Greetings from the President

Dear Family, Friends and Fans of the Fighting Scots:

Welcome to Edinboro University and thank you for your interest in Fighting Scot Wrestling. We are proud of the spirit of excellence, teamwork and collegiality that is fostered by our men's and women's programs in basketball, cross country, football, soccer, softball, swimming, track, volleyball, wrestling, and wheelchair basketball. Our student-athletes are unique and dedicated individuals who excel both in and out of the classroom. They entertain and inspire us through competition in the PSAC, EWL and NWBA athletic conferences.

The University-wide theme that will guide us through our Sesquicentennial celebration in the year 2006-07 is, "Building a prosperous future through academic excellence and civility." This theme challenges the academic community to consider its role in enabling the success and vitality of our students and the region, state, nation, and world that we serve. Clearly, athletic events and programs enhance the quality of life for the northwestern Pennsylvania region while also providing student-athletes and others with learning experiences that will serve them for a lifetime.

I express appreciation to our coaches and Athletics administration and staff for the excellent leadership and guidance they provide for our student-athletes. It's great to be a Fighting Scot fan! Go Scots!

Sincerely,

Frank G. Pogue
President

Assistant Coaches

Lou Rosselli Edinboro University '93

Lou Rosselli is in his ninth season as an assistant coach at Edinboro, the last six as a full-time assistant. He previously served for three seasons as a volunteer assistant at his alma mater. A two-time All-American as a Fighting Scot, Rosselli established himself as one of the top lightweight freestyle wrestlers in the United States before retiring after the 2000 Olympic Trials.

Rosselli won the U.S. National Championships in 1995, 1996 and 1999, earning a berth on the 1996 U.S. Olympic team with a dramatic victory in the finals of the Olympic Trials. At the Centennial Olympic Games in Atlanta, Rosselli competed along with former collegiate coach Bruce Baumgartner. He was in contention for a bronze medal before suffering a broken arm during his second victory, forcing him to withdraw from the competition.

As a collegiate wrestler, Rosselli placed third at the NCAA Division I National Championships at 118 lbs. as a senior in 1993, after a fourth place finish as a junior in 1991. Rosselli was selected the Outstanding wrestler at both the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference Tournament and the Eastern Wrestling League Championships in 1993 after winning individual titles at both events. At the time he became just the second wrestler at Edinboro to win three PSAC championships, and his 136 career victories still ranks third on Edinboro's all-time wins list.

Off the mats, Rosselli was an Academic All-American as a Fighting Scot, completing work on his Bachelor's Degree in Health & Physical Education in 1993.

A native of Middleport, NY, Rosselli was a two-time New York state champion at Royalton-Hartland High School, in addition to twice finishing as the state runner-up. He and his wife, Amy, reside in Edinboro with their sons, Jordan (4), and Tyler (1).

Gary Astorino Edinboro University '81

Gary Astorino enters his 16th campaign as an assistant wrestling coach with the Fighting Scots. He attended Edinboro, collecting 58 victories to rank in the top thirty in career wins. He was the recipient of the Butch McBride Scholarship, presented to the student-athlete exemplifying both academic and athletic excellence.

Astorino plays an instrumental role in recruiting student-athletes in addition to his work on the mats. While serving as a graduate assistant coach, he started the Edinboro

Wrestling Coaches Clinic, which has developed a reputation as one of the top clinics in the region and is now in its 17th year.

After completing work on his Bachelor of Science Degree in Elementary and Secondary Education, Astorino went on to earn a Master's of Arts Degree in Personnel Services. He later earned a Certificate of Advanced Graduate Studies in Secondary Guidance and Counseling.

Astorino began his coaching career at his alma mater, Punxsutawney High School, where he coached three years before returning to Edinboro to assist the school's drive to the Division I ranks. He served as the coach at McDowell High School in 1989.

In addition to his duties at Edinboro, Astorino serves as a guidance counselor at nearby General McLane High School. He and his wife, Terri, reside in Edinboro with their three children Drew (15), Lauren (13), and Matt (10).

Mike Haheesy Edinboro University '87

Former Fighting Scot All-American Mike Haheesy returned to Edinboro as an assistant coach a year ago. Haheesy previously served as an assistant coach at Gannon University from 1998-2002, helping produce eight All-Americans and one National Champion.

Haheesy earned Division II All-American honors twice at Edinboro after transferring from the University of Iowa. He captured the 158 lb. National Championship in 1985, one five Division II National Champions ever at Edinboro and only one of seven all-time National Champions at Edinboro. He finished second at 158 lbs. the following year. He finished with a 36-6-1 record in 1984-85, and was 33-8-2 in 1985-86. His career winning percentage of .820 (69-14-3) remains the ninth-best in school history.

A 1987 graduate of Edinboro with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Health and Physical Education, Haheesy was inducted into the Edinboro Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998. He was inducted into the NCAA Division II National Wrestling Hall of Fame in 2002. In addition, he was recognized as the Sox Harrison Award winner in 1986, symbolic of Edinboro's top senior male athlete.

Haheesy served as the head wrestling coach at Warren (Pa.) High School from 1998-93, posting a record of 51-20-2. He produced three state qualifiers and one state runner-up. Next came a three-year stint at McDowell High School, coaching the Trojans from 1993-96. During that time McDowell had a 37-5 record, winning the Metro League championship, Sectional championship and District championship. He had eight state qualifiers. He was named the District 10 Sectional Wrestling Coach of the Year in 1993, '95 and '96.

Haheesy and his wife, Kathy, reside in Erie with their three children -- Madison (11), Haley (10) and Hunter (7). In addition to his undergraduate degree from Edinboro, Haheesy received a Master's of Education Degree in Administration, Supervision and Curriculum from St. Bonaventure University in June 1993, and a Doctorate of Education Degree in Administration and Leadership from Indiana University of Pennsylvania in August 2002. In addition to his coaching responsibilities, Haheesy serves as the assistant principal at Fairview (Pa.) High School.

2003-04 Preview

Alex Clemens had many high expectations placed on him when he arrived a year ago, and for the most part he lived up to his advance billing. The sophomore went 28-15 with three falls, capturing the PSAC Championship and finishing third at the EWL Championships. He went 1-2 in his first trip to Nationals, being eliminated by a 2-1 tiebreaker to 11th-ranked Jordon Holm of Northern Iowa. Clemens also captured second place at the Body Bar Invitational and third place at the Eastern Michigan Open.

"Alex is focused on winning a national championship," related Flynn. "I'd be shocked if he's not in the hunt. It's just a matter of time for him. He's certainly putting in the work. I expect him to be a lot more dominant this year. He won the close one's on guts last year. He took a big step this summer. We need him to win week in and week out."

Freshman Jim Gibson moves up from 174 lbs. to 184 lbs, and could even compete at 197 lbs. He redshirted a year ago, finishing 7-9 in open events. "Jim came back a lot bigger and stronger, which is always a good thing in college wrestling," Flynn pointed out. He's another young man who is the future of our squad. I expect him to take a big step."

Senior Mark Hudson, sophomore Dave Bubar and redshirt freshman Dan Watts add depth. Flynn noted that Watts came back bigger and stronger, but after going 1-4 in limited open tourney action, "it's time for him to step up and get some wins".

How big were David Shunamon's shoes to fill? So big, that Flynn will call on two freshman, Jeremy Mosley and Mike LaBella, to try and replace his former stand-out. Both lack experience, but have the ability to enjoy bright careers at Edinboro.

Mosley not only must make the jump to collegiate wrestling, but must do it after missing time last year with a knee injury. As a sophomore he was the Florida state champion while competing for University Christian High School, where he posted a career record of 92-29. At 6'4", he is a stark contrast to Shunamon, who was a short but muscular 197 pounder.

"Jeremy was hurt his senior year," commented Flynn. "He has a huge upside. No one recruited him hard. He's a big kid who could fill out. We're excited about him."

LaBella was the New York state champion this past year as a senior at Massapequa High School. "I have big plans for him," beamed Flynn. "I think he can compete pretty quickly. He fits the mold of the kind of kids we want. He works year around. He will have success."

HWT

Joe Hennis no longer has Reuben Daniels, who transferred, to push him, but the third-year sophomore can still expect a stern challenge from redshirt freshman Shane Mihalko.

"With a little improvement Joe can be a top twelve guy," Flynn predicted. "He needs to improve his focus. He's shown a little of that early this fall. We have all the confidence in his upside. He just has to put in the hours. He can compete with the top guys. He finished fourth at the EWL's. Hopefully that made him hungry."

Hennis finished the year with a 21-13 record, leading the Scots with 9 falls. His best finish was a third place at the Eastern Michigan Open.

Mihalko came to Edinboro with impressive credentials after finishing third in the Pennsylvania state championships as a junior and senior. He missed most of the year with an injury, but Flynn isn't about to give up on him. "Shane is training harder than he ever has in his life. He's a bid kid, and I think down the road he'll be tough."
