1

AMERICA

My country 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing!
Land where my fathers died!
Land of the Pilgrims pride!
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring.

2

AULD LANG SYNE

Should auld acquaintance be forgot
And never b'rt to mind,
Should auld acquaintance be forgot
And days of auld lang syne?

Chorus

For auld lang, syne my dear
For auld lang syne.
We'll tak' a cup o' kindness yet
For auld lang syne.

And here's a hand, my trusty frien',
And gie's a hand o' mine;
We'll tak' a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne. (Chorus).

STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
 What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
 Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
 O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?
 And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
 Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.

Chorus

Oh, say, does that star-spangled banner still wave,
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

DEAR HOME OF COLLEGE DAYS

(Old Refrain)

Dear home of college days, so great and free,
 Thy sons and daughters will be true to thee.
 Thy love we'll cherish and thy fame declare,
 Loyal to thee, and to thy name so fair.

Chorus

So raise your voices all, and honor give,
 Her fame and glory may they ever live,
 Through joy and sorrow as the years go by,
 And with a constancy that cannot die.

ALMA MATER

(Aloha)

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater glorious,
 Fresh wreaths we bring to bind thy brow;
 Trials past thou hast withstood victorious,
 Never fairer, never statelier than now.
 O Edinboro, Edinboro,
 We revere thee, love thee, serve thee ever,
 While class speeds class.

(Tune—On the Banks of the Raritan)

My father packed me off to Edinboro,
 And expected there in time a man I'd be;
 So I came and settled down
 In the quiet little town
 On the banks of the Conneauttee.

Chorus

On the banks of the Conneauttee, my boys,
 Where old Edinboro evermore shall be.
 For has she not been
 Since they can't remember when
 On the banks of the Conneauttee?

Then loudly sing the praise of Edinboro,
 Raise her Red and White for all the world to see.
 All the glories of her past
 Shall remain down to the last
 On the banks of the Conneauttee. (Chorus).

SMILES

There are smiles that make us happy,
 There are smiles that make us blue,
 There are smiles that steal away the tear drops
 As the sunbeams steal away the dew.
 There are smiles that have a tender meaning,
 That the eyes of love alone may see,
 And the smiles that fill my life with sunshine
 Are the smiles that you gave to me.

LOVE'S OLD SWEET SONG

Just a song at twilight, when the lights are low,
 And the flick'ring shadows softly come and go,
 Tho, the heart be weary, sad the day and long,
 Still to us at twilight, comes Love's old song,
 Comes Love's old sweet song.

THERE'S A LONG, LONG TRAIL

There's a long, long trail a-winding
 Into the land of my dreams,
 Where the nightingales are singing
 And a white moon beams;
 There's a long, long night of waiting
 Until my dreams all come true,
 Till the day when I'll be going down
 That long, long trail with you.

LET ME CALL YOU SWEETHEART

Let me call you "Sweetheart,"
 I'm in love with you;
 Let me hear you whisper
 That you love me, too.
 Keep the lovelight glowing
 In your eyes so true,
 Let me call you "Sweetheart,"
 I'm in love with you.

KEEP THE HOME FIRES BURNING

Keep the home-fires burning,
 While your hearts are yearning,
 Though your lads are far away they dream of home;
 There's a silver lining,
 Through the dark cloud shining,
 Turn the dark cloud inside out till the boys come home.

CARRY ME BACK TO OLD VIRGINNY

Carry me back to old Virginny,
 There's where the cotton and the corn and 'taters grow;
 There's where the birds warble sweetly in the spring-time;
 There's where dis old darkey's heart am longed to go.
 There's where I labored so long for old massa,
 Day after day in the field of yellow corn;
 No place on earth do I love more sincerely
 Than old Virginny, the place where I was born.

Chorus

Carry me back to old Virginny,
 There's where the cotton and the corn and 'taters grow;
 There's where the birds warble sweetly in the spring-time;
 There's where dis old darkey's heart am longed to go.
