MR. BLAIR E. HENDERSON

The College Marshal

Carrying the Ceremonial Mace and leading the ranks of the academic procession as College Marshal today is Mr. Blair E. Henderson, who serves as Assistant to the Vice President for Academic Affairs and will conclude his career at the end of the current year.

In 1965 Mr. Henderson became a member of the College's administration, where he has given untiring service for the past ten years in his roles as Assistant to the Vice President for Academic Affairs, Director of the General Studies Program and Acting Registrar.

A recipient of a Bachelor of Arts degree in Commerce and Finance from Penn State and a graduate of the Industrial College of the Armed Forces in Washington, D. C., Mr. Henderson obtained his Master of Education degree in Guidance and Counseling from the Colleges of William and Mary. Mr. Henderson also holds credits from George Washington University, the University of Maryland, University of the Americas and Edinboro State College. At the secondary level, he served as a guidance counselor and teacher in Fairfax, Virginia, at Flint Hill Preparatory School.

Prior to his career at Edinboro State College, Mr. Henderson performed duties at Fort Eustis, Virginia, where he was Chief of Staff of the United States Army Transportation Center and Assistant Commandant in the United States Army Transportation School. He was a member of the Joint Staff, serving the Joint Chiefs of Staff in Washington, D. C., and also Assistant Military Attache at the United States Embassy in London, England.

During his 24 years in the United States Army, Mr. Henderson served 13 of those as a colonel and eight years as a lieutenant colonel.

An active participant in community affairs, Mr. Henderson has been a member of the Rotary Club for the past eight years where he has served as both president and vice president of the Edinboro Rotarians.

THE CEREMONIAL MACE

The Ceremonial Mace, a symbol of presidential authority, is carried at the head of the academic procession by the College Marshal, Mr. Blair E. Henderson. The Mace, a gift of the Alumni Association, was designed and executed by Dr. Seymour Blinderman, formerly of the Art faculty, and Mr. Henry Katzwinkel. The Mace was first used at the inauguration of President Chester T. McNerney.

The Mace, twenty-seven inches high, is topped by a sterling silver sphere studded by cone-shaped rubies. The neck of the Mace is inlaid with rosewood, alternated with silver fleur-de-lis. Cultured pearls mounted on cups encircle the top of the staff. Discs of silver interspersed with rosewood compose the shaft which ends with tip-casted silver. Sunken cultured pearls encircle a rounded cone with textured silver to end in a small globe.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER AND RECIPIENT OF CERTIFICATE OF MERIT

DR. TERREL HOWARD BELL
United States Commissioner of Education

Dr. Terrell H. Bell, the United States Commissioner of Education, will serve as speaker for the 1975 spring commencement. In recognition of both his public and private service to education, as well as his personal and professional commitment to human services, he is being honored today by receiving a distinguished Certificate of Merit.

Dr. Bell was sworn in as the Commissioner of Education on June 13, 1974, only eight days after his appointment was confirmed by the U. S. Senate. He is the 21st Commissioner in the 107-year history of the U. S. Office of Education.

During his previous service in Washington, Dr. Bell was instrumental in establishing comparability for Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act—the requirement that Federal funds supplement rather than supplant State and local funds. He also played a major role in the Office of Education's effort to desegregate, under the Emergency School Assistance Program, some 1,300 school districts in the South.

Dr. Bell had been Superintendent of the Granite School District, Salt Lake City, beginning in September 1971. From 1970 to 1971, he was with the U. S. Office of Education, serving as Associate Commissioner in charge of Regional Offices, Acting Commissioner of Education and Deputy Commissioner for School Systems. From 1963 to 1970, he was Utah State Superintendent of Public Instruction and Executive Officer of the State Board for Vocational Education.

A native of Lava Hot Springs, Idaho, Dr. Bell received his B.A. degree from Southern Idaho College of Education in 1946, his M.S. from the University of Idaho in 1954, and his doctorate in educational administration from the University of Utah in 1961. He also studied school administration as a Ford Foundation Fellow in 1954-55 at Stanford University.

