Edinboro Football Flourishes Under Hollman Scots Hope to Contend in PSAC, NCAA Division II

The Edinboro University of Pennsylvania Fighting Scots enter the 1995 football season hoping to continue an impressive run of success the program has enjoyed the past seven years under the leadership of head coach Tom Hollman.

Edinboro has not only established one of the premier football programs in the PSAC, but the Fighting Scots also have enjoyed their share of national recognition in recent years as well. With 13 starters returning from last year's 7-3 squad that was ranked 17th in the final NCAA II poll, Edinboro enters the upcoming campaign ranked among the nation's elite once again in several pre-season polls.

Here's a glance at a few Highlights of the Hollman Era . . .

- Four NCAA Division II playoff appearances in the past six years (1989, 1990, 1992, 1993).
- A 52-22-2 overall record, including a 31-9-2 mark in PSAC Western Division play.
- Six consecutive seasons ranked in the NCAA Division II top 20 in the final poll.
- Two players selected as finalists for the Harlon Hill Award presented annually to the NCAA Division II player of the year – Elbert Cole, 1989 (third place) and Ernest Priester, 1990 (runner-up). Edinboro has produced 38 All-Americans on 35 different teams since 1988.
- Eight national scholar athletes since 1991.

President Foster F. Diebold

Now in the final year of his presidency, Foster F. Diebold will retire in the summer of 1996 after having served Edinboro University of Pennsylvania, the State System of Higher Education and the people of Pennsylvania for 17 years as the 14th chief executive officer of the institution of higher learning that has come to acclaim under his leadership as one of Pennsylvania's and the nation's finest. Only one other chief executive, Joseph Cooper, who was principal of the then Edinboro State Normal School for 29 years between 1863 and 1892, has served a longer term of office than President Diebold.

Much has been accomplished during President Diebold's tenure. He has brought a vigorous educational and moral leadership, a strengthening of the spirit of community, a clear sense of mission and purpose, and a new dimension of multiculturalism and diversity. The University has returned to and maintained financial health. Academic programs have been emphasized and improved, with more than 100 degree programs now offered. A renewed commitment to teacher education came with his establishment of the Center for Excellence in Teaching. Significant facilities and grounds improvements have been achieved, with several of the historic campus structures restored to their original splendor, a student union expansion completed, and an Alumni House constructed. Enrollment gains have been unprecedented in both numbers and academic quality. International linkage agreements with 15 educational institutions and organizations in four countries have positioned Edinboro University as a leader in international education both in the U.S. and abroad. And Edinboro University's program for students with disabilities, one of the first in the nation, continues to enjoy wide recognition as one of the finest at any college or university in the country.

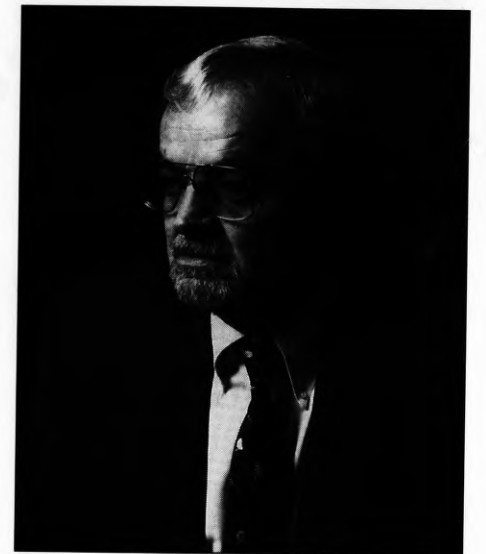

The Orange, New Jersey, native is a graduate of Monmouth College and also holds a master of arts in educational administration from Seton Hall University. He has met coursework requirements for a doctorate in education at Rutgers University and is currently completing the dissertation requirement for the Ph.D. program in higher education at the University of Pittsburgh.

Prior to his presidency of Edinboro University, President Diebold was president of the University of Alaska from 1977 to 1979. Before that, he was executive secretary to the Board of Regents and special assistant to the president of the University of Alaska Statewide System. From 1969 to 1976, he was director of Development and Planning at Kean College in New Jersey and a member of the graduate faculty at that institution; and from 1965 to 1969, he was assistant superintendent of the Neptune Township (New Jersey) Public Schools.

Recognized for his extensive experience in the field of education management, President Diebold's scholarly achievements in the discipline of applied ethics in higher education deserve special mention. The model statement he authored for the American Association of State Colleges and Universities, "Ethical Practices for College Presidents," was unanimously adopted by that professional organization and published as policy for the chief executives of its nearly 400 member institutions nationwide. It is the first formally adopted ethical practices and policy statement for higher education presidents.

President Diebold has been honored by the Government of Pakistan with the awarding of the degree of Doctor of Laws (honoris causa), presented at the Government House in the City of Karachi. The ceremony was attended by the presidents of the several Pakistani universities holding linkage agreements with Edinboro University, as well as many high-ranking officials of the Government of Pakistan and U.S. diplomatic officials.

A staunch advocate of a statewide system of public universities in Pennsylvania, President Diebold supported the enabling legislation for the State System of Higher Education (Act 188 of 1982) and saw the State System come to existence in 1983 as a member of the transition team. He currently serves on the System's Executive Council of Presidents and on the boards of the Pennsylvania Academy for the Profession of Teaching, the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference, and the Dixon University Center at Harrisburg.

President Diebold's stature in American higher education has been recognized by several high-level appointments. He was named to the National Committee on U.S.-China Relations, the leading national organization devoted to building constructive relationships between the two countries. He was also appointed to the Leadership Council of the Northeast-Midwest Institute, a regional component of the Center for Regional Policy, and to the Pennsylvania Humanities Council, the private, non-profit group promoting statewide public understanding of the humanities.

Go Fighting Scots!

The Alumni Association of Edinboro University of Pennsylvania is proud of the University's continued excellence in academics, athletics, and special programs, and pleased to continue its support of the Fighting Scot football team!

Athletic Director Jody Mooradian

Jody Mooradian begins her second year as athletic director at Edinboro University of Pennsylvania. She joined the Edinboro staff in August of 1993 as associate athletic director and senior women's administrator for the Fighting Scots before being named athletic director a year ago.

A New Hampshire native, Mooradian earned a bachelor's degree in political science at the University of New Hampshire in 1981, a master's in public administration at the University of Delaware, and a doctorate at the Delaware Law School. She served as a New Hampshire state representative for District 4 from 1980-82 and is a member of the New Hampshire and Pennsylvania bar associations.

Before dedicating herself to a career in intercollegiate athletics, Mooradian served five years as a practicing attorney. She handled all aspects of insurance litigation for Devine, Millimet and Branch of Manchester, New Hampshire, for nearly two years after serving as in-house counsel for the CIGNA Insurance Company from 1987 to 1991.

In 1993, Mooradian completed an administrative internship with the athletic department at the University of California in Los Angeles. While there, she handled NCAA compliance and eligibility matters and worked with tutorial services budgets and Title IX evaluations. She performed similar duties in her first position at Edinboro where she assumed responsibility for financial aid for Edinboro's more than 300 student athletes. She was also responsible for scheduling and administering Edinboro University's intercollegiate athletic events, as well as the University's outstanding summer camp program, and overseeing compliance for NCAA Division I and Division II sports programs.

