MRS. JANE PARSONS

Carrying the Ceremonial Mace and leading the ranks of the academic procession as College Marshal is Mrs. Jane Parsons, a member of the Elementary Education Department at Edinboro State College for the past twelve years. Originally from Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, Mrs. Parsons received her Bachelor's degree from Oberlin College and was the first woman to receive a Master of Arts in Mathematics from Lehigh University. She was a Fullbright Scholar to Germany and later studied in England and at the University of Edinburgh, Scotland.

Prior to her position at Edinboro, Mrs. Parsons taught in the Iroquois and Lewistown Public School Systems of Pennsylvania. She was also a practicing commercial artist for ten years during which time she presented her own art shows.

An advocate of the "British Primary Schools" approach to early childhood education, Mrs. Parsons joined the Edinboro State College faculty in 1966. While at Edinboro, she instituted a curriculum development program at the Miller Research-Learning Center which was a pilot project for the teaching of German to children ages five through ten. She also supervised a three-year special assignment which dealt with the development of an early childhood education program for the Port Allegheny Public Schools System.

Along with her certification in the teaching of mathematics and German, Mrs. Parsons is also certified in English which she has taught at the Hokuriku Gakuim College at Kanazawa, Japan.

While serving as College Marshal for today's commencement proceedings is of great importance to Mrs. Parsons, an equally significant honor shares the stage with this event. She will also witness the graduation of Yukiko Minamoto, whom she sponsored as a Japanese "daughter" to Edinboro State College. Miss Minamoto has the unique distinction of receiving her degree at today's commencement as one of only two students who will be graduating with 4.0 averages.

A member of the honorary mathematical society, Pi Mu Epsilon, Mrs. Parsons is also affiliated with the professional organizations of the Pennsylvania State Education Association, the National Education Association and the Association of Pennsylvania State College and University Faculties.

Mrs. Parsons, along with her husband, the Reverend William A. Parsons, resides in Erie. Their six children, four sons and two daughters, are all college graduates, three of whom have obtained their master's degrees. They have all dignified themselves professionally as an artist, a banker, an educational administrator, an engineer and teachers.

In her retirement, Mrs. Parsons plans to return to Eastern Pennsylvania for a short time and then will travel to Japan this summer to teach English at Kokuriko Gakuim College.

THE HONORABLE JOHN HEINZ

The Honorable John Heinz, Pennsylvania's Junior Senator and the youngest Republican in the United States Senate, will serve as guest speaker for today's commencement exercises. In recognition of his outstanding contributions to law, business and society, Mr. Heinz will be honored by receiving a distinguished Certificate of Merit from the College.

Prior to his election to a six-year term as a United States Senator in November 1976, Heinz served for five years in the House of Representatives after winning a 1971 special election in Western Pennsylvania's 18th Congressional District.

Originally from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Heinz received his Bachelor's degree from Yale University in 1960 and then attended Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration where he was awarded a Master's of Business Administration in 1963. He immediately enlisted in the United States Air Force and subsequently was honorably discharged with the rank of staff sergeant.

In the House, Heinz was a member of the Health and Environment and the Energy and Power Subcommittees of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee. In those two subcommittees, Heinz played a key role in redirecting health research to such previously ignored problems as diabetes, in writing this country's Clean Air laws, and in taking the first positive steps to deal with the energy crisis.

To make sure that the special problems of our senior citizens received prompt and sympathetic action in Congress, Heinz spearheaded the successful battle to create the House Select Committee on Aging.

Heinz's three Committee Assignments in the Senate include Governmental Affairs, which is handling such areas as Government Reorganization and Sunset laws; Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs, where Heinz is active in programs aimed at neighborhood conservation and revitalization and improving mass transit; and the Budget Committee which determines the size, limits and priorities for the federal budget. Most recently, he became the first freshman Senator of either party to floor-manage a major piece of legislation, the Anti-Boycott bill.

In addition to his professional activities, the young Senator has been active in numerous civic affairs. He is a board member of the Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh, the Yale University Art Gallery and Board of Visitors for the Graduate School of Public and International Affairs, Graduate School of Public Health, University of Pittsburgh, as well as the Graduate School of Business Administration, Harvard University, to name but a few.

