The College Marshal

Leading the academic procession is the College Marshal. This honor is bestowed each commencement upon an outstanding faculty member. Mrs. Esther Campbell, a member of the Music and Drama department, is today honored for 40 years of dedicated service to the students of Edinboro State College. She will retire to private life following this commencement. Since coming to the college in 1928 Mrs. Campbell has served for 35 years as director of the Collegiate Singers and for many years as director of the Women's Chorus, the Men's Glee Club, and the Madrigal Singers, in addition to her administrative and teaching duties. In conjunction with the director of dramatics and the Collegiate Players, she presented such musical productions as "Oklahoma!" and "South Pacific." Mu Kappa Gamma, the honorary music fraternity, was founded under the guidance and direction of Mrs. Campbell, who has continued to serve as its adviser. She was for 36 years one of the advisers to Alpha Delta, social sorority. Mrs. Campbell will maintain her interest in the College as an emeriti faculty member.

PROGRAM NOTES

The Junior Marshals

In the processional and recessional the degree candidates are escorted by the two Junior Marshals. The position of Junior Marshal is an honor awarded each commencement to the man and woman of the junior class having earned the highest cumulative scholastic average.

Junior Marshals for the spring commencement are Miss Linda Lakatos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lakatos, Erie, and Mr. George Schmalzried, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Schmalzried, Conneautville, Pennsylvania. Miss Lakatos was graduated from Harbor Creek High School and is a secondary education major specializing in mathematics. Mr. Schmalzried was graduated from Saegertown High School and is a liberal arts major specializing in the humanities.

The Ceremonial Mace

The Ceremonial Mace, a symbol of presidential authority, is carried at the head of the academic procession by the Grand Marshal, Mrs. Esther Campbell. The Mace, a gift of the Alumni Association, was designed and executed by Mr. Seymour Blinderman and Mr. Henry Katzwinkel of the Art faculty and was first used at the Inauguration of President Chester T. McNerney.

The Mace, twenty-seven inches high, is topped by a sterling silver sphere studded by cone-shaped rubies. The neck of the Mace is inlaid with rosewood, alternated with silver fleur-de-lis. Cultured pearls mounted on cups encircle the top of the staff. Discs of silver interspersed with rosewood compose the shaft which ends with tip-casted silver. Sunken cultured pearls encircle a rounded cone with textured silver to end in a small globe.

PROGRAM NOTES

Academic Vestments

The gown, the cap and the hood, representing the major components of the academic dress, are a ceremonial inheritance from the medieval universities of the eleventh and twelfth centuries, where dress was the outward sign of privilege and responsibility. The academic dress worn by those participating in today's academic processional symbolizes the level of their academic attainment and the institution they attended.

Gown

Although the gown is more frequently black, certain universities have authorized the use of colored gowns. The Bachelor and Master gowns are fashioned from black serge. The yoke for the Bachelor gown is designed to be worn closed and features long, flowing and pointed sleeves. The Master gown is designed to be worn open or closed. Its sleeves are very long with square ends, and the front part has an arc cut away. The arms protrude through a slit at the elbow. The gown for the Doctor degree is made of wool, serge, or silk with an open front faced with wide velvet panels. The sleeves are loose and bell-shaped with three bars of velvet in black or the color of the discipline in which the doctorate was obtained.

Hood

The most outstanding feature of the academic dress is the hood. It is usually worn only for the Master's and the Doctor's degrees. The Doctor's hood is longer than the Master's hood and has distinguishing panels. The College or the University granting the degree is indicated by the color or coloring of the hood lining. The velvet trim of the hood indicates the field in which the degree was granted.

Cap

The standard cap is the mortarboard, usually the color of the gown. The tassel is black for the Baccalaureate and Master degree and is worn over the left front quarter of the cap. The tassel for the Doctor's mortarboard is of gold thread. Undergraduates wear the tassel on the right side of the cap until the moment the degree is conferred by the President.

MEMORIAL FOUNDATION GIFTS

"They received, each for his own memory, praise that grows not old, and with it the grandest of all sepulchres, not that in which their mortal bones are laid, but a home in the minds of men, where their glory remains fresh to stir to speech or action as the occasion comes by. For the whole earth is the sepulchre of famous men; and their story is not graven only on stone over the native earth, but lives on far away, without visible symbol, woven into the stuff of other men's lives."—Thucydides

Dr. Harry W. Earley, March 25, 1966

Friends, alumni, family and students established a monetary gift in memory of Dr. Earley, Dean of Instruction, who was serving as Acting President of the College.

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater glorious,
Fresh wreaths we bring to bind thy brow;
Trials past thou hast withstood victorious
Never fairer, never statelier than now.
O Edinboro, Edinboro, We revere thee,

While class speeds class,
As swift years pass
To thee our hearts are true.

The College Marshal

Leading the academic procession is the College Marshal. This honor is bestowed each Commencement upon an outstanding faculty member. Dr. John Gatzky, senior member of the Science Department, is today honored for his years of dedicated service to the students of Edinboro State College.

Although Dr. Gatzky's academic background is in biological science, it was his interest in audio-visual education which brought him to the campus of Edinboro State College in 1946 as Director of Audio-Visual Education. In 1959 he was appointed Chairman of the Science Department. As Chairman of the Department he assumed the major responsibilities for planning the Cooper Hall Science Building. After four years of service as Department Chairman, Dr. Gatzky asked to be relieved of his administrative responsibilities so that he could devote his full time to teaching and research.

In addition to his administrative and teaching duties, he served for many years as adviser to the freshman class; to Beta Beta Beta, the national biological honor society; and to Alpha Phi Omega, a national service fraternity for college and university men.