Dr. Bell began his career in education in 1946 as a science teacher and athletic coach at Eden Rural High School in Eden, Idaho. From 1947 to 1954, he served as Superintendent of the Rockland Valley School District in Idaho. In 1955 he became Superintendent of Schools in the Star Valley School District, Afton, Wyoming, and held this position for the next three years. From 1957 to 1962, he was Superintendent of Schools in the Weber County School District, Ogden, Utah. He was Chairman of the Department of Educational Administration and Professor of Educational Administration at Utah State University from 1962 to 1963.

The Commissioner holds an honorary Doctorate of Humanities degree from Southern Utah State College. His other honors and awards include: Certificate of Appreciation from the U. S. Office of Education in 1971; Secretary's Special Citation from the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare in 1970; National Adult Education Outstanding Service Award in 1970; Distinguished Service to American Education Award from the Council of Chief State School Officers in 1970; Utah School Boards Association Distinguished Service Award in 1970, and the Weber County Board of Education designation of a new secondary school as T. H. Bell Junior High School in 1963.

A member of the Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi, Dr. Bell is the author of five published books and numerous articles on educational subjects.

During World War II, Dr. Bell served for 26 months in the Pacific Area and was discharged as a First Sergeant in the U. S. Marine Corps. In 1957, he was married to Betty Ruth Fitzgerald and has four sons: Mark Fitzgerald, Warren Terrel, Glenn Martin and Peter Fitzgerald.

AWARD RECIPIENTS

MR. B. REGIS "SOX" HARRISON
Professor Emeritus, Edinboro State College

A special Certificate of Merit will be awarded today to B. Regis "Sox" Harrison, who dedicated 34 years of his life to Edinboro State College as an athletic director, a coach and a physical education instructor.

Sox, who graduated from Niagara University in 1913 and starred in both football and baseball, came to Edinboro in 1919. Under his leadership, Sox Harrison's teams were renowned for their outstanding success and the spirit that was generated by his exuberance. Sox's basketball teams amassed an amazing 158 wins from 1928 until his retirement in 1952, and his 1931-32 basketball team still has the best percentage mark in Edinboro history with its 12-1 season record.

The College paid a tribute to Sox in 1964 when Edinboro's football stadium was named in his honor. His overall devotion to the athletic world is annually symbolized in the presentation of a trophy in his name that is awarded to an Edinboro State College senior who has demonstrated his unselfish service to Edinboro's athletic program and is a proven competitor.

Originally a Pittsburgh native, Sox coached football and basketball at Battle Creek School of Physical Education in Michigan and then took a position at Alliance College prior to coming to Edinboro. Always noted for giving his time unselfishly to youngsters, retirement from the College in 1952 meant only more time for the management of his own Sunset Camps for boys and girls.

Sox will long be remembered for his outstanding contributions to the College and the many lasting friendships which he has established over the years.

DR. DORIS E. NASON
Director, Reading-Study Center
The University of Connecticut

Dr. Doris E. Nason, Director of the Reading-Study Center at the University of Connecticut, will receive a Certificate of Merit at today's commencement proceedings. The award recognizes her professional service and national leadership as a distinguished researcher and lecturer in matters of clinical services in the field of reading.

Dr. Nason is the author of 17 publications and is a renowned lecturer in the field of reading. She has produced numerous television courses in the teaching of reading, conducted workshops and seminars while also organizing various reading associations. In 1971 Dr. Nason was a consultant to the first learning disability center in Belgium and since then has travelled throughout the United States to assist in establishing and evaluating reading programs.

Dr. Nason has been a professor at the University of Connecticut for the past 25 years where she has specialized in remedial, clinical, primary and adult reading. Her major areas of research include the study of children whose reading achievement is below their measured intellectual activity, the study of reading achievement of bi-lingual children, the study of effective ways of improving primary reading instruction, the effects of parent involvement in reading instruction, and the effects of various plans to up-grade adult literacy. Under her direction, the reading clinic at the University of Connecticut was founded in 1951.

A native of Girard, Pa., Dr. Nason received her B.S. degree in 1947, was awarded her master's degree in 1948 and her doctorate in 1951 from Boston University. She received her initial teaching degree from Edinboro State College in 1932 and taught in the Erie area until 1947.

