboro University Fighting Scots have established themselves as one of the nation's top small college programs. Now may be the time to take the "other step."

A playoff quarter finalist in 1990, the Scots' elite eight finish was the pinnacle of the program. But that small taste of post-season success has left the Boro anxious for more. If expectations and 1993 pre-season polls are any indication, this fall may be the year of the Scots. Picked as high as #2 by Football Digest and #9 by Host Communications (NCAA), Edinboro has opened the eyes of pollsters with their recent success. But the Boro's pre-season marks will make the opposition even more determined, thus creating a great challenge for the 1993 Fighting Scots.

Coming off their best regular season mark in 21 years, 8-1-1, the Scots, under Hollman, have won 37 of 55 (37-16-2) games including a sparkling 22-6-1 record in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference Western Division. When looking ahead to 1993, the schedule is what concerns the sixth-year mentor the most. "The conference is the conference. There are six tough opponents, any one of which can beat you," Hollman said. "Plus this year, we've added Ferris State (MI) and Elizabeth City (NC) while Buffalo (Division I-AA) and Millersville remain from last year. There will be no easy ones, that's for sure."

With ten games slated for '93, five home and five away, the challenge of the "road test" will determine the Scots' playoff chances. Under Hollman, the Scots boast a 23-3-1 (.870) mark at Sox Harrison Stadium but counter with a 14-13-1 (.518) record on the road.

A BREAKDOWN OF PERSONNEL:

Skill Positions

With returning starter Jody Dickerson at quarterback, the Scots will be solid under center. Having guided Edinboro to 15 wins in 22 games (15-6-1) since his freshman year, Dickerson is on pace to break every standard in the Edinboro record books. Last year, he tossed for 1,855 yards and 12 scores and rushed for 159 markers and two touchdowns. His 3,217 career passing yards rank him fifth all time on the Edinboro passing list. With the graduation of receivers Brian Heebsh, Paul Stone and Wrentie Martin, David Ashton (17 receptions, 210 yards, 2 touchdowns) is the Scots' top returning pass catcher.

In the backfield, PSAC West player of the year and All-American Larry Jackson returns. The junior topped the PSAC in rushing yards last year with 1,218 while his 17 rushing scores and 19 overall touchdowns were also tops in the conference. Jackson's touchdowns on the ground were the fourth best ever in conference history. Chris Snyder (30-128-2) is the returning front-runner for the fullback spot along with Tom Tedder (17-68) who is looking to return following knee surgery.

Offensive Line

All-American Mike Kegarise is one of the best in the country at his tackle position. At 6-7, 300 pounds, Kegarise leads an offensive front which includes tackle Tony Tighe, center Gordie Hitchcock and guard Chadd Wallick. The graduation of All-American Scott Nickel and tight end Heebsh leaves some holes to fill.

Defensive Line

The Scots return three quarters of their four-man front including 1993 pre-season All-American tackle Russell Cray (72 tackles, 9 sacks). End Devas Simmons (62 stops, 8 for loss, team high 5 forced fumbles) is also back along with tackle Rob Harmer (48 tackles).

Also expected to help along the defensive line will be returnee Otha Davidson (2 sacks, 4 tackles for loss) and Scot heavyweight wrestler Pat Schuster. The graduation of All-American Anthony Ross spells a void for the Scots but Davidson and Schuster are both able replacements.

Linebackers

The trio of All-American Jason Perkins, Michael Sims and Mike Edwards return to the second line of defense. Perkins, a pre-season first-team choice by Host Communications and The Sporting News, is back to round out a brilliant career. Currently seventh on the school's all-time hit list with 341 tackles, a year similar to 1992 (135 tackles, 19 for loss) will propel Perkins to second on the career tackle charts. His 30 tackles for loss, not including quarterback sacks, is the most in Edinboro history.

