THE CEREMONIAL MACE

The Ceremonial Mace, a symbol of presidential authority, is carried at the head of the academic procession by the College Marshal, Dr. Edward Masonbrink. The Mace, a gift of the Alumni Association, was designed and executed by Dr. Seymour Blinderman, formerly of the Art faculty, and Mr. Henry Katzwinkel. The Mace was first used at the inauguration of President Chester T. McNerney.

The Mace, twenty-seven inches high, is topped by a sterling silver sphere studded by cone-shaped rubies. The neck of the Mace is inlaid with rosewood, alternated with silver fleur-de-lis. Cultured pearls mounted on cups encircle the top of the staff. Discs of silver interspersed with rosewood compose the shaft which ends with tip-casted silver. Sunken cultured pearls encircle a rounded cone with textured silver to end in a small globe.

PROGRAM NOTES

DR. EDWARD MASONBRINK The College Marshal

Dr. Edward Masonbrink of the Elementary Education department has been honored as College Marshal and will lead the procession of academic dignitaries. For Dr. Masonbrink, carrying the ceremonial mace signifies the achievement of many years of service to Edinboro State College.

Academic Vestments

The gown, the cap and the hood, representing the major components of the academic dress, are a ceremonial inheritance from the medieval universities of the eleventh and twelfth centuries, where dress was the outward sign of privilege and responsibility. The academic dress worn by those participating in today's academic processional symbolizes the level of their academic attainment and the institution they attended.

Gown

Although the gown is more frequently black, certain universities have authorized the use of colored gowns. The Bachelor and Master gowns are fashioned from black serge. The yoke for the Bachelor gown is designed to be worn closed and features long, flowing and pointed sleeves. The Master gown is designed to be worn open or closed. Its sleeves are very long with square ends, and the front part has an arc cut away. The arms protrude through a slit at the elbow. The gown for the Doctor degree is made of wool, serge, or silk with an open front faced with wide velvet panels. The sleeves are loose and bell-shaped with three bars of velvet in black or the color of the discipline in which the doctorate was obtained.

Hood

The most outstanding feature of the academic dress is the hood. It is usually worn only for the Master's and the Doctor's degrees. The Doctor's hood is longer than the Master's hood and has distinguishing panels. The college or the university granting the degree is indicated by the color or coloring of the hood lining. The velvet trim of the hood indicates the field in which the degree was granted.

Cap

The standard cap is the mortarboard, usually the color of the gown. The tassel is black for the Baccalaureate and Master degree and is worn over the left front quarter of the cap. The tassel for the Doctor's mortarboard is of gold thread. Undergraduates wear the tassel on the right side of the cap until the moment the degree is conferred by the President.

MEMORIAL FOUNDATION GIFTS

"They received, each for his own memory, praise that grows not old, and with it the grandest of all sepulchres, not that in which their mortal bones are laid, but a home in the minds of men, where their glory remains fresh to stir to speech or action as the occasion comes by. For the whole earth is the sepulchre of famous men; and their story is not graven only on stone over the native earth, but lives on far away, without visible symbol, woven into the stuff of other men's lives."—Thucydides

Jack Finegan, April 9, 1969

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Finegan provide a $50 annual award to an outstanding male English student who shows a tendency to write prose or poetry that is intended to make mankind aware of the needs of his fellow-man and that places an emphasis on the desire to make the world a better place in which to live. Dr. L. W. VanLaningham who served the College as Director of Student Teaching and Placement from 1949 until his death, December 2, 1967.

HISTORY

Edinboro State College lies in Little Conneautee Valley in Northwestern Pennsylvania amid rolling wooded country 18 miles from Erie, 25 miles from Meadville and 125 miles from Pittsburgh. The rolling farm lands, the stately small town atmosphere and Edinboro Lake all enhance its beauty during the summer resort season and the picturesque winter months.

The town is easily accessible from the north and south by Route 19 and Interstate 79 and from the east and west by National Highway 6.

Edinboro State College is the oldest Pennsylvania teacher training school west of the Allegheny Mountains and the second oldest such school in the State. Edinboro Academy was chartered in 1856 and became a State Normal School by the Act of 1857.

Under the original charter the school was privately administered until 1861, when the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania chartered it as a State Normal School. The school was purchased by the Commonwealth in 1914.

In 1926 the State recognized Edinboro as a four-year college and granted it the right to offer undergraduate degrees in elementary, secondary and art education.