Among his past board memberships are those with the University of Pittsburgh and the Pittsburgh Urban League. The Senator makes his home in the Fox Chapel Boro, a suburb of Pittsburgh, with his wife and three children.

AWARD RECIPIENT

MR. JOHN A. HAGAN

Mr. John A. Hagan, Director of Vocational Rehabilitation for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, will receive Edinboro State College's highest honor today when he is presented a Certificate of Merit which cites his leadership in human services in rehabilitation and especially for his concern of the youth of the nation.

Mr. Hagan began his career with vocational rehabilitation in 1946 as a counselor with the Pennsylvania Bureau of Vocational Rehabilitation. He was later promoted to Western Regional Supervisor, a position which he left in 1960, only to return and be named BVR's Director in June of 1972.

Prior to his appointment as Director, Mr. Hagan served with the American Heart Association as rehabilitation consultant, succeeding Dr. Fred Whitehouse as Rehabilitation Director in 1965 and later assumed the position of Executive Secretary of the Stroke Council, a scientific body of the American Heart Association. In those positions he was responsible for initiating, developing and supervising the Heart Association's national programs in rehabilitation.

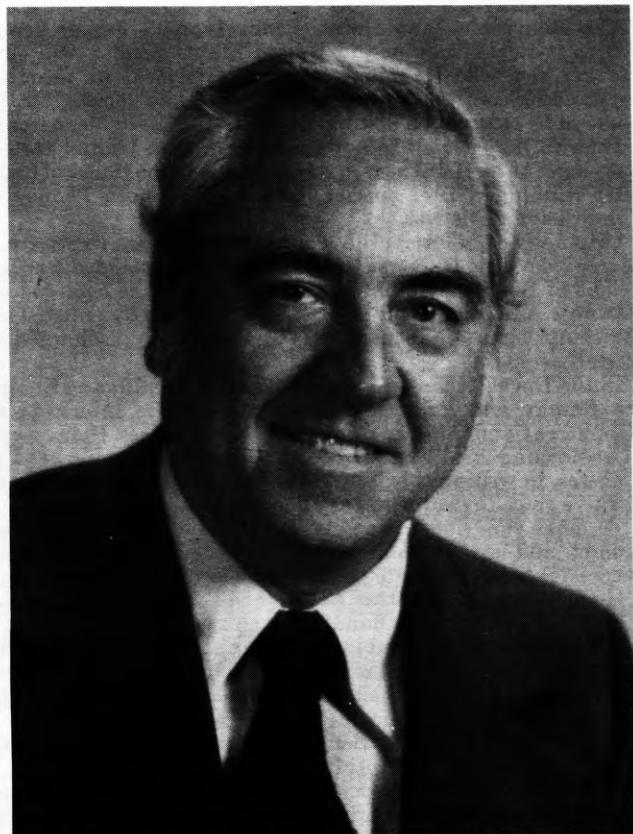

Mr. Hagan is a pioneer in cardiac and stroke rehabilitation, beginning as a counselor in those areas in 1946. He is also noted in work evaluation techniques for the disabled and was a founding member of the Cardiac Work Evaluation Unit at the Philadelphia General Hospital.

In 1952 he developed the first vocational rehabilitation program in cardiac surgery with Drs. Bailey and Glover at Hahnemann Hospital, Philadelphia, expanding it to four other hospitals, serving clients from seventeen states.

He has developed evaluation units throughout the United States and is known nationally for his work in stress and strain, in exercise and in the medical-legal problems of cardiac disability. He has written and spoken extensively on these subjects and on counseling in the rehabilitation process. He has organized and directed national conferences on work evaluation, workmen's compensation, and stress, strain and heart disease.

Mr. Hagan was a special consultant to President Johnson's Committee on Heart, Cancer and Stroke and was elected Fellow of the Council on Stroke of the American Heart Association in 1972 for his contributions to the development of the Stroke Council of the American Heart Association. He received the Mark M. Walter Humanitarian Award this year and has been a member of numerous local, state and national committees on a variety of disabilities.

