2009 Women's Soccer

Greetings from the President

Dear Family, Friends and Fans of the Fighting Scots:

Welcome to Edinboro University and thank you for your interest in Fighting Scot Women's Soccer. We are proud of the spirit of excellence, teamwork and collegiality that is fostered by our men's and women's programs in basketball, cross country, football, soccer, softball, swimming, track, volleyball, wrestling, and wheelchair basketball. Our student-athletes are unique and dedicated individuals who excel both in and out of the classroom. They entertain and inspire us through competition in the PSAC, EWL and NWBA athletic conferences.

The University-wide theme that will guide us through our Sesquicentennial celebration in the year 2006-07 is, "Building a prosperous future through academic excellence and civility." This theme challenges the academic community to consider its role in enabling the success and vitality of our students and the region, state, nation, and world that we serve. Clearly, athletic events and programs enhance the quality of life for the northwestern Pennsylvania region while also providing student-athletes and others with learning experiences that will serve them for a lifetime.

I express appreciation to our coaches and Athletics administration and staff for the excellent leadership and guidance they provide for our student-athletes. It's great to be a Fighting Scot fan! Go Scots!

Sincerely,

Frank G. Pogue
President

Fighting Scots Playoff Hopes Rest on Strong Defense

The Edinboro University women's soccer team has never been known as an offensive juggernaut. But head coach Gary Kagiavas, the architect of the program since its inception in 1996, has put together winning teams based on strong defense and timely offense. Case in point, the 2002 Fighting Scots edition posted a 9-5-4 record despite scoring just 31 goals. The stingy defense limited opponents to 22 goals while recording seven shutouts.

The Fighting Scots enter the 2003 campaign having gone 6-0-1 in their final seven matches, but with all-time leading scorer Nicole Vlahovic gone, even Kagiavas wonders where the offense will come from.

"I'm not sure where we're going to score from," fretted Kagiavas. "Defensively we'll be strong. Depth-wise we're very strong. I'm just not sure who's going to step up and score our goals."

Kagiavas was counting on Amy Jeffries, a freshman a year ago who scored a team-high 5 goals, to lead the way, but she transferred. Promising freshmen Ashley Pulman and Liz Soeder are battling injuries, with Pulman out for the year with a knee injury.

"We're going to need a collective effort to score," Kagiavas emphasized. "It will have to come from four or five different people, not just one."

Despite the dearth of scoring talent, Kagiavas enters the 2003 season with great optimism. His squads have won at least nine games in each of the last five years, with the Scots seeking a return trip to the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference playoffs after qualifying for the first time in 2001.

"We have eight seniors, so I think we should be fine leadership-wise," he commented. "Out of those eight six start. We shouldn't have issues there. This group, in particular, is very good to work with. They're very focused and motivated. They seem very ready to step up and assume leadership roles.

"I'm optimistic and pretty excited, looking forward to this year," he continued. "Can I guarantee where we'll be? No. I think we should hold our own in the PSAC, and do very well. Our junior class is going to make a bigger impact than ever before. I'm hoping the freshmen will come in and contribute. It's a good class."

Standing in the way of a second trip to the PSAC playoffs in three years, and a first-ever trip to the NCAA Division II Tournament, is a challenging schedule. "We added region games in the belief we could make the NAAs", admitted Kagiavas. "The PSAC is one of the strongest conferences in the country without a doubt. Up to six teams normally get nationally-ranked. Plus we have a strong out of conference schedule. Mercyhurst, Bridgeport, which is one of the top teams in the New York Athletic Conference, for starters. When you look at our conference alone, we have our work cut out for us. Going to Queens(NY) and Bridgeport will be a real challenge.

"I'm not sure who will win the PSAC," stressed Kagiavas. "Lock Haven and Bloomsburg are strong, but I don't think they'll dominate like in the past. Millersville, Shippensburg, West Chester, Slippery Rock and Edinboro are all emerging. There are no gimmes in the conference.

With six teams participating in the PSAC Playoffs, Kagiavas' first goal is to be in the top six. Next is a berth in the NCAA Tournament. "Our strength is in the back," he pointed out. "That will keep us in every game. Because our defense is so strong, we won't give up many goals. We look to get a one or two goal lead and maintain it."