In her current position, she is responsible for overseeing the daily operation of the Fighting Scots' 16-sport intercollegiate athletics program, including the supervision of a staff of more than 40 professionals and an annual budget of $1.5 million. She is director of all home, conference and NCAA athletic events and oversees NCAA and PSAC compliance and eligibility matters, financial aid, and scheduling for all athletes.

As athletic director, Mooradian provides leadership for the Fighting Scots athletic department and is a key figure on the campus and within the Pennsylvania Conference. A member of the President's Cabinet, she has been named chairperson of the Gender Equity Committee and was recently appointed to the PSAC Executive Committee.

Her father, Andy Mooradian, was athletic director at the University of New Hampshire for 22 years.

Head Coach Tom Hollman

In January 1988, Edinboro University hired Tom Hollman, Athens, Ohio, as its eleventh head football coach in the school's history. Hollman came to Edinboro from Ohio University, where he was the defensive coordinator.

Hollman, beginning his eighth year, has the Scot program back in the national spotlight. At Edinboro, he has earned 52 wins against just 22 losses and two ties and owns an impressive 31-9-2 slate against the PSAC Western Division. Throughout his seven year career at Edinboro, he has never had a losing season. In addition, he has coached two Harlon Hill Award finalists, and the schools career leaders in passing, rushing, receiving and interceptions. The Scots have advanced to post-season play four of the past six years.

In 1989, he was named the top coach in the East Region by the National Football Coaches Association and also tabbed the top coach in the PSAC West. In 1990, he guided the Scots to their first-ever NCAA II playoff win as Edinboro routed Virginia Union and advanced to the national quarterfinals.

"As a coach, I have been fortunate to coach at many different levels, from high school to Division I. The Division II level here at Edinboro is very appealing to me in relation to my career goals. It is a great feeling to be a head coach at this level."

Hollman's educational background begins with a high school diploma from Memorial High School in St. Mary's, Ohio, followed by his undergraduate degree in education from Ohio Northern University in 1968. Three years later Hollman received his master of science degree in education from Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio.

While at Ohio Northern, Hollman was a three-year starter for the football team and a two-year performer as a defensive back and offensive end during his junior and senior years. He holds the school record with 13 career interceptions and earned All-American and All-District honors during the 1966 and 1967 seasons. Hollman also lettered in baseball for three years during his stay at Ohio Northern.

A chronological look at Hollman's coaching career begins in 1968 as an assistant coach at Sidney High School in Sidney, Ohio. From there, Hollman moved on to Greenville High School in Ohio where he became head coach from 1971-73. His Greenville squads posted an impressive 26-2-2 mark during his three-year stay.

Hollman then moved on to Fremont Ross High School as head coach for the 1974 and 1975 seasons, where his squad recorded 15 wins against three setbacks and two ties. Fremont was the Buckeye Conference champ in 1974, unbeaten at 9-0-1.

In 1976, Hollman moved on to the collegiate ranks where he was the defensive coordinator for his alma mater at Ohio Northern University.

The following year, Hollman accepted the head coach position at Wooster College (OH) and guided his squad to the best four-year record in the school history (24-11-1).

In 1981, Hollman took an assistant coaching spot with Ball State University which he held through the 1984 campaign. Then, beginning in 1985 Hollman held the defensive coordinator position at Ohio University.

Tom resides in Edinboro with his wife, Kandi, and four children, Mari, Jon, Tim and Denise.

1995 Preview – Reloading or Rebuilding?

Replacing players each year is a challenge – but replacing greatness is another. Gone from a season ago is the school's all-time leading rusher, passer and interception leader.

Whether 1995 turns into a season of reloading or rebuilding remains a mystery but it is likely the program's foundation and well-deserved reputation will have the Scot program back in the limelight again this fall.

Entering his eighth season directing the Boro fortunes, head coach Tom Hollman returns 14 starters and 33 lettermen to a squad that posted a 7-3 mark a year ago. In '94, the Scots earned a #17 ranking at season's end marking the sixth consecutive season Edinboro had finished among the nation's top 20. Since '91, the Plaid has earned two trips to the NCAA II championship field of 16 and posted an impressive 30-12-1 overall record.

The task at hand in '95 will be filling the shoes of record-setting All-Americans Larry Jackson, Jody Dickerson and Steve Russell. What makes this season even more of challenge is the Boro must look for replacements while playing, arguably, the toughest schedule in school history. Difficult from the beginning, the Scots open with a home contest against Hillsdale, Division II's winningest program. The 10-game ledger also features non-conference road games at Division I-AA Appalachian State and Division II power Portland State, while the Boro's cross-over home game from the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) Eastern Division is vastly improved Mansfield. The divisional slate consists of home games against Lock Haven, California and IUP whereas the Boro treks to Shippensburg, Slippery Rock and Clarion. A strong road team the past three regular seasons (12-2-1), the Scots successes in '95 will again be based on their abilities to continue winning away from Sox Harrison Stadium.

A Breakdown of Personnel

Skill Positions

Traditionally a strength for the team has turned into the biggest question mark for '95. With the departure of Jackson and Dickerson, the Scots lose over 12,000 yards of total offense. Simply stated, the Boro's success offensively will parallel the progression of junior quarterback Chris Hart. A backup the past two seasons, Hart has played in 16 games, completing 38% of his passes for 112 yards, one score and one interception. The running back spot is solid with the return of Tony Brinson (221 yards, 2 TDs) and the addition of highly-touted Gerald Thompson. Look for the Scots to rely heavily on the running game to assist Hart's development. The wideout spot is open with the departure of big-play man Lateef Walters. Terry Roberts, who has averaged nearly 27 yards per catch the past two years, must step up in '95.

Offensive Line

If who is throwing, running or catching the ball is a question, then the foundation for '95 will be the return of the entire offensive line from a year ago. All-American tackle Jeremy O'Day is outstanding and will team with center Det Betti, guards Chad Wallick and Chris Barney and tackle Tom Lavis to secure the attack. Jesse Trevino also has plenty of game experience from a year ago. Tight end Todd Henne (15 receptions, 158 yards, 2 TDs) was named second team PSAC-West a year ago and returns as the squad's top pass catcher. John Sabo (6, 53, 1 td) is also solid.

Defensive Line

Another crew which returns intact is the defensive front. All-American end Pat Schuster (65 tackles, 10 sacks) is closing in on the school's all-time sack record. Last season, Schuster registered 22 total tackles behind the line for -103 yards. All conference end Bryan Lambert (73 stops, 7 sacks) also returns along with tackles

Matt Gentile (46 tackles) and Al Bass (32, 2 recoveries). Rich Jones (21 stops, 6 games) is also back while junior college transfer Jeff Traversy should step in and have an immediate impact.

Linebackers

All conference performer Michael Sims returns to anchor the second line of defense. Sims led the squad with 124 total tackles a year ago including 85 solo hits. He was in on four tackles for loss and intercepted one pass. With the departure of All-American Michael Edwards, the Scots may face a void here. Jerry Roberts, who recorded 16 hits in a reserve role a year ago, may be the one to step up. Emery Martin (9 stops, 3 games) and transfer Vanroy Williams (6-2, 235) could also play major roles for the Scots.