PROGRAM NOTES

The Junior Marshals

In the processional and recessional the degree candidates are escorted by the two Junior Marshals. The position of Junior Marshal is an honor awarded each commencement to the man and woman of the junior class having earned the highest cumulative scholastic average.

Junior Marshals for the summer commencement are Miss Linda Lakatos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lakatos, Erie, and Mr. George Schmalzried, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Schmalzried, Conneautville, Pennsylvania. Miss Lakatos was graduated from Harbor Creek High School and is a secondary education major specializing in mathematics. Mr. Schmalzried was graduated from Saegertown High School and is a liberal arts major specializing in the humanities.

The Ceremonial Mace

The Ceremonial Mace, a symbol of presidential authority, is carried at the head of the academic procession by the Grand Marshal, Dr. John Gatzky. The Mace, a gift of the Alumni Association, was designed and executed by Dr. Seymour Blinderman and Mr. Henry Katzwinkel of the Art faculty and was first used at the Inauguration of President Chester T. McNerney.

The Mace, twenty-seven inches high, is topped by a sterling silver sphere studded by cone-shaped rubies. The neck of the Mace is inlaid with rosewood, alternated with silver fleur-de-lis. Cultured pearls mounted on cups encircle the top of the staff. Discs of silver interspersed with rosewood compose the shaft which ends with tip-casted silver. Sunken cultured pearls encircle a rounded cone with textured silver to end in a small globe.

PROGRAM NOTES

Academic Vestments

The gown, the cap and the hood, representing the major components of the academic dress, are a ceremonial inheritance from the medieval universities of the eleventh and twelfth centuries, where dress was the outward sign of privilege and responsibility. The academic dress worn by those participating in today's academic processional symbolizes the level of their academic attainment and the institution they attended.

Gown

Although the gown is more frequently black, certain universities have authorized the use of colored gowns. The Bachelor and Master gowns are fashioned from black serge. The yoke for the Bachelor gown is designed to be worn closed and features long, flowing and pointed sleeves. The Master gown is designed to be worn open or closed. Its sleeves are very long with square ends, and the front part has an arc cut away. The arms protrude through a slit at the elbow. The gown for the Doctor degree is made of wool, serge, or silk with an open front faced with wide velvet panels. The sleeves are loose and bell-shaped with three bars of velvet in black or the color of the discipline in which the doctorate was obtained.

Hood

The most outstanding feature of the academic dress is the hood. It is usually worn only for the Master's and the Doctor's degrees. The Doctor's hood is longer than the Master's hood and has distinguishing panels. The College or the University granting the degree is indicated by the color or coloring of the hood lining. The velvet trim of the hood indicates the field in which the degree was granted.

Cap

The standard cap is the mortarboard, usually the color of the gown. The tassel is black for the Baccalaureate and Master degree and is worn over the left front quarter of the cap. The tassel for the Doctor's mortarboard is of gold thread. Undergraduates wear the tassel on the right side of the cap until the moment the degree is conferred by the President.

MEMORIAL FOUNDATION GIFTS

"They received, each for his own memory, praise that grows not old, and with it the grandest of all sepulchres, not that in which their mortal bones are laid, but a home in the minds of men, where their glory remains fresh to stir to speech or action as the occasion comes by. For the whole earth is the sepulchre of famous men; and their story is not graven only on stone over the native earth, but lives on far away, without visible symbol, woven into the stuff of other men's lives."—Thucydides

Dr. Harry W. Earley, March 25, 1966

Friends, alumni, family and students established a monetary gift in memory of Dr. Earley, Dean of Instruction, who was serving as Acting President of the College.

Dr. Thomas R. Miller, February 7, 1966

Dr. Miller became the twelfth president of the College in 1954. Envisioning and developing a Master Plan which is today under construction, the campus is comprised of 565 acres, a total final investment of $45,000,000 with a planned completion date of 1972. Corporal Gary Leslie Norman, December 18, 1967

Gary Norman, a former student at Edinboro State College, was killed in action in Vietnam. In his memory his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Norman, Erie, have set up a scholarship fund to which friends and business organizations have contributed.

Helen Sabin Reed, October 18, 1966

A $10,000 endowment was given to Edinboro State College in memory of Mrs. Helen Sabin Reed, a member of the Education faculty since 1961. Because Mrs. Reed was a specialist in the reading field, the yearly $500 scholarship will be awarded to an Elementary Education major. Mrs. Theo Sabin Meyer of Erie; Mrs. Mildred Sabin Young, Los Angeles, California, sisters; and a brother Robert W. Sabin, Long Beach, California, established the gift.

Dr. L. W. VanLaningham, December 2, 1967

A memorial Student Teacher Loan Fund was established by associates, relatives and friends of Dr. VanLaningham who served the College as Director of Student Teaching and Placement from 1949 until his death.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Weldon Levinson Scholarship

A $100 gift was presented to the Scholarship Foundation Fund through the generosity of Mr. Weldon Levinson of Meadville. The money is to be awarded to a worthy student from the Meadville area to help further his education.

Hanna Kent Schoff Memorial Scholarships

The Pennsylvania Congress of Parents and Teachers makes available each year two scholarships to outstanding high school students who will attend Edinboro State College. These yearly scholarships are continuous for four years, upon review of the scholarship committee. Awards are made on the basis of CEEB test results, grades, class rank, personal attributes, co-curricular activities, desire to teach and a personal interview.

Women's Club Art Scholarships

Each year three art students who achieved sophomore or higher standing are recipients of awards. The Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs provide the grants with the selections being made by the Art Scholarship Award Committee.

FINANCIAL AID PROGRAM

Programs of financial assistance and the low cost of attending Edinboro State College have made higher education a reality for every student possessing the desire and ability to achieve such a goal.

Approximately $1,300,000 in financial assistance was received by students at Edinboro State College during the 1967-68 academic year through the following programs:
