

EDINBORO
University

2004 Women's Soccer

Head Coach Gary Kagiavas

Gary Kagiavas was appointed Edinboro University's first head coach of the Fighting Scots women's soccer program in August of 1996. The former Gannon University stand-out started the Edinboro program that year, and since that time it has become one of the stronger teams in the Northeast Region.

A year ago the Fighting Scots registered a school record for wins while finishing with a 12-7-1 record. Edinboro made its second appearance in the PSAC Playoffs. The Fighting Scots climbed as high as fourth in the Northeast Region rankings during the year. The year before Edinboro fell one point shy of qualifying for postseason action, compiling a 9-5-4 record. The 2002 squad finished with six wins and a tie in its last seven matches.

Kagiavas owns an overall record of 67-70-9 in eight seasons, with ten or more wins in each of the last six seasons and five straight seasons of .500 or better. Once a rare occurrence to show up in the Northeast Region rankings, the Fighting Scots are now a weekly member of the top ten.

Kagiavas' teams accomplished a rarity in his first six seasons, finishing with a better record each year.

The 2001 Fighting Scots went out and posted an 11-5-1 record, including a school-record six-game winning streak. The Fighting Scots advanced to the PSAC Playoffs for the first time.

Edinboro dropped a 1-0 decision to Bloomsburg in its first postseason venture, but that could not diminish a season which saw the Scots climb as high as 14th in the NSCAA Division II rankings. Along the way, the Scots defeated 13th-ranked Slippery Rock, 3-0, while suffering four of its five losses to nationally-ranked opponents. Kagiavas was recognized as the PSAC Women's Soccer Coach of the Year.

Thanks to five wins in its final seven contests, Edinboro posted its first winning season in 2000, going 10-8-1. The Fighting Scots posted a four-game win streak in which it held opponents scoreless for 500 minutes. The team also recorded the program's first win over local rival Gannon.

The Fighting Scots weren't without their growing pains, as Edinboro's first-ever women's soccer edition finished with a 2-14-0 record in 1996. The ledger improved slightly in 1997, as Kagiavas' second team posted a 5-10-1 finish. The Fighting Scots improved to 9-10-0 in 1998. That included a 2-1 overtime win over West Virginia Wesleyan, an outfit ranked second in Division II at the time.

In 1999 the Fighting Scots posted a 9-9-1 finish to earn their first non-losing season. Edinboro debuted in the regional rankings during the season, a first for Kagiavas's squad. Included in the victories was another triumph over a nationally-ranked foe, as the Fighting Scots posted a 2-1 win at 14th-ranked Slippery Rock.

Kagiavas brought a wealth of coaching experience to Edinboro, both locally and at the international level. He joined the two years. At Family First, he was responsible for organizing all phases of the facility's indoor and outdoor soccer leagues. Kagiavas was assistant tournament director for the 210-team Flagship Cup tournament.

Kagiavas has served as the coaching director of the Edinboro Regional Soccer Club. Under his direction, the organization has grown from four to 14 teams. In the 1997-98 season, he took the 15-under team to the state finals. The past two summers he has taken the Erie Admirals U17 Girls team to the state championship and to the Final Four of Region 1. The team has finished in the top 16 in the country in their age group. He is the girls coaching director at the Erie Admirals. In 2004 Kagiavas had two more state championships with the Erie Admirals in the Under-17 and Under-18 girls teams. This marks four state champions in four years.

Kagiavas was a standout defender at Gannon from 1987-91, and played professionally in his native South Africa, along with Greece and Canada, after earning his bachelor's degree in 1991. He has held a variety of coaching positions in many levels of competition since 1989, highlighted by a successful stint as a professional coach in South Africa.

At Gannon, Kagiavas was a four-year starter at midfield and defender for a Golden Knight team which advanced to the NCAA Division II Final Four in 1989 and 1990. Gannon was 58-14-8 during his four seasons, with three NCAA playoff appearances.