PROGRAM NOTES

Academic Vestments

The gown, the cap and the hood, representing the major components of the academic dress, are a ceremonial inheritance from the medieval universities of the eleventh and twelfth centuries, where dress was the outward sign of privilege and responsibility. The academic dress worn by those participating in today's academic processional symbolizes the level of their academic attainment and the institution they attended.

Gown

Although the gown is more frequently black, certain universities have authorized the use of colored gowns. The Bachelor and Master gowns are fashioned from black serge. The yoke for the Bachelor gown is designed to be worn closed and features long, flowing and pointed sleeves. The Master gown is designed to be worn open or closed. Its sleeves are very long with square ends, and the front part has an arc cut away. The arms protrude through a slit at the elbow. The gown for the Doctor degree is made of wool, serge, or silk with an open front faced with wide velvet panels. The sleeves are loose and bell-shaped with three bars of velvet in black or the color of the discipline in which the doctorate was obtained.

Hood

The most outstanding feature of the academic dress is the hood. It is usually worn only for the Master's and the Doctor's degrees. The Doctor's hood is longer than the Master's hood and has distinguishing panels. The college or the university granting the degree is indicated by the color or coloring of the hood lining. The velvet trim of the hood indicates the field in which the degree was granted.

Cap

The standard cap is the mortarboard, usually the color of the gown. The tassel is black for the Baccalaureate and Master degree and is worn over the left front quarter of the cap. The tassel for the Doctor's mortarboard is of gold thread. Undergraduates wear the tassel on the right side of the cap until the moment the degree is conferred by the President.

MEMORIAL FOUNDATION GIFTS

"They received, each for his own memory, praise that grows not old, and with it the grandest of all sepulchres, not that in which their mortal bones are laid, but a home in the minds of men, where their glory remains fresh to stir to speech or action as the occasion comes by. For the whole earth is the sepulchre of famous men; and their story is not graven only on stone over the native earth, but lives on far way, without visible symbol, woven into the stuff of other men's lives."—Thucydides

Jack Finegan, April 1969

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Finegan provide a $50 annual award to an outstanding male English student who shows a tendency to write prose or poetry that is intended to make mankind aware of the needs of his fellow-man and that places an emphasis on the desire to make the world a better place in which to live. This award was established in memory of their son, Jack Finegan, a former student at Edinboro State College.

Mildred Forness Memorial Loan for Library Science Students

Miss Forness held a position at the College from 1922 until her retirement in 1969. During that time she served in many capacities, including head of the Library and head of the Library Science department. Her relatives and friends have contributed to establish loans for library science students.

Lois Caldwell North, Class of 1886

Two $100 annual scholarships have been endowed in memory of Mrs. Lois Caldwell North by her daughter, Eleanor North of State College, Pa. The awards are made each year to students who plan to enter the ministry upon completion of their education.

Helen Sabin Reed, October 1966

A $10,000 endowment was given to Edinboro State College in memory of Mrs. Helen Sabin Reed, a member of the education faculty since 1961. Because Mrs. Reed was a specialist in the reading field, the yearly $500 scholarship will be awarded to an Elementary Education major. Mrs. Theo Sabin Meyer of Erie; Mrs. Mildred Sabin Young, Los Angeles, California, sisters; and a brother, Robert W. Sabin, Long Beach, California, established the gift.

Vlahakis Award, January 1972

Each year a $300 scholarship award is made available to a student at Edinboro State College who is majoring or planning to major in chemistry. The award has been established by Mrs. Thekla Vlahakis of Pittsburgh in memory of her late husband, George K. Vlahakis, and two sons, Walter and William.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Pennsylvania Women's Club Art Scholarships

Each year three art students who achieved sophomore or higher standing are recipients of awards. The Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs provide the grants with the selections being made by the Art Scholarship Award Committee.

Hannah Kent Schoff Memorial PTA Scholarships

The Pennsylvania Congress of Parents and Teachers makes available each year a scholarship to an outstanding high school student who will attend Edinboro State College. This yearly scholarship is continuous for four years, upon review of the scholarship committee. The award is made on the basis of CEEB test results, grades, class rank, personal attributes, co-curricular activities, desire to teach and a personal interview.