In 1957 the College was authorized to begin its graduate program of teacher education which leads to the Master of Education degree in elementary and secondary education with specialization in the areas of English, Science and Social Studies. In 1964 the program was extended to include a Master of Education degree in Guidance and Counseling.

Edinboro State Teachers College became Edinboro State College in 1960.

A Liberal Arts program leading to a Bachelor of Arts degree with concentration in the Natural Sciences, Social Sciences and the Humanities was approved in 1962.

A considerable number of undergraduate and graduate programs culminating in the bachelor's and master's degrees have been added to the curriculum.

LET YOUR MIND WANDER OVER AMERICA

by Thomas Hornby Ferril

Let your mind wander over America:

By designated by a tumbleweed for tears as if it were a flag.

Anything it can be, anywhere;

Remember that marker down in Austin, Texas,

When you were marching right front into line:

Thermopylae had her messenger of defeat,

The Alamo had none!

Let your mind wander, fluidly, freely . . .

Marker, meadow, birds, bison, cornfields,

Model T's, brave men, cowards;

Let your mind wander carelessly, I tell you,

Like the drone of a sycamore church through the hollyhocks:

Count your blessings, name them one by one;

It's easier, I tell you, wandering that way, than being told.

It will be gone if ever comes the time for being told to love America.

Oh, not too large; be subtler, if you like,

than cannon fire, to know its meaning.

I'd tell you how even a summer dragonfly could could hurt an old dead warrior's cheek three time, and mine a fourth, to make me feel the strong South bleeding hard against the North;

And ice against the breast,

Oh many a breast moving wintry West . . .

Let your mind wander over America.

Let your mind wander, using more deeply than in war whatever blessed interval between the wars there is:

For if you go to war and come back whole,

there must be meaning in some gate you open,

And if you go to war and come not home,

there must be meaning in some gate you open.

Let your mind wander over America.

It will be gone if ever comes the time for being told to love America.

ALMA MATER

Hail to Thee, our Alma Mater Glorious,

Fresh Wreaths we bring to bind Thy brow

Trials have past and Thou hast stood victorious

Never fairer never statelier than now,

O Edinboro, Edinboro

Ever praising Thee in song

While class speeds class as swift years pass

To Thee our hearts belong.

PROGRAM NOTES

DR. HARRIET LONG The College Marshal

Dr. Harriet Long, a member of the Geography department, will be the College Marshal for the August, 1974, Commencement. While leading the academic procession, she will carry the Ceremonial Mace which signifies many years of academic achievement and service to Edinboro State College.

Joining the Edinboro State College faculty in 1955, Dr. Long has served as Director of the Liberal Arts program for five years and head of the Geography department for ten years. As a dedicated professor of geography, her concerns are centered primarily in teaching and traveling. She has visited Northwestern and Southern Europe, the Soviet Union, the Caribbean and different parts of the United States to remain current in her discipline. As a special interest, Dr. Long has done much field work and research on "new towns" in the United States and Europe.

Among her professional memberships are the Association of American Geographers, the Society of Women Geographers, the National Council for Geographic Education, the Erie branch of the Association of American University Women, Common Cause, APSCUF/PAHE and Gamma Theta Upsilon, a national professional fraternity in Geography.

Dr. Long is listed in Who's Who of American Women and is the author of "A Geographer's Role in Aerial Photo Interpretation" in Professional Geographer and book reviews. In 1972, she was named an Outstanding Educator of America.

A recent vice-president of the Faculty Association, she has also served as chairman of the honors and independent study committees and as a member of the curriculum committee.

Dr. Long is a past member of the U.S. Naval Reserve Unit of Erie, Pa., retiring with the rank of Lieutenant Commander.

She received her B.S. degree in Education from New York State Teachers College, Buffalo, New York, and her M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Clark University, Worcester, Massachusetts.

THE CEREMONIAL MACE

The Ceremonial Mace, a symbol of presidential authority, is carried at the head of the academic procession by the College Marshal, Dr. Harriet Long. The Mace, a gift of the Alumni Association, was designed and executed by Dr. Seymour Blinderman, formerly of the Art faculty, and Mr. Henry Katzwinkel. The Mace was first used at the inauguration of President Chester T. McNerney.