FORWARDS

Kagiavas admits that he emphasized the forward position in his recruiting efforts. Now he hopes that one of his youngsters can come through to provide some scoring punch. With experienced scorers lacking up front, he could well call on a pair of freshmen - Liz Soeder and Carrie Vance - to start. Soeder, from Notre

Jamie Tekotte

2003 Outlook

Dame-Cathedral Latin(OH) High School, was a third team All-Greater Cleveland choice as a senior, but she may start off slowly due to injury. Vance had 5 goals and 22 assists as a senior at Berea(OH) High School and was also an All-Greater Cleveland selection.

Returnees Kristy Woods and Chelsea Lawrence also figure in the mix. Woods, a senior, scored one goal last year. Freshman Kristen Manfredi, another Ohio player from St. Peter Chanel(OH) High School, was an honorable mention All-Greater Cleveland choice.

MIDFIELDERS

Senior Jamie Tekotte enjoyed an outstanding season in her first year as a Fighting Scot in 2001, finishing as the second-leading scorer with 12 goals and 5 assists for 29 points, tying the season record for goals. She was a second team All-Northeast Region pick and earned first team All-PSAC honors.

2002 was a different story for the Central Michigan transfer. She was limited to 4 goals and just 8 points, going the final six matches without a goal. It was no coincidence that Vlahovic missed the last six matches with an injury.

"Jamie was keyed on more last year," pointed out Kagiavas. "She created more opportunities last year than the year before, but we didn't have a forward to finish. She needs that complement."

Senior Stacey Oldenburg comes off a 2002 campaign in which she tied for the team lead in scoring with 10 points on 3 goals and 4 assists.

Five other returnees will add strength to the midfield.

Junior Fallon Frye played in 13 matches, contributing a goal and an assist. Tricia Chilcott, a sophomore, had an assist in 14 matches, and junior Stacie Potter played in 17 matches. Sophomore Chelsea Lawrence played in five matches as a freshman.

Freshmen figure to bolster this area significantly. Kagiavas has high hopes for Karen Achtyl from Aquinas Institute(NY). Achtyl played on three Class B state championship teams, with 8 goals and 16 assists as a senior. Vance could see time in the midfield, as well, as will Hayley Lambert and Amy DiVencenzo. Lambert was a two-time first team All-Medina County selection at Wadsworth(OH) High School, while DiVencenzo helped Penn Trafford(PA) High School to PIAA state championship game, earning All-Section honors twice.

DEFENDERS

The backbone of the team is the defense, which returns two starters in seniors Shannon Askey and Summer Darst, along with part-time starters Kelly Collins, a senior, and Kathy Lantzy, a sophomore. But the key to it all is Lynzie Ellison, who enters her fourth year as a starter. Ellison will start at sweeper after contributing 2 goals and 2 assists last year.

Askey and Darst enter their third year as starters. Collins got the starting call in seven matches last, with a goal and an assist, while Lantzy had an assist while starting five matches.

Junior Maura Sansone, a former transfer from Kent State who appeared in 17 matches last year with a goal and 3 assists, will pressure Ellison at sweeper, and is sure to see plenty of action. Junior Becky Hicho is also available, after playing in six games and scoring one goal. Teri Michalski, a senior, has battled injuries throughout her career, playing in three matches in 2002, assisting on one goal. Sophomore Jessica Falconer is another returnee pushing for time after appearing in five matches.

Freshman Lindsey Snyder is talented enough that Kagiavas expects her to push for significant playing time despite the crowded picture. A strong, physical player, she helped Cumberland Valley(PA) High School to the PIAA state quarterfinals twice, along with two District championships and four Mid-Penn crowns.

GOALKEEPERS

While four-year starter Amy Stevens has departed, junior Abbey Mortus has seen plenty of action the last two years. She played in ten matches a year ago, finishing with a 7-2-1 record and a 1.29 goals against average, with a pair of shutouts.

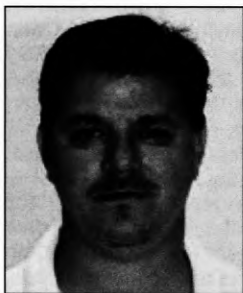

"Abbey got hurt in the spring, but she will be okay," noted Kagiavas. "We will count a lot on her. She needs to be mentally prepared, and I believe she is. She can be a fantastic goalkeeper."

