THE GAME STORY

The Fighting Scots have rebounded from a seven game losing streak with two straight wins in the PSAC West. The Boro defeated Slippery Rock at home, 89-75, and Clarion on the road, 95-84, last week. Edinboro played an even smaller line-up than usual in the victories, featuring four guards and a 5'10" forward. After averaging just 70.8 ppg., the Scots averaged 92.0 points in their two wins. Megan Zitner and Wendy Wiggins each registered double-doubles in both wins. Edinboro lost to Indiana(Pa.) at IUP in the last match-up just two weeks ago, 89-75. IUP is coming off a loss to Slippery Rock, 80-69. The game before, IUP defeated the East's fifth-ranked team, Shippensburg, 80-76. The Indians are 3-5 in the West and 11-11 overall. IUP is fifth in the West, fighting for the top four spots in the playoffs, along with the Boro. Edinboro's late-season surge must continue to keep playoff hopes alive. The Scots have four games remaining in the West and play three at home. Besides IUP, the Boro will host Shippensburg and Lock, and travel to Slippery Rock.

THE EDINBORO-INDIANA(PA) SERIES

Edinboro leads 31-22.

The Fighting Scots fell to IUP in the first match-up this year, after defeating the Indians twice a year ago. The Boro travelled to Indiana, dropping an 89-75 decision. The Indians' Jacquie Negrelli led all scorers with 24 points, while Sarah Zdesar added 20 points and 19 rebounds. Lachelle Crawl led Edinboro with career-highs of 17 points and 10 boards. Krystal Henson and Korie Morton contributed 14 points apiece. IUP outrebounded Edinboro, 53-41, and outscored the Scots at the free throw line, 35-15.

12 AWAY FROM TRIFECTA RECORD

Krystal Henson has made 75 three-pointers (75 for 201) this season, the second-best total in Edinboro's record book. She stands 12 away from breaking Megan Miller's record (86) set in 1998. Henson ranks second for most three's in a career with 185 (trailing Megan Miller's record of 222). The left-hander set a freshman record with 51 three-pointers in her rookie year and made 59 from downtown a year ago, ranking third among all-time season totals. The tri-captain is shooting 37.3 percent from behind the arc. Henson leads the PSAC in three-pointers made for the second season in a row. She has scored 822 points in her career at Edinboro, ranking 24th.

A FIGHTING CHANCE AT THE PLAYOFFS

The Fighting Scots were winless in the PSAC West this season until last Monday's break-through win over Slippery Rock and a follow-up win at Clarion. The Scots snapped a seven game losing streak and improved to 2-6 in the West and 10-12 overall. Tied with Lock Haven for last place, Edinboro faces four more West opponents, with three in the friendly confines of McComb Fieldhouse. The Scots could move to 6-6 in the West, while the rest of the bunch will battle out some tough match-ups left on the schedule. Edinboro hosts Indiana(Pa.), Shippensburg, and Lock Haven, and travels to Slippery Rock. Edinboro has qualified for the PSAC Tournament each of the last two years and five of the last six years.

STARTING THE SMURFS

Edinboro has struggled to match up against its taller opponents all year long. As of the last two games, coach Stan Swank has found his smallest formula to bring big success. Edinboro snapped its seven game losing streak with wins over Slippery Rock and Clarion. His "Smurf" lineup, as Swank refers to them, employs four guards and just one forward. Courtney Thompson, Krystal Henson, Wendy Wiggins, Jodi Calderone, and Megan Zitner range from just 5'4" to 5'10." After being outrebounded in all but two previous games, the Scots' smaller lineup outrebounded both The Rock and The Golden Eagles. The Smurfs have averaged 92.0 ppg., after the team averaged just 70.8. In the two wins, Zitner led the attack, averaging 26 points and 14.5 rpg. Henson averaged 25 ppg., making 9 of 20 three's. Calderone scored a career-high 19 points, with five three's versus The Rock and earned her first start against Clarion. Wiggins registered two double-doubles, finishing the week with 24 points and 22 rebounds. Thompson was credited with 10 assists and 13 points for the week.