Kagiavas played professionally for a St. Catherine's team that won the Canadian Cup in the National Soccer League. He was a player/coach for the Springs Old Boys and Boksburg 'Two for Joy,' as well as for the Eastern Transvaal all-select indoor team.

In 1994, Kagiavas served as the head coach of Gannon's men's junior varsity soccer program, also assisting with the varsity squad as the Golden Knight men posted a 15-2-0 record and advanced to the NCAA Final Four.

Kagiavas began his coaching career with the Erie Strikers while also directing the Villa Maria Elementary School team. In the spring of 1992, Kagiavas was assistant coach of the Boksburg "Two for Joy" Division I team that competed in the National Soccer League of South Africa. In the summer of 1991, he was the head coach of the Springs (South Africa) Old Boys of the Division II men's semi-professional league, earning Coach of the Year honors.

Kagiavas has earned a South African coaching license, a professional referee license, and his United States Soccer Federation National B License and has his NSCAA Regional Coaching License. He serves as the vice president for the PSAC Soccer Committee and is a member of the regional NSCAA ranking committee. In addition, he is the chairman of the NCAA Regional Ranking Committee for the Northeast Region.

He and his wife, Dawn, a native of St. Marys, Pa., reside in Erie with their eight-year-old daughter, Kaylee.

Assistant Coaches

Kelly Gray

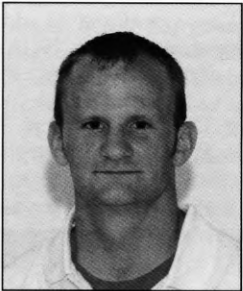

Kelly Gray is in her third season as the first assistant coach at Edinboro University. Gray served as the head coach at Baldwin-Wallace for two seasons before coming to Edinboro, and was an assistant coach for the Yellow Jackets in 1999. She is a 1993 graduate of Bowling Green State University with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration.

Gray began her coaching career at Avon Lake (OH) High School in 1995. She moved in to Berea (OH) High School in 1996 and then returned to Avon Lake as the assistant varsity coach in 1997. Gray is also very active as a youth coach in the greater Cleveland area, including the Excalibur Premier U17 and U18 teams. She also has a USSF coaching license.

Gray played four seasons at Bowling Green, serving as a team captain in 1991 and 1992. She resides in Olmsted Township, Ohio.

Mark Case

Mark Case is in his second season as an assistant coach at Edinboro University. He works with the goalkeepers.

Case played for Gannon University for two seasons as a goalkeeper. As a prepster, he was a four-year starter at nearby Cathedral Prep. He earned first team All-Metro League accolades as a junior and senior for the Ramblers.

Case has been very active in the Erie area as a mentor for goalkeepers. That includes serving as the goalkeeper coach for a variety of high schools in the area.

Case resides in Erie. He is currently completing work on his degree in Elementary Education/Special Education and Psychology, with a minor in Coaching.

Jamie Tekotte

After concluding a brilliant career at Edinboro University with a record-breaking season as a senior, Jamie Tekotte will serve as an assistant coach for the Fighting Scots while completing work on her degree in Business.

A year ago Tekotte set school records for goals scored (21) and points (48) in a season. She was a first team All-Northeast Region and All-PSAC selection. In addition, she ranked second in the PSAC in points, points per game, goals, and goals per game, and was 13th in Division II in goals per game and 15th in points per game.

Tekotte concluded her career ranked first in goals scored (37) and second in career points (85) despite playing just three seasons for the Fighting Scots. She played at Central Michigan as a freshman.

A former standout at nearby McDowell High School, she was also a first team All-PSAC choice and second team All-Region selection in 2001.

2004 Outlook

Kagiavas Looks for Youth, Speed to Carry Fighting Scots to PSAC Playoffs

Working with a youthful roster is nothing new for Edinboro University head coach Gary Kagiavas. But even he has to shake his head with how young his 2004 Fighting Scots are. Coupled with a need to replace the team's top five scorers, who accounted for 35 of the team's 47 goals, plus a schedule that is loaded with challenges, it's easy to say why there's a bit of uneasiness as Kagiavas enters his ninth year at Edinboro.

