The Ceremonial Mace

The Ceremonial Mace, a symbol of presidential authority, is carried at the head of the academic procession by the College Marshal, Dr. James Coffman. The Mace, a gift of the Alumni Association, was designed and executed by Dr. Seymour Blinderman, formerly of the Art faculty, and Mr. Henry Katzwinkel. The Mace was first used at the Inauguration of President Chester T. McNerney.

The Mace, twenty-seven inches high, is topped by a sterling silver sphere studded by cone-shaped rubies. The neck of the Mace is inlaid with rosewood, alternated with silver fleur-de-lis. Cultured pearls mounted on cups encircle the top of the staff. Discs of silver interspersed with rosewood compose the shaft which ends with tip-casted silver. Sunken cultured pearls encircle a rounded cone with textured silver to end in a small globe.

PROGRAM NOTES

DR. JAMES COFFMAN

The College Marshal

The College Marshal leads the academic procession. This honor is bestowed each Commencement upon an outstanding faculty member. Dr. James Coffman, senior member of the faculty and chemistry professor, is today honored for his 26 years of dedicated service to the students of Edinboro State College.

He received his B.Ed. degree from the University of Western Illinois, his M.S. degree from the University of Illinois and his Ed.D. degree from Pennsylvania State University. Dr. Coffman began his teaching career in a one-room school in Western Illinois and has since spent most of his career within that profession.

Prior to joining the faculty of Edinboro State College in 1946, Dr. Coffman taught in Henderson County, Illinois, taught junior high school general science and was principal of the Lincoln Elementary School, Villa Park, Illinois. He also worked four years in industrial research for Fansteel Metallurgical Corporation, Chicago. From the time he came to Edinboro until 1960, he taught all sections of chemistry offered to Edinboro students. Dr. Coffman has also taught classes in sciences for elementary grades, physical science, educational measurements, fundamentals of math and method courses.

Dr. Coffman has been a member of many professional organizations. He has held membership in the American Association for the Advancement of Science, American Chemical Society, Erie section, serving as chairman in 1954; American Association of University Professors, Pennsylvania State Education Association and presently a life-time member of the National Education Association. He also served as president of the Edinboro State College chapter of PSEA and as vice president of the Faculty Association. He is also listed in American Men of Science and American Men of Education.

Very active in community affairs, Dr. Coffman is a member of the Edinboro Firemen, the Session of the United Presbyterian Church, the Erie County Red Cross and the Edinboro Borough Council.

Following the completion of the current college year, Dr. Coffman will move to Prescott, Arizona, which will be his permanent residence.

CHARGE TO THE GRADUATES

MR. RAYMOND C. VANSLYKE

President, Alumni Association

Someone has said – "Tis better to give than to receive" – So, now that you have received that degree toward which you have so long been aiming –

We, the Alumni Association of Edinboro State College, hope that you will truly become part of our organization, giving us your good wishes and your support. We are sure, in so doing, as the years go by (and they will go by), you will bountifully receive much enjoyment and a real satisfaction in keeping in contact with the friends you've made here and with the College.

Our organization's two-fold purpose is to serve its members and to serve its Alma Mater by doing for the College those important things which the College cannot do for itself. We are planning for the use of Academy Hall which will soon be made available to us as a home base from which to operate. Here, we can meet old friends and view the memorabilia arrayed there concerning the traditions and history of the College.

In addition to the General Alumni Association, Edinboro Alumni chapters have been chartered in various locations throughout Western Pennsylvania, and even as far away as Florida and California. We encourage you to take an active part in one of these groups. At these get-togethers the College and the officers of the General Association are more than happy to assist with a presentation about the latest developments on campus.

Informed alumni are interested alumni. We will try to see that you know about the activities of the College, its faculty and its students. We do hope you will also keep us informed and thus also help the College to maintain a current record of its former students. We know you will attract good students to Edinboro, and in general become ambassadors for the tradition, the growth and the future of Edinboro.

The ever-increasing challenge is ours to set new goals for our organization as the student needs increase with the rapid increase in enrollment. We realize that what you may be able to do in this regard in that uncertain future is not now uppermost in your minds, but do give it some thought.