The Mace, twenty-seven inches high, is topped by a sterling silver sphere studded by cone-shaped rubies. The neck of the Mace is inlaid with rosewood, alternated with silver fleur-de-lis. Cultured pearls mounted on cups encircle the top of the staff. Discs of silver interspersed with rosewood compose the shaft which ends with tip-casted silver. Sunken cultured pearls encircle a rounded cone with textured silver to end in a small globe.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER AND RECIPIENT OF CERTIFICATE OF MERIT

WILLIAM G. DAVIS Premier of Ontario

The Honorable William G. Davis, Premier of Ontario, Canada, will serve as speaker for the 1974 Summer Commencement. In recognition of his unending support to higher education, he is being honored today by receiving a distinguished Certificate of Merit.

A firm believer in progressive change and reform in government, Davis was elected to the Provincial Parliament in 1959 and re-elected in 1963 and 1967. He was named Premier of Ontario in 1971 after he had been chosen as the leader of the Progressive Conservative Party of Ontario earlier that same year.

Prior to his ascension to the Premiership, Davis was appointed Minister of Education in 1962 and in 1964 was placed in charge of the newly created Department of University Affairs.

Combining respect for the best of tradition with a sharp sensitivity to the demands of life in the modern world, Davis engineered a massive effort of reform and expansion throughout the entire sphere of Ontario education, from the kindergarten years to the level of graduate studies in the universities. Through his efforts, the province, likewise, became a leading participant in the expansion of technical and vocational training facilities.

His outstanding contributions to both education and government assure him a place of exceptional distinction in the history of his province and of Canada.

Since the Canadian constitution makes education a provincial matter, Davis became convinced that the rapidly expanding scope of education throughout Canada made close consultation an essential national concern. He sought the agreement of his colleagues across the country, and in June, 1967, they jointly decided to establish the Council of Ministers of Education, Canada, for interprovincial cooperation and to coordinate education as a national priority. They elected Davis their first Chairman.

In higher education, one of Premier Davis' overriding goals is to make university education available to all with the desire and ability to undertake it. In close consultation with the universities, he approved programs for student loans, grants, fellowships and scholarships which helped make this become a reality. Through his efforts, the provincially assisted universities of Ontario are securely launched on a progressive course, well attuned to the aspirations of the present and intellectually equipped to face the challenges of the future.

As part of increased attention focused on the need for training in technology of all kinds, Davis continued with improvements in provincial technological institutes. Probably the best known among these was the Ryerson Institute of Technology, which he nurtured through successive phases of expansion into the present Ryerson Polytechnical Institute. In 1972, the Premier received the first Ryerson honorary degree.

When it became clear in the mid-60's that both the rapidly expanding institutions and universities could not keep pace with the public demand for further education, Davis, in the dual role of Minister of Education and University Affairs, led the planning which brought into existence the so-called Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology. These institutions, which form one of the outstanding accomplishments in his record of public service, were created to meet the needs of graduates from any secondary school program who did not wish to follow the university route.

The recipient of six Honorary Doctor of Laws degrees, Mr. Davis graduated from Osgoode Hall Law School and was called to the Bar in 1955. He earned his B.A. degree from the University of Toronto in 1951.

A member of numerous organizations and affiliations, the Premier resides in Brampton, Ontario, with his wife, Kathleen, and five children: Neil, Nancy, Catherine, Ian and Meg.

PROGRAM NOTES

Academic Vestments

The gown, the cap and the hood, representing the major components of the academic dress, are a ceremonial inheritance from the medieval universities of the eleventh and twelfth centuries, where dress was the outward sign of privilege and responsibility. The academic dress worn by those participating in today's academic processional symbolizes the level of their academic attainment and the institution they attended.

Gown

Although the gown is more frequently black, certain universities have authorized the use of colored gowns. The Bachelor and Master gowns are fashioned from black serge. The yoke for the Bachelor gown is designed to be worn closed and features long, flowing and pointed sleeves. The Master gown is designed to be worn open or closed. Its sleeves are very long with square ends, and the front part has an arc cut away. The arms protrude through a slit at the elbow. The gown for the Doctor degree is made of wool, serge, or silk with an open front faced with wide velvet panels. The sleeves are loose and bell-shaped with three bars of velvet in black or the color of the discipline in which the doctorate was obtained.

Hood

The most outstanding feature of the academic dress is the hood. It is usually worn only for the Master's and the Doctor's degrees. The Doctor's hood is longer than the Master's hood and has distinguishing panels. The college or the university granting the degree is indicated by the color or coloring of the hood lining. The velvet trim of the hood indicates the field in which the degree was granted.