"The biggest dilemma for us is that we'll be young," admitted Kagiavas. "We lose nine starters from last year and then some of the kids we anticipated to step in are going into their junior years with serious majors and don't have the time. We have to count on freshmen to perform immediately. We lose a whole lot of leadership from last year. I'm not sure because we're young how we'll respond. That's the great unknown."

Kagiavas guided the Fighting Scots to a 12-7-1 record a year ago, a school record for wins. Edinboro qualified for the PSAC Playoffs for the second time.

With a roster dotted with 12 freshmen and five sophomores, it would be easy for Kagiavas to characterize 2004 as a rebuilding year. Instead, he fully expects the Fighting Scots to push for their fifth straight winning season.

"We're pretty athletic, and we're used to winning," Kagiavas emphasized. "I think we should be okay. We may trip up a couple times just because of our inexperience. But I think we're pretty set for the next three to four years."

"There will be some growing pains, though," he cautioned. "This class coming in has five or six kids immediately ready to play."

A year ago Kagiavas was lamenting the loss of most of his scoring punch. Jamie Tekotte stepped up and scored a school record 21 goals to solve that problem. Tekotte will now be on the sideline assisting Kagiavas, leaving a huge void.

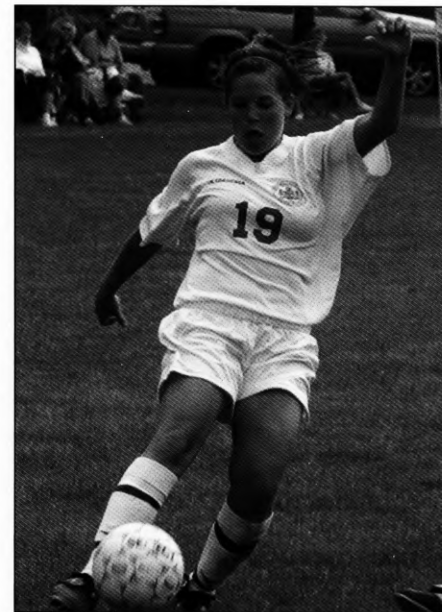

"We've gone out and gotten a ton of kids who were able to score goals," Kagiavas pointed out. "Whether or not they can do it at this level remains to be seen. We're hoping to have five or six players who can score goals, instead of just one."

The ability to score was one characteristic inherent in the recruiting class. The other is speed. "We actively recruited speed," commented Kagiavas. "I thought our overall team speed last year wasn't that impressive."

Finally, Kagiavas brought in a class that expects to win, having done so on a regular basis in high school and on club teams.

The schedule will have a new look in 2004 as the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference has split into East and West Divisions, with home-and-home dates. The PSAC Playoffs remains at six teams, with three from the East and three from the West.

As usual, the PSAC looks to be very strong. In addition, Kagiavas did his young team no favors with an ambitious non-conference slate. "We play Shippensburg, Kutztown, Bridgeport, Southampton,

Liz Soeder

Mercyhurst and Gannon outside of the conference," he related. "For the most part all were regionally ranked, and some nationally ranked." All told, eight of the 12 teams on Edinboro's schedule had winning records in 2003.

Kagiavas figures that if his young squad is to make its second straight appearance in the PSAC Playoffs, it must get the best of Slippery Rock, Indiana (Pa.), or Lock Haven. Slippery Rock is the defending PSAC champion, finishing with a 15-3-2 record following an appearance in the NCAA Division II Playoffs.

Edinboro opens the 2004 campaign in the Shippensburg Invitational on Friday, August 27 and Saturday, August 28. The Fighting Scots will face two of the favorites in the PSAC East in Shippensburg and Kutztown, a team which went 14-4-3 last year and played in the NCAA Playoffs.

Goalkeepers

A year ago Abbey Mortus and Trish Chilcott shared time in goal, and that will likely be the case this year as well. Mortus, a senior co-captain, finished with an 8-4-0 record and a 1.44 GAA. She is a seasoned goalkeeper who has won 18 games in goal for her career and has a .130 career GAA.