A recipient of a Bachelor of Arts degree in Philosophy from St. Charles Seminary in Overbrook, Pennsylvania, Mr. Hagan has done graduate study at Temple University, St. Joseph's College and Princeton University.

Complementing his career in vocational rehabilitation has been a most diversified background which includes such experiences as a proofreader, a job analyst, an employment interviewer and a naval officer.

MEMORIAL FOUNDATION GIFTS

"They received, each for his own memory, praise that grows not old, and with it the grandest of all sepulchres, not that in which their mortal bones are laid, but a home in the minds of men, where their glory remains fresh to stir to speech or action as the occasion comes by. For the whole earth is the sepulchre of famous men; and their story is not graven only on stone over the native earth, but lives on far away, without visible symbol, woven into the stuff of other men's lives."—Thucydides

JACK FINEGAN, APRIL 1969

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Finegan provide a $50 annual award to an outstanding male English student who shows a tendency to write prose or poetry that is intended to make mankind aware of the needs of his fellow-man and that places an emphasis on the desire to make the world a better place in which to live. This award was established in memory of their son, Jack Finegan, a former student at Edinboro State College.

MILDRED FORNESS MEMORIAL LOAN

Miss Forness held a position at the College from 1922 until her retirement in 1969. During that time she served in many capacities, including head of the Library and head of the Library Science Department. Her relatives and friends have contributed to establish loans for library science students.

JOHN "BUTCH" MCBRIDE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

John B. McBride, Sr. (Class of 1953), Barbara McBride and Richard McBride have established a scholarship fund in memory of their son and brother, John "Butch" McBride. The scholarship is awarded to recognize outstanding athletic performance and scholarship achievement of an enrolled athlete in one of the varsity sports existent during the award year.

LOIS CALDWELL NORTH, CLASS OF 1886

Two $100 annual scholarships have been endowed in memory of Mrs. Lois Caldwell North by her daughter, Eleanor North, of State College, Pa. The awards are made each year to students who plan to enter the ministry upon completion of their education.

HELEN SABIN REED, OCTOBER 1966

A $10,000 endowment was given to Edinboro State College in memory of Mrs. Helen Sabin Reed, a member of the education faculty from 1961 through 1966. Because Mrs. Reed was a specialist in the reading field, the yearly $500 scholarship is awarded to an elementary education major. Mrs. Theo Sabin Meyer of Erie, Mrs. Mildred Sabin Young, Los Angeles, California, sisters; and a brother, Robert W. Sabin, Long Beach, California, established the gift.

VLAHAKIS AWARD, JANUARY 1972

Each year a $300 scholarship award is made available to a student of Edinboro State College who is majoring or planning to major in chemistry. The award has been established by Mrs. Thekla Vlahakis of Pittsburgh in memory of her late husband, George K. Vlahakis, and two sons, Walter and William.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

EDINBORO ALUMNI ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIP

The Edinboro State College Alumni Association offers a $1,200 scholarship, $300 per year for four years, to an outstanding high school senior enrolling at the College each year.

THE BRUCE MANVILLE MORRISON FUND

The fund was established by the estate of the late Bruce Manville Morrison to provide financial support for Edinboro State College graduate students. Awards are made on a continuing basis to graduate students who can document financial need. The Morrison Fund also has provisions for the acquisition of rare books for the College Library.

RUSSIAN LANGUAGE AND AREA STUDY SCHOLARSHIPS

Eight Russian Language and Area Study Scholarships were granted to promising high school seniors desiring to combine a major in Russian with secondary specialization in either economics, business, accounting or engineering. This program, funded in part by industrial firms, is intended to prepare the scholarship winners for careers in International Trade in general, and East-West Trade in particular.

UNITED MINISTRY MINORITY SCHOLARSHIP

The United Ministry of Edinboro State College offers scholarships to freshmen minority students at the College. In order to receive the scholarship, students must be in good academic standing from high school with financial need as documented through the Financial Aid Form of the College Scholarship Service.

