Ashley Pulman
PSAC West Rookie of the Year

Greetings from the President

Dear Family, Friends and Fans of the Fighting Scots:

As we engage upon the 2005-2006 academic year at Edinboro University, we look back with deep pride at one of the most successful years in the history of Edinboro athletics. Much of the success of our men's and women's athletic teams is due to your loyal support of our scholar-athletes in basketball, cross country, football, soccer, softball, swimming, track, volleyball, and wrestling, as well as wheelchair basketball and other adaptive sports.

The long legacy of Edinboro athletics will be one of the highlights celebrated during the University's Sesquicentennial in 2006-2007. As we prepare to celebrate the University's 150th anniversary, we are guided by the vision of "Building a prosperous future through academic excellence and civility." Our athletes' dedication to education, discipline, and sportsmanship that are at the heart of Edinboro athletics will serve them well as they pursue their dreams beyond the playing fields of their alma mater. Their success in competitive endeavors will contribute to the quality of life on our campus and throughout the communities of northwestern Pennsylvania.

Fans of the Fighting Scots are always welcome at Edinboro University and I look forward to greeting you at our many athletic, cultural and arts presentations. Please visit our campus as often as possible.

Go Scots!

Head Coach Gary Kagiavas

Gary Kagiavas was appointed Edinboro University's first head coach of the Fighting Scot women's soccer program in August of 1996. The former Gannon University stand-out started the Edinboro program that year, and since that time it has become one of the stronger teams in the Northeast Region.

Edinboro saw a run of five straight winning seasons come to an end a year ago following a 6-9-3 finish, but the winning streak speaks volumes for Kagiavas' ability. Over the past several seasons the Fighting Scot roster has been extremely youthful, yet Kagiavas has molded that inexperience into winning teams. Even a year ago Edinboro appeared on its way to a winning season, only to come up with just a win and a tie in the final six matches as the Scots managed just four goals.

The year before that the Fighting Scots registered a school record for wins while finishing with a 12-7-1 record. Edinboro made its second appearance in the PSAC Playoffs. The Fighting Scots climbed as high as fourth in the Northeast Region rankings during the year. In 2002 Edinboro fell one point shy of qualifying for postseason action, compiling a 9-5-4 record. The 2002 squad finished with six wins and a tie in its last seven matches.

Kagiavas owns an overall record of 73-79-12 in nine seasons, with ten or more wins in each of the last six seasons and five straight seasons of .500 or better. Once a rare occurrence to show up in the Northeast Region rankings, the Fighting Scots are now a weekly member of the top ten.

Kagiavas' teams accomplished a rarity in his first six seasons, finishing with a better record each year. The 2001 Fighting Scots went out and posted an 11-5-1 record, including a school-record six-game winning streak. The Fighting Scots advanced to the PSAC Playoffs for the first time. Edinboro dropped a 1-0 decision to Bloomsburg in its first post-season venture, but that could not diminish a season which saw the Scots climb as high as 14th in the NSCAA Division II rankings. Along the way, the Scots defeated 13th-ranked Slippery Rock, 3-0, while suffering four of its five losses to nationally-ranked opponents. Kagiavas was recognized as the PSAC Women's Soccer Coach of the Year.

Thanks to five wins in its final seven contests, Edinboro posted its first winning season in 2000, going 10-8-1. The Fighting Scots posted a four-game win streak in which it held opponents scoreless for 500 minutes. The team also recorded the program's first win over local rival Gannon.

The Fighting Scots weren't without their growing pains, as Edinboro's first-ever women's soccer edition finished with a 2-14-0 record in 1996. The ledger improved slightly in 1997, as Kagiavas' second team posted a 5-10-1 finish. The Fighting Scots improved to 9-10-0 in 1998. That included a 2-1 overtime win over West Virginia Wesleyan, an outfit ranked second in Division II at the time.

In 1999 the Fighting Scots posted a 9-9-1 finish to earn their first non-losing season. Edinboro debuted in the regional rankings during the season, a first for Kagiavas's squad. Included in the victories was another triumph over a nationally-ranked foe, as the

Kagiavas brought a wealth of coaching experience to Edinboro, both locally and at the international level. He joined the Edinboro staff after serving as assistant manager of the Family First Sports Park in Erie for two years. At Family First, he was responsible for organizing all phases of the facility's indoor and outdoor soccer leagues. Kagiavas was assistant tournament director for the 210-team Flagship Cup tournament.

