Edinboro Football Flourishes Under Hollman Scots Hope to Contend in PSAC, NCAA Division II

The Edinboro University of Pennsylvania Fighting Scots enter the 1995 football season hoping to continue an impressive run of success the program has enjoyed the past seven years under the leadership of head coach Tom Hollman.

Edinboro has not only established one of the premier football programs in the PSAC, but the Fighting Scots also have enjoyed their share of national recognition in recent years as well. With 13 starters returning from last year's 7-3 squad that was ranked 17th in the final NCAA II poll, Edinboro enters the upcoming campaign ranked among the nation's elite once again in several pre-season polls.

Here's a glance at a few Highlights of the Hollman Era . . .

- Four NCAA Division II playoff appearances in the past six years (1989, 1990, 1992, 1993).
- A 52-22-2 overall record, including a 31-9-2 mark in PSAC Western Division play.
- Six consecutive seasons ranked in the NCAA Division II top 20 in the final poll.
- Two players selected as finalists for the Harlon Hill Award presented annually to the NCAA Division II player of the year – Elbert Cole, 1989 (third place) and Ernest Priester, 1990 (runner-up). Edinboro has produced 38 All-Americans on 35 different teams since 1988.
- Eight national scholar athletes since 1991.

President Foster F. Diebold

Now in the final year of his presidency, Foster F. Diebold will retire in the summer of 1996 after having served Edinboro University of Pennsylvania, the State System of Higher Education and the people of Pennsylvania for 17 years as the 14th chief executive officer of the institution of higher learning that has come to acclaim under his leadership as one of Pennsylvania's and the nation's finest. Only one other chief executive, Joseph Cooper, who was principal of the then Edinboro State Normal School for 29 years between 1863 and 1892, has served a longer term of office than President Diebold.

Much has been accomplished during President Diebold's tenure. He has brought a vigorous educational and moral leadership, a strengthening of the spirit of community, a clear sense of mission and purpose, and a new dimension of multiculturalism and diversity. The University has returned to and maintained financial health. Academic programs have been emphasized and improved, with more than 100 degree programs now offered. A renewed commitment to teacher education came with his establishment of the Center for Excellence in Teaching. Significant facilities and grounds improvements have been achieved, with several of the historic campus structures restored to their original splendor, a student union expansion completed, and an Alumni House constructed. Enrollment gains have been unprecedented in both numbers and academic quality. International linkage agreements with 15 educational institutions and organizations in four countries have positioned Edinboro University as a leader in international education both in the U.S. and abroad. And Edinboro University's program for students with disabilities, one of the first in the nation, continues to enjoy wide recognition as one of the finest at any college or university in the country.

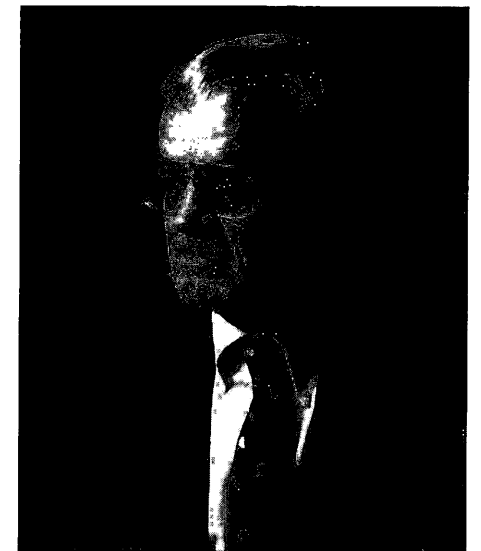

The Orange, New Jersey, native is a graduate of Monmouth College and also holds a master of arts in educational administration from Seton Hall University. He has met coursework requirements for a doctorate in education at Rutgers University and is currently completing the dissertation requirement for the Ph.D. program in higher education at the University of Pittsburgh.

Prior to his presidency of Edinboro University, President Diebold was president of the University of Alaska from 1977 to 1979. Before that, he was executive secretary to the Board of Regents and special assistant to the president of the University of Alaska Statewide System. From 1969 to 1976, he was director of Development and Planning at Kean College in New Jersey and a member of the graduate faculty at that institution; and from 1965 to 1969, he was assistant superintendent of the Neptune Township (New Jersey) Public Schools.

Recognized for his extensive experience in the field of education management, President Diebold's scholarly achievements in the discipline of applied ethics in higher education deserve special mention. The model statement he authored for the American Association of State Colleges and Universities, "Ethical Practices for College Presidents," was unanimously adopted by that professional organization and published as policy for the chief executives of its nearly 400 member institutions nationwide. It is the first formally adopted ethical practices and policy statement for higher education presidents.

President Diebold has been honored by the Government of Pakistan with the awarding of the degree of Doctor of Laws (honoris causa), presented at the Government House in the City of Karachi. The ceremony was attended by the presidents of the several Pakistani universities holding linkage agreements with Edinboro University, as well as many high-ranking officials of the Government of Pakistan and U.S. diplomatic officials.

A staunch advocate of a statewide system of public universities in Pennsylvania, President Diebold supported the enabling legislation for the State System of Higher Education (Act 188 of 1982) and saw the State System come to existence in 1983 as a member of the transition team. He currently serves on the System's Executive Council of Presidents and on the boards of the Pennsylvania Academy for the Profession of Teaching, the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference, and the Dixon University Center at Harrisburg.

President Diebold's stature in American higher education has been recognized by several high-level appointments. He was named to the National Committee on U.S.-China Relations, the leading national organization devoted to building constructive relationships between the two countries. He was also appointed to the Leadership Council of the Northeast-Midwest Institute, a regional component of the Center for Regional Policy, and to the Pennsylvania Humanities Council, the private, non-profit group promoting statewide public understanding of the humanities.

Go Fighting Scots!

The Alumni Association of Edinboro University of Pennsylvania is proud of the University's continued excellence in academics, athletics, and special programs, and pleased to continue its support of the Fighting Scot football team!

Athletic Director Jody Mooradian

Jody Mooradian begins her second year as athletic director at Edinboro University of Pennsylvania. She joined the Edinboro staff in August of 1993 as associate athletic director and senior women's administrator for the Fighting Scots before being named athletic director a year ago.

A New Hampshire native, Mooradian earned a bachelor's degree in political science at the University of New Hampshire in 1981, a master's in public administration at the University of Delaware, and a doctorate at the Delaware Law School. She served as a New Hampshire state representative for District 4 from 1980-82 and is a member of the New Hampshire and Pennsylvania bar associations.

Before dedicating herself to a career in intercollegiate athletics, Mooradian served five years as a practicing attorney. She handled all aspects of insurance litigation for Devine, Millimet and Branch of Manchester, New Hampshire, for nearly two years after serving as in-house counsel for the CIGNA Insurance Company from 1987 to 1991.

In 1993, Mooradian completed an administrative internship with the athletic department at the University of California in Los Angeles. While there, she handled NCAA compliance and eligibility matters and worked with tutorial services budgets and Title IX evaluations. She performed similar duties in her first position at Edinboro where she assumed responsibility for financial aid for Edinboro's more than 300 student athletes. She was also responsible for scheduling and administering Edinboro University's intercollegiate athletic events, as well as the University's outstanding summer camp program, and overseeing compliance for NCAA Division I and Division II sports programs.

In her current position, she is responsible for overseeing the daily operation of the Fighting Scots' 16-sport intercollegiate athletics program, including the supervision of a staff of more than 40 professionals and an annual budget of $1.5 million. She is director of all home, conference and NCAA athletic events and oversees NCAA and PSAC compliance and eligibility matters, financial aid, and scheduling for all athletes.

As athletic director, Mooradian provides leadership for the Fighting Scots athletic department and is a key figure on the campus and within the Pennsylvania Conference. A member of the President's Cabinet, she has been named chairperson of the Gender Equity Committee and was recently appointed to the PSAC Executive Committee.

Her father, Andy Mooradian, was athletic director at the University of New Hampshire for 22 years.

Head Coach Tom Hollman

In January 1988, Edinboro University hired Tom Hollman, Athens, Ohio, as its eleventh head football coach in the school's history. Hollman came to Edinboro from Ohio University, where he was the defensive coordinator.

Hollman, beginning his eighth year, has the Scot program back in the national spotlight. At Edinboro, he has earned 52 wins against just 22 losses and two ties and owns an impressive 31-9-2 slate against the PSAC Western Division. Throughout his seven year career at Edinboro, he has never had a losing season. In addition, he has coached two Harlon Hill Award finalists, and the schools career leaders in passing, rushing, receiving and interceptions. The Scots have advanced to post-season play four of the past six years.

In 1989, he was named the top coach in the East Region by the National Football Coaches Association and also tabbed the top coach in the PSAC West. In 1990, he guided the Scots to their first-ever NCAA II playoff win as Edinboro routed Virginia Union and advanced to the national quarterfinals.

"As a coach, I have been fortunate to coach at many different levels, from high school to Division I. The Division II level here at Edinboro is very appealing to me in relation to my career goals. It is a great feeling to be a head coach at this level."

Hollman's educational background begins with a high school diploma from Memorial High School in St. Mary's, Ohio, followed by his undergraduate degree in education from Ohio Northern University in 1968. Three years later Hollman received his master of science degree in education from Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio.

While at Ohio Northern, Hollman was a three-year starter for the football team and a two-year performer as a defensive back and offensive end during his junior and senior years. He holds the school record with 13 career interceptions and earned All-American and All-District honors during the 1966 and 1967 seasons. Hollman also lettered in baseball for three years during his stay at Ohio Northern.

A chronological look at Hollman's coaching career begins in 1968 as an assistant coach at Sidney High School in Sidney, Ohio. From there, Hollman moved on to Greenville High School in Ohio where he became head coach from 1971-73. His Greenville squads posted an impressive 26-2-2 mark during his three-year stay.

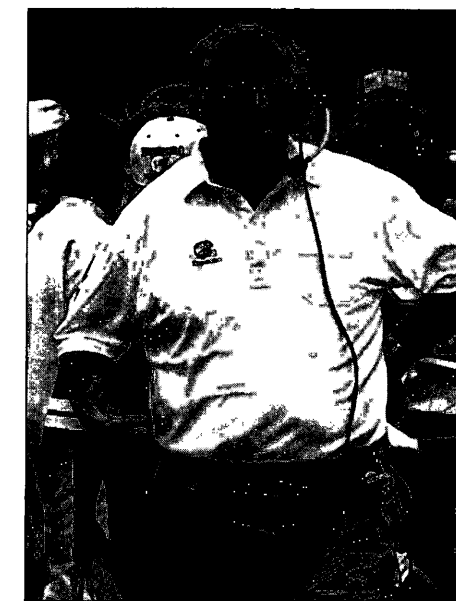

Hollman then moved on to Fremont Ross High School as head coach for the 1974 and 1975 seasons, where his squad recorded 15 wins against three setbacks and two ties. Fremont was the Buckeye Conference champ in 1974, unbeaten at 9-0-1.

In 1976, Hollman moved on to the collegiate ranks where he was the defensive coordinator for his alma mater at Ohio Northern University.

The following year, Hollman accepted the head coach position at Wooster College (OH) and guided his squad to the best four-year record in the school history (24-11-1).

In 1981, Hollman took an assistant coaching spot with Ball State University which he held through the 1984 campaign. Then, beginning in 1985 Hollman held the defensive coordinator position at Ohio University.

Tom resides in Edinboro with his wife, Kandi, and four children, Mari, Jon, Tim and Denise.

1995 Preview – Reloading or Rebuilding?

Replacing players each year is a challenge – but replacing greatness is another. Gone from a season ago is the school's all-time leading rusher, passer and interception leader.

Whether 1995 turns into a season of reloading or rebuilding remains a mystery but it is likely the program's foundation and well-deserved reputation will have the Scot program back in the limelight again this fall.

Entering his eighth season directing the Boro fortunes, head coach Tom Hollman returns 14 starters and 33 lettermen to a squad that posted a 7-3 mark a year ago. In '94, the Scots earned a #17 ranking at season's end marking the sixth consecutive season Edinboro had finished among the nation's top 20. Since '91, the Plaid has earned two trips to the NCAA II championship field of 16 and posted an impressive 30-12-1 overall record.