Chilcott, a junior who just picked up the position last year, was 4-3-1 with a 1.07 GAA. "I think our goalkeeping will be very solid with Abby and Trish," assured Kagiavas. The two combined for four shutouts and will benefit from working with Mark Case.

Freshman Katie Barbour will redshirt.

Defenders

While Kagiavas entered 2003 fearful of a scoring shortage, he was calmed in the knowledge that the defense returned two starters and a pair of part-time starters. That is not the case this year. Save for senior co-captain Maura Sansone, the backfield is very inexperienced.

"It's what concerns me," admitted Kagiavas. "Last year we were so solid. Maura is the key to everything as our sweeper. We'll count on her to get us through. The last two years we were very strong in back.

We lose a lot."

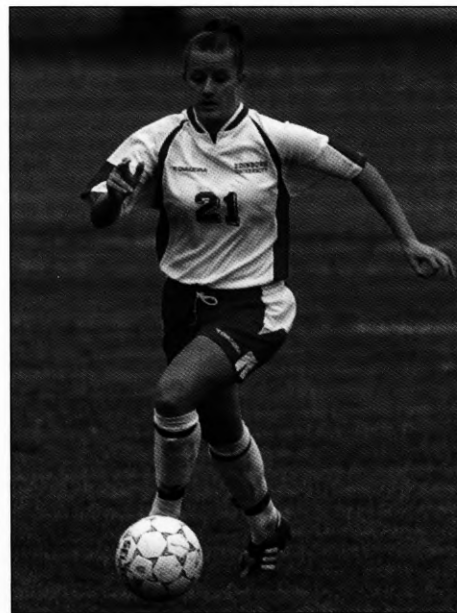

Jessica Falconer also has experience in the backfield. The junior played in 14 matches a year ago, but could see limited practice time due to her major in nursing.

Becky Hostettler only appeared in three matches last year, but the junior had a solid spring. In addition, Kagiavas could move Kathy Lantzy from the midfield. A junior, Lantzy has played in 34 career matches.

Kagiavas looks for a number of freshmen to step in. Daryl Estremera earned all-conference honors while playing at Olmsted Falls (OH) High School. Kim Koricich and Rachel Seth are from nearby General McLane High School, in addition to playing on the Erie Admirals team which won the PA State U-17 championship last year.

Midfielders

Despite the return of senior co-captain Stacie Potter, who started 19 matches last year, and junior Lisa Guesman, who started 11, the midfield will also see an infusion of youth. Potter registered one assist while Guesman ranks as the top returning scorer with a goal

Stacie Potter

and 3 assists for 5 points.

Several other returnees will provide experience. Junior Chelsea Lawrence added a pair of goals in 13 matches, but she is a nutrition major and will miss a great deal of time. Fallon Frye, a senior and another of the potential academic casualties as a forensic chemistry major, played in 17 matches with 2 assists. Senior Becky Hicho also played in 17 matches and had a goal and an assist. Sophomore Amy DiVincenzo appeared in 10 contests.

In many instances Kagiavas isn't even sure where his newcomers will play, noting that he has an idea where players will fit in but that things could change when they report for camp.

However, he does expect first-year players Elise Falatach and Mary Grebenc to play key roles, along with redshirt freshman Ashley Pulman. Falatach was an NSCAA All-American at Bay (OH) High School, helping the Rockets win a pair of Ohio state championships. Grebenc's Strongsville (OH) High School was the 2002 Ohio Division I state champion and the 2003 runnerup. Pulman is a native of Ontario who came in a year ago with impressive credentials before suffering a torn anterior cruciate ligament during the summer. Her return will greatly bolster the midfield.

Freshman Heather Coy is another player capable of earning plenty of playing time.

Forwards

Liz Soeder and Kristen Manfredi are the lone returning players up front. Soeder played in all 20 matches, with a goal and 2 assists. Illness and injury forced Manfredi to miss all but one contest.