The Bruce Manville Morrison Fund

The fund was established by the estate of the late Bruce Manville Morrison to provide financial support for Edinboro State College graduate students. Awards are made on a continuing basis to graduate students who can document financial need. The Morrison Fund also has provisions for the acquisition of rare books for the College Library.

Traineeship in Mental Retardation

Graduate students, seniors and juniors of Edinboro State College are awarded traineeship grants from the Federal Government. The awards are given for outstanding scholarship, campus citizenship and professional promise in the field of teaching the mentally retarded.

STUDENT EMERGENCY LOAN FUND

The Student Emergency Loan Fund has been established for undergraduate or graduate students who are in immediate need of a small loan. Contributions have been made to this fund in memory of

Dr. Harry W. Earley, Dean of Instruction, who was serving as acting President of the College at the time of his death, March 25, 1966.

Corporal Gary Leslie Norman, a former student at Edinboro State College, killed in action in Vietnam, December 18, 1967.

Dr. L. W. VanLaningham who served the College as Director of Student Teaching and Placement from 1949 until his death, December 2, 1967.

FINANCIAL AID PROGRAM

Programs of financial assistance and the low cost of attending Edinboro State College have made higher education a reality for most students possessing the desire and ability to achieve such a goal.

Because of the demand to meet a deadline to print this program, and the short period of time between the end of classes, review of all academic programs, delays caused by such factors as illness of some students and evaluation by the Committee on Academic Affairs, the College does not claim the preceding list of degree candidates is necessarily 100% accurate. Students are granted degrees only if they meet all academic and financial requirements.

PROGRAM NOTES

MR. JULIAN SHINOL
The College Marshal

Carrying the Ceremonial Mace and leading the ranks of the academic procession as College Marshal today is Professor Julian W. Shinol, who recently concluded 35 years serving education. Mr. Shinol has been a member of the Edinboro State College faculty for the past twelve years in both the educational foundations department in the School of Education and the geography department.

Prior to his career at Edinboro, Mr. Shinol spent seven years in the Dubois School System and 16 years with the Erie Public School System where he taught at both Academy and Strong Vincent high schools. He was also an adjunct professor in geography at Villa Maria College.

His interesting career includes a five-year stint with the United States Commerce Department. Initially, he served as a cartographic engineer for coastal and geodetic surveys where he prepared aeronautical charts. In his last two years with the department, Mr. Shinol was an economic analyst in the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce.

Mr. Shinol has authored a number of articles and has been active in professional groups including the National Council for the Social Studies, National Council for Geographic Education and American Education Research Association. He has also been a member of the Faculty Association, PSEA, NEA, John Dewey Society and Pi Delta Kappa, as well as being named to "Who's Who."

A native of Reynoldsville, Pa., Mr. Shinol received his BS degree from Indiana University of Pa. and was awarded his master's degree from Allegheny College. He has done additional graduate work at the University of Chicago, American University and Western Reserve University.

While he has concluded his teaching career, Professor Shinol intends to be back in the college ranks shortly. He is currently preparing to move to South Carolina and enroll in the law school at South Carolina University and then plans to offer legal assistance to individuals in the field of education.

Presently, Mr. Shinol makes his home in Wesleyville, Pa. with his wife Nancy. He has a son, Jan, who is a major in the United States Air Force, and a daughter, Susan, who is a graduate of Edinboro State College and resides in Buffalo, New York.

THE CEREMONIAL MACE

The Ceremonial Mace, a symbol of presidential authority, is carried at the head of the academic procession by the College Marshal, Mr. Julian Shinol. The Mace, a gift of the Alumni Association, was designed and executed by Dr. Seymour Blinderman, formerly of the Art faculty, and Mr. Henry Katzwinkel. The Mace was first used at the inauguration of President Chester T. McNerney.