The task at hand in '95 will be filling the shoes of record-setting All-Americans Larry Jackson, Jody Dickerson and Steve Russell. What makes this season even more of challenge is the Boro must look for replacements while playing, arguably, the toughest schedule in school history. Difficult from the beginning, the Scots open with a home contest against Hillsdale, Division II's winningest program. The 10-game ledger also features non-conference road games at Division I-AA Appalachian State and Division II power Portland State, while the Boro's crossover home game from the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) Eastern Division is vastly improved Mansfield. The divisional slate consists of home games against Lock Haven, California and IUP whereas the Boro treks to Shippensburg, Slippery Rock and Clarion. A strong road team the past three regular seasons (12-2-1), the Scots successes in '95 will again be based on their abilities to continue winning away from Sox Harrison Stadium.

A Breakdown of Personnel

Skill Positions

Traditionally a strength for the team has turned into the biggest question mark for '95. With the departure of Jackson and Dickerson, the Scots lose over 12,000 yards of total offense. Simply stated, the Boro's success offensively will parallel the progression of junior quarterback Chris Hart. A backup the past two seasons, Hart has played in 16 games, completing 38% of his passes for 112 yards, one score and one interception. The running back spot is solid with the return of Tony Brinson (221 yards, 2 TDs) and the addition of highly-touted Gerald Thompson. Look for the Scots to rely heavily on the running game to assist Hart's development. The wideout spot is open with the departure of big-play man Lateef Walters. Terry Roberts, who has averaged nearly 27 yards per catch the past two years, must step up in '95.

Offensive Line

If who is throwing, running or catching the ball is a question, then the foundation for '95 will be the return of the entire offensive line from a year ago. All-American tackle Jeremy O'Day is outstanding and will team with center Det Betti, guards Chad Wallick and Chris Barney and tackle Tom Lavis to secure the attack. Jesse Trevino also has plenty of game experience from a year ago. Tight end Todd Henne (15 receptions, 158 yards, 2 TDs) was named second team PSAC-West a year ago and returns as the squad's top pass catcher. John Sabo (6, 53, 1 td) is also solid.

Defensive Line

Another crew which returns intact is the defensive front. All-American end Pat Schuster (65 tackles, 10 sacks) is closing in on the school's all-time sack record. Last season, Schuster registered 22 total tackles behind the line for -103 yards. All conference end Bryan Lambert (73 stops, 7 sacks) also returns along with tackles

Matt Gentile (46 tackles) and Al Bass (32, 2 recoveries). Rich Jones (21 stops, 6 games) is also back while junior college transfer Jeff Traversy should step in and have an immediate impact.

Linebackers

All conference performer Michael Sims returns to anchor the second line of defense. Sims led the squad with 124 total tackles a year ago including 85 solo hits. He was in on four tackles for loss and intercepted one pass. With the departure of All-American Michael Edwards, the Scots may face a void here. Jerry Roberts, who recorded 16 hits in a reserve role a year ago, may be the one to step up. Emery Martin (9 stops, 3 games) and transfer Vanroy Williams (6-2, 235) could also play major roles for the Scots.

Secondary

Gone is All-American Steve Russell, the team's all-time interception leader but three other starters, with plenty of big-game experience return. Both cornerbacks, Marty Williams and Keith Cushenberry, earned second team all-west selections in '94. Williams was fourth on the squad with 68 stops including four tackles for loss, one interception and six deflections. Cushenberry registered 36 tackles and was second on the team with two picks. Rick Walker, a part-time starter through his career, is looking to recover from last year's shoulder injury. He contributed 39 hits in just six games in '94.

Specialties

The Boro faces two holes to fill with the graduation of veteran placekicker Scott Rupert and the departure of Eric Wagner. In addition, with the graduation of Russell and Walters, the Scots must find replacements to return kicks and punts.

Scot Success in the Classroom

Progression of the student-athlete has always been a priority for Coach Tom Hollman and his staff. This past year, the tradition of success on the field and in the classroom continued for the Fighting Scot football program. A pair of starters, tight end Todd Henne and safety Rick Walker, not only had quality years on the gridiron for the Scots but were recognized as national scholar-athletes by College Football Preview magazine. The pair were also honored as top student-athletes by the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference and Edinboro University. Both students currently own cumulative grade point marks of better than 3.5. In 1994, Henne earned PSAC-West second team all star honors for his 15 catches for 158 yards and a pair of scores while Walker recorded 39 tackles, 20 solo, in just six games due to a shoulder injury.

Scots Host Indiana in PSAC-West Showdown

Game of Nationaly-Ranked Rivals Features No. 7 vs. No. 12

THE GAME

The Edinboro University of Pennsylvania Fighting Scots, 6-1 overall and ranked 12th this week in the NCAA Division II football poll, will host the Indiana University of Pennsylvania Indians, 6-2 on the season and ranked seventh in Division II, this Saturday (Oct. 28). Kickoff for the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference Western Division battle for first place is set for 1 p.m. at Edinboro's Sox Harrison Stadium.

THE RECORDS

Edinboro enters Saturday's game with a 6-1 overall record, and a 4-0 mark in the PSAC-West, after a hard-fought 22-13 victory over Slippery Rock University of Pennsylvania last Saturday. Indiana, coming off a 58-0 win over Cheyney University of PA, counters with a 6-2 overall record, and a 3-0 mark in the PSAC-West.

The Fighting Scots opened the season with perhaps the most difficult three-game schedule in school history, going 1-1 in their first two games. Since then, the Boro has posted five straight wins, including a victory over a Top 10 team — 26-7 over Portland (OR) State University — and four straight wins in the PSAC-West.

Indiana also started their season with a tough non-conference schedule, going 1-2 in their first three games before winning their last five games.

NCAA NATIONAL/REGIONAL RANKINGS

Edinboro moved up two spots in the NCAA Division II national rankings this week, from 14th to 12th, while IUP jumped up one spot, from an eighth-place tie with Portland State into the No. 7 slot.

The top six spots in the Northeast Regional rankings remained the same. Ferris State (MI) University was ranked first in the region and third nationally, followed by New Haven (CT) University, which was second in the region and moved up to fifth in the national poll. Indiana was ranked third regionally, followed by Edinboro. Grand Valley (MI) State University was fifth (14th nationally), while Millersville stayed sixth.

THE COACHES

Tom Hollman (Ohio Northern University, 1968) recently became the winningest coach in Edinboro history. Now in his eighth year as head coach of the Fighting Scots, Hollman has compiled a 58-23-2 overall mark (.711) with the Scots. He passed Bill McDonald, 54-34-7 from 1969-78, on the school's all-time victory list earlier this year.

Hollman, who also is the winningest coach in school history based on winning percentage, was ranked 13th on the NCAA Division II winningest active coaches list entering the season. He has led Edinboro to the NCAA Division II playoffs in four of the past six seasons (1989-90-92-93). The Scots are 35-9-2 in games against PSAC-West foes under Hollman. The Boro won the PSAC-West title in 1989.

Hollman also posted a 24-11-1 record at the College of Wooster to bring his overall coaching record to 82-34-3 in 11-plus seasons, a .702 winning percentage.

Frank Cignetti (IUP, 1960), is currently in his 10th year at Indiana. On Saturday, the Indians' boss will be shooting for his 100th win at IUP, as he holds an impressive 99-19-1 (.836) record as the all-time winningest coach at the school.

Cignetti's numbers against the PSAC-West are even more staggering, as he owns a 53-3-1 (.939) record against conference foes. The last conference loss came in 1992 when Clarion upended the Indians, 35-26. Since then, the Indians have posted 15 straight conference wins. Technically, Clarion later had to forfeit the contest because of an ineligible player, giving IUP the win. Edinboro tied Indiana that same year, marking the last time IUP didn't win a PSAC-West game. Discounting the Clarion game in '92, Cignetti has not lost to a conference opponent since September 23, 1989, when Edinboro beat the Indians, 37-0. All in all, Cignetti's non-losing streak in regular season conference games stands at 37.

Cignetti has led Indiana to the NCAA Division II national championship game twice (1990 and '93) and to the national playoffs seven times. He has been selected PSAC-West Coach of the Year on five occasions.

Cignetti also served as the head coach at West Virginia University from 1976-79 where he posted a record of 17-27, bringing his overall collegiate coaching record to 116-46-1 (.715).

THE SERIES

The Indians own a 43-16-4 advantage in a series which dates back to 1926. IUP has won the last two meetings, 21-7 last year, and 31-24 two seasons ago. In 1992, the two teams tied at 21, marking the last official time IUP failed to win a PSAC-West conference match-up.

The last time Edinboro defeated Indiana came during the 1989 campaign, when the Scots handed IUP a 37-0 loss on their way to a PSAC-West crown later that year. In addition to their two straight victories, the Indians have won 11 out of the last 13 games between these two rivals, dating back to a 6-3 Edinboro victory in 1982.

EDINBORO AT HOME, INDIANA ON THE ROAD

Edinboro has posted a 30-5-1 record at Sox Harrison Stadium during the Hollman era. The Scots are 3-0 at home this season, outscoring opponents 104-33 at Sox Harrison. Indiana has played only two of their eight games away from home this year, but the Indians have won them both — 28-25 at Grand Valley and 44-20 at California.

THOMPSON LEADS PSAC IN RUSHING

Edinboro running back Gerald Thompson, a redshirt freshman from Pittsburgh (Woodland Hills) continues to impress in his rookie season. Through seven games, Thompson has rushed for 941 yards to lead all PSAC rushers and rank fifth in NCAA Division II with an average of 134.4 rushing yards per game. He has rushed for 139 yards or more in five straight games, leading the Scots to five straight wins. His average of 6.0 yards per carry is among the best in the conference, as is his eight touchdowns (7 rushing and a 75-yard TD reception). The only time Thompson failed to gain 100 yards was in the Scots' loss to Appalachian State, when he suffered a foot injury (turf toe) and carried just six times for 27 yards. In six games against Division II opponents, Thompson is averaging 152.3 yards per game.

Tony Brinson provides the Scots with a nice one-two running back punch, adding 56.0 yards/gm on the ground. Brinson has scored two rushing touchdowns, and has caught 11 passes for 107 yards and a one touchdown.

MORE ON THE BORO OFFENSE

Edinboro wideout Gilbert Grantlin also is turning in a solid season. Grantlin has caught 28 passes for 561 yards and seven touchdowns. Grantlin is averaging 80.1 receiving yards per game, ranking him fifth among PSAC pass catchers. The junior also ranks seventh in the PSAC in kickoff returns (11 returns, 22.6-yard average) and sixth in the conference in all-purpose yardage (136.3 yards per game).

Junior quarterback Chris Hart calls the shots for Edinboro behind a veteran line that returned all seven starters from a year ago. Hart has completed 80 of 161 passes (49 percent) for 1,146 yards, with 10 touchdowns and 12 interceptions. He ranks seventh in the PSAC with a 115.1 efficiency ranking.

THE BORO DEFENSE

Much of Edinboro's success this year can be attributed to the solid play of the defense. Throw out the Appalachian State game, and the Scots have allowed just 10.0 points per game against NCAA Division II foes.

Senior defensive end Pat Schuster, a consensus All-American last season and a strong candidate to earn post-season accolades again this season, leads the team with 66 tackles, 43 solos, and 11 tackles for loss (-24 yds). He also leads the Scots with 10 sacks (-99) and is the school's all-time leader with 32. On the other end of the defensive line, senior Bryan Lambert was named PSAC-West Defensive Player of the Week for his eight tackle (six solo), four sack (-27 yards) performance against Slippery Rock. On the season, Lambert has 54 tackles (32 solo), seven sacks (-51 yards), six tackles for loss (-11 yards), one forced fumble and one recovery (returned 55 yards for a TD).

Senior linebacker Michael Sims is second to Schuster with 62 tackles. Thirty-two of Sims' stops have been solos. In last year's IUP/EUP match-up, Sims posted a season-high 16 tackles in a 21-7 loss. Junior safety Ron Allen has 57 tackles, including 37 solos. Sims and Allen are both tied for second in the PSAC with four interceptions.

A LOOK AT INDIANA

IUP's offense is similar to the Boro's, relying on a strong running game and a steady passing attack. On the ground, senior tailback Dennis Robinson has rushed for 823 yards on 143 attempts (102.9 yds/gm - 5.8 yds/att) in the Indian's first eight games. Last season, Robinson rushed for 171 yards and one touchdown on 33 attempts in IUP's victory. Other threats in the Indiana backfield are senior Vaughn Mosely (87 att-390 yds-2 TD) and redshirt freshman James Suber (60-467-5).