STUDENT EMERGENCY LOAN FUND

The Student Emergency Loan Fund has been established for undergraduate or graduate students who are in immediate need of a small loan. Contributions have been made to this fund in memory of:

- Dr. Harry W. Earley, Dean of Instruction, who was serving as Acting President of the College at the time of his death, March 25, 1966.
- Corporal Gary Leslie Norman, a former student at Edinboro State College, killed in action in Vietnam, December 18, 1967.
- Dr. L. W. VanLaningham who served the College as Director of Student Teaching and Placement from 1949 until his death, December 2, 1967.

THE CEREMONIAL MACE

The Ceremonial Mace, a symbol of presidential authority, is carried at the head of the academic procession by the College Marshal, Mrs. Jane Parsons. A gift of the Alumni Association, the Mace was designed and executed by Dr. Seymour Blinderman, formerly of the Art faculty, and Mr. Henry Katzwinkel. It was first used at the inauguration of President Chester T. McNerney. The Mace, twenty-seven inches high, is topped by a sterling silver sphere studded with cone-shaped rubies. The neck of the Mace is inlaid with rosewood, alternated with silver fleur-de-lis. Cultured pearls mounted on cups encircle the top of the shaft. Discs of silver interspersed with rosewood compose the shaft which ends with tip-casted silver. Sunken cultured pearls encircle a rounded cone with textured silver to end in a small globe.

ACADEMIC VESTMENTS

The gown, the cap and the hood, representing the major components of the academic dress, are a ceremonial inheritance from the medieval universities of the eleventh and twelfth centuries, where dress was the outward sign of privilege and responsibility. The academic dress worn by those participating in today's academic processional symbolizes the level of their academic attainment and the institution they attended.

Although the gown is more frequently black, certain universities have authorized the use of colored gowns. The bachelor and master gowns are fashioned from black serge. The yoke for the bachelor gown is designed to be worn closed and features long, flowing and pointed sleeves. The master gown is designed to be worn open or closed. Its sleeves are very long with square ends, and the front part has an arc cut away. The arms protrude through a slit at the elbow. The gown for the doctor degree is made of wool, serge or silk with an open front faced with wide velvet panels. The sleeves are loose and bell-shaped with three bars of velvet in black or the color of the discipline in which the doctorate was obtained.

HOOD

The most outstanding feature of the academic dress is the hood. It is usually worn only for the master and doctor degrees. The doctor's hood is longer than the master's hood and has distinguished panels. The college or the university granting the degree is indicated by the color of coloring of the hood lining. The velvet trim of the hood indicates the field in which the degree was granted.

CAP

The standard cap is the mortarboard, usually the color of the gown. The tassel is black for the baccalaureate and master degree and is worn over the left front quarter of the cap. The tassel for the doctor's mortarboard is of gold thread. Undergraduates wear the tassel on the right side of the cap until the moment the degree is conferred by the president.

Because of the demand to meet a deadline to print this program and the short period of time between the end of classes, review of all academic programs, delays caused by such factors as illness of some students and evaluation by the Office of Academic Affairs, the College does not claim the list of degree candidates is absolutely accurate. Students are granted degrees only if they meet all academic and financial requirements.

GOD, BRING THY SWORD

by Samuel H. Miller

Not for Heaven's sight, not for glory and eternal joy;
Not for endless peace, nor comfort for our sleeping souls.
We ask, O Lord, to see Thy sword,
Thy judgment lightning sharp stand above the altar.
Hang the sword above the pulpit and pew,
Close to the empty smile we use to hide our fear.

ALMA MATER

Hail to Thee, our Alma Mater Glorious,
Fresh Wreaths we bring to bind Thy brow
Trials have past and Thou hast stood victorious
Never fairer never statelier than now,
O Edinboro, Edinboro
Ever praising Thee in song
While class speeds class as swift years pass
To Thee our hearts belong.

MR. ROBERT J. FREDERICK

Carrying the ceremonial mace and leading the ranks of the academic procession at commencement exercises today is Mr. Robert Frederick, retiring assistant professor in Edinboro's Sociology/Anthropology/ Social Work Department. Mr. Frederick is being honored as College

Marshal to recognize his 13 years of teaching service to the Edinboro State College community.