The Mace, twenty-seven inches high, is topped by a sterling silver sphere studded by cone-shaped rubies. The neck of the Mace is inlaid with rosewood, alternated with silver fleur-de-lis. Cultured pearls mounted on cups encircle the top of the staff. Discs of silver interspersed with rosewood compose the shaft which ends with tip-casted silver. Sunken cultured pearls encircle a rounded cone with textured silver to end in a small globe.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER AND RECIPIENT OF CERTIFICATE OF MERIT

DR. JUDITH A. W. THOMAS
Director of Student Teaching, Lincoln University

Dr. Judith A. W. Thomas, a Lincoln University professor and 1962 Edinboro graduate, is the guest speaker for today's Summer Commencement ceremonies. In recognition of her dynamic service to educational and public responsibilities, she is being honored by receiving a distinguished Certificate of Merit.

Dr. Thomas became a faculty member of Lincoln University in 1974 where she serves as Director of Student Teaching, associate professor of education and Director of Debate and Forensics. She also currently acts as a consultant for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on competency based education.

This past spring Dr. Thomas was selected to receive the Lindback Distinguished Teaching Award at Lincoln University. The honor is conferred annually to a person who has exhibited distinguished teaching according to evaluations by students, faculty and administrators. Dr. Thomas' selection is most unique since she is the only first-year-faculty awardee in the history of the Lindback Awards which began in 1961.

Prior to her position at Lincoln, Dr. Thomas was a teacher of English and Spanish in the Highlands School District (1962-1966), a teacher of advanced Spanish at Penn Hills High School (1966-1967), an instructor of curriculum and methods courses at West Virginia University (1967-1970), an assistant professor of speech at Penn State University's Fayette campus (1970-1971) and an associate professor of speech, education and sociology at West Liberty State College (1971-1974). While at West Liberty, she also served as Director of the Interethnic Sensitivity Institute and instructor for the college's summer Upward Bound program. Among her numerous committee involvements, she acted as chairperson for the college's Human Relations Committee. Along with her teaching assignment at West Virginia University, Dr. Thomas also was department supervisor of student teachers.

In addition to her Lindback Award, the Edinboro graduate has been the recipient of other numerous honors. Highlighting the lengthy list is her selection to the International Platform Association, the Danforth Fellow Associate Award for Outstanding Teaching and Scholarship, the President's Scholar Award from West Virginia University, the Outstanding Young Woman of America Award, the Best Teacher of Spanish Award from the University of Puget Sound Language Institute and an Outstanding Citizenship Achievement Award.

While at Edinboro State College, Dr. Thomas, the former Judy Waugh, was also named Outstanding Senior Woman in 1962.

Her biographical sketches are included in the publications "Leaders in Education," the "American Scholars Edition" and the "Outstanding Women of America Association."

She has served as speaker and consultant at many educational workshops and seminars, as well as authoring a number of publications and writings. Most significant among her presentations have been "Religion and Ethnicity," "Education and Ethnicity," "Comparing the Minority Groups in South America to Minorities in the United States," "Teacher Education and 1980" and "Black Dialect."

A native of New Kensington, Pa., Dr. Thomas received her BS degree from Edinboro State College in 1962, her MEd from Duquesne University in 1967 and her doctorate from West Virginia University in 1971.

She is married to Dr. James A. Thomas and they, along with their five-year-old daughter, Michelle Lynn, and two-year-old twin boys, Bradley and Brian, currently reside in Oxford, Pa.

PROGRAM NOTES

Academic Vestments

The gown, the cap and the hood, representing the major components of the academic dress, are a ceremonial inheritance from the medieval universities of the eleventh and twelfth centuries, where dress was the outward sign of privilege and responsibility. The academic dress worn by those participating in today's academic processional symbolizes the level of their academic attainment and the institution they attended.

Gown

Although the gown is more frequently black, certain universities have authorized the use of colored gowns. The bachelor and master gowns are fashioned from black serge. The yoke for the bachelor gown is designed to be worn closed and features long, flowing and pointed sleeves. The master gown is designed to be worn open or closed. Its sleeves are very long with square ends, and the front part has an arc cut away. The arms protrude through a slit at the elbow. The gown for the doctor degree is made of wool, serge, or silk with an open front faced with wide velvet panels. The sleeves are loose and bell-shaped with three bars of velvet in black or the color of the discipline in which the doctorate was obtained.