Kagiavas has served as the coaching director of the Edinboro Regional Soccer Club. Under his direction, the organization has grown from four to 14 teams. In the 1997-98 season, he took the 15-under team to the state finals. The past two summers he has taken the Erie Admirals U17 Girls team to the state championship and to the Final Four of Region 1. The team has finished in the top 16 in the country in their age group. He is the girls coaching director at the Erie Admirals. In 2004 Kagiavas had two more state champions with the Erie Admirals in the Under-17 and Under-18 girls teams. This marks four state champions in four years.

Kagiavas was a standout defender at Gannon from 1987-91, and played professionally in his native South Africa, along with Greece and Canada, after earning his bachelor's degree in 1991. He has held a variety of coaching positions in many levels of competition since 1989, highlighted by a successful stint as a professional coach in South Africa.

At Gannon, Kagiavas was a four-year starter at midfield and defender for a Golden Knight team which advanced to the NCAA Division II Final Four in 1989 and 1990. Gannon was 58-14-8 during his four seasons, with three NCAA playoff appearances.

Kagiavas played professionally for a St. Catherines team that won the Canadian Cup in the National Soccer League. He was a player/coach for the Springs Old Boys and Boksburg 'Two for Joy,' as well as for the Eastern Transvaal all-select indoor team.

In 1994, Kagiavas served as the head coach of Gannon's men's junior varsity soccer program, also assisting with the varsity squad as the Golden Knight men posted a 15-2-0 record and advanced to the NCAA Final Four.

Kagiavas began his coaching career with the Erie Strikers while also directing the Villa Maria Elementary School team. In the spring of 1992, Kagiavas was assistant coach of the Boksburg "Two for Joy" Division I team that competed in the National Soccer League of South Africa. In the summer of 1991, he was the head coach of the Springs (South Africa) Old Boys of the Division II men's semi-professional league, earning Coach of the Year honors.

Kagiavas has earned a South African coaching license, a professional referee license, and his United States Soccer Federation National B License and has his NSCAA Regional Coaching License. He serves as the vice president for the PSAC Soccer Committee and is a member of the regional NSCAA ranking committee. In addition, he is the chairman of the NCAA Regional Ranking Committee for the Northeast Region.

He and his wife, Dawn, a native of St. Marys, Pa., reside in Fairview with their nine-year-old daughter, Kaylee.

Kagiavas also expects the added year's experience to improve the maturity level of the team. "I think a lot of kids will step up and accept responsibility, unlike last year. They were intimidated. I really believe we'll be surprised by a couple of kids."

Edinboro opens its tenth season under Kagiavas on August 27, playing Shippensburg. "We start right off with a pair of killer matches in Shippensburg and Bloomsburg, then we play Bridgeport, a team which should be better than last year." The Purple Knights were ECAC finalists a year ago.

"With the likes of IUP, Slippery Rock, Mercyhurst, along with a crossover game against East Stroudsburg - it's an extremely tough schedule. I can see two or three wins that I think we should get. We try and play as many PSAC schools as we can. They're always quality teams. I believe we may have the toughest Division II conference in the country."

Kathy Lantzy

Goalkeepers

A year ago Trish Chilcott and Abbey Mortus shared the goalkeeping duties, although Chilcott saw the majority of the action. With Mortus gone, Chilcott will likely see the majority of the time, although Kagiavas has always split up the duties in goal. A senior who will serve as a captain, Chilcott had a 1.22 goals against average with a pair of shutouts while appearing in 17 matches, with nine starts. In two seasons as Edinboro's goalkeeper, she has a 1.16 career goals against average, the best in school history.

Redshirt freshman Katie Barbour and freshman Lisa Bartolowits will push for playing time. Barbour was a two-time first team All-Erie County League selection at nearby General McLane High School. Bartolowits was a four-year starter at Shaler Area High School with a promising future.

Defenders

Edinboro's backfield has been a position of strength, and Kagiavas expects it to be again despite the loss of Maura Sansone. A year ago the Fighting Scots posted five shutouts and held seven other opponents to just a goal. Senior Kathy Lantzy and junior Becky Hostettler are the leaders of the defense and join Chilcott as 2005 captains. Lantzy started 16 matches a year ago, while Hostettler was one of only two players to start all 18 matches.

Mary Grebenc gained plenty of experience as a freshman, starting 14 matches. She finished with a goal and three assists for five points, and Kagiavas looks for big things from her in the future. She may also be needed in the midfield. Two other sophomores, Kim Koricich and Janelle Layton, look to make an impact on defense. Koricich is another local product from General McLane High School. Both played in eight matches last year, with Koricich coming back from an ACL injury.

Kagiavas feels Hayley Lambert will provide further help. As a freshman in 2003, Lambert played in all 18 matches, but she did not play for the Fighting Scots a year ago.