Sims had a banner season for a first year player in 1992, finishing fourth on the team with 84 tackles. His ten pass deflections tied for the team high. Edwards was close behind with 70 stops, including four for loss. His three forced fumbles was third best on the squad. Brian Lambert, a reserve last season (12 tackles) is greatly improved and will battle for a starting spot.

Secondary

If the Boro has major holes to fill, it is in the defensive backfield. Gone are All-Americans Michael Barnes and Georj Lewis. The pair combined to start 85 consecutive contests with cornerback Lewis penciled in for every one during his 45-game career.

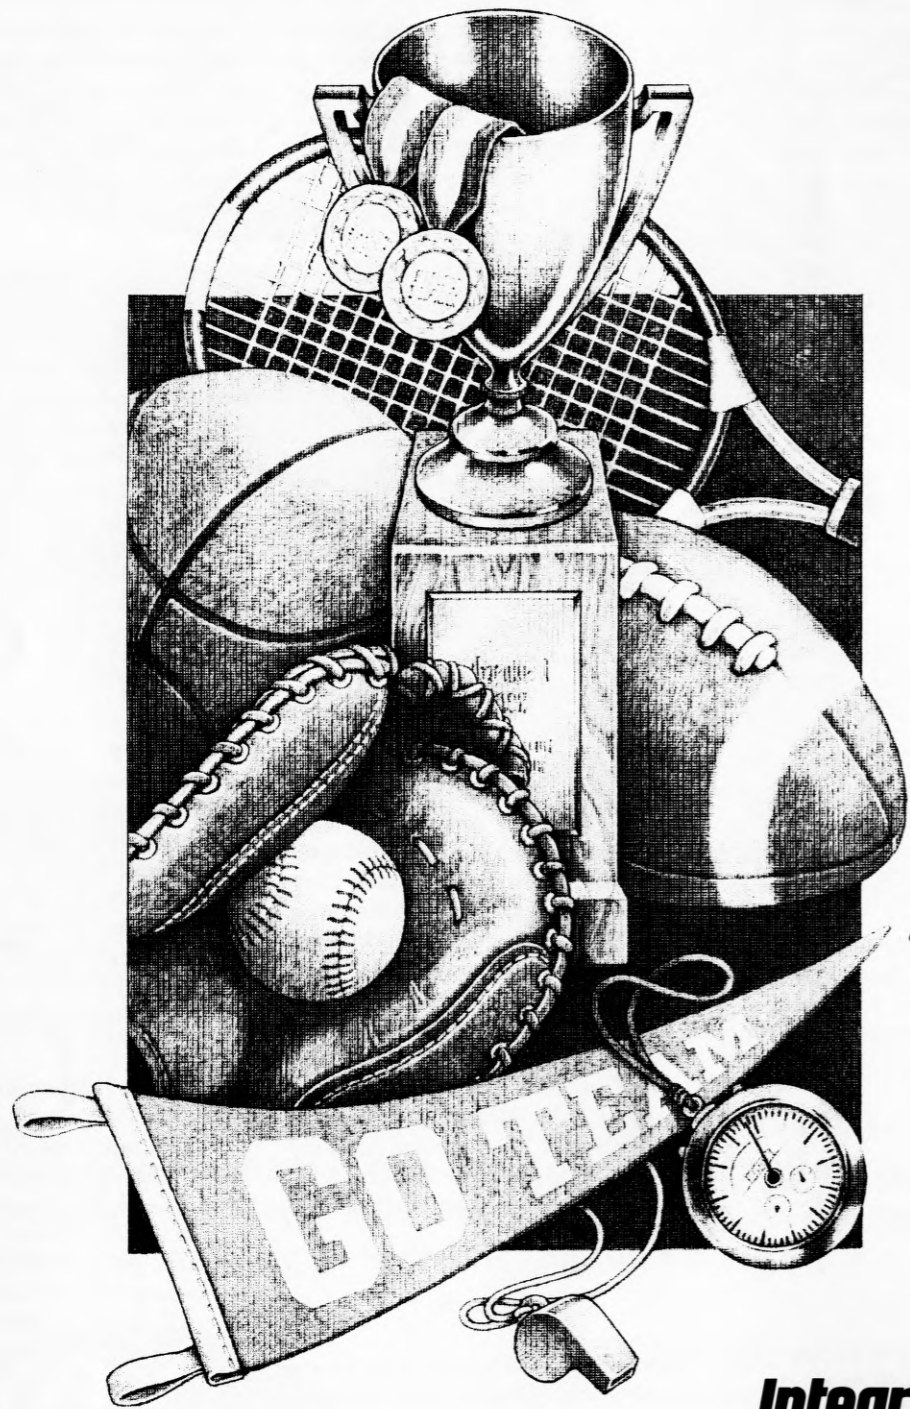

Returning are defensive back Mario Houston and safety Steve Russell. Houston had 50 stops, one interception and tied for the team lead with ten pass deflections in '92. Over his career, which began with All-PSAC West Rookie of the Year honors in 1990, Houston has been in on 188 stops, with seven interceptions and 38 deflections. His pass breakup total is second best on the all-time Boro list. Russell has been solid since his freshman campaign, tying for the team lead in interceptions each of his first two seasons. His seven career thefts project him to be Edinboro's all-time leader (13) at career's end. One of his five interceptions last season was returned 85 yards for a score.

Specialties

The return of All-American punter Gary Lhotsky adds to an already solid defense. A first-team All-PSAC West choice in 1992, Lhotsky led the conference in yards per punt averaging 40.1. His 133 punts over the past three years have averaged 37.7 ypp. Lhotsky's career best covered 65 yards against Shippensburg last season.

The Scot kicking game is a question mark as Scott Rupert (3-7 field goals and 21 of 27 PATs) tries to recover from a knee injury suffered as a member of the baseball team last spring.

Go Team! Best of luck for a great season!

Head Coach Tom Hollman

Tom Hollman

In January 1988, Edinboro University hired Tom Hollman, Athens, Ohio, as its eleventh head football coach in the school's history. Hollman came to Edinboro from Ohio University, where he was the defensive coordinator.