Hood

The most outstanding feature of the academic dress is the hood. It is usually worn only for the master's and the doctor's degrees. The doctor's hood is longer than the master's hood and has distinguishing panels. The college or the university granting the degree is indicated by the color or coloring of the hood lining. The velvet trim of the hood indicates the field in which the degree was granted.

Cap

The standard cap is the mortarboard, usually the color of the gown. The tassel is black for the baccalaureate and master degree and is worn over the left front quarter of the cap. The tassel for the doctor's mortarboard is of gold thread. Undergraduates wear the tassel on the right side of the cap until the moment the degree is conferred by the president.

MEMORIAL FOUNDATION GIFTS

"They received, each for his own memory, praise that grows not old, and with it the grandest of all sepulchres, not that in which their mortal bones are laid, but a home in the minds of men, where their glory remains fresh to stir to speech or action as the occasion comes by. For the whole earth is the sepulchre of famous men; and their story is not graven only on stone over the native earth, but lives on far away, without visible symbol, woven into the stuff of other men's lives."—Thucydides

Jack Finegan, April 1969

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Finegan provide a $50 annual award to an outstanding male English student who shows a tendency to write prose or poetry that is intended to make mankind aware of the needs of his fellow-man and that places an emphasis on the desire to make the world a better place in which to live. This award was established in memory of their son, Jack Finegan, a former student at Edinboro State College.

Mildred Forness Memorial Loan for Library Science Students

Miss Forness held a position at the College from 1922 until her retirement in 1969. During that time she served in many capacities, including head of the Library and head of the Library Science department. Her relatives and friends have contributed to establish loans for library science students.

Lois Caldwell North, Class of 1886

Two $100 annual scholarships have been endowed in memory of Mrs. Lois Caldwell North by her daughter, Eleanor North of State College, Pa. The awards are made each year to students who plan to enter the ministry upon completion of their education.

Helen Sabin Reed, October 1966

A $10,000 endowment was given to Edinboro State College in memory of Mrs. Helen Sabin Reed, a member of the education faculty since 1961. Because Mrs. Reed was a specialist in the reading field, the yearly $500 scholarship will be awarded to an elementary education major. Mrs. Theo Sabin Meyer of Erie; Mrs. Mildred Sabin Young, Los Angeles, California, sisters; and a brother, Robert W. Sabin, Long Beach, California, established the gift.

Vlahakis Award, January 1972

Each year a $300 scholarship award is made available to a student of Edinboro State College who is majoring or planning to major in chemistry. The award has been established by Mrs. Thekla Vlahakis of Pittsburgh in memory of her late husband, George K. Vlahakis, and two sons, Walter and William.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Pennsylvania Women's Club Art Scholarships

Each year three art students who achieved sophomore or higher standing are recipients of awards. The Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs provides the grants with the selections being made by the Art Scholarship Award Committee.

Hannah Kent Schoff Memorial PTA Scholarships

The Pennsylvania Congress of Parents and Teachers makes available each year a scholarship to an outstanding high school student who will attend Edinboro State College. This yearly scholarship is continuous for four years, upon review of the scholarship committee. The award is made on the basis of CEEB test results, grades, class rank, personal attributes, co-curricular activities, desire to teach and a personal interview.

The Bruce Manville Morrison Fund

The fund was established by the estate of the late Bruce Manville Morrison to provide financial support for Edinboro State College graduate students. Awards are made on a continuing basis to graduate students who can document financial need. The Morrison Fund also has provisions for the acquisition of rare books for the College Library.

Traineeship in Mental Retardation

Graduate students, seniors and juniors of Edinboro State College are awarded traineeship grants from the Federal Government. The awards are given for outstanding scholarship, campus citizenship and professional promise in the field of teaching the mentally retarded.

STUDENT EMERGENCY LOAN FUND

The Student Emergency Loan Fund has been established for undergraduate or graduate students who are in immediate need of a small loan. Contributions have been made to this fund in memory of

Dr. Harry W. Earley, Dean of Instruction, who was serving as acting President of the College at the time of his death, March 25, 1966.