Speed, speed, and more speed. That's Kagiavas' emphasis up front. "I think we've added ridiculous speed," exclaimed Kagiavas.

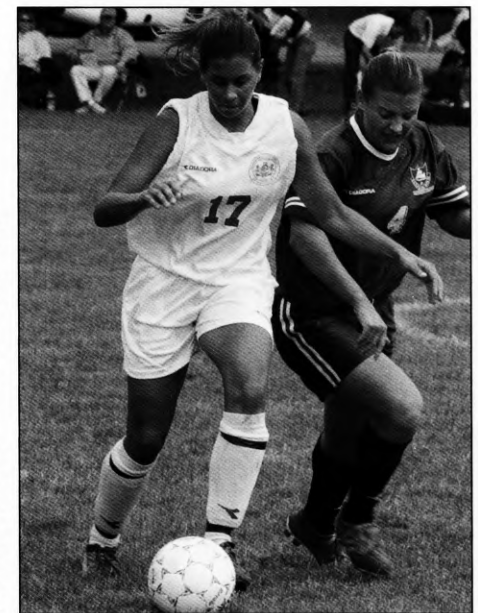

A pair of freshmen and two transfers provide the speed Kagiavas mentioned. Kara Ciacchini is a former standout at McDowell High School who was a three-time All-Metro League selection. A proven scorer, Ciacchini accounted for 48 career goals and 34 assists. The other freshman is Emily Monte from Fairport (NY) High School.

Shauna Wolf played one season at

Coastal Carolina before transferring this spring. A first team all-state selection and an NSCAA All-Region choice as a prepster at Clear Fork (OH) High School, she broke the school record for career goals with 80. Wolf appeared in four games for the Lady Chanticleers, scoring one goal.

The other transfer is Stacy Hyziewicz. The sophomore did not play soccer at Rhode Island. Instead, she competed in track & field. She is another of the local players from General McLane High School, where she set Erie County League records in the 100 and 200 meters.

Freshmen Angie de Almeida and Katie DeLuca will also compete for playing time at forward.

Pa. State Athletic Conference

The Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference, with 53 years of organized competition, has established itself as one of the most respected NCAA Division II athletic conferences.

In its history the PSAC has laid claim to 35 NCAA team championships and 190 individual title winners, giving credence to its fine athletic tradition. The conference's prosperity on the national level was abundant again in 2003-04, as close to one-third of the league's teams participated in NCAA postseason competition. The PSAC also distinguishes itself as the second-largest Division II conference in terms of sports sponsorship, awarding titles for 22 different sports.

Academic success is paramount for PSAC member institutions as well. The number of student-athletes designated by the conference as "Scholar-Athletes" -- those who have attained a cumulative grade point average of 3.25 or better -- has increased every year since that standard was adopted in 1995-96. The impressive figure of 1,239 PSAC Scholar-Athletes for the 2003-04 academic year is nearly double the total of those in the mid-1990's.

The PSAC was organized in 1951 for the purpose of promoting and administering men's athletic programs within the 14 state teachers colleges in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. In 1977, due to the interest and growth of women's athletics, the conference was restructured to provide for women's programs.

From its inception, each conference member selected its own competitive division within the NCAA. In 1980, however, the presidents voted to reclassify the entire conference to Division II. Although all 14 institutions are members of NCAA Division II, eight schools have also elected to compete at the Division I level in select sports.

In 1983, all member institutions were granted university status as a result of Legislative Act 188, which formed Pennsylvania's State System of Higher Education. This system now enrolls in excess of 104,000 students.

This is Edinboro University

Edinboro University of Pennsylvania is the largest comprehensive four-year university in northwestern Pennsylvania. Its 585-acre campus is home to some 8,000 students studying in more than 100 academic programs. The University's programs in art, criminal justice, and speech language pathology, among others, have earned regional and national recognition and accolades, and the campus is ranked among the top 10 in the nation for the services provided for students with disabilities. In 2003 the University's institutional accreditation with the Commission on Higher Education Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools was reaffirmed with commendation for ten years. In the 2006-07 academic year, the University will celebrate its Sesquicentennial recognizing 150 years of service to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and beyond.