Edinboro will not forget you if you do not forget Edinboro. Until we meet again as fellow alumni, we wish you the best of everything.

THE COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

DR. CHARLES E. PERRY
President, Florida International University

The youngest university president in the nation is addressing the Spring Commencement of Edinboro State College. Dr. Charles E. Perry, 34-year-old president of Florida International University, is the main speaker at the May 21 Commencement. He is also a recipient of a Certificate of Merit.

In a span of only 10 years, Dr. Perry has progressed from public schoolteacher to university president, being appointed the first president of Florida International in 1969.

After being graduated with honors from Ohio's Bowling Green State University, Dr. Perry taught English and History in the East Detroit school system. In 1959 he returned to Bowling Green as an admissions counselor and in 1961 became Director of Admissions. At the time of this appointment, he was 23, thus making him the youngest Director of Admissions in the nation. By 1964 his achievements earned him the dual posts of Director of Development and Assistant to the President.

From 1961-1967 he did advanced graduate work at the University of Michigan Center for the Study of Higher Education. In 1967 he was appointed Special Assistant to the Governor for Educational Affairs in the State of Florida, the first person to hold this position in that state. One year later, he became the Vice Chancellor of the State University System of Florida.

Dr. Perry has received many awards and honors, including being listed in Who's Who in America, Who's Who in the South and Southwest, Who's Who in American College and University Administration, Leaders in Education, Outstanding Young Men of America, Personalities of the South and National Register of Prominent Americans. He was selected as the "Outstanding Young Man of Bowling Green" in 1966 and was chosen as 1968's first "Educator in the News" by Education News Magazine. In 1968 he received the Governmental Appreciation Award for his "Outstanding Contributions to the State of Florida." As a highlight to his recent honors, Dr. Perry was named one of the "Ten Outstanding Young Men in America" by the U.S. Jaycees for the year 1971.

Dr. Perry serves on numerous local, state, regional, national and international professional and civic associations and organizations. Some of his major professional and civic activities include being a member of the U.S. Commission to UNSECO, Southern Regional Education Board, Board of Governors of the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce, Florida American Revolution Bicentennial Commission, Board of Trustees of the United Fund of Dade County, Board of Trustees of the Community Television Foundation of South Florida, Board of Trustees of the Museum of Science and Board of Trustees of the Cultural Alliance of Greater Miami and the Executive Board of the Council for International Visitors. In addition, he has authored or co-authored 18 major publications and has done extensive consulting work in higher education.

THE COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

In 1967, Dr. Perry served as Executive Director of the Florida Commission for Quality Education, and in 1968 he served on the Select Council for Post High School Education which developed Florida's master plan for post-secondary education through 1980. He also served as Chairman of the Council for Junior College Affairs in 1968 and Chairman of the Governor's Education Advisory Council from 1967 to 1970.

Dr. and Mrs. Perry and their two children live in Miami.

AWARD RECIPIENT

DR. CLAIR J. BUTTERFIELD
Professor Emeritus, Edinboro State College

Dr. Clair J. Butterfield, professor emeritus of Edinboro State College, is being awarded a Certificate of Merit at the 1972 Spring Commencement of the College for his long history of outstanding professional service as teacher, chairman of the Education Department, acting president and interim dean of students.

Dr. Butterfield holds B.A., M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Iowa and has served as an administrator and educational adviser at virtually every educational level, as well as a participant in government programs assisting education in Latin America. He was a high school teacher at Iron River, Michigan, principal and superintendent of schools at Trout Creek, Michigan, and an elementary school principal at Iowa City. He later served as director of elementary education at Davenport, Iowa.

The professor emeritus came to Edinboro State Teachers College in 1946, and served here until 1951, when he left to participate in the Point Four Government Education Program in Honduras and Nicaragua, for which he served as director of the Educational Division. He served as an education technician in Ecuador and Panama, now known as the Agency for International Cooperative Development. For two summers he served as visiting professor at the University of Iowa and for one summer at the University of Colorado.

He returned to the United States in 1959 and rejoined the Edinboro staff as head of the Education Department until 1966, when he was named as acting president to replace the deceased acting president, Dr. Harry Earley. He was then named as temporary dean of students in 1967 and retired in the spring of the same year.

Dr. Butterfield has been honored for his outstanding service by both the students and faculty of Edinboro, and has been named to Who's Who in America and Who's Who in the East.

PROGRAM NOTES

Academic Vestments

The gown, the cap and the hood, representing the major components of the academic dress, are a ceremonial inheritance from the medieval universities of the eleventh and twelfth centuries, where dress was the outward sign of privilege and responsibility. The academic dress worn by those participating in today's academic processional symbolizes the level of their academic attainment and the institution they attended.

Gown

Although the gown is more frequently black, certain universities have authorized the use of colored gowns. The Bachelor and Master gowns are fashioned from black serge. The yoke for the Bachelor gown is designed to be worn closed and features long, flowing and pointed sleeves. The Master gown is designed to be worn open or closed. Its sleeves are very long with square ends, and the front part has an arc cutaway. The arms protrude through a slit at the elbow. The gown for the Doctor degree is made of wool, serge, or silk with an open front faced with wide velvet panels. The sleeves are loose and bell-shaped with three bars of velvet in black or the color of the discipline in which the doctorate was obtained.

Hood

The most outstanding feature of the academic dress is the hood. It is usually worn only for the Master's and the Doctor's degrees. The Doctor's hood is longer than the Master's hood and has distinguishing panels. The college or the university granting the degree is indicated by the color or coloring of the hood lining. The velvet trim of the hood indicates the field in which the degree was granted.

Cap

The standard cap is the mortarboard, usually the color of the gown. The tassel is black for the Baccalaureate and Master degree and is worn over the left front quarter of the cap. The tassel for the Doctor's mortarboard is of gold thread. Undergraduates wear the tassel on the right side of the cap until the moment the degree is conferred by the President.

MEMORIAL FOUNDATION GIFTS

"They received, each for his own memory, praise that grows not old, and with it the grandest of all sepulchres, not that in which their mortal bones are laid, but a home in the minds of men, where their glory remains fresh to stir to speech or action as the occasion comes by. For the whole earth is the sepulchre of famous men; and their story is not graven only on stone over the native earth, but lives on far away, without visible symbol, woven into the stuff of other men's lives." —Thucydides

Jack Finegan, April 9, 1969

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Finegan provide a $50 annual award to an outstanding male English student who shows a tendency to write prose or poetry that is intended to make mankind aware of the needs of his fellow-man and that places an emphasis on the desire to make the world a better place in which to live. This award was established in memory of their son Jack Finegan, a former student at Edinboro State College.

Lois Caldwell North, Class of 1886

A $100 annual scholarship has been endowed in memory of Mrs. Lois Caldwell North by her daughter, Eleanor North of State College, Pa. The award is made each year to a student who plans to enter the ministry upon completion of his or her education.

Helen Sabin Reed, October 18, 1966

A $10,000 endowment was given to Edinboro State College in memory of Mrs. Helen Sabin Reed, a member of the Education faculty since 1961. Because Mrs. Reed was a specialist in the reading field, the yearly $500 scholarship will be awarded to an Elementary Education major. Mrs. Theo Sabin Meyer of Erie; Mrs. Mildred Sabin Young, Los Angeles, California, sisters; and a brother Robert W. Sabin, Long Beach, California, established the gift.

Vlahakis Award, January 15, 1972

Each year a $250 scholarship award is made available to a student at Edinboro State College who is majoring or planning to major in chemistry. The award has been established by Mrs. Thekla Vlahakis of Pittsburgh in memory of her late husband, George K. Vlahakis, and two sons, Walter and William.

Corporal Gary Leslie Norman, a former student at Edinboro State College killed in action in Vietnam, December 18, 1967.

Dr. L. W. Vanlaningham who served the College as Director of Student Teaching and Placement from 1949 until his death, December 2, 1967.

The Ceremonial Mace

The Ceremonial Mace, a symbol of presidential authority, is carried at the head of the academic procession by the College Marshal, Dr. Robert E. Connors. The Mace, a gift of the Alumni Association, was designed and executed by Dr. Seymour Blinderman, formerly of the Art faculty, and Mr. Henry Katzwinkel. The Mace was first used at the inauguration of President Chester T. McNerney.