Cap

The standard cap is the mortarboard, usually the color of the gown. The tassel is black for the Baccalaureate and Master degree and is worn over the left front quarter of the cap. The tassel for the Doctor's mortarboard is of gold thread. Undergraduates wear the tassel on the right side of the cap until the moment the degree is conferred by the President.

MEMORIAL FOUNDATION GIFTS

"They received, each for his own memory, praise that grows not old, and with it the grandest of all sepulchres, not that in which their mortal bones are laid, but a home in the minds of men, where their glory remains fresh to stir to speech or action as the occasion comes by. For the whole earth is the sepulchre of famous men; and their story is not graven only on stone over the native earth, but lives on far away, without visible symbol, woven into the stuff of other men's lives."—Thucydides

Jack Finegan, April 9, 1969

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Finegan provide a $50 annual award to an outstanding male English student who shows a tendency to write prose or poetry that is intended to make mankind aware of the needs of his fellow-man and that places an emphasis on the desire to make the world a better place in which to live. This award was established in memory of their son, Jack Finegan, a former student at Edinboro State College.

Lois Caldwell North, Class of 1886

Two $100 annual scholarships have been endowed in memory of Mrs. Lois Caldwell North by her daughter, Eleanor North of State College, Pa. The awards are made each year to students who plan to enter the ministry upon completion of their education.

Helen Sabin Reed, October 18, 1966

A $10,000 endowment was given to Edinboro State College in memory of Mrs. Helen Sabin Reed, a member of the Education faculty since 1961. Because Mrs. Reed was a specialist in the reading field, the yearly $500 scholarship will be awarded to an Elementary Education major. Mrs. Theo Sabin Meyer of Erie; Mrs. Mildred Sabin Young, Los Angeles, California, sisters; and a brother, Robert W. Sabin, Long Beach, California, established the gift.

Vlahakis Award, January 15, 1972

Each year a $250 scholarship award is made available to a student at Edinboro State College who is majoring or planning to major in chemistry. The award has been established by Mrs. Thekla Vlahakis of Pittsburgh in memory of her late husband, George K. Vlahakis, and two sons, Walter and William.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Delta Kappa Gamma Scholarships

The Alpha Iota Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma professional sorority offers an annual award to an outstanding female education major. Academic achievement, service to the College and financial need are the criteria for selection of the recipient.

Hannah Kent Schoff Memorial PTA Scholarships

The Pennsylvania Congress of Parents and Teachers makes available each year a scholarship to an outstanding high school student who will attend Edinboro State College. This yearly scholarship is continuous for four years, upon review of the scholarship committee. The award is made on the basis of CEEB test results, grades, class rank, personal attributes, co-curricular activities, desire to teach and a personal interview.

The Bruce Manville Morrison Fund

The fund was established by the estate of the late Bruce Manville Morrison to provide financial support for Edinboro State College graduate students. Awards are made on a continuing basis to graduate students who can document financial need. The Morrison Fund also has provisions for the acquisition of rare books for the College Library.

Traineeship in Mental Retardation

Graduate students, seniors and juniors of Edinboro State College are awarded traineeship grants from the Federal Government. The awards are given for outstanding scholarship, campus citizenship and professional promise in the field of teaching the Mentally Retarded.

STUDENT EMERGENCY LOAN FUND

The Student Emergency Loan Fund has been established for undergraduate or graduate students who are in immediate need of a small loan. Contributions have been made to this fund in memory of

Dr. Harry W. Earley, Dean of Instruction, who was serving as acting President of the College at the time of his death, March 25, 1966.

Corporal Gary Leslie Norman, a former student at Edinboro State College, killed in action in Vietnam, December 18, 1967.

Dr. L. W. VanLaningham who served the College as Director of Student Teaching and Placement from 1949 until his death, December 2, 1967.

FINANCIAL AID PROGRAM

Programs of financial assistance and the low cost of attending Edinboro State College have made higher education a reality for most students possessing the desire and ability to achieve such a goal.

HISTORY

Edinboro State College lies in little Conneautee Valley in Northwestern Pennsylvania amid rolling wooded country 18 miles from Erie, 25 miles from Meadville and 125 miles from Pittsburgh. The rolling farm lands, the stately small town atmosphere and Edinboro Lake all enhance its beauty during the summer resort season and the picturesque winter months.

The town is easily accessible from the north and south by Route 19 and Interstate 79 and from the east and west by National Highway 6.

Edinboro State College is the oldest Pennsylvania teacher training school west of the Allegheny Mountains and the second oldest such school in the State. Edinboro Academy was chartered in 1856 and became a State Normal School by the Act of 1857.