Edinboro is situated just 100 miles from the metropolitan areas of Cleveland, Buffalo and Pittsburgh, and less than 20 miles south of the city of Erie -- Pennsylvania's fourth largest city. Meadville, the seat of Crawford County, is approximately 20 miles south of Edinboro.

The University's Baron-Forness Library has more than 480,000 bound volumes and 1.3 million microform units, along with an online catalog, access to numerous online databases and electronic reserves. The building is equipped with a wireless network, computer labs and equipment to assist users with visual impairments.

The main campus also includes a modern University Center, planetarium, observatory, reading clinic, speech and hearing clinic, science and robotics labs, writing center, numerous computer labs with the latest hardware and software, three art galleries, an animation studio, campus radio and television stations, health center, counseling center, and much more -- all accessible for people with disabilities. The recently renovated and expanded Crawford Center for Health and Physical Education and Disability Resources rivals any facility of its kind in the nation.

In addition to a five-acre lake and wooded areas, there are 43 buildings on the spacious Edinboro Campus, including six residence halls with private or shared rooms, co-ed housing, honors housing, and living-learned floors -- all are wired for voice, video and data.

Edinboro University also operates centers in Erie and Meadville. Edinboro University in Erie -- The Porreco Center is a beautiful 27-acre campus that includes classrooms, a computer laboratory, and a unique facility for small conferences, business meetings, and special events. Edinboro University in Meadville is located in the city's historic Bessemer Building.

Dr. Frank G. Pogue

President, Edinboro University of PA

Frank G. Pogue was appointed the 15th president of Edinboro University of Pennsylvania on July 1, 1996.

A sociologist, Dr. Pogue holds a bachelor's degree from Alabama State University, a master's degree from Atlanta University, and a Ph.D. from the University of Pittsburgh.

Prior to his presidency at Edinboro University, Dr. Pogue was the vice chancellor for student affairs and special programs at the State University of New York (SUNY) Central Administration in Albany, serving in that position for 10 years. While vice chancellor, he also served for one year as interim president at the SUNY College at Cobleskill. Prior to his assignment in the SUNY Central Administration, President Pogue was vice president for student affairs, associate vice president for research and educational development, dean of undergraduate studies, and a department chairperson, all at SUNY at Albany.

Dr. Pogue participates in national, regional and statewide leadership groups. He serves as a member of the American Council on Education (ACE) Commission on Women in Higher Education. He is a member of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU) Committee on Professional Development, Millennium Leadership Initiative and Christa McAuliffe Selection Committee. He was appointed in 2003 to the International Association of University Presidents Commission on Disarmament Education, Conflict Resolution and Peace. Since 1984, Dr. Pogue has served on the Commission on Higher Education Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools (MSA). Most recently, he served as President for the MSA Board of Trustees and as a member of its Executive Committee, and he is a former vice chair of the Commission's Executive Committee.

Dr. Pogue also serves on the Board of Trustees of the BACCHUS & GAMMA Peer Education Network. He served for two years as chairperson of the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education (SSHE) Commission for the Universities and Commission of Presidents Executive Committee. In October 1996, Dr. Pogue was appointed by then Pennsylvania Governor Tom Ridge to the Governor's Commission on Academic Standards. In November 2002, he was appointed co-chair of the Higher Education Committee of Pennsylvania Governor Ed Rendell's Transition Team. In May, 2004, he was appointed to the Pennsylvania Department of Education Higher Education Advisory Board.

Dr. Pogue was honored by the Erie Area Chamber of Commerce with the Louis J. Tullio Community Service Award. The Greater Erie Community Action Committee (GECAC) honored him with the Paul P. Martin Community Service Award in 2000, and in 1999, the Distinguished Service Award for Leadership and Vision was presented to him by the SUNY at Albany Council of Trustees.

Since becoming president, Dr. Pogue has created the concept and philosophy of the Edinboro Family, a learner-centered environment where students come first and are an integral part of a caring and supportive campus community.