Mr. Frederick's retirement is unique in that it marks the completion of two careers of service to his fellow man which span some 34 years. While he is being honored today for his 13 years in education, he also holds the distinction of being a retired United States Air Force major.

He received both his bachelor's and master's degrees in anthropology from The Pennsylvania State University and entered the teaching profession at Edinboro in 1965.

Prior to his career as an educator, Mr. Frederick was a supply services officer in the United States Air Force until his retirement in 1960. During his 21-year career in the military service, he traveled to Iceland, Bermuda and the British Isles. He spent five years teaching in the Air Force ROTC program at the University of Vermont and the Pottsville Center of The Pennsylvania State University.

"My first interest was really history," reflected the military veteran who is now noted for his work in anthropology, "but the opportunity to travel while in the Air Force made me extremely aware of the different kinds, origins and ideas of people. I would imagine that was my main reason for turning to anthropology." More specifically, Mr. Frederick enjoyed, as a major area of study, the Indians which inhabited the upper New York state area, particularly the Iroquois and the Seneca.

Listed among his affiliations are the Retired Officers Association, the American Anthropological Association and the Association of Pennsylvania State College and University Faculty (APSCUF). He has served as departmental representative to APSCUF and on several department committees.

A native of Pittston in Luzerne County, Mr. Frederick plans to return to his home after retirement and then travel.

He and his wife, Mary, have two daughters. Carol is an engineer with the General Electric Company in Syracuse, New York; while Mary, who attended her father's alma mater and received her master's from Edinboro, is currently a teacher at the Edinboro Intermediate Unit.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

THE HONORABLE CARYL M. KLINE PENNSYLVANIA SECRETARY OF EDUCATION

The Honorable Caryl Kline, Secretary of Education for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, will serve as guest speaker for today's summer commencement exercises. During the ceremonies, Edinboro President Dr. Chester R. Mc Nerney, will present a distinguished Certificate of Merit to Secretary Kline in recognition of her commitments to domestic service, concentration on rights and programs related to women, international form, practical business and professional acumen. In her role as Secretary of Education, she will also be acknowledged for the creation of opportunities for all to learn, explore knowledge and better serve the future.

Prior to her appointment as Secretary of Education in April 1977, Mrs. Kline, who possesses an outstanding background in education, history and politics, served as the Director of Continuing Education for Women at the University of Pittsburgh. A historian specializing in the Civil War, she has taught at the Universities of Wisconsin and Syracuse, was assistant to the Chancellor at the University of Pittsburgh, chairperson of the University's athletic committee, and president of the Pennsylvania Association for Adult Education.

Mrs. Kline's formal education centered in Wisconsin where she attended the Madison public schools and the University of Wisconsin. Her honorary degrees include a Doctor of Humane Letters and Doctor of Laws.

While teaching at Syracuse in 1957, Mrs. Kline was a candidate for President of city council, and a year later, was a candidate for Congress from the 35th district of New York.

In 1961 she was appointed special ambassador to Sierra Leone, West Africa, by the late President John F. Kennedy. During this time, she completed a Peace Corps feasibility study in Liberia and Ghana, and was evaluator of the Agency for International Development projects in Sierra Leone and Liberia. She was also a consultant to Women's Institute Programs operated by the Sierra Leone Department of Education and advisor on labor relations to the Queen's Board of Inquiry after riots in 1955.

For her dedicated public service, Mrs. Kline has been named a Distinguished Daughter of Pennsylvania, 1966; Woman of Distinction in Education, 1968, and was recipient of the Overseas Rehabilitation Training Community Service Award in 1974. She has also served on various educational, government and health boards and commissions and currently is the chairman of the Board of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Pittsburgh which includes West Virginia, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware.

The Secretary is married to Dr. Hibberd Van Buren Kline, and has two sons, Hibberd III and Wayne Morse. Her brother was the late U.S. Senator, Wayne Morse, from Oregon.