Kagiavas feels freshman Jenn Wilson is a year away, but he likes her potential and feels she'll be a solid backup this year. Wilson set the school record for shutouts (7) as a senior at Solon High School, finishing with a 0.93 goals against average.

Head Coach

Gary Kagiavas

Gary Kagiavas was appointed Edinboro University's first head coach of the Fighting Scot women's soccer program in August of 1996. The former Gannon University standout started the Edinboro program that year, and since that time it has become one of the stronger teams in the Northeast Region.

A year ago the Fighting Scots finished sixth in the Northeast Region with a 9-5-4 record. After a slow start Edinboro finished with six wins and a tie in its final seven matches, falling one point shy of qualifying for the PSAC Playoffs. Kagiavas owns an overall record of 55-63-8 in seven seasons, with nine or more wins in each of the last five seasons, and four straight seasons of .500 or better.

Kagiavas' teams accomplished a rarity in his first six seasons, finishing with a better record each year. The 2001 Fighting Scots went out and posted a 11-5-1 record, including a school-record six game winning streak. The Fighting Scots advanced to the PSAC Playoffs for the first time. Edinboro dropped a 1-0 decision to Bloomsburg in its first postseason venture, but that could not diminish a season which saw the Scots climb as high as 14th in the NSCAA Division II rankings. Along the way, the Scots defeated 13th-ranked Slippery Rock, 3-0, while suffering four of its five losses to nationally-ranked opponents. Kagiavas was recognized as the PSAC Women's Soccer Coach of the Year.

Thanks to five wins in its final seven contests, Edinboro posted its first winning season in 2000, going 10-8-1. Along the way, the team posted a four-game win streak in which it held opponents scoreless for 500 minutes. The team also posted the program's first win over local rival Gannon.

The Fighting Scots weren't without their growing pains, as Edinboro's first-ever women's soccer edition finished with a 2-14-0 record in 1996. The ledger improved slightly in 1997, as Kagiavas' second team posted a 5-10-1 finish. The Fighting Scots improved to 9-10-0 in 1998. That included a 2-1 overtime win over West Virginia Wesleyan, an outfit ranked second in Division II at the time.

In 1999 the Fighting Scots posted a 9-9-1 finish to earn their first non-losing season. Edinboro debuted in the regional rankings during the season, a first for Kagiavas's squad. Included in the victories was another triumph over a nationally-ranked foe, as the Fighting Scots posted a 2-1 win at 14th-ranked Slippery Rock.

Kagiavas brought a wealth of coaching experience to Edinboro, both locally and at the international level. He joined the Edinboro staff after serving as assistant manager of the Family First Sports Park in Erie for two years. At Family First, he was responsible for organizing all phases of the facility's indoor and outdoor soccer leagues. Kagiavas was assistant tournament director for the 210-team Flagship Cup tournament.

Kagiavas has served as the coaching director of the Edinboro Regional Soccer Club. Under his direction, the organization has grown from four to 14 teams. In the 1997-98 season, he took the 15-under team to the state finals. This past summer he took the Erie Admirals U17 Girls team to the state championship and to the Final Four of Region 1. The team finished in the top 16 in the country in their age group. He is the girls coaching director at the Erie Admirals, with two state champions in three years.

Edinboro University is a member of the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC). The PSAC, with 52 years of organized competition, has established itself as one of the most respected NCAA Division II athletic conferences.

In its history the PSAC has laid claim to 33 NCAA team championships and 186 individual title winners, giving credence to its fine athletic tradition. The conference's prosperity on the national level was abundant again in 2002-03, as nearly one-third of the league's 245 teams participated in NCAA postseason competition. The PSAC also distinguishes itself as the second largest Division II conference in terms of sports sponsorship, awarding titles for 22 different sports.

Academic success is paramount for PSAC member institutions as well. During the 2002-03 academic year, 1,200 student-athletes were designated by the conference as "Scholar-Athletes" after attaining a cumulative grade point average of 3.25 or better. Additionally, 11 PSAC student-athletes earned Verizon/CoSIDA Academic All-America Awards last season.