Corporal Gary Leslie Norman, a former student at Edinboro State College, killed in action in Vietnam, December 18, 1967.

Dr. L. W. VanLaningham who served the College as Director of Student Teaching and Placement from 1949 until his death, December 2, 1967.

FINANCIAL AID PROGRAM

Programs of financial assistance and the low cost of attending Edinboro State College have made higher education a reality for most students possessing the desire and ability to achieve such a goal.

Over $4,700,000 in financial assistance has been received by students at Edinboro State College during the 1974-75 academic year through the following programs:

HISTORY

Edinboro State College lies in little Conneautee Valley in Northwestern Pennsylvania amid rolling wooded country 18 miles from Erie, 25 miles from Meadville and 125 miles from Pittsburgh. The rolling farm lands, the stately small town atmosphere and Edinboro Lake all enhance its beauty during the summer resort season and the picturesque winter months.

The town is easily accessible from the north and south by Route 19 and Interstate 79 and from the east and west by National Highway 6.

Edinboro State College is the oldest Pennsylvania teacher training school west of the Allegheny Mountains and the second oldest such school in the State. Edinboro Academy was chartered in 1856 and became a State Normal School by the Act of 1857.

Under the original charter the school was privately administered until 1861, when the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania chartered it as a State Normal School. The school was purchased by the Commonwealth in 1914.

In 1926 the State recognized Edinboro as a four-year college and granted it the right to offer undergraduate degrees in elementary, secondary and art education.

In 1957 the College was authorized to begin its graduate program of teacher education which leads to the Master of Education degree in elementary and secondary education with specialization in the areas of English, science and social studies. In 1964 the program was extended to include a Master of Education degree in Guidance and Counseling.

Edinboro State Teachers College became Edinboro State College in 1960.

A liberal arts program leading to a Bachelor of Arts degree with concentration in the natural sciences, social sciences and the humanities was approved in 1962.

A considerable number of undergraduate and graduate programs culminating in the bachelor's and master's degrees have been added to the curriculum.

ALMA MATER

Hail to Thee, our Alma Mater Glorious,
Fresh Wreaths we bring to bind Thy brow
Trials have past and Thou hast stood victorious
Never fairer never statelier than now,
O Edinboro, Edinboro
Ever praising Thee in song
While class speeds class as swift years pass
To Thee our hearts belong.

* Students who completed degree requirements, August 1975.

Because of the demand to meet a deadline to print this program and the short period of time between the end of classes, review of all academic programs, delays caused by such factors as illness of some students and evaluation by the Office of Academic Affairs, the College does not claim the preceding list of degree candidates is absolutely accurate. Students are granted degrees only if they meet all academic and financial requirements.

THE CEREMONIAL MACE

The Ceremonial Mace, a symbol of presidential authority, is carried at the head of the academic procession by the College Marshal, Mrs. Kay Ryall Miller. The Mace, a gift of the Alumni Association, was designed and executed by Dr. Seymour Blinderman, formerly of the Art faculty, and Mr. Henry Katzwinkel. The Mace was first used at the inauguration of President Chester T. McNerney.

The Mace, twenty-seven inches high, is topped by a sterling silver sphere studded by cone-shaped rubies. The neck of the Mace is inlaid with rosewood, alternated with silver fleur-de-lis. Cultured pearls mounted on cups encircle the top of the shaft. Discs of silver interspersed with rosewood compose the shaft which ends with tip-casted silver. Sunken cultured pearls encircle a rounded cone with textured silver to end in a small globe.

MRS. KAY RYALL MILLER The College Marshal

Mrs. Kay Ryall Miller, Director of the Edinboro State College Journalism Focus and adviser to the student newspaper, is being honored as Grand Marshal of today's commencement ceremonies. An associate professor of English and journalism, she is retiring at the close of the current 1975 semester.

After a successful career of newspaper writing, Mrs. Miller came to Edinboro in 1963, implemented a public relations department, became adviser to student publications and taught journalism. She served as Director of Public Relations for eleven years, advised the College yearbook, The Tartan, from 1963 to 1968 and the College newspaper, The Spectator, since 1963. Under her supervision the Tartan earned national awards and The Spectator has been a consistent first-class award winning paper while competing against colleges and universities having Schools of Journalism and Communications.