Hollman, beginning his sixth year, has the Scot program back in the national spotlight. At Edinboro, he has earned 37 wins against just 16 losses and two ties and owns an impressive 22-6-2 slate against the PSAC Western Division. The Scots have advanced to post-season play three of the past five years.

In 1989, he was named the top coach in the East Region by the National Football Coaches Association and also tabbed the top coach in the PSAC West. In 1990, he guided the Scots to their first-ever NCAA II playoff win as Edinboro routed Virginia Union and advanced to the national quarterfinals.

"Edinboro has been a great experience, and I like the direction of the program," Hollman said.

"As a coach, I have been fortunate to coach at many different levels, from high school to Division I. The Division II level here at Edinboro is very appealing to me in relation to my career goals. It is a great feeling to be a head coach at this level."

Hollman's educational background begins with a high school diploma from Memorial High School in St. Mary's, Ohio, followed by his undergraduate degree in education from Ohio Northern University in 1968. Three years later Hollman received his master of science degree in education from Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio.

While at Ohio Northern, Hollman was a three-year starter for the football team and a two-year performer as a defensive back and offensive end during his junior and senior years. He holds the school record with 13 career interceptions and earned All-American and All-District honors during the 1966 and 1967 seasons. Hollman also lettered in baseball for three years during his stay at Ohio Northern.

A chronological look at Hollman's coaching career begins in 1968 as an assistant coach at Sidney High School in Sidney, Ohio. From there, Hollman moved on to Greenville High School in Ohio where he became head coach from 1971-73. His Greenville squads posted an impressive 26-2-2 mark during his three-year stay.

Hollman then moved on to Fremont Ross High School as head coach for the 1974 and 1975 seasons, where his squad recorded 15 wins against three setbacks and two ties. Fremont was the Buckeye Conference champ in 1974, unbeaten at 9-0-1.