Secondary

Gone is All-American Steve Russell, the team's all-time interception leader but three other starters, with plenty of big-game experience return. Both cornerbacks, Marty Williams and Keith Cushenberry, earned second team all-west selections in '94. Williams was fourth on the squad with 68 stops including four tackles for loss, one interception and six deflections. Cushenberry registered 36 tackles and was second on the team with two picks. Rick Walker, a part-time starter through his career, is looking to recover from last year's shoulder injury. He contributed 39 hits in just six games in '94.

Specialties

The Boro faces two holes to fill with the graduation of veteran placekicker Scott Rupert and the departure of Eric Wagner. In addition, with the graduation of Russell and Walters, the Scots must find replacements to return kicks and punts.

Scot Success in the Classroom

Progression of the student-athlete has always been a priority for Coach Tom Hollman and his staff. This past year, the tradition of success on the field and in the classroom continued for the Fighting Scot football program. A pair of starters, tight end Todd Henne and safety Rick Walker, not only had quality years on the gridiron for the Scots but were recognized as national scholar-athletes by College Football Preview magazine. The pair were also honored as top student-athletes by the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference and Edinboro University. Both students currently own cumulative grade point marks of better than 3.5. In 1994, Henne earned PSAC-West second team all star honors for his 15 catches for 158 yards and a pair of scores while Walker recorded 39 tackles, 20 solo, in just six games due to a shoulder injury.

Edinboro Hosts Hillsdale in '95 Season Opener

Winningest NCAA Division II Program Invades Sox Harrison Stadium

THE GAME

The Fighting Scots of Edinboro University of Pennsylvania and the Hillsdale (MI) College Chargers, two teams with NCAA Division II post-season playoff aspirations, will square off Saturday afternoon (Sept. 2) in the 1995 football season opener for both schools.

Kickoff is set for 1 p.m. at Edinboro's Sox Harrison Stadium.

THE RECORDS

Edinboro is coming off a 7-3 campaign in 1994. The Fighting Scots, who advanced to the NCAA Division II playoffs in 1989, 1990, 1992 and 1993, missed qualifying for the post-season field by virtue of the team's 24-20 loss the last week of the season at Clarion. EUP posted a 4-2 record in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference Western Division.

Hillsdale won six of its final seven games after a 1-3 start to finish the '94 season with a 7-4 overall mark. The Chargers outscored their final seven opponents by an average of 43-10.

THE RIVALRY

In the first-ever meeting between the teams last year, Edinboro jumped out to a 24-6 halftime lead on the road then held off a late Hillsdale rally to pull out a 31-28 victory.

Edinboro had its large halftime lead trimmed to three, 24-21 early in the fourth quarter, as Hillsdale scored a pair of TDs. But Edinboro All-American Larry Jackson put the game out of reach with an 11-yard run with 3:11 remaining. Hillsdale scored a TD with two seconds to play for the final margin.

Quarterback Jody Dickerson completed 19 of 28 passes for a career-high 334 yards. Lateef Walters also set a Fighting Scot record with 12 receptions for 229 yards and two TDs.

THE COACHES

Tom Hollman begins his eighth year as head coach at Edinboro. During his tenure, the Fighting Scots have compiled a 52-22-2 overall mark (.697), including a 31-9-2 mark in the PSAC West. Edinboro has advanced to the NCAA Division II playoffs in four of his seven seasons (1989-90-92-93) and the Scots have never had a losing season under Hollman.

Before joining the EUP staff in January of 1988, Hollman was the defensive coordinator at Ohio University for three years (1985-87). He also compiled a 24-11-1 mark as head coach at Wooster (OH) College (1977-81), giving him a 76-33-3 overall record in 11 seasons as a collegiate head coach.

Dick Lowry enters his 16th season as head coach at Hillsdale. He has guided the Chargers to a 121-45-2 overall mark (.726) during his tenure, capturing six conference titles and qualifying for the NAIA playoffs five times.

Lowry joined the Hillsdale staff in 1980 after serving as head coach at Wayne (MI) State University for six years. He compiled a 38-21-1 record at Wayne (.642), giving him a 159-66-3 overall mark (.704) in 21 seasons as a college head coach.

WINNING TRADITIONS

Both Edinboro and Hillsdale have proud winning gridiron traditions.

Hillsdale has won more football games than any other NCAA Division II program in history, posting a 498-305-46 record in 104 years of competition (includes games played as an NAIA affiliate).

The Chargers, who have won four more games than Pittsburg (KS) State's 494, should become the first NCAA Division II football program to win 500 games. Hillsdale captured the NAIA national championship in 1985, and added a conference title in 1992.

While Edinboro has posted a 234-277-24 overall mark in 66 seasons of competition, the Fighting Scots have enjoyed much greater success the past three decades. Edinboro is...

- 156-89-10 since 1970
- 102-51-4 since 1980
- 39-15-2 since 1990

SEASON OPENER

Edinboro has posted a 3-4 record in season openers during the Hollman era. Three of the four losses were at Division I-AA programs, Youngstown State in 1991 and Liberty in both 1988 and '89.

Edinboro is 19-12-4 in season openers since 1960.

QUOTING COACH HOLLMAN

"We're anxious to start. Hillsdale is a very challenging opener for us, especially since we have several new players in key positions. Hillsdale has had an excellent program for many years — they're well-coached and play a very physical brand of football. They also play in an excellent football league, so we'll need to play mistake-free football to have success against them."

UP NEXT

The Fighting Scots will hit the road for a pair of games against nationally ranked opponents, Sept. 9 at Appalachian (NC) State, which was ranked sixth in the Division I-AA pre-season poll, and Sept. 16 at Portland (OR) State, which was tied for fourth in the poll with PSAC rival Indiana.

Hillsdale will host St. Francis of Illinois next Saturday.

Pennsylvania Conference Notes

There are several important regional match-ups this week that could play a key role in the selection of post-season playoff teams from the Northeast region.

In addition to the Edinboro/Hillsdale match-up, fourth-ranked Indiana (PA) visits No. 13 Grand Valley (MI) State in another game featuring PSAC and Midwest Intercollegiate Football Conference opponents. Bloomsburg, which posted an 8-3 record in 1994, will travel to No. 19 New Haven (CN), while California, Clarion and Shippensburg all play West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference foes.

Schuster Anxious for Season, Boro Sack Record

For many college football players, late August is a dreadful time of the year. They come to hate the hot weather, the conditioning, the multiple daily practice sessions, and the fact that summer is over and its back to the classroom.

Edinboro University senior defensive end Pat Schuster seems to be disgusted at this time of the year as well. The two-year starter has been through it all before. The heat, the coaches and the books don't rattle the soft spoken veteran. Yet, lurking on the practice fields behind Edinboro's Sox Harrison Stadium, one can tell Schuster is ready to explode.

"I love to hit the quarterback," said Schuster with a disappointed tone in his voice. "And we're not allowed to hit the quarterback in practice."

If anybody should know the sensation of dropping a signal caller, it is Schuster. The Bradford, Pa. native has nailed opposing quarterbacks 22 times throughout his three seasons with the Scots, just four sacks shy of breaking Rick Jordan's (1981-84) school record of 25.5. "Something like that means a lot to me," said Schuster. "It'll be nice just to look back someday and see my name with all the other great players."