MEMORIAL FOUNDATION GIFTS

"They received, each for his own memory, praise that grows not old, and with it the grandest of all sepulchres, not that in which their mortal bones are laid, but a home in the minds of men, where their glory remains fresh to stir to speech or action as the occasion comes by. For the whole earth is the sepulchre of famous men; and their story is not graven only on stone over the native earth; but lives on far away, without visible symbol, woven into the stuff of other men's lives."—Thucydides

JACK FINEGAN, APRIL 1969

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Finegan provide a $50 annual award to an outstanding male English student who shows a tendency to write prose or poetry that is intended to make mankind aware of the needs of his fellow-man and that places an emphasis on the desire to make the world a better place in which to live. This award was established in memory of their son, Jack Finegan, a former student at Edinboro State College.

MILDRED FORNESS MEMORIAL LOAN

Miss Forness held a position at the College from 1922 until her retirement in 1969. During that time she served in many capacities, including head of the Library and head of the Library Science Department. Her relatives and friends have contributed to establish loans for library science students.

JOHN "BUTCH" MCBRIDE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

John B. McBride, Sr. (Class of 1953), Barbara McBride and Richard McBride have established a scholarship fund in memory of their son and brother, John "Butch" McBride. The scholarship is awarded to recognize outstanding athletic performance and scholarship achievement of an enrolled athlete in one of the varsity sports existent during the award year.

LOIS CALDWELL NORTH, CLASS OF 1886

Two $100 annual scholarships have been endowed in memory of Mrs. Lois Caldwell North by her daughter, Eleanor North, of State College, Pa. The awards are made each year to students who plan to enter the ministry upon completion of their education.

HELEN SABIN REED, OCTOBER 1966

A $10,000 endowment was given to Edinboro State College in memory of Mrs. Helen Sabin Reed, a member of the education faculty from 1961 through 1966. Because Mrs. Reed was a specialist in the reading field, the yearly $500 scholarship is awarded to an elementary education major. Mrs. Theo Sabin Meyer of Erie, Mrs. Mildred Sabin Young, Los Angeles, California, sisters; and a brother, Robert W. Sabin, Long Beach, California, established the gift.

VLAHAKIS AWARD, JANUARY 1972

Each year a $300 scholarship award is made available to a student of Edinboro State College who is majoring or planning to major in chemistry. The award has been established by Mrs. Thekla Vlahakis of Pittsburgh in memory of her late husband, George K. Valhakis, and two sons, Walter and William.

EDINBORO ALUMNI ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIP

The Edinboro State College Alumni Association offers a $1,200 scholarship, $300 per year for four years, to an outstanding high school senior enrolling at the College each year.

THE BRUCE MANVILLE MORRISON FUND

The fund was established by the estate of the late Bruce Manville Morrison to provide financial support for Edinboro State College graduate students. Awards are made on a continuing basis to graduate students who can document financial need. The Morrison Fund also has provisions for the acquisition of rare books for the College Library.

RUSSIAN LANGUAGE AND AREA STUDY SCHOLARSHIPS

Eight Russian Language and Area Study Scholarships were granted to promising high school seniors desiring to combine a major in Russian with secondary specialization in either economics, business, accounting or engineering. This program, funded in part by industrial firms, is intended to prepare the scholarship winners for careers in International Trade in general, and East-West Trade in particular.

UNITED MINISTRY MINORITY SCHOLARSHIP

The United Ministry of Edinboro State College offers scholarships to freshmen minority students at the College. In order to receive the scholarship, students must be in good academic standing from high school with financial need as documented through the Financial Aid Form of the College Scholarship Service.

STUDENT EMERGENCY LOAN FUND

The Student Emergency Loan Fund has been established for undergraduate or graduate students who are in immediate need of a small loan. Contributions have been made to this fund in memory of:

Dr. Harry W. Earley, Dean of Instruction, who was serving as Acting President of the College at the time of his death, March 25, 1966.

Corporal Gary Leslie Norman, a former student at Edinboro State College, killed in action in Vietnam, December 18, 1967.

Dr. L. W. VanLaningham who served the College as Director of Student Teaching and Placement from 1949 until his death, December 2, 1967.