The passing game is anchored by senior quarterback Ken Ferguson (72 comp-138 att-10 TD-4INT), who has thrown for 1,152 yards and completed 52.2 percent of his passes. His favorite targets included junior flankers Tony Hardy (24 catches- 369 yds-2 td) and Mario Hardison (18-256-3), and senior split end Taun Henderson (11-290-4).

Junior All-American defensive end Jeff Turnage spearheads the IUP defense. Turnage has a team-high 60 tackles, including 38 solos and eight tackles for loss (-34 yds). He recorded 11 tackles (9 solo), and two tackles for loss in last year's game, earning PSAC-West Defensive Player of the Week honors. Senior strong safety Ruben Monroe has recorded 53 tackles and an IUP-best six pass break-ups. Senior linebacker Omar Stewart and junior free safety Reggie Carter have both added 42 tackles.

UP NEXT

Edinboro hosts Mansfield University next Saturday (Nov. 4), before closing out the regular season at Clarion. Mansfield (0-7) entertains Cheyney (0-7-1) this week. Indiana will host Clarion and travel to Lock Haven to close out the season.

MEMORABLE GAMES IN THE IUP-EDINBORO SERIES

Though Indiana holds a considerable lead in the all-time series (43-16-4), these two rivals have played some exceptional games throughout the Hollman/Cignetti era. Here are a look at some of those memorable contests:

1989 EDINBORO - 37 INDIANA - 0

As the country was suffering the effects of Hurricane Hugo, so too were the Scots and Indiana during a scoreless first half. In the second half it was not the weather, but Edinboro running back Elbert Cole who took control. Cole scored on runs of seven, seven and 37 to put the Boro up for good. Cole's second and third runs were set up on great defensive efforts by Matt Miller, who recovered a fumbled IUP snap, and Chip Conrad, who sacked Indian quarterback Tony Alliucci on fourth down and three. Other Edinboro scores included quarterback Hal Galupi's 5-yd run and running back Chris Conway's 65-yard scamper.

1990 INDIANA - 36 EDINBORO - 29

Perhaps the best game ever in the series between these two teams, the Indians came out on top in this see-saw affair. Down 14-7 in the second quarter, the Boro went up on top 22-14 after two Galupi to Ernest Priester touchdowns, and a John Baumann field goal. IUP's Charles Peoples returned the ensuing kickoff 98 yards, and scored on a 14-yard pass from Tony Alliucci to put the Indians up 28-22 at the half. Edinboro's Paul Stone caught a 9-yard pass from Galupi late in the third, but IUP got the capper when Michael Mann scored on a three-yard run midway through the fourth quarter to close out this classic.

1990 INDIANA - 14 EDINBORO - 7 NCAA DIVISION II PLAYOFF GAME

Indiana got on the board first when Alliucci found John White in the end zone on fourth and nine, making it 7-0 Indians. Following an IUP punt, Edinboro turned the ball over and Alliucci took advantage with a one-yard TD run. The Boro made it close when Priester hauled in a touchdown pass from Galupi in the fourth quarter, but it wasn't enough. It wasn't as exciting as the first game, but it was the same result - IUP by seven.

1991 INDIANA - 20 EDINBORO - 17

"You can throw out the records when these two teams meet" is the best way to sum up this game, as IUP entered Sox Harrison Stadium 9-0 and No. 1 in the country and the Scots stood unranked at 6-3. Indiana's Jay Murphy crossed the plain first when Jay Murphy went over the top from one yard out, but missed the PAT. Edinboro charged back when Derrick Russell shot up the middle to score from 9 yards away, making it 7-6 Edinboro. Russell hit paydirt again, this time from one yard, capping a 90-yard drive after Georj Lewis recovered an IUP fumble. Alliucci struck back for the Indians, hitting Johnny White and Theo Turner on respective three and 14-yard touchdown passes, making it 20-14 IUP. Scott Rupert hit a 28-yard field goal to close the gap, but the Indians' Michael Mann, who rushed for 214 yards on the day, took over by helping IUP run out the clock.

1992 INDIANA - 21 EDINBORO - 21

Indiana dotted the scoreboard first as Scott Woods hit Scott McClellan on a four-yard pass. Edinboro then exploded, scoring the game's next 21 points to take a two touchdown lead. Larry Jackson evened the score at seven in the first quarter on a 10-yard run. In the second stanza, Boro quarterback Jody Dickerson got hot, hitting Wrentie Martin from 11 yards away, and Jackson on a 12-yard pass to give the Scots a commanding halftime lead. In the second half, IUP refused to die. Woods hit JeMone Smith on a 6-yard scoring pass with 1:48 in the third to pull the Indians within seven. Trailing late in the fourth, Woods struck again, this time hooking up with Derrick Smith from 16 yards out with only 26 seconds showing on the clock. IUP decided to play for the tie, and Mike Geary's extra point kick ended this one in a stalemate.

1993 INDIANA - 31 EDINBORO - 24

On a cold and snowy day in Edinboro, IUP got the game's final score to pull out another nailbiter. Edinboro's Jody Dickerson hit Marcus Griffin on a 20-yard touchdown pass with only 7:05 remaining to give the Boro a 24-23 lead. However, IUP was not about to be upset, as Scott Woods hit Theo Turner to cap a 12-play, 64-yard drive with only 2:58 left. A two-point conversion and a strong defensive stands by the Indians iced the game.

Indiana was led by the man, that is All-American Michael Mann, who rushed for 219 yards and two touchdowns for the victors.

Thank you,
Edinboro University

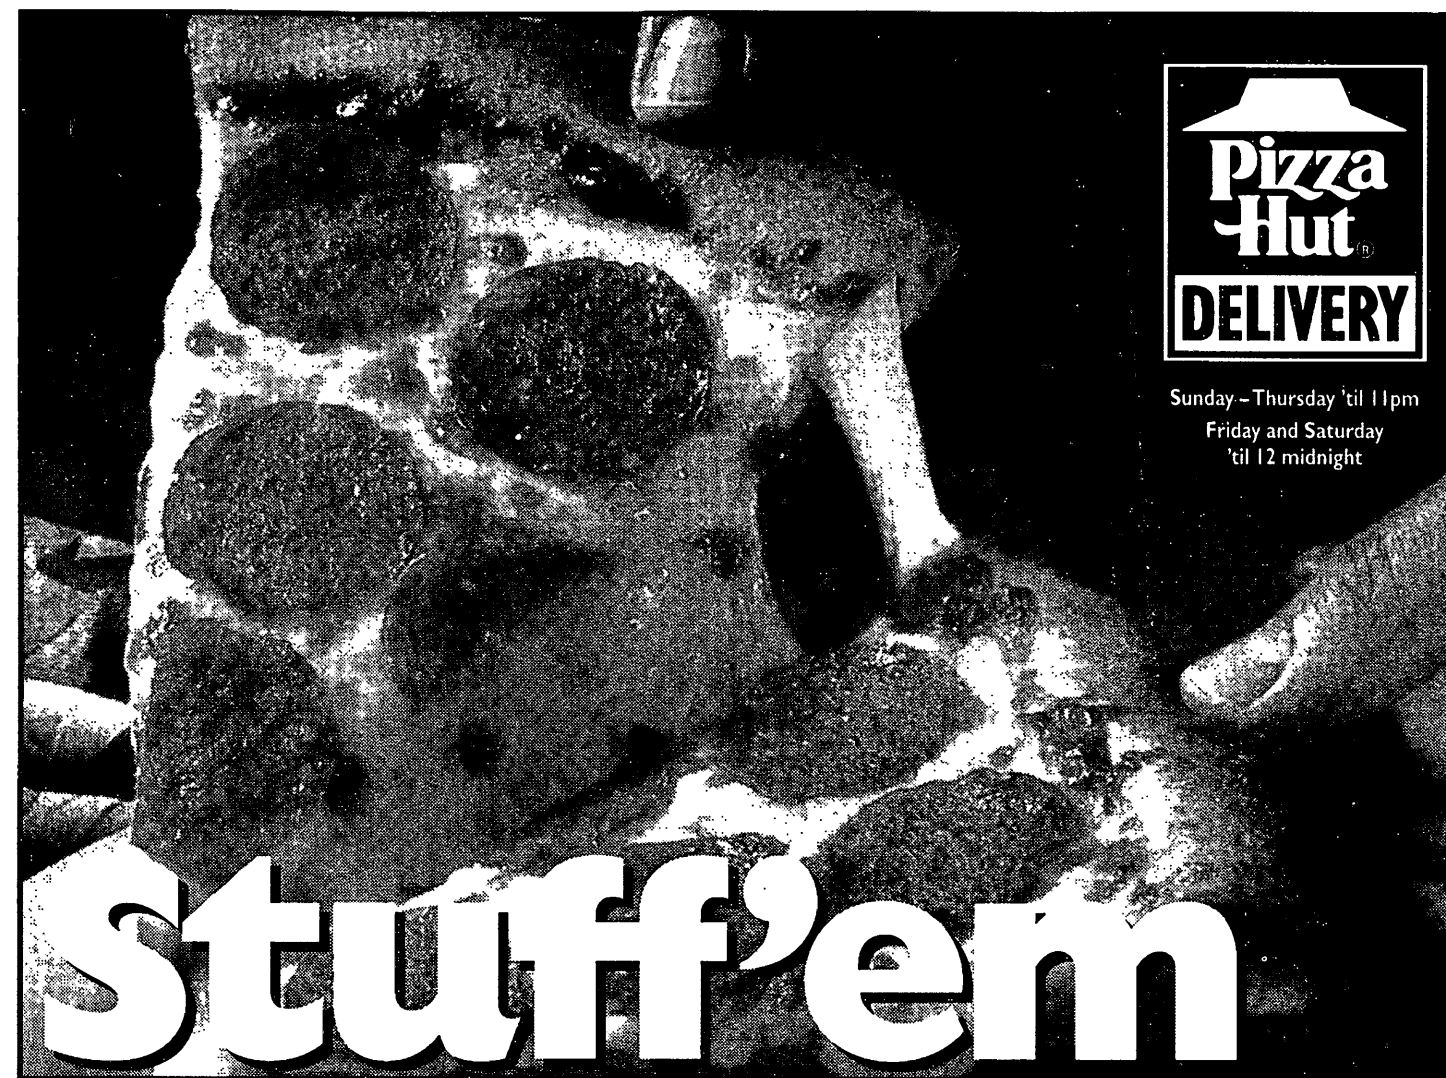

Walker Bros. Buick-Chevrolet has been in the automobile business in Edinboro since 1916 making us one of the oldest dealers in the country. However, we are mere youngsters compared to Edinboro University. Thru the decades our families have watched the school grow and mature into today's University. Not by accident, we have seen the town of Edinboro grow and mature at the same time, with much of that growth being former Edinboro students who stayed and made homes here after graduating. For this we say, "thank you, Edinboro University."

Edinboro University offers much more to the region than a fine education at a reasonable price. Almost daily there is either a cultural or athletic event right here in our own backyard providing great entertainment. Besides the entertainment, many of us use the physical facilities of the University. For this we say, "thank you, Edinboro University."

Finally, for those of us in business in the Edinboro area, the University provides a great economic benefit. Local patronage from University employees, students and all the spinoff employment created by the University is what makes us able to be a major sponsor of Edinboro athletics and today's game. For all this we say, "thank you, Edinboro University."

Sincerely,

Richard H. Walker
Richard A. Walker
Craig D. Walker
Randy J. Walker and all of our employees

Assistant Coaches

Scott Browning – Offensive Line

Starting his 10th season at the Boro, Scott has coached running backs and the defensive backfield in year's past and now enters his second season directing the offensive line. Under his guidance a year ago, the Scots' front line cleared the way for over 450 yards of total offense per game and conference best 250 yards per game rushing. In his many capacities, he has guided the fortunes of All-Americans Steve Russell, Michael Willis, Wade Smith, Georj Lewis, Mike Barnes, Elbert Cole and Jeremy O'Day.

Scott came to Edinboro from Ohio State University, where he coached receivers and running backs. Prior to his start at OSU, Browning coached at Worthington and Dayton-Fairview high schools in Ohio, from 1979-81. Then, as a graduate assistant, he coached the defensive secondary at New Mexico State in 1982.

In 1983, he mentored the receivers at Idaho State University which advanced to the Division I-AA playoffs.

Browning earned a master's degree in education administration from New Mexico State in 1983, and a BS in education from Ohio State in 1981. Earlier, before transferring to OSU, Scott attended Capital University where he played football for one season. Browning was a four-year letterman in four sports at Loudonville High School (OH) prior to his collegiate days. Scott is married to the former Lynn Hook, and has a son, Andrew Scott. The Brownings reside in Edinboro.