Though no one has every questioned his intensity or work ethic on the football field, most would agree that Schuster has improved a great deal as a defensive lineman since his days at Bradford Area High School. A former middle linebacker and fullback for the Owls, Schuster was recruited by head coach Tom Hollman to play defense after seeing him on a tape from one of Bradford's opponents back in 1992. But early on that season, it was easy to see that Schuster was already making a smooth transition to the more aggressive collegiate game.

"My freshman year I was on the defensive demo team, but the offensive players didn't want me there anymore," recalled Schuster with a laugh. "So the coaches decided they had to use me somewhere. First they moved me over to fullback, and eventually started playing me on the defensive line. I've been there ever since."

Since then Schuster has been an absolute terror for the Scots. He recorded his first career sack as a freshman in game seven vs. California, and earned a starting job as a sophomore in 1993. That year Schuster developed into a defensive force, recording 11 sacks, which was followed by 10 more last season. In addition to his sack total, Schuster has recorded 147 career tackles, 14 for losses (-42 yards), seven pass break-ups, three forced fumbles, two recoveries (one for a touchdown) and one interception.

His lofty numbers have not gone unnoticed, as he earned second-team All-American last year by Football Gazette and third-team by Associated Press and College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). This year, Schuster is a pre-season All-American by College Sports Magazine, College Football Preview, and C.M. Frank, just to name a few.

"That's nice," said Schuster of the pre-season praise, "But that just means that more people will be looking at me, so I will have to play a lot harder. I'll probably see a lot more double-teams, but I'll just have to work harder."

Schuster also pointed out that he is not the only talented member on the Boro's defensive line. "(Bryan) Lambert (another of the Boro's defensive ends, who racked up seven sacks last season) on the other end is really good, so now they have to watch out for both sides. Besides that, our two tackles are getting better every day in practice, and will be tough to stop. Plus, the guys behind us are as solid as ever, so I think we'll be pretty good defensively."

All-American
Pat Schuster

At 6-2, 240 pounds with a ferocious attitude, Schuster is the kind of player you like to have on your side each Saturday afternoon when its time to go to battle. However, off the field Schuster is a mild-mannered person who you might even trust to babysit your kids.

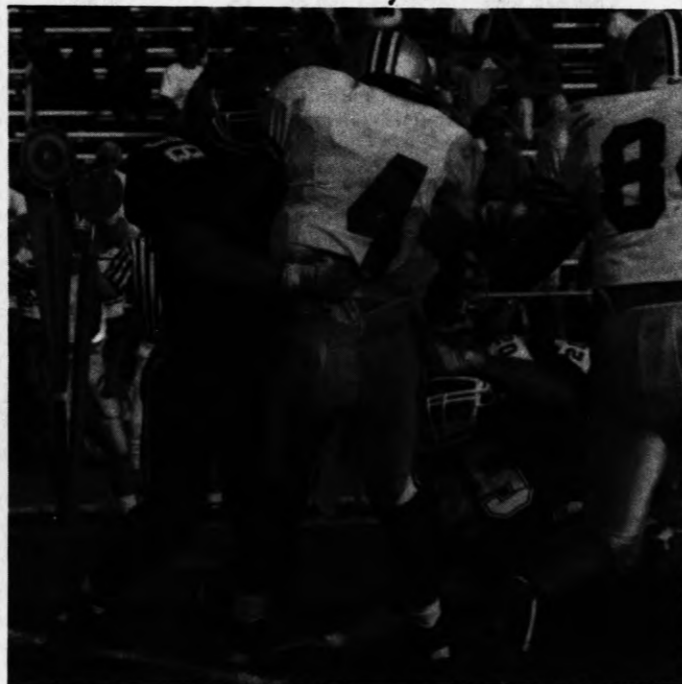

"The thing that would surprise people is that Pat Schuster is a quiet person off the football field, but on the football field he is a very emotional person," said defensive line coach Nick Cronk. "He is a great leader, because he leads with his actions. That's why he is an All-American and an all-conference player. Coaching Pat is a very easy job because he is an intense practice player. He studies film and is always trying to get better. In short, he is one of the spiritual leaders of the defense and he displays the heart and soul of this entire football team."

Despite needing only four sacks to break the school's career record, don't expect Schuster to stop there. "I set my goals pretty high. I know it sounds crazy, but I'd like to get two sacks per game this year, and I think that can be attained. But, the most important thing that I want is for our team to be successful."

Whether or not Schuster can reach his lofty standards remains to be seen. Another question which will soon be answered is whether or not Schuster will continue his career as a heavyweight wrestler for the Scots' Division I program. So far, Schuster has shown potential on the mats, recording a 7-7 record as a freshman, but decided to give it up last year to concentrate on football. "I'm going to wait and see how I feel toward the end of the season," said Schuster. "But right now, I've pretty much made up my mind that I'm going to wrestle this year."

For now, he keeps his team goals simple. "I just want to win." With arguably its toughest schedule in the Hollman era, it is hard to predict just how much success the Boro will enjoy this fall. However, Schuster will welcome the challenge.

Eventually the questions will become answered. Summer vacation and the heat will come to a close, classes will begin, and the conditioning drills will be over. And so too will Pat Schuster's frustration, when the first quarterback is dropped.

Assistant Coaches

Scott Browning – Offensive Line

Starting his 10th season at the Boro, Scott has coached running backs and the defensive backfield in year's past and now enters his second season directing the offensive line. Under his guidance a year ago, the Scots' front line cleared the way for over 450 yards of total offense per game and conference best 250 yards per game rushing. In his many capacities, he has guided the fortunes of All-Americans Steve Russell, Michael Willis, Wade Smith, Georj Lewis, Mike Barnes, Elbert Cole and Jeremy O'Day.

Scott came to Edinboro from Ohio State University, where he coached receivers and running backs. Prior to his start at OSU, Browning coached at Worthington and Dayton-Fairview high schools in Ohio, from 1979-81. Then, as a graduate assistant, he coached the defensive secondary at New Mexico State in 1982.

In 1983, he mentored the receivers at Idaho State University which advanced to the Division I-AA playoffs.

Browning earned a master's degree in education administration from New Mexico State in 1983, and a BS in education from Ohio State in 1981. Earlier, before transferring to OSU, Scott attended Capital University where he played football for one season. Browning was a four-year letterman in four sports at Loudonville High School (OH) prior to his collegiate days. Scott is married to the former Lynn Hook, and has a son, Andrew Scott. The Brownings reside in Edinboro.

Dan Gierlak – Linebackers

Dan Gierlak enters his ninth season as a full-time coach, shifting his responsibilities from coaching the running backs to linebacker coach. He was formerly the head women's softball coach for the Scots and led the squad to the PSAC playoffs in 1990.

Gierlak came to the 'Boro from Thiel College (Pa.) where he coached the defensive secondary for the 1984 season. Dan, a starter and three-year letterwinner for the Plaid in the secondary, moved on to the semi-pro ranks with the Chicago Cowboys. During his short stint with the Cowboys, Gierlak's squad gained national championship honors in 1984 and runner up nationally in the 1985 season. Gierlak brings both playing and coaching experience to the staff, giving the Scot players an added plus on the offensive side of the ball. As backfield coach, he has guided former Harlon Hill finalist Elbert Cole and Boro All-Americans Lester Frye and Larry Jackson.