In 1976, Hollman moved on to the collegiate ranks where he was the defensive coordinator for his alma mater at Ohio Northern University.

The following year, Hollman accepted the head coach position at Wooster College (OH) and guided his squad to the best four-year record in the school history (24-11-1).

In 1981, Hollman took an assistant coaching spot with Ball State University which he held through the 1984 campaign. Then, beginning in 1985 Hollman held the defensive coordinator position at Ohio University.

"It has been a very comfortable transition for me," Hollman added. "I have found the community to be supportive and the administration is giving me every opportunity to be successful here at Edinboro," he concluded.

Tom resides in Edinboro with his wife, Kandi, and four children, Mari, Jon, Tim and Denise.

Assistant Coaches

Scott Browning – Secondary

Moving to the defensive side of the ball, from the offensive backfield, Scott brings a wealth of coaching experience in his eighth year at the 'Boro. Under his guidance the Scot defense has intercepted 78 passes the past five seasons. He has guided the fortunes of All-Americans Michael Willis, Wade Smith, Georj Lewis, and Mike Barnes, and PSAC Rookie of the Year Mario Houston. Offensively, he coached former greats Floyd Faulkner and Ross Rankin.

Scott came to Edinboro from Ohio State University, where he coached receivers and running backs. Prior to his start at OSU, Browning coached at Worthington and Dayton-Fairview high schools in Ohio, from 1979-81. Then, as a graduate assistant, he coached the defensive secondary at New Mexico State in 1982.

In 1983, he mentored the receivers at Idaho State University which advanced to the Division I-AA playoffs.

Browning earned a master's degree in education administration from New Mexico State in 1983, and a BS in education from Ohio State in 1981. Earlier, before transferring to OSU, Scott attended Capital University where he played football for one season. Browning was a four-year letterman in four sports at Loudenville High School (OH) prior to his collegiate days. Scott is married to the former Lynn Hook and resides in Edinboro.

Dan Gierlak – Running Backs

Dan Gierlak enters his seventh season as a full-time coach with his responsibilities concerning the running backs. He is also the head women's softball coach for the Scots and led the squad to the PSAC playoffs in 1990.

Gierlak came to the 'Boro from Thiel College (Pa.) where he coached the defensive secondary for the 1984 season. Dan, a starter and three-year letterwinner for the Plaid in the secondary, moved on to the semi-pro ranks with the Chicago Cowboys. During his short stint with the Cowboys, Gierlak's squad gained national championship honors in 1984 and runner up nationally in the 1985 season. Gierlak brings both playing and coaching experience to the staff, giving the Scot players an added plus on the offensive side of the ball. As backfield coach, he has guided former Harlon Hill finalist Elbert Cole and Boro All-Americans Lester Frye and Larry Jackson.

Originally from Buffalo, New York, Dan graduated from Edinboro with a degree in health and physical education. He and his wife, the former Amy Adams and two-year-old daughter, Alexandria Alicia, reside in Edinboro.

Mark Niswonger – Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

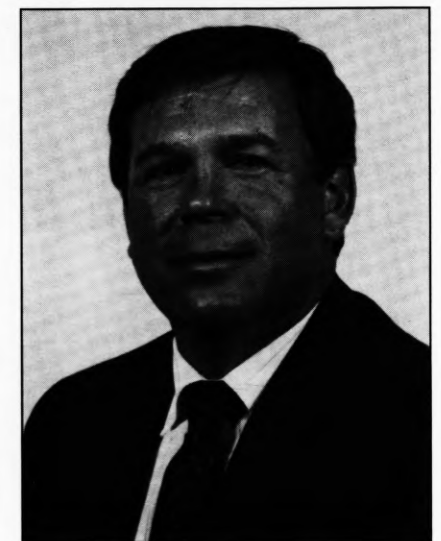

Mark Niswonger, a veteran of the coaching ranks for 20 years, begins his sixth year with the Plaid as defensive coordinator and linebacker coach. Former understudy of head coach Tom Hollman at Greenville High School, Mark brings extensive experience both on and off the field to the Scot coaching staff. He has helped mold the Scot defense into one of the most respected squads in the country over the past five years.

His coaching stint began back while attending Findlay when he was the head scout for Arlington High School. His first job after college was as defensive coordinator for Bryan High School (OH) where the team earned a 9-1 record. The next two seasons, Niswonger was the defensive coordinator at West Carrollton High School (OH) where his squad posted an impressive 17-1-2 slate.

After West Carrollton, he then returned to graduate school at Ball State University where he helped coach the tight ends and offensive linemen.

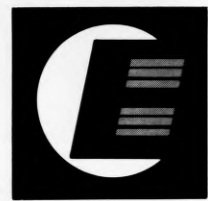

From 1981-84, Niswonger was the head coach at Franklin City schools and was named "coach of the year" in 1982 when his squad won its first league championship in 18 years. He then moved on to the collegiate ranks in 1984 at Manchester College as defensive coordinator and then back to his alma mater from 85-87 as their secondary coach.

Niswonger's education includes an undergraduate degree in physical education and political science from Findlay and a MA in physical education from Ball State. Mark and his wife Patty and two-year-old daughter, Megan Marie, and eight-month-old son, Joushua Jay, reside in Edinboro.

Smith also has past association with Coach Hollman as he was a graduate assistant working with the defensive line under Hollman at Ohio University. The following season with the Bobcats, Smith moved to the offensive side of the ball as tight end/tackle coach for OU. He also worked extensively with the weight training program as a strength coach. Gene is both the coordinator of recruiting and strength and conditioning for the Scot football squad.

He directed the fortunes of five All-Americans including Scot first-teamer Curtis Rose, Scott Nickel, Mike Kegarise, and Joe Brooks. Rose signed a free agent contract with the Miami Dolphins of the National Football League.

He brings over 11 years of coaching experience to the Scot linemen. He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Bluffton College, in 1981 directing the linebackers. Later on in his coaching stint he turned his attention to the offensive line. He played linebacker at Bluffton from 1976-79 and he graduated in 1980 with a BA in education.

After his coaching tenure at Bluffton that spanned 1981-87, Stults took the offensive line duties at the University of Cincinnati in 1988.

Boro DL – Nowhere to Run, No Place to Hide

After an opening day loss to Ferris State, the Fighting Scot football team has looked virtually unstoppable. Each part of this year's squad has played a vital role in the Boro's continued success, but perhaps no one unit has been more solid from game-to-game than defensive line coach Gene Smith's tenacious four. Take heed opposing offenses, when you lineup opposite these guys, there's nowhere to run, no place to hide.

Through seven games, Smith's men have spearheaded a defense that has held opponents to a stifling 87.4 yards per game on the ground, numbers that rank eighth nationally and first in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference. Even stingier is the Edinboro defense at home, where they are giving up an average of 44.3 rushing yards per contest.

"One of our goals in preseason camp," says Smith, "was to be first in the conference in rushing defense. The best rush defense that you can have starts with the four guys up front."

If opposing offenses think they're going to run all over Coach Smith's defensive line, they had better change their game plans. This year marks the sixth season that Smith has been guiding the Boro defensive front. During that time, the Scots have given up only 116.7 YPG and have ranked among Division II's top ten at some point each season.

The numbers that this year's front four have been putting up are a reflection of both the type of player that Smith looks for and the way this year's foursome fits that mold. "Being a defensive line coach, I really believe that the strength of the football team starts with what you have up front defensively," says Smith. "They can control or be a major factor in the outcome of the game. The position of defensive lineman requires mental and physical toughness and if you line up for me, you had better be one tough hombre."

If it's tough hombres that Smith is looking for, he's found four of them in senior defensive tackles Russell Cray and Rob Harmer, senior end Devas Simmons and sophomore end Pat Schuster.