Several freshmen figure to bolster the defense. One who will be counted on immediately is Ashley Jones from nearby Fairview High School. She helped the Tigers to the regional finals in 2003 and 2004, and played on an Erie Admirals club team which won three state titles. Kagiavas recruited Jones to step in immediately for Sansone at sweeper-back.

Midfielders

No fewer than four returning players started more than ten matches and will vie for time in the midfield. But while the numbers are there, Kagiavas admits the Scots lack a true outside midfielder.

Ashley Pulman proved to be well worth the wait after sitting out the 2003 season following knee surgery that summer. She played in and started 17 matches last year, leading the Fighting Scots in goals (5), assists (6) and points (16). Pulman became Edinboro's first PSAC major award winner, being named the Rookie of the Year. A first team All-PSAC selection, she also earned a spot on the NSCAA All-Northeast Region second team.

Elise Falatach joined Hostettler as the only players to start all 18 matches, even though she was just a freshman. Falatach tied for second on the team in scoring with 3 goals and 4 assists for 10 points.

Sophomores Daryl Estremera and Kara Ciacchini, also figure prominently in Edinboro's blueprint for success. Estremera started 12 matches. Ciacchini is a player who had her ups and downs a year ago, but proved her scoring ability with 4 goals and a pair of assists to tie Falatach for second in scoring with 10 points. She may also see time at forward.

Two other returnees provide more depth and experience. Lisa Guesman, one of only three seniors on the roster, played in 16 matches with one assist. A year earlier she started 11 contests. Emily Monte appeared in all 18 matches, with one start.

Rachel Johnson, a transfer from Cleveland State, could help the Fighting Scots in the midfield or on defense. As a freshman, Johnson appeared in 16 matches for the Vikings, with 12 starts.

Another newcomer who could factor in the midfield immediately is freshman Jamie Monica, from Lexington (OH) High School.

Forwards

Edinboro still seeks a scorer the likes of Jamie Tekotte, a current assistant coach who scored a school-record 21 goals in 2003. Much of the scoring load has been handled by the midfield, and Kagiavas hopes his forwards can pick up the slack this year.

Angie de Almeida and Shauna Wolf each contributed four goals and an assist a year ago. de Almeida is a sophomore who started 13 matches. Wolf transferred to Edinboro a year ago from Coastal Carolina, and lived up to expectations while starting 11 of the first 12 matches. She missed the last six contests due to injury.

Stacy Hyziewicz is another player looking to rebound from an injury. She missed the 2004 season with a torn anterior cruciate ligament. She was in her first year at Edinboro after transferring from Rhode Island, where she was on the track team.

Katie DeLuca is a sophomore who contributed one goal in 16 matches. Kagiavas feels she is ready to play a much bigger role this season.

Pa. State Athletic Conference

The Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference, with 54 years of organized competition, has established itself as one of the most respected NCAA Division II athletic conferences.

In its history the PSAC has laid claim to 36 NCAA team champions and 195 individual title winners, giving credence to its fine athletic tradition. The conference has prospered on the national level in recent years, as it annually has close to one-third of the it's teams participated in NCAA post-season competition. The PSAC also distinguishes itself as the second-largest Division II conference in terms of sports sponsorship, awarding titles for 22 different sports.

Proud of its athletic success, the league has also thrived in an academic success. The number of student-athletes designated by the conference as "Scholar-Athletes" – those who have attained a cumulative grade point average of 3.25 or better – has increased every year since that standard was adopted in 1995-96. The impressive number of yearly designees reached 1,366 in 2004-05, 125 more than the previous year. Furthermore, the most recent figure is nearly double the total of those in the mid-1990's. Additionally, 14 PSAC student-athletes combined to earn CoSIDA Academic All-America Awards last season.

The PSAC was organized in 1951 for the purpose of promoting and administering men's athletic programs within the 14 state teachers colleges in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. In 1977, due to the interest and growth of women's athletics, the conference was restructured to provide for women's programs.

From its inception, each conference member selected its own competitive division within the NCAA. In 1980, however, the presidents voted to reclassify the entire conference to Division II. Although all 14 institutions are members of NCAA Division II, eight schools have also elected to compete at the Division I level in select sports.

In 1983, all member institutions were granted university status as a result of Legislative Act 188, which formed Pennsylvania's State System of Higher Education. This system now enrolls in excess of 106,000 students. The alumni of the State System number more than 600,000, which includes nearly 400,000 Pennsylvanians.

One of the largest conferences in the nation, the PSAC is governed by the presidents of the 14 member institutions. It employs a commissioner, assistant commissioner and secretary at its headquarters in Lock Haven, Pa.

