THE GAME STORY

The Fighting Scots captured their third straight win in the PSAC West after an 0-6 start. Edinboro moved into a fifth-place tie with Indiana(Pa.) after defeating the Indians on Wednesday, 70-67. In the last three victories, head coach Stan Swank has employed a smaller "Smurf" lineup, as he likes to call it. The Boro shot 39 three-pointers versus IUP and despite shooting just 23.1 percent from downtown (9 of 39), the game plan lifted the Scots out of last place in the West. Edinboro has shot 100 three's in the last three wins and has made 29 of those attempts. The Scots will host Shippensburg on Saturday, after falling to the Lady Raiders, 74-58, on January 19. Shippensburg has won five of its last six games, losing only at Indiana(Pa.), 80-76. The Raiders are second in the West with a 7-3 record and are 18-6 overall. Ship is ranked fifth in the East Region and 18th in Division II. Shippensburg ended Edinboro's season a year ago in the first round of the PSAC tournament with an 82-53 decision.

THE EDINBORO-SHIPPENSBURG SERIES

Edinboro leads 31-23.

The Fighting Scots lost to Shippensburg three times a year ago and once earlier this season. Katie Bray led Ship to a 74-58 win with a game-high 18 points. Emily Swingler, Jessie Gordon, and Jennifer Scaffidi each added 16 points to the attack. Wendy Wiggins, Suzanne Petruska, and Korie Morton contributed 10 points apiece for the Boro. Ship outrebounded Edinboro, 45-29. The Raiders shot 19 of 20 from the foul line, while Edinboro made just 5 of 7 from the stripe.

BREAKING RECORDS AND CHASING MORE

Krystal Henson broke the record for most three-point field goal attempts in a season when she reached 218 in her last outing versus Indiana(Pa.). Megan Miller set the previous record with 212 attempts in 1997-98. Henson also tied the record for most three's attempted in a game with 17 shots from beyond the arc against the Indians. The 5'4" junior has made 79 three-pointers this season, the second-best total in Edinboro's record book. She stands 8 away from breaking Megan Miller's record (86) set in 1998. Henson ranks second for most three's in a career with 189 (trailing Miller's record of 222). The tri-captain is shooting 36.2 percent from behind the arc. She has scored 843 points in her career at Edinboro, ranking 23rd all-time.

THE SMURF ATTACK

As of the last three games, head coach Stan Swank has found his smallest formula to bring big success. Edinboro snapped its seven game losing streak with three straight wins over Slippery Rock, Clarion, and Indiana(Pa.). His "Smurf" lineup, as Swank refers to them, employs four guards and just one forward. Courtney Thompson, Krystal Henson, Wendy Wiggins, Jodi Calderone, and Megan Zitner range from just 5'4" to 5'10." Even with a smaller linup, Edinboro reduced its negative rebounding margin from minus 11.3 to minus 5.4 in the three-game span. The Scots even outrebounded both Slippery Rock and Clarion. The Smurfs have averaged 84.7 ppg., after the team averaged just 70.8 in the first 19 games. In the three wins, Henson averaged 23.7 ppg., Zitner averaged 18.3 points and 11.7 rpg. and Calderone has contributed 15.3 ppg., up from her previous average of 4.0 ppg. Wiggins registered two double-doubles and averaged 11.7 ppg. and 8.7 rpg. over the winning span. Thompson was credited with 18 assists and 17 points in the stretch, while only committing 3 turnovers.

BEYOND THE ARC

The Boro stands 6 three-pointers shy of breaking the record for the most three-point field goals made in a season (172) and 13 away from breaking the most three's attempted in a season (536). In the last three games alone, Edinboro has attempted 100 three-pointers, nearly 47 percent of all attempts. The Scots have made 167 three's, led by Krystal Henson with 79 and Jodi Calderone with 33.

CRAWLING BACK

Lachelle Crawl was on a four game double-figure scoring streak before she suffered an ankle injury in the first minute of the game against Slippery Rock. The 5'10" junior sat out against Clarion before coming back in full swing versus Indiana(Pa.). She added inside strength to the lineup and came up with her second double-double of the year with 10 points and tying her career-high with 10 rebounds.