Through seven games, these four have combined for 170 tackles (101 solos), four forced fumbles, two recoveries, one interception and five passes defended. Most impressively, they have introduced opposing quarterbacks to the turf 24 times, accounting for all but four of the Boro's 28 sacks.

Cray, a three year starter and the most experienced member of the group, has once again been nothing short of spectacular. He owns 167 career tackles, and with seven sacks in '93, he ranks fourth among Edinboro's all-time leaders with 18. "He is probably my best pure pass rusher with exceptional quickness off the ball," Smith says of Cray. "If you watch the films, Russell is always around the football."

Despite starting only five games this season due to an ankle injury, Harmer is enjoying another fine season with 31 tackles and six sacks. "We've been lucky to have some depth at Harmer's position," states the d-line boss. "Otha Davidson and Matt Gentile each filled in rather well in Harmer's two game absence."

However, Smith has nothing but the highest of regards for Harmer. "Rob exemplifies the word toughness to the fullest. Furthermore, he has great leadership qualities, both verbally and with his actions. There is only one way that Rob does things – be it in the weight room or on the practice field – and that's at full go."

In his second season as a starting defensive end, Devas Simmons' performance can be summed up with one word according to Smith, and that is "aggressive." "He is not only an aggressive defensive end but a very aggressive special teams player as well. He's one of my guys who takes a lot of pride in his special teams play, and I think that carries over to the other guys on the defensive side of the ball as well as the other guys on the team that are involved in special teams. "So far in 1993, Simmons has totaled 36 tackles, including 20 solos, with two sacks and has batted down three opposing quarterback passes.

On the other end, Schuster has quickly matured into his starting role by recording a team high nine sacks and registering third on the team with 52 tackles. In fact, Schuster has been astonishing to everyone except Smith. "Pat really hasn't been a surprise because I played him in the last two games of last year and I just kinda threw him in there without much coaching. This year, I've had a chance to coach him and I've noticed that being good at what he does is important to Pat. He's not a guy who is overly vocal, but you know he's on the practice field and you know he is in the game. He is such a great leverage player and he creates a lot of havoc."

Smith calls his front four the "Down Linebackers," as all of them are players who were converted fullbacks or linebackers. "A couple of them were a little reluctant to play defensive line when we first suggested it," recalls Smith. Right now it seems the only ones who may be reluctant to play are the ones who are lining up opposite this fearsome defensive unit, a group that has knocked starting quarterbacks out of three games.

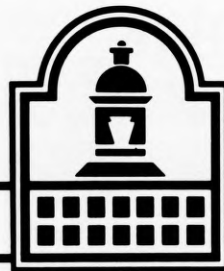

Smith realizes the advantages of being able to coach at one of the top Division II programs in the nation. "One of the reasons we've been so good, is the fact that every day in practice we get to work against pretty good people," referring to the Fighting Scot offense. "That's a key to how well you're going to play on Saturday and we've had good opportunities each day in practice."

Even though Smith plays a large role in what his front men have achieved, he is quick to tell you otherwise, remembering a quote from former Chicago Bears coach Mike Ditka. As Ditka said, "Some players have more athletic ability than you have coaching knowledge."

"That's the truth of it," says Smith, "because the better athletes you're lining up with, the better coach you are. This year in particular, I've got guys who absolutely love playing college football. It makes things a lot easier when you don't have to go out and motivate your guys to practice on a daily basis. I've got a lot of respect for these guys because it's not so much the coaching they are receiving, it's them going out on Saturday, lining up and utilizing their God-given ability."

According to Smith, what makes these guys so special is the fact that they're not just the situational type players you see so often in today's game. "These four guys fit the bill in terms of what it takes to play in our defensive scheme. They are four-down players with strength to stuff the run as well as the stamina to rush the passer. You must be an aggressive defensive lineman who attacks the line of scrimmage to play football for our defense."

Attention running backs, attention quarterbacks, there's nowhere to run, no place to hide. (Written previous to week eight.)