Originally from Buffalo, New York, Dan graduated from Edinboro with a degree in health and physical education. He and his wife, the former Amy Adams, four-year-old daughter, Alexandria Alicia, and two-year-old son, Daniel "Joey" Jr., reside in Edinboro.

Nicklaus Cronk – Defensive Line

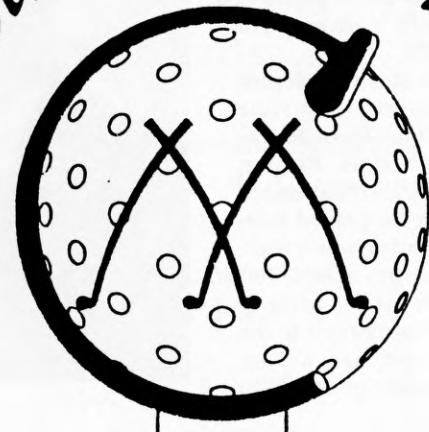

In only his second year as defensive line coach, Cronk has already made an immediate impact. Last season he headed two defensive end standouts in Bryan Lambert and Pat Schuster. Lambert was a second team All-PSAC performer, while Schuster earned recognition as a first-team selection, and as an All-American. Before coming to Edinboro, Cronk served as the former position coach for tight ends at Indiana University. He spent two seasons with the Hoosiers, both of them as a graduate assistant to head coach Bill Mallory. His first season in Bloomington, Cronk spent time assisting the defensive coordinator with the linebackers, and he also helped in the recruiting duties. While at IU, he graduated with a master's degree in physical education administration. Prior to joining the staff at Indiana, Cronk was an assistant coach at Carroll Consolidated High School, handling the special teams and defensive ends.

Cronk spent his playing days at Wabash College, where he was an honorable mention performer in the Indiana College Athletic Conference, and captained the 1991 league championship squad. He graduated from Wabash with a bachelor of arts degree in political science. He and his wife, Karla, reside in Edinboro.

Tony Elliott – Defensive Coordinator/Secondary

Tony Elliott, a defensive back with the Green Bay Packers from 1986-88, enters his second season coaching the Fighting Scots, and first year as the Boro's defensive coordinator. Last season, Elliott was responsible for mentoring PSAC-West first team selection Steve Russell and second-team choices Marty Williams and Keith Cushenberry.

Elliott came to Edinboro from Wayne State (Michigan), where he served as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach in '93. He started at WSU in 1992 as defensive coordinator and linebacker coach. He began his coaching career at Alma College in 1990-91, before coaching at Grand Valley University in 1991-92. His main duties at those two schools were recruiting and teaching on the defensive side of the ball.

Elliott is a graduate of Central Michigan University where he majored in sports studies with a minor concentration in interpersonal communications. He was a four-year letterman for the Chippewas of CMU. Originally from Detroit, Elliott played at Finney High School from 1979-82 where he was an All-State performer.

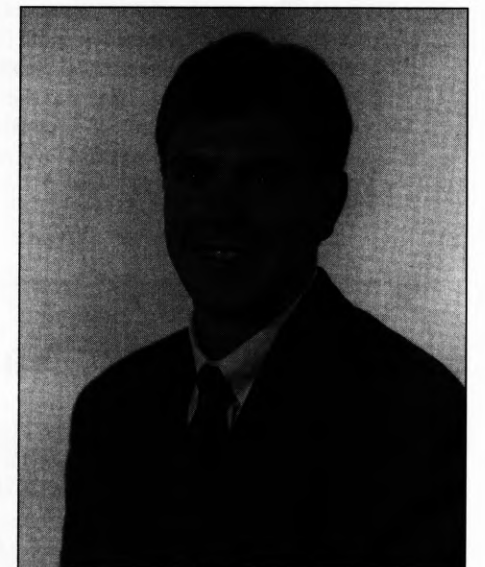

Mike Nelson – Wide Receivers

Mike Nelson joins the Fighting Scot staff in his first full-time position as an assistant coach. He will be responsible for coaching the wide receivers.

Nelson enters the Division II coaching ranks after serving as a graduate assistant under head coach Bill Mallory of Indiana University. While at Indiana, Nelson earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 1992, followed by a master's degree in college student personnel administration in 1994. With the Hoosiers, he was responsible for working with the defensive backfield, linemen and linebackers. Furthermore, he coordinated IU's video program and assisted with recruiting. He has also served as an intern in the Indiana University athletic director's office.

His coaching experience also includes a position as assistant at Bloomington High School South, his alma mater, where he helped in coaching the defensive backs, wide receivers and special teams.

Vince Skillings – Running Backs

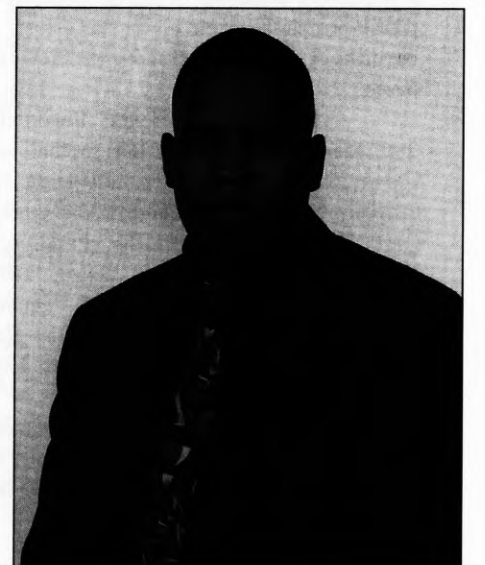

Vince Skillings, a sixth round draft pick of the Dallas Cowboys in 1980, joins the Fighting Scots' staff for his first season of collegiate coaching. He will be responsible for mentoring the running backs.

Skillings was an outstanding wide receiver at Ohio State, earning honors as a three-time All-Big Ten first team selection from 1978-80. At OSU, Skillings earned a bachelor's degree in communications in 1982. While he was with the Buckeyes, Skillings played on three straight Big Ten Championship teams from 1977-79, and was named All-American in 1979. In addition to his football accolades, Skillings was an accomplished track performer in high school, being distinguished as a state champion in the 440 yard dash.

After his release from the Cowboys in 1980, Skillings spent time in training camp with the Buffalo Bills in 1981, and then played two seasons with the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League. He also served in the armed forces as a U.S. Army Battalion Signal officer.

Prior to his appointment at Edinboro, Skillings served as an assistant football coach at his high school alma mater, Derry Area Senior High.

Miller and Metzka Tabbed PSAC's Top Scholar-Athletes

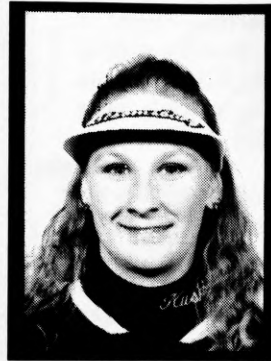

Shelley Miller of Bloomsburg and Slippery Rock's Mark Metzka were selected as the 1994-95 Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (P.S.A.C.) Scholar-Athletes of the Year.

The two student-athletes were selected by the P.S.A.C. sports information directors from a field of 15 athletes nominated by their respective athletic departments. Miller and Metzka represent the best of the P.S.A.C., excelling in both athletic and academic arenas.

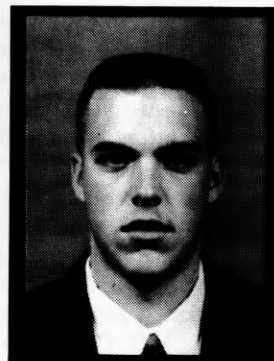

The P.S.A.C. Scholar-Athlete Awards are designated annually to the top female and male student-athletes that have attained at least a 3.25 cumulative grade point average (GPA) and have also performed at the highest level in athletic competition.

Miller, a senior Social Work major from Waynesboro, PA (Waynesboro HS), maintained a 3.48 GPA in her four years at Bloomsburg while competing in field hockey and softball.

A three-time member of the P.S.A.C. All-Academic Team, Miller is also a three-time All-American and All-P.S.A.C. selection in field hockey as well as being named the NCAA Division

Shelley Miller

Mark Metzka

II Player of the Year for 1994-95. During her career at Bloomsburg, the field hockey team was 74-9-4, winning a national championship in 1993 and finishing national runner-up three times. She holds the school record for season and career assists posting 32 assists in 34 career games.

Also a member of the softball team, Miller saw action in 34 games while starting in 25 in helping the Huskies to the national runner-up spot this past season and a P.S.A.C. title.

Metzka, a senior Sport Management major from New Middletown, OH (Springfield Local), earned a 3.874 cumulative GPA while excelling in basketball.

A three year starter for The Rock, Metzka is only one of 17 SRU basketball players to score over 1,000 career points (1,073) and is one of the all-time assist leaders in school history with 301. He finished sixth in the NCAA Division II this past season in three point makes per game at 3.8 while averaging 17.7 points per game, second on the team.

Metzka is a first-team 1994-95 GTE Academic All-American after garnering second-team honors last season.

Jack Benedict Named 1995 PSAC Media Award-Winner

Jack Benedict, sports director of 1160/WCCS Radio, Homer City, has been selected the 1995 winner of the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (P.S.A.C.) George Heaslip Media Award.

Benedict is the seventh recipient of the annual award presented by the sports information directors of the P.S.A.C. to a media professional for his or her efforts in covering Conference student-athletes and teams.

1995-96 represents Benedict's 28th year of sportscasts of IUP football and men's basketball, and on television for several years when IUP produced a weekly football program on KBL-TV, Pittsburgh, that was carried by the PRIME cable network in a several-state area. He has produced a daily morning sports show first with WDAD, Indiana, from 1969 to 1989 and then with WCCS.

In the process of broadcasting IUP events, from across the state and literally all parts of the United States, Benedict has described games involving every P.S.A.C. university. Followers of all such teams have invariably commented on the accurate, objective manner in which he has reported on the competition.

Originally from Mount Pleasant, in Westmoreland County, he first worked seven years (1962-69) as sports director of WCVI Radio in neighboring Connellsville.

How well he has performed was most recently denoted by his earning the Pennsylvania Association of Broadcasting award for his coverage of the 1993 IUP/North Alabama NCAA Division II national championship football game. This was his fourth PAB sports award; he was also recognized in 1980 for "Best Public Service in Pennsylvania" for a report on the homeless.

Inducted into the Indiana County Hall of Fame this past spring (1995), in part as a result of his avid interest in American Legion baseball as well, he has been heard nationwide by reporting and interviews done for the CBS radio network.

As a radio personality, Benedict joins Jim Doyle of W H L M , Bloomsburg, who received the Heaslip Award in 1993. Recognized last year was Tom Rose, sports editor of the Washington (Pa.) Observer-Reporter.

Other winners, in order since the honor was initiated in 1989, have been sports writers Ray Kienzl of the Pittsburgh Press, Ross Nevel of the Lock Haven Express (a former sports information director at LHU), Skip Hutter of the Harrisburg Patriot-News and Pete Zapadka of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette.

Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference and Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education

The Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) was organized in 1951 for the purpose of promoting and administering men's athletic programs within the fourteen state teachers colleges in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

In 1977, due to the interest and growth of women's athletics, the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference was restructured to provide for women's programs.

From its inception, each Conference member selected its own competitive division within the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). In 1980, however, the presidents of the schools voted to reclassify to Division II.

In 1983, all member institutions were granted university status as a result of Legislative Act 188 which formed the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education (SSHE). This system now enrolls in excess of 99,000 students. The alumni of the SSHE number more than 402,000, including 287,000 in Pennsylvania. The chancellor of the SSHE is Dr. James H. McCormick.

One of the largest conferences in the nation, the PSAC is under the leadership of a board of directors (the 14 university presidents). The Conference also employs a commissioner, Dr. Charles A. 'Tod' Eberle.

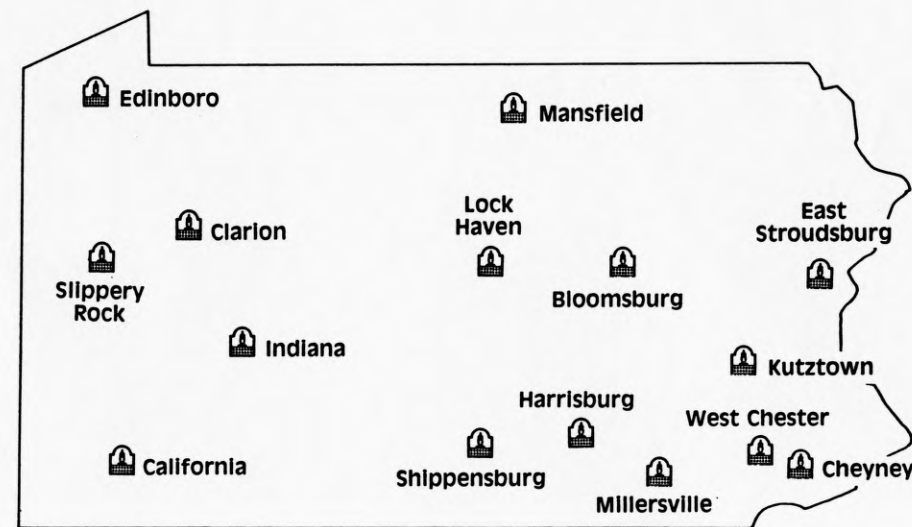

The PSAC sponsors 20 men's and women's intercollegiate sports. For men the PSAC offers baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, soccer, swimming, tennis, track and field, and wrestling. For women the sports include basketball, cross country, field hockey, lacrosse, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis, track and field and volleyball.