THE CEREMONIAL MACE

The Ceremonial Mace, a symbol of presidential authority, is carried at the head of the academic procession by the College Marshal, Mr. Robert J. Frederick. A gift of the Alumni Association, the Mace was designed and executed by Dr. Seymour Blinderman, formerly of the Art faculty, and Mr. Henry Katzwinkel. It was first used at the inauguration of President Chester T. McNerney. The Mace, twenty-seven inches high, is topped by a sterling silver sphere studded with cone-shaped rubies. The neck of the Mace is inlaid with rosewood, alternated with silver fleur-de-lis. Cultured pearls mounted on cups encircle the top of the shaft. Discs of silver interspersed with rosewood compose the shaft which ends with tip-casted silver. Sunken cultured pearls encircle a rounded cone with textured silver to end in a small globe.

ACADEMIC VESTMENTS

The gown, the cap and the hood, representing the major components of the academic dress, are a ceremonial inheritance from the medieval universities of the eleventh and twelfth centuries, where dress was the outward sign of privilege and responsibility. The academic dress worn by those participating in today's academic processional symbolizes the level of their academic attainment and the institution they attended.

Although the gown is more frequently black, certain universities have authorized the use of colored gowns. The bachelor and master gowns are fashioned from black serge. The yoke for the bachelor gown is designed to be worn closed and features long, flowing and pointed sleeves. The master gown is designed to be worn open or closed. Its sleeves are very long with square ends, and the front part has an arc cut away. The arms protrude through a slit at the elbow. The gown for the doctor degree is made of wool, serge or silk with an open front faced with wide velvet panels. The sleeves are loose and bell-shaped with three bars of velvet in black or the color of the discipline in which the doctorate was obtained.

HOOD

The most outstanding feature of the academic dress is the hood. It is usually worn only for the master and doctor degrees. The doctor's hood is longer than the master's hood and has distinguished panels. The college or the university granting the degree is indicated by the color of coloring of the hood lining. The velvet trim of the hood indicates the field in which the degree was granted.

CAP

The standard cap is the mortarboard, usually the color of the gown. The tassel is black for the baccalaureate and master degree and is worn over the left front quarter of the cap. The tassel for the doctor's mortarboard is of gold thread. Undergraduates wear the tassel on the right side of the cap until the moment the degree is conferred by the president.

Because of the demand to meet a deadline to print this program and the short period of time between the end of classes, review of all academic programs, delays caused by such factors as illness of some students and evaluation by the Office of Academic Affairs, the College does not claim the list of degree candidates is absolutely accurate. Students are granted degrees only if they meet all academic and financial requirements.

EDINBORO STATE COLLEGE

From its beginning as a private academy in 1856, Edinboro State College has surged to the forefront as one of the leading educational institutions in Western Pennsylvania. Located just 15 miles south of Erie, Pa., the College's setting offers a contrast of seasons. Enhanced by the beauty of Edinboro Lake, the community serves as a resort center during the summer while numerous nearby ski slopes offer a variety of recreation in the picturesque winter months. The College's location enables it to readily serve the tri-state area with its proximity to Pittsburgh, Pa. (125 miles), Cleveland, Ohio (100 miles) and Buffalo, New York (120 miles). Moreover, it is easily accessible from the north and south by Interstate 79 and east and west by Interstate 90.

Edinboro State College has continued to increase its academic offerings to students and provide career choices not only in education, but in the professions and industry, as well. Included in the expanded curricula are programs in nursing, criminal justice, computer science, allied health fields, business and numerous pre-professional programs in law, dentistry, medicine and veterinary science. Edinboro State is also a pioneer in offering developmentally disabled students an opportunity to attend college. In keeping with its objective as a multi-purpose institution, the College offers both degree and non-degree programs for its students and surrounding community residents.

The College has experienced a rapid growth rate in students, faculty and physical plant. Forty buildings cover the 585-acre campus which now services more than 6,000 students.

ALMA MATER

Hail to Thee, our Alma Mater Glorious,
Fresh Wreaths we bring to bind Thy brow
Trials have past and Thou hast stood victorious
Never fairer never statelier than now,
O Edinboro, Edinboro
Ever praising Thee in song
While class speeds class as swift years pass
To Thee our hearts belong.
