THE GAME STORY

Edinboro enters its home opener undefeated in three contests. The Fighting Scots host Columbia Union in the first-ever game between the two teams. Columbia Union will have to stop the outside shooting streak that the Boro began in an 11-point win over Kutztown in their last outing. After trailing by three points at halftime, Krystal Henson sparked the comeback with 23 of her career-high 26 points in the second half. Kutztown could not shut down the three-point shooting of Henson and Suzanne Petruska. Together, they shot 11 for 19 behind the arc, as Edinboro was 13 of 28 overall. Columbia Union is on a four-game losing streak, and will play its fourth game in six days when it comes to Edinboro. The Pioneers are 1-5 overall, recording their only win against Cheyney. Coming from Takoma Park, MD, the Pioneers lost at Fairmont State on Sunday and play at Mercyhurst on Monday.

THE EDINBORO-COLUMBIA UNION SERIES

THE COACHES

Edinboro head coach Stan Swank is in his 15th season, posting a record of 246-149 during that period. The all-time leader in coaching wins at Edinboro, Swank has guided been named the PSAC West Coach of the Year four times. He has led Edinboro to five NCAA Division II playoff berths. Sandy Smith does double duty for Columbia Union, coaching both the men's and women's team. Now in his second season at the Takoma Park, MD school, Smith has a 8-23 record after leading the Pioneers to a 7-18 finish a year ago.

HENSON'S HOT

Krystal Henson has quickly moved up the ladder in the record books in her first two years and continues on the move in her junior season. The outside threat tied her career-high 6 three-pointers in a game in the Scots last outing at Kutztown. She finished with a career-high 26 points to lead the Scots to a come-from-behind victory. Henson stands third in three-pointers made at Edinboro with 118 and ranks fourth all-time in attempts with 319. This year, the outside threat is shooting .471 from behind the three-point line. The junior captain scored 51 three-pointers as a freshman and 59 in her sophomore year. These numbers rank Henson fourth and third in three-pointers made in a season. Henson led the PSAC in three-pointers made per game last year at 2.57. Henson has registered 523 points in her career at Edinboro.

STEPPING UP INSIDE

The Fighting Scots lost four inside players from last year's squad and were looking to make up for the quartet's 30 ppg. and 24 rpg. The Scots returned little experience to the paint but have seen big results. Junior Lachelle Crawl and sophomore Suzanne Petruska have combined for 26 ppg. (13.3 and 12.7 respectively). Together, with sophomores Megan Zitner and Korie Morton, who add 7.7 ppg. and 3.3 ppg. respectively, the inside players make up for 37 of Edinboro's 72.7 ppg. The Boro is still experiencing a void on the boards, getting out-rebounded by almost 6 rpg. Zitner leads the Scots on the glass with 5.7 rpg. and Crawl contributes 5 rpg. Morton adds 4 boards and Petruska collects 3.3 rpg. The foursome accounts for 18 of the team's 33 rebounds per game.

WHERE'D THE 3'S COME FROM

Prior to the Kutztown game, sophomore Suzanne Petruska had failed to make a three-pointer in her career. After going 0-for-3 up to that point, she canned 5 of 8 from beyond the arc to help Edinboro hand Kutztown its first loss in six games. Along the way she posted a career-high 16 points. A walk-on who saw little action a year ago, Petruska is the Boro's third-leading scorer at 12.7 ppg.

NOTE: Columbia Union played at Mercyhurst on Monday night.

SCOUTING THE PIONEERS

Columbia Union is off to a rocky start this season, posting a 1-5 record. The Pioneers are in the midst of back-to-back-to-back games on the road, losing at Fairmont State on Sunday, 55-45, and playing at Mercyhurst on Monday. Add in last Thursday's game at Shepherd, and it's four games in six days for coach Sandy Smith's squad ... the Pioneers have lost four straight games since posting their lone win, a 65-55 decision over Cheyney ... the Scots will have to deal with sophomore Camille Lee, a 5'9" forward who leads the Pioneers both in scoring (15.0 ppg.) and rebounding (10.8 rpg.). Lee had 12 points and 9 boards vs. Fairmont State. However, she is shooting just 33.8 percent from the floor ... Leah James, a 6'0" senior, is also in double digits at 10.3 ppg., adding 9.8 rpg. James posted a double-double at Fairmont State with 12 points and 12 rebounds ... the Pioneers have struggled with their shooting, connecting on just 31.3 percent from the floor, 20.7 percent from beyond the three-point arc, and 56.3 percent from the line. However, they force over 22 turnovers a game ... Columbia Union is averaging just 50.2 ppg. while giving up 59.6 ppg.