STATE SYSTEM OF HIGHER EDUCATION
COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

James H. McCormick
Chancellor

Greetings:

On behalf of the Board of Governors for the State System of Higher Education and the Office of the Chancellor, I am pleased to welcome you to today's exciting athletic event.

This year, the State System celebrates its tenth anniversary. During the past decade, student athletes throughout the 14 state-owned universities have competed among the best in the nation as part of the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC). Last season, over 40 PSAC teams participated in regional and national championship competitions; many were All-Americans and top scholar athletes. The efforts of these women and men who represent their universities and the entire State System in the athletic arena and the classroom are applauded.

The excellent university coaching staffs who provide knowledge, leadership, and encouragement also deserve recognition for their contributions. For the special talents which they exhibit as teachers and mentors, we are grateful.

The Board of Governors, the university presidents, the campus communities, and I hope you will continue to support our State System universities and their athletic programs during the 1993-94 academic year. We appreciate your attendance.

Sincerely,

James H. McCormick

Scot Success in the Classroom

Under the direction of Tom Hollman, the Scots have not only excelled on the field but in the classroom.

Over the past two years, 45 different student-athletes have earned semester grade point averages of 3.0 or better while eleven current Fighting Scots have cumulative point averages above the mark. Twenty-one football players made up over 25% of the 79 student-athletes and support personnel that were honored last spring for their academic and athletic success.

The Scots boasted a pair of academic All-Americans last season as graduating seniors Sean Seibert and Brian Heebsh were recognized as National Scholar-Athletes by the College Football Preview magazine. Seibert earned his political science degree in just seven semesters and finished his academic career with a perfect 4.0 QPA last fall. Seibert's fame on the field can be measured in leading the Plaid to their only NCAA II playoff win in 1990. Heebsh was named second team All-PSAC West last year for his efforts on the field.

Two other Scots deserving special recognition are All-Americans Georj Lewis and Mike Barnes. Combining to start 85 games in the Edinboro defensive backfield during their careers the two-some were also nominated for the NCAA Minority Post-Graduate Scholarship this past winter by the University. Over the last four years, Lewis started every game for the Boro and graduated in business administration with better than a 3.0 cumulative grade average.

The State System of Higher Education

- ✓ The state universities spent the first 100 years of existence training teachers for Pennsylvania's schools. The Normal School Act of 1857 established regional teacher training institutions throughout the Commonwealth. The School Code of 1911 called for the state purchase of all normal schools, and by 1921 the present configuration of 14 state-owned universities was established. The 14 normal schools evolved from state normal schools, to state teachers colleges, to state colleges. On November 12, 1982, Act 188 was signed into law establishing on July 1, 1993 the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education. Thus, the 13 former state colleges joined with Indiana University of Pennsylvania to achieve university status. The universities have a cumulative history of 1,600 years.
- ✓ There are 14 universities in the State System of Higher Education with three branch campuses and the McKeever Environmental Center.
- ✓ The total student population among the System universities is 99,850. While 86% of students are from Pennsylvania, they represent many other states and foreign countries.
- ✓ The total university campus has over 4,000 acres in 19 Pennsylvania counties. Buildings for classrooms, residences, administration and student support number 719.
- ✓ Collectively the 14 universities offer 225 undergraduate and 98 graduate degree programs, led by 5,500 full-time faculty members.
- ✓ An average 75% of undergraduate students receive some form of financial assistance to help meet costs.
- ✓ Several study abroad programs are available in System universities. System universities are part of the Pennsylvania Council for International Education.
- ✓ All the universities support life-long learning programs throughout the academic year. Many feature Elderhostel.
- ✓ Most universities have honors programs, student counseling and career planning, cooperative education, and internship programs.
- ✓ System library holdings total more than 5.4 million volumes and 3.5 million periodicals, microforms, and audio materials.
- ✓ The universities in the State System of Higher Education are fully accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, and several appropriate national professional organizations.
- ✓ System graduates living in the Commonwealth number over 271,000.