Under the original charter the school was privately administered until 1861, when the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania chartered it as a State Normal School. The school was purchased by the Commonwealth in 1914.

In 1926 the State recognized Edinboro as a four-year college and granted it the right to offer undergraduate degrees in elementary, secondary and art education.

In 1957 the College was authorized to begin its graduate program of teacher education which leads to the Master of Education degree in elementary and secondary education with specialization in the areas of English, Science and Social Studies. In 1964 the program was extended to include a Master of Education degree in Guidance and Counseling.

Edinboro State Teachers College became Edinboro State College in 1960.

A Liberal Arts program leading to a Bachelor of Arts degree with concentration in the Natural Sciences, Social Sciences and the Humanities was approved in 1962.

A considerable number of undergraduate and graduate programs culminating in the bachelor's and master's degrees have been added to the curriculum.

PROGRAM NOTES

THE CEREMONIAL MACE

The Ceremonial Mace, a symbol of presidential authority, is carried at the head of the academic procession by the College Marshal, Mrs. Mildred D. Bruce. The Mace, a gift of the Alumni Association, was designed and executed by Dr. Seymour Blinderman, formerly of the Art faculty, and Mr. Henry Katzwinkel. The Mace was first used at the inauguration of President Chester T. McNerney.

The Mace, twenty-seven inches high, is topped by a sterling silver sphere studded by cone-shaped rubies. The neck of the Mace is inlaid with rosewood, alternated with silver fleur-de-lis. Cultured pearls mounted on cups encircle the top of the staff. Discs of silver interspersed with rosewood compose the shaft which ends with tip-casted silver. Sunken cultured pearls encircle a rounded cone with textured silver to end in a small globe.

PROGRAM NOTES

MRS. MILDRED D. BRUCE The College Marshal

Leading the ranks of the academic procession as College Marshal will be Mrs. Mildred D. Bruce of the Art department. For her, carrying the ceremonial mace is an honor that follows many years of serious dedication to Edinboro State College. At the end of the current academic year, Mrs. Bruce plans to conclude her Edinboro teaching career.

Mrs. Bruce joined the Edinboro Art department in 1953 and has taught courses in Design, Crafts, Graphics and Jewelry. She also assisted in the development of the Drama department, where she taught Costume Design and Theatre Arts. Her talents have been invaluable in the design of costumes and sets for numerous Shakespearian and musical productions at the College.

A recipient of a Fine Arts degree from Oberlin College and a student of Art Education at Eastern Michigan University, Mrs. Bruce obtained her Master of Education degree from Penn State University.

Prior to her Edinboro career, Mrs. Bruce taught at Eastern Michigan and supervised art student teachers and demonstrated teaching in a laboratory school. She also taught art in Port Huron, Michigan, public schools.

Sharing her skills with the public, she has helped with workshops and demonstrations in Erie and Crawford counties and has conducted private classes in the Warren Art League.

In addition to the improvements which both she and her late husband, Ralph, introduced to the Edinboro art program, Mrs. Bruce has served as departmental bibliographer, a selector of art holdings for the Library and as a member of the Senate Library Committee.

Both of Mrs. Bruce's children are graduates of Edinboro State College's art program. Her son, Robert, is currently a designer at the Corning Glass Works in Corning, New York, while her daughter, Elizabeth Bruce Forster, has her own studio in Pennfield, New York.

AWARD RECIPIENT

MRS. ESTHER CAMPBELL Faculty Emeritus, Edinboro State College

Mrs. Esther Campbell, a member of the Edinboro Music department for 40 years, will receive a Certificate of Merit at today's commencement proceedings. The award recognizes her professional service and commitment in music, drama and the arts throughout her career at Edinboro.

Mrs. Campbell served as director of Edinboro's Collegiate Singers for 35 years; and for many years, as director of the Women's Chorus, the Men's Glee Club and the Madrigal Singers, in addition to her administrative and teaching duties.

As director of Dramatics and the Collegiate Players, she presented such memorable musical productions as "Oklahoma!" and "South Pacific." she also directed the College choir when it presented two concerts at the New York World's Fair.

Mu Kappa Gamma, the honorary music fraternity, was founded under the guidance and direction of Mrs. Campbell, who has continued to serve as its adviser. She was for 36 years one of the advisers to Alpha Delta, social sorority.

Mrs. Campbell received an undergraduate degree from Oberlin College and a masters degree from Northwestern University. She also attended Columbia University, New York University, Eastman School of Music and the University of Florida.