In 1973 she wrote a proposal for a BA degree in communications at Edinboro which has been instituted as a Journalism Focus. Mrs. Miller designed the curricula and taught all the courses for the Focus. She has twice been the chairperson of English departments of different schools and was an instructor of communications, technical and scientific writing at the University of Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Miller has received national recognition for her work in public relations and for meritorious service in collegiate journalism. Her name has been listed in Who's Who of American Women, Foremost Women in Communications, The 2,000 Women of Achievement, Who's Who in the East, Dictionary of International Biography and Who's Who Among College Publications Advisers. A life membership was conferred upon her by the National Council of College Publication's Advisers in appreciation and recognition of meritorious service in advising student journalists. She was also chosen by the National Chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta as one of its 50 most distinguished members to be listed in a one-volume Encyclopaedia of American women.

For 47 years Mrs. Miller has been a member of Women in Communications, Inc., (Theta Sigma Phi), an international organization for women in communications and is a founder of the Pittsburgh Alumnae chapter which honored her at Founder's Day in 1972. She is also the founder and adviser to the Society of College Journalists (Pi Delta Epsilon), an honorary collegiate journalism fraternity. She received the Medal of Merit from the National Executive Board in 1968, the only faculty award presented that year.

Other honoraries include the Daughters of the American Revolution, Cherry Valley chapter of the Sons and Daughters of the Shrines of the American Revolution and an honorary member of the Historical Society of Western Pennsylvania. During World War II she was one of 25 women in the United States awarded the Red Cross Shield for her work on the Army, Navy and Air Force Magazine, the official service publication.

During her active newspaper days, she worked as a feature and historical writer. In addition, she did fashion and furniture copy writing, as well as radio and television narration. PROGRAM NOTES

Academic Vestments

The gown, the cap and the hood, representing the major components of the academic dress, are a ceremonial inheritance from the medieval universities of the eleventh and twelfth centuries, where dress was the outward sign of privilege and responsibility. The academic dress worn by those participating in today's academic procession symbolizes the level of their academic attainment and the institution they attended.

Gown

Although the gown is more frequently black, certain universities have authorized the use of colored gowns. The bachelor and master gowns are fashioned from black serge. The yoke for the bachelor gown is designed to be worn closed and features long, flowing and pointed sleeves. The master gown is designed to be worn open or closed. Its sleeves are very long with square ends, and the front part has an arc cut away. The arms protrude through a slit at the elbow. The gown for the doctor degree is made of wool, serge, or silk with an open front faced with wide velvet panels. The sleeves are loose and bell-shaped with three bars of velvet in black or the color of the discipline in which the doctorate was obtained.

Hood

The most outstanding feature of the academic dress is the hood. It is usually worn only for the master's and the doctor's degrees. The doctor's hood is longer than the master's hood and has distinguished panels. The college or the university granting the degree is indicated by the color or coloring of the hood lining. The velvet trim of the hood indicates the field in which the degree was granted.

Cap

The standard cap is the mortarboard, usually the color of the gown. The tassel is black for the baccalaureate and master degree and is worn over the left front quarter of the cap. The tassel for the doctor's mortarboard is of gold thread. Undergraduates wear the tassel on the right side of the cap until the moment the degree is conferred by the president.

MEMORIAL FOUNDATIONS GIFTS

"They received, each for his own memory, praise that grows not old, and with it the grandest of all sepulchres, not that in which their mortal bones are laid, but a home in the minds of men, where their glory remains fresh to stir to speech or action as the occasion comes by. For the whole earth is the sepulchre of famous men; and their story is not graven only on stone over the native earth, but lives on far away, without visible symbol, woven into the stuff of other men's lives." — Thucydides

Jack Finegan, April 1969

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Finegan provide a $50 annual award to an outstanding male English student who shows a tendency to write prose or poetry that is intended to make mankind aware of the needs of his fellow-man and that places an emphasis on the desire to make the world a better place in which to live.