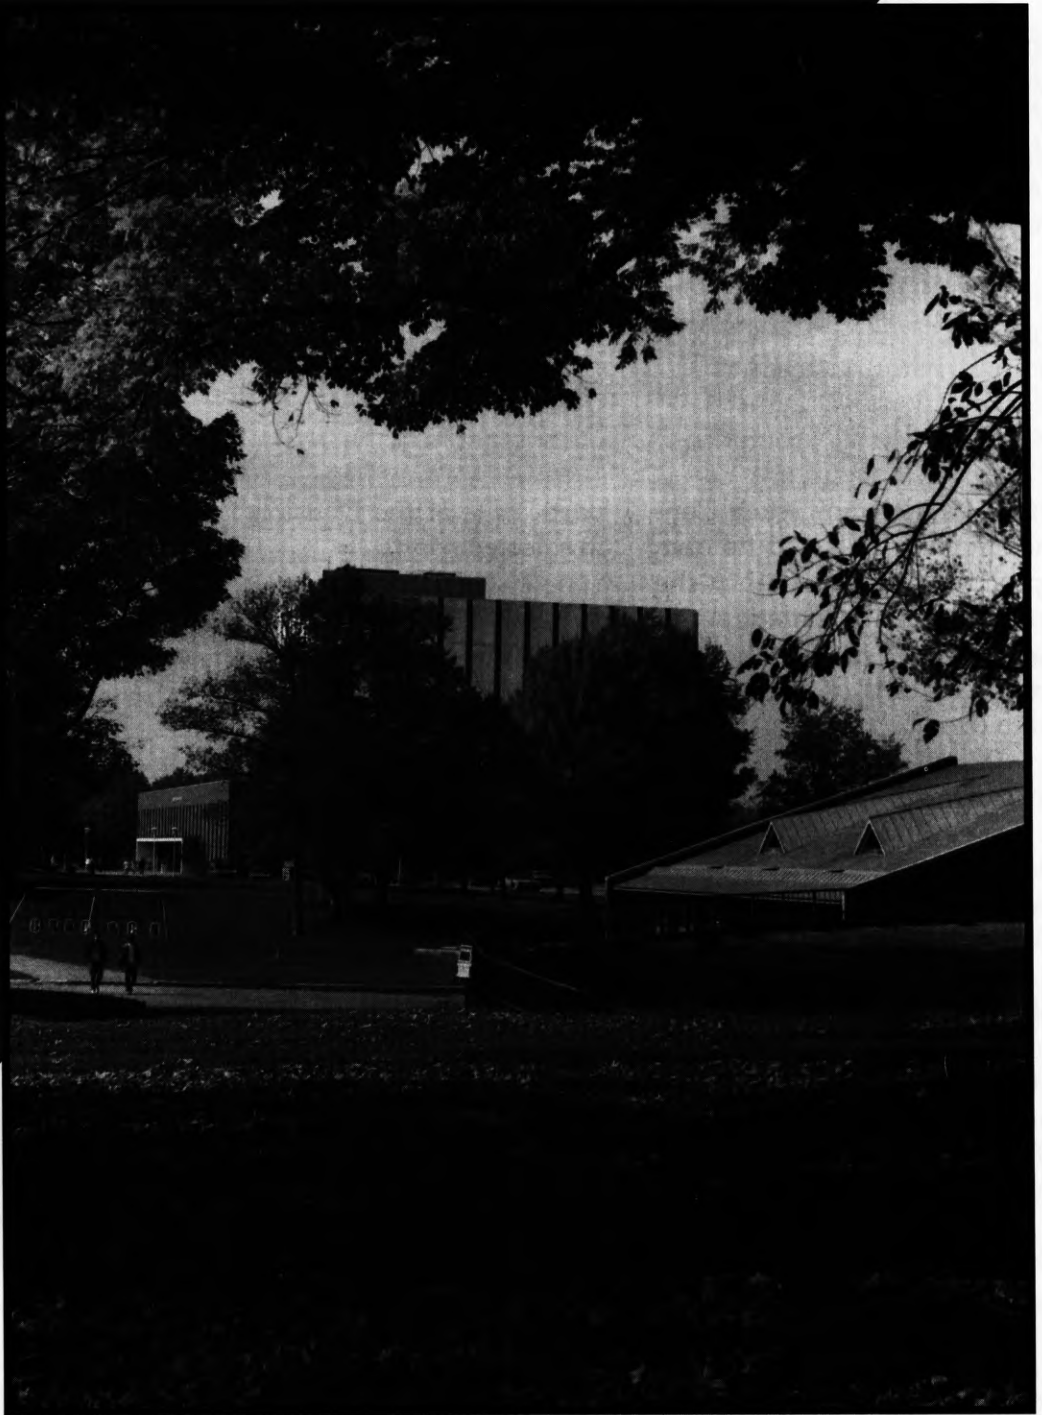

Although all 14 institutions are members of NCAA Division II, nine schools have elected to participate at the Division I level in selected sports.

The PSAC is one of the nation's most respected Division II conferences. Annually the PSAC places several teams in various NCAA top 20 polls. In addition, it has produced numerous national champions over the years.

Edinboro Hosts Hillsdale in '95 Season Opener

Winningest NCAA Division II Program Invades Sox Harrison Stadium

THE GAME

The Fighting Scots of Edinboro University of Pennsylvania and the Hillsdale (MI) College Chargers, two teams with NCAA Division II post-season playoff aspirations, will square off Saturday afternoon (Sept. 2) in the 1995 football season opener for both schools.

Kickoff is set for 1 p.m. at Edinboro's Sox Harrison Stadium.

THE RECORDS

Edinboro is coming off a 7-3 campaign in 1994. The Fighting Scots, who advanced to the NCAA Division II playoffs in 1989, 1990, 1992 and 1993, missed qualifying for the post-season field by virtue of the team's 24-20 loss to Clarion the last week of the season. EUP posted a 4-2 record in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference Western Division.

Hillsdale won six of its final seven games after a 1-3 start to finish the '94 season with a 7-4 overall mark. The Chargers outscored their final seven opponents by an average of 43-10.

THE RIVALRY

In the first-ever meeting between the teams last year, Edinboro jumped out to a 24-6 halftime lead on the road then held off a late Hillsdale rally to pull out a 31-28 victory.

Edinboro had its large halftime lead trimmed to three, 24-21 early in the fourth quarter, as Hillsdale scored a pair of TDs. But Edinboro All-American Larry Jackson put the game out of reach with an 11-yard run with 3:11 remaining. Hillsdale scored a TD with two seconds to play for the final margin.

Quarterback Jody Dickerson completed 19 of 28 passes for a career-high 334 yards. Lateef Walters also set a Fighting Scot record with 12 receptions for 229 yards and two TDs.

THE COACHES

Tom Hollman begins his eighth year as head coach at Edinboro. During his tenure, the Fighting Scots have compiled a 52-22-2 overall mark (.697), including a 31-9-2 mark in the PSAC West. Edinboro has advanced to the NCAA Division II playoffs in four of his seven seasons (1989-90-92-93) and the Scots have never had a losing season under Hollman.

Before joining the EUP staff in January of 1988, Hollman was the defensive coordinator at Ohio University for three years (1985-87). He also compiled a 24-11-1 mark as head coach at Wooster (OH) College (1977-81), giving him a 76-33-3 overall record in 11 seasons as a collegiate head coach.

Dick Lowry enters his 16th season as head coach at Hillsdale. He has guided the Chargers to a 121-45-2 overall mark (.726) during his tenure, capturing six conference titles and qualifying for the NAIA playoffs five times.

Lowry joined the Hillsdale staff in 1980 after serving as head coach at Wayne (MI) State University for six years. He compiled a 38-21-1 record at Wayne (.642), giving him a 159-66-3 overall mark (.704) in 21 seasons as a college head coach.

WINNING TRADITIONS

Both Edinboro and Hillsdale have proud winning gridiron traditions.

Hillsdale has won more football games than any other NCAA Division II program in history, posting a 498-305-46 record in 104 years of competition (includes games played as an NAIA affiliate).

The Chargers, who have won four more games than Pittsburg (KS) State's 494, should become the first NCAA Division II football program to win 500 games. Hillsdale captured the NAIA national championship in 1985, and added a conference title in 1992.

While Edinboro has posted a 234-277-24 overall mark in 66 seasons of competition, the Fighting Scots have enjoyed much greater success the past three decades. Edinboro is...

- 102-51-4 since 1980
- 39-15-2 since 1990

SEASON OPENER

Edinboro has posted a 3-4 record in season openers during the Hollman era. Three of the four losses were at Division I-AA programs, Youngstown State in 1991 and Liberty in both 1988 and '89.

Edinboro is 19-12-4 in season openers since 1960.

QUOTING COACH HOLLMAN

"We're anxious to start. Hillsdale is a very challenging opener for us, especially since we have several new players in key positions. Hillsdale has had an excellent program for many years — they're well-coached and play a very physical brand of football. They also play in an excellent football league, so we'll need to play mistake-free football to have success against them."

UP NEXT

The Fighting Scots will hit the road for a pair of games against nationally ranked opponents, Sept. 9 at Appalachian (NC) State, which was ranked sixth in the Division I-AA pre-season poll, and Sept. 16 at Portland (OR) State, which was tied for fourth in the poll with PSAC rival Indiana.

Hillsdale will host St. Francis of Illinois next Saturday.

PSAC VS. MIFC

When Edinboro and Hillsdale kick it off in Saturday's opener, it will mark the third straight season that the Boro has opened with an opponent from the Midwest Intercollegiate Football Conference (MIFC). Edinboro owns a 1-1 record in those games, dropping a 23-9 home decision to Ferris State in 1993, and rebounding to beat Hillsdale 31-28 on the road last season.

In another season opener which pits the PSAC vs. the MIFC, Indiana University of PA will travel to Grand Valley State. Last season, IUP rallied from a 33-14 deficit in their first game to defeat GVSU, 35-33.

Overall in 1994, the PSAC held a 4-1 record vs. MIFC opponents. However, in those five games the average margin of victory was only four points. The only PSAC loss occurred in the NCAA II playoffs when Ferris State upended West Chester, 43-40.

EXPERIENCED DEFENSES

Saturday's showdown will showcase two teams that should be very good defensively once again.

The Scots feature six returning starters on defense led by an excellent pair of ends, senior All-American Pat Schuster and senior Bryan Lambert, and the team's leading tackler from a year ago, senior linebacker Michael Sims.

Schuster had 10 sacks last year to pull within four of Edinboro's all-time record of 25.5, while Lambert had seven sacks to go along with 73 stops.

Sims had a team-leading 124 tackles playing the middle for the Boro. This year Sims will move outside, where he posted 84 tackles, and a team-high ten pass break-ups as a freshman.

In the secondary, the Plaid will be strong at the corners with All-PSAC selections Marty Williams (68 TT, 4 TFL) and Keith Cushenberry (37 TT, 2 ints), but must replace both starting safeties from a season ago.

The Chargers return seven starters from a defense which led the rugged MIFC, and ranked 11th nationally, yielding just 303.3 total yards per game.

Leading the defensive troops will be senior All-American free safety Scott Elwer, who has picked off a Hillsdale record 18 interceptions during his career, including a single-season record of 10 in 1994. Elwer got off to a fine start in last year's opener against the Boro, snaring two misplaced aerals.

Several other key players return on defense for Hillsdale, including junior linebacker Scott Duncan (113 total tackles in '94), senior right tackle Darrell DeWitt (50 TT, 7 TFL), junior middle linebacker Corey Knight (48 TT) and junior strong safety Jim Martens (60 TT, 3 ints).

RUNNERS LOOK TO EXTEND 100-YARD STREAK

Edinboro All-American running back Larry Jackson ran for more than 100 yards in each of his last 16 games as a Fighting Scot.

This season, Edinboro hopes to continue the tradition of stellar running backs with a deep backfield led by leading returning rusher Tony Brinson and highly touted newcomer Gerald Thompson.

Brinson is the team's leading rusher among returnees, as he gained 221 yards on 45 carries (4.9 ypc) in 1994. Thompson was selected the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League (WPIAL) high school player of the year in 1992 at Woodland Hills after rushing for 1,639 yards and 25 TDs. Thompson originally signed to play at the University of Pittsburgh, but transferred to Edinboro in 1993 and participated in spring drills this year.

Edinboro's offensive line should give the backs a chance to continue the string of 100-yard games as all five starters return from a year ago, led by All-American guard Jeremy O'Day (6-3, 280) and co-captain Det Betti (6-3, 278) anchoring the line from his center position.

While the Scots no longer have record-setting quarterback Jody Dickerson, junior Chris Hart looks to use his experience in the program in a positive way as the team's starter. He'll have a talented unit of receivers, led by Mesa Junior College transfer Gilbert Grantlin, who had 35 catches for 785 yards and 11 TDs last year.

HILLSDALE ON OFFENSE

Offensively, Hillsdale returns five starters from a unit that averaged 35 points per game last season. The strong point of the Chargers' attack is the line, where All-American Brad Affholter returns at guard and junior Jay Szykowny returns at tackle.

Senior tailback Anthony McCree is the Chargers' top returning rusher, recording 814 yards and 10 touchdowns on 186 carries last year, while senior tight end Aaron Petersen leads the list of returning receivers after making 22 catches for 258 yards and four scores in '94.

Sophomore Ralph Truitt makes his debut at quarterback, replacing Greg Younger who completed 56.6 percent of his passes for 1,899 yards with 19 TDs and 11 interceptions.

A PEEK AHEAD

If you watched ESPN's telecast of the University of Nebraska's win Thursday night over Oklahoma State University, you may have cringed a little when the sports network flashed the halftime score of the Fighting Scots next opponent, Appalachian (N.C.) State University.

The Mountaineers, ranked sixth in the NCAA Division I-AA pre-season poll, led Atlantic Coast Conference member Wake Forest University 24-0 at intermission, before settling for a 24-22 road victory.

Edinboro plays at Appalachian State in Boone, N.C. next Saturday (Sept. 9) in a 7 p.m. contest.

It doesn't get any easier the following week as the Scots travel cross-country for a showdown with Portland (OR) State University. The Vikings were ranked No. 4 in the NCAA Division II pre-season poll. This is their final season of Division II competition before moving up to NCAA Division I-AA next year.

Pennsylvania Conference Notes

There are several important regional match-ups this week that could play a key role in the selection of post-season playoff teams from the Northeast region.

In addition to the Edinboro/Hillsdale match-up, fourth-ranked Indiana (PA) visits No. 13 Grand Valley (MI) State in another game featuring PSAC and Midwest Intercollegiate Football Conference opponents. Indiana rallied from a 33-14 deficit at Grand valley last year to pull out a 35-33 decision.

Bloomsburg, which posted an 8-3 record in 1994, will travel to No. 20 New Haven (CN), while California, Clarion and Shippensburg all play West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference foes.

In PSAC played earlier this week, California came from behind to defeat Fairmont (WV) State, University 28-26 on Thursday, while West Chester upended Cheyney yesterday, 56-7.