At the conclusion of her service to the College community in 1968, Mrs. Campbell was honored as Grand Marshal at the spring commencement ceremonies.

PROGRAM NOTES

Academic Vestments

The gown, the cap and the hood, representing the major components of the academic dress, are a ceremonial inheritance from the medieval universities of the eleventh and twelfth centuries, where dress was the outward sign of privilege and responsibility. The academic dress worn by those participating in today's academic processional symbolizes the level of their academic attainment and the institution they attended.

Gown

Although the gown is more frequently black, certain universities have authorized the use of colored gowns. The Bachelor and Master gowns are fashioned from black serge. The yoke for the Bachelor gown is designed to be worn closed and features long, flowing and pointed sleeves. The Master gown is designed to be worn open or closed. Its sleeves are very long with square ends, and the front part has an arc cut away. The arms protrude through a slit at the elbow. The gown for the Doctor degree is made of wool, serge, or silk with an open front faced with wide velvet panels. The sleeves are loose and bell-shaped with three bars of velvet in black or the color of the discipline in which the doctorate was obtained.

Hood

The most outstanding feature of the academic dress is the hood. It is usually worn only for the Master's and the Doctor's degrees. The Doctor's hood is longer than the Master's hood and has distinguishing panels. The college or the university granting the degree is indicated by the color or coloring of the hood lining. The velvet trim of the hood indicates the field in which the degree was granted.

Cap

The standard cap is the mortarboard, usually the color of the gown. The tassel is black for the Baccalaureate and Master degree and is worn over the left front quarter of the cap. The tassel for the Doctor's mortarboard is of gold thread. Undergraduates wear the tassel on the right side of the cap until the moment the degree is conferred by the President.

MEMORIAL FOUNDATION GIFTS

"They received, each for his own memory, praise that grows not old, and with it the grandest of all sepulchres, not that in which their mortal bones are laid, but a home in the minds of men, where their glory remains fresh to stir to speech or action as the occasion comes by. For the whole earth is the sepulchre of famous men; and their story is not graven only on stone over the native earth, but lives on far way, without visible symbol, woven into the stuff of other men's lives."—Thucydides

HISTORY

Edinboro State College lies in little Conneautee Valley in North-western Pennsylvania amid rolling wooded country 18 miles from Erie, 25 miles from Meadville and 125 miles from Pittsburgh. The rolling farm lands, the stately small town atmosphere and Edinboro Lake all enhance its beauty during the summer resort season and the picturesque winter months.

The town is easily accessible from the north and south by Route 19 and Interstate 79 and from the east and west by National Highway 6.

Edinboro State College is the oldest Pennsylvania teacher training school west of the Allegheny Mountains and the second oldest such school in the State. Edinboro Academy was chartered in 1856 and became a State Normal School by the Act of 1857.

Under the original charter the school was privately administered until 1861, when the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania chartered it as a State Normal School. The school was purchased by the Commonwealth in 1914.

In 1926 the State recognized Edinboro as a four-year college and granted it the right to offer undergraduate degrees in elementary, secondary and art education.

In 1957 the College was authorized to begin its graduate program of teacher education which leads to the Master of Education degree in elementary and secondary education with specialization in the areas of English, Science and Social Studies. In 1964 the program was extended to include a Master of Education degree in Guidance and Counseling.

Edinboro State Teachers College became Edinboro State College in 1960.

A Liberal Arts program leading to a Bachelor of Arts degree with concentration in the Natural Sciences, Social Sciences and the Humanities was approved in 1962.

A considerable number of undergraduate and graduate programs culminating in the bachelor's and master's degrees have been added to the curriculum.

I HAVE LONGED FOR THY SAVING HEALTH

by William Byrd

I have longed for Thy saving health, O Lord.
Thy law is my delight, O Lord.
O let my soul live, and it shall praise Thee,
And Thy judgments shall help me. (Psalm 119)

YEA, THOUGH I WANDER

by Georg Schumann

Yea, though I wander through the vale of death,
I will fear no evil for Thou art with me.
Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me
When Thou art with me. (Psalm 23)

ALMA MATER

Hail to Thee, our Alma Mater Glorious.
Fresh Wreaths we bring to bind Thy brow
Trials have past and Thou hast stood victorious
Never fairer never statelier than now,
O Edinboro, Edinboro
Ever praising Thee in song
While class speeds class as swift years pass
To Thee our hearts belong.