Dan Gierlak – Linebackers

Dan Gierlak enters his ninth season as a full-time coach, shifting his responsibilities from coaching the running backs to linebacker coach. He was formerly the head women's softball coach for the Scots and led the squad to the PSAC playoffs in 1990.

Gierlak came to the 'Boro from Thiel College (Pa.) where he coached the defensive secondary for the 1984 season. Dan, a starter and three-year letterwinner for the Plaid in the secondary, moved on to the semi-pro ranks with the Chicago Cowboys. During his short stint with the Cowboys, Gierlak's squad gained national championship honors in 1984 and runner up nationally in the 1985 season. Gierlak brings both playing and coaching experience to the staff, giving the Scot players an added plus on the offensive side of the ball. As backfield coach, he has guided former Harlon Hill finalist Elbert Cole and Boro All-Americans Lester Frye and Larry Jackson.

Originally from Buffalo, New York, Dan graduated from Edinboro with a degree in health and physical education. He and his wife, the former Amy Adams, four-year-old daughter, Alexandria Alicia, and two-year-old son, Daniel "Joey" Jr., reside in Edinboro.

Nicklaus Cronk – Defensive Line

In only his second year as defensive line coach, Cronk has already made an immediate impact. Last season he headed two defensive end standouts in Bryan Lambert and Pat Schuster. Lambert was a second team All-PSAC performer, while Schuster earned recognition as a first-team selection, and as an All-American. Before coming to Edinboro, Cronk served as the former position coach for tight ends at Indiana University. He spent two seasons with the Hoosiers, both of them as a graduate assistant to head coach Bill Mallory. His first season in Bloomington, Cronk spent time assisting the defensive coordinator with the linebackers, and he also helped in the recruiting duties. While at IU, he graduated with a master's degree in physical education administration. Prior to joining the staff at Indiana, Cronk was an assistant coach at Carroll Consolidated High School, handling the special teams and defensive ends.

Cronk spent his playing days at Wabash College, where he was an honorable mention performer in the Indiana College Athletic Conference, and captained the 1991 league championship squad. He graduated from Wabash with a bachelor of arts degree in political science. He and his wife, Karla, reside in Edinboro.

Tony Elliott – Defensive Coordinator/Secondary

Tony Elliott, a defensive back with the Green Bay Packers from 1986-88, enters his second season coaching the Fighting Scots, and first year as the Boro's defensive coordinator. Last season, Elliott was responsible for mentoring PSAC-West first team selection Steve Russell and second-team choices Marty Williams and Keith Cushenberry.

Elliott came to Edinboro from Wayne State (Michigan), where he served as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach in '93. He started at WSU in 1992 as defensive coordinator and linebacker coach. He began his coaching career at Alma College in 1990-91, before coaching at Grand Valley University in 1991-92. His main duties at those two schools were recruiting and teaching on the defensive side of the ball.

Elliott is a graduate of Central Michigan University where he majored in sports studies with a minor concentration in interpersonal communications. He was a four-year letterman for the Chippewas of CMU. Originally from Detroit, Elliott played at Finney High School from 1979-82 where he was an All-State performer.

Mike Nelson – Wide Receivers

Mike Nelson joins the Fighting Scot staff in his first full-time position as an assistant coach. He will be responsible for coaching the wide receivers.

Nelson enters the Division II coaching ranks after serving as a graduate assistant under head coach Bill Mallory of Indiana University. While at Indiana, Nelson earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 1992, followed by a master's degree in college student personnel administration in 1994. With the Hoosiers, he was responsible for working with the defensive backfield, linemen and linebackers. Furthermore, he coordinated IU's video program and assisted with recruiting. He has also served as an intern in the Indiana University athletic director's office.

His coaching experience also includes a position as assistant at Bloomington High School South, his alma mater, where he helped in coaching the defensive backs, wide receivers and special teams.

Vince Skillings – Running Backs

Vince Skillings, a sixth round draft pick of the Dallas Cowboys in 1980, joins the Fighting Scots' staff for his first season of collegiate coaching. He will be responsible for mentoring the running backs.

Skillings was an outstanding wide receiver at Ohio State, earning honors as a three-time All-Big Ten first team selection from 1978-80. At OSU, Skillings earned a bachelor's degree in communications in 1982. While he was with the Buckeyes, Skillings played on three straight Big Ten Championship teams from 1977-79, and was named All-American in 1979. In addition to his football accolades, Skillings was an accomplished track performer in high school, being distinguished as a state champion in the 440 yard dash.

After his release from the Cowboys in 1980, Skillings spent time in training camp with the Buffalo Bills in 1981, and then played two seasons with the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League. He also served in the armed forces as a U.S. Army Battalion Signal officer.

Prior to his appointment at Edinboro, Skillings served as an assistant football coach at his high school alma mater, Derry Area Senior High.

Miller and Metzka Tabbed PSAC's Top Scholar-Athletes

Shelley Miller of Bloomsburg and Slippery Rock's Mark Metzka were selected as the 1994-95 Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (P.S.A.C.) Scholar-Athletes of the Year.

The two student-athletes were selected by the P.S.A.C. sports information directors from a field of 15 athletes nominated by their respective athletic departments. Miller and Metzka represent the best of the P.S.A.C., excelling in both athletic and academic arenas.

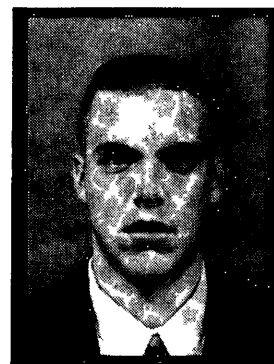

The P.S.A.C. Scholar-Athlete Awards are designated annually to the top female and male student-athletes that have attained at least a 3.25 cumulative grade point average (GPA) and have also performed at the highest level in athletic competition.

Miller, a senior Social Work major from Waynesboro, PA (Waynesboro HS), maintained a 3.48 GPA in her four years at Bloomsburg while competing in field hockey and softball.

A three-time member of the P.S.A.C. All-Academic Team, Miller is also a three-time All-American and All-P.S.A.C. selection in field hockey as well as being named the NCAA Division

Shelley Miller

Mark Metzka

II Player of the Year for 1994-95. During her career at Bloomsburg, the field hockey team was 74-9-4, winning a national championship in 1993 and finishing national runner-up three times. She holds the school record for season and career assists posting 32 assists in 34 career games.

Also a member of the softball team, Miller saw action in 34 games while starting in 25 in helping the Huskies to the national runner-up spot this past season and a P.S.A.C. title.

Metzka, a senior Sport Management major from New Middletown, OH (Springfield Local), earned a 3.874 cumulative GPA while excelling in basketball.

A three year starter for The Rock, Metzka is only one of 17 SRU basketball players to score over 1,000 career points (1,073) and is one of the all-time assist leaders in school history with 301. He finished sixth in the NCAA Division II this past season in three point makes per game at 3.8 while averaging 17.7 points per game, second on the team.

Metzka is a first-team 1994-95 GTE Academic All-American after garnering second-team honors last season.

Jack Benedict Named 1995 PSAC Media Award-Winner

Jack Benedict, sports director of 1160/WCCS Radio, Homer City, has been selected the 1995 winner of the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (P.S.A.C.) George Heaslip Media Award.

Benedict is the seventh recipient of the annual award presented by the sports information directors of the P.S.A.C. to a media professional for his or her efforts in covering Conference student-athletes and teams.

1995-96 represents Benedict's 28th year of sportscasts of IUP football and men's basketball, and on television for several years when IUP produced a weekly football program on KBL-TV, Pittsburgh, that was carried by the PRIME cable network in a several-state area. He has produced a daily morning sports show first with WDAD, Indiana, from 1969 to 1989 and then with WCCS.

In the process of broadcasting IUP events, from across the state and literally all parts of the United States, Benedict has described games involving every P.S.A.C. university. Followers of all such teams have invariably commented on the accurate, objective manner in which he has reported on the competition.

Originally from Mount Pleasant, in Westmoreland County, he first worked seven years (1962-69) as sports director of WCVI Radio in neighboring Connellsville.

How well he has performed was most recently denoted by his earning the Pennsylvania Association of Broadcasting award for his coverage of the 1993 IUP/North Alabama NCAA Division II national championship football game. This was his fourth PAB sports award; he was also recognized in 1980 for "Best Public Service in Pennsylvania" for a report on the homeless.

Inducted into the Indiana County Hall of Fame this past spring (1995), in part as a result of his avid interest in American Legion baseball as well, he has been heard nationwide by reporting and interviews done for the CBS radio network.

As a radio personality, Benedict joins Jim Doyle of W H L M , Bloomsburg, who received the Heaslip Award in 1993. Recognized last year was Tom Rose, sports editor of the Washington (Pa.) Observer-Reporter.

Other winners, in order since the honor was initiated in 1989, have been sports writers Ray Kienzl of the Pittsburgh Press, Ross Nevel of the Lock Haven Express (a former sports information director at LHU), Skip Hutter of the Harrisburg Patriot-News and Pete Zapadka of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette.

Sports Medicine Staff and Marching Band

The 1995 Edinboro University Spirit of the Scots Marching Band is under the direction of Dr. Gary S. Grant. Bruce Best is the pipe instructor and John Fleming is the faculty advisor. Drum majors are Diann Cemeans and Chris Snyder. Tam captains are Alicia Montedoro and Jennifer Zampogna and silk captain is Dawn Smith.

This year's band is 125 strong and is proud to announce another exciting performance schedule. In addition to performing at home football games, they will travel to Slippery Rock University of Pennsylvania. The Spirit of the Scots will participate in local and regional parades, the Tournament of Bands Championship in Washington, Pennsylvania, and at the September 17 Buffalo Bills football game.

The Edinboro University Spirit of the Scots is proud of the tradition of active student involvement and leadership. This year the section leaders of the band are Ed Best, Sherrie Black, Michelle Bockstoce, Chad Danko, Kim Hartman, Mike Konieczko, Andy McKay, Jeff Mortimer, Alison Reichenfeld, Rob Rohrbach, Joe Sensor, Erin Stahlman, and Aaron Strausser.

Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference and Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education

The Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) was organized in 1951 for the purpose of promoting and administering men's athletic programs within the fourteen state teachers colleges in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

In 1977, due to the interest and growth of women's athletics, the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference was restructured to provide for women's programs.

From its inception, each Conference member selected its own competitive division within the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). In 1980, however, the presidents of the schools voted to reclassify to Division II.

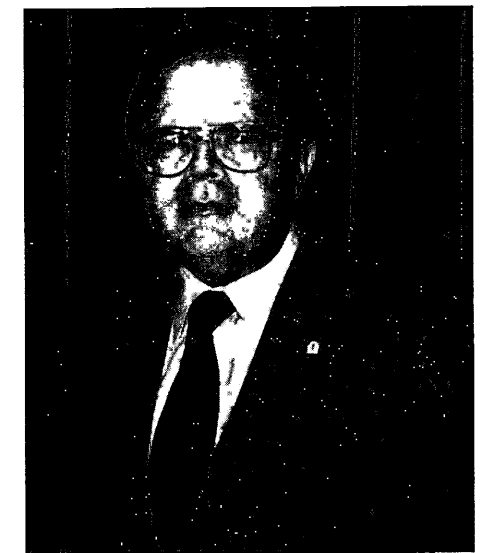

In 1983, all member institutions were granted university status as a result of Legislative Act 188 which formed the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education (SSHE). This system now enrolls in excess of 99,000 students. The alumni of the SSHE number more than 402,000, including 287,000 in Pennsylvania. The chancellor of the SSHE is Dr. James H. McCormick.

One of the largest conferences in the nation, the PSAC is under the leadership of a board of directors (the 14 university presidents). The Conference also employs a commissioner, Dr. Charles A. 'Tod' Eberle.

The PSAC sponsors 20 men's and women's intercollegiate sports. For men the PSAC offers baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, soccer, swimming, tennis, track and field, and wrestling. For women the sports include basketball, cross country, field hockey, lacrosse, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis, track and field and volleyball.

Although all 14 institutions are members of NCAA Division II, nine schools have elected to participate at the Division I level in selected sports.

The PSAC is one of the nation's most respected Division II conferences. Annually the PSAC places several teams in various NCAA top 20 polls. In addition, it has produced numerous national champions over the years.

Chancellor James H. McCormick