This is Edinboro University

Edinboro University of Pennsylvania is the largest comprehensive four-year university in northwestern Pennsylvania. Its 585-acre campus is home to some 8,000 students studying in more than 100 academic programs. The University's programs in art, criminal justice, and speech language pathology, among others, have earned regional and national recognition and accolades, and the campus is ranked among the top 10 in the nation for the services provided for students with disabilities. In 2003 the University's institutional accreditation with the Commission on Higher Education Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools was reaffirmed with commendation for ten years. In the 2006-07 academic year, the University will celebrate its Sesquicentennial recognizing 150 years of service to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and beyond.

Edinboro is situated just 100 miles from the metropolitan areas of Cleveland, Buffalo and Pittsburgh, and less than 20 miles south of the city of Erie – Pennsylvania's fourth largest city. Meadville, the seat of Crawford County, is approximately 20 miles south of Edinboro.

The University's Baron-Forness Library has more than 480,000 bound volumes and 1.3 million microform units, along with an online catalog, access to numerous online databases and electronic reserves. The building is equipped with a wireless network, computer labs and equipment to assist users with visual impairments.

The main campus also includes a modern University Center, planetarium, observatory, reading clinic, speech and hearing clinic, science and robotics labs, writing center, numerous computer labs with the latest hardware and software, three art galleries, an animation studio, campus radio and television stations, health center, counseling center, and much more – all accessible for people with disabilities. The recently renovated and expanded Crawford Center for Health and Physical Education and Disability Resources rivals any facility of its kind in the nation.

In addition to a five-acre lake and wooded areas, there are 43 buildings on the spacious Edinboro Campus, including six residence halls with private or shared rooms, co-ed housing, honors housing, and living-learned floors – all are wired for voice, video and data.

Edinboro University also operates centers in Erie and Meadville. Edinboro University in Erie – The Porreco Center is a beautiful 27-acre campus that includes classrooms, a computer laboratory, and a unique facility for small conferences, business meetings, and special events. Edinboro University in Meadville is located in the city's historic Bessemer Building.

Dr. Frank G. Pogue

President, Edinboro University of PA

Frank G. Pogue was appointed the 15th president of Edinboro University of Pennsylvania on July 1, 1996.

A sociologist, Dr. Pogue holds a bachelor's degree from Alabama State University, a master's degree from Atlanta University, and a Ph.D. from the University of Pittsburgh.

Prior to his presidency at Edinboro University, Dr. Pogue was the vice chancellor for student affairs and special programs at the State University of New York (SUNY) Central Administration in Albany, serving in that position for 10 years. While vice chancellor, he also served for one year as interim president at the SUNY College at Cobleskill. Prior to his assignment in the SUNY Central Administration, President Pogue was vice president for student affairs, associate vice president for research and educational development, dean of undergraduate studies, and a department chairperson, all at SUNY at Albany.

Dr. Pogue participates in national, regional and statewide leadership groups. He serves as a member of the American Council on Education (ACE) Commission on Women in Higher Education. He is a member of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU) Committee on Professional Development, Millennium Leadership Initiative and Christa McAuliffe Selection Committee. He was appointed in 2003 to the International Association of University Presidents Commission on Disarmament Education, Conflict Resolution and Peace. Since 1984, Dr. Pogue has served on the Commission on Higher Education Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools (MSA). Most recently, he served as President for the MSA Board of Trustees and as a member of its Executive Committee, and he is a former vice chair of the Commission's Executive Committee.

Dr. Pogue also serves on the Board of Trustees of the BACCUS & GAMMA Peer Education Network. He served for two years as chairperson of the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education (SSHE) Commission for the Universities and Commission of Presidents Executive Committee. In October 1996, Dr. Pogue was appointed by then Pennsylvania Governor Tom Ridge to the Governor's Commission on Academic Standards. In November 2002, he was appointed co-chair of the Higher Education Committee of Pennsylvania Governor Ed Rendell's Transition Team. In May, 2004, he was appointed to the Pennsylvania Department of Education Higher Education Advisory Board.

Dr. Pogue was honored by the Erie Area Chamber of Commerce with the Louis J. Tullio Community Service Award. The Greater Erie Community Action Committee (GECAC) honored him with the Paul P. Martin Community Service Award in 2000, and in 1999, the Distinguished Service Award for Leadership and Vision was presented to him by the SUNY at Albany Council of Trustees.

Since becoming president, Dr. Pogue has created the concept and philosophy of the Edinboro Family, a learner-centered environment where students come first and are an integral part of a caring and supportive campus community.