The Mace, twenty-seven inches high, is topped by a sterling silver sphere studded by cone-shaped rubies. The neck of the Mace is inlaid with rosewood, alternated with silver fleur-de-lis. Cultured pearls mounted on cups encircle the top of the staff. Discs of silver interspersed with rosewood compose the shaft which ends with tip-casted silver. Sunken cultured pearls encircle a rounded cone with textured silver to end in a small globe.

PROGRAM NOTES

DR. ROBERT E. CONNORS The College Marshal

The College Marshal has the honor of leading the academic procession. This distinction is bestowed each commencement upon an outstanding faculty member. Dr. Robert E. Connors, professor in the Elementary Education department, is today honored for his services to the students of Edinboro State College.

Dr. Connors has had a long and distinguished career in professional education. He joined the Edinboro faculty in 1958 and has been doing outstanding work as a teacher, consultant and director. He has been a member of the Geography, Social Studies and Education departments. Dr. Connors has also served as a supervisor of Student Teaching, acting director of Student Teaching and Placement and as chairman of the Elementary and Secondary Education departments.

Some of the committees and bodies in which he has been a member include the College Senate, Academic Council, Graduate Council, Teacher of Education Council, Promotions Committee and chairman of the College Curriculum Committee.

Dr. Connors has served as consultant and contributor to the publication of various educational materials. He is a contributor and adviser to the social studies series (K through grade 4) Man and Communities published by The Fidler Company. He has also co-authored a multi-media kit on Puerto Rico to be used in elementary school social studies curricula. The kit includes a bi-lingual textbook, 28 bi-lingual study prints, a filmstrip with bi-lingual captions, five transparencies and several spirit masters which include maps of Puerto Rico and of the Caribbean and an English-Spanish vocabulary. A monograph entitled Our Greatest Challenge—The Value Crisis is being prepared for publication by The Fidler Company.

During the current summer, Dr. Connors had two articles published in the Quarterly Publication of the Pennsylvania Council for the Social Studies. They were entitled "PCSS Study Reveals Teacher Concerns" and "News and Views." A recent article in Scope was entitled "Teacher Concerns and Interests in the Social Studies."

CHARGE TO THE GRADUATES

MRS. PATRICIA GAGLIARDI
First Vice President, Alumni Association

Ladies and gentlemen of the 1972 graduating class, I welcome you as our newest members in the Edinboro State College Alumni Association.

Please accept this personal invitation from all of us, to all of you, to join with us and grant us the privilege of sharing your counsel, your energy, your understanding and your compassion. These ideals will enable us to move forward in the establishment of an even greater and more vibrant Alumni Association.

The purpose of the Alumni Association is to promote the general interest and welfare of the College, its alumni and friends. It will be your medium of communications with the College, its trustees, faculty and students.

Youth presents a paradox; it is both our oldest and newest tradition. The Alumni Association does not exist to silence our young people nor to force them to conform to the way things have always been done; rather we exist to listen to them, explore and accept their recommendations and leadership. This Alumni Association now becomes your responsibility to share with those who in the past have initiated and have been responsible for the integrity of this Association.

God Bless You. Good Luck, and never forget Edinboro. What you keep is lost . . . What you give is forever yours. Thank you.

PROGRAM NOTES

Academic Vestments

The gown, the cap and the hood, representing the major components of the academic dress, are a ceremonial inheritance from the medieval universities of the eleventh and twelfth centuries, where dress was the outward sign of privilege and responsibility. The academic dress worn by those participating in today's academic procession symbolizes the level of their academic attainment and the institution they attended.

Gown

Although the gown is more frequently black, certain universities have authorized the use of colored gowns. The Bachelor and Master gowns are fashioned from black serge. The yoke for the Bachelor gown is designed to be worn closed and features long, flowing and pointed sleeves. The Master gown is designed to be worn open or closed. Its sleeves are very long with square ends, and the front part has an arc cutaway. The arms protrude through a slit at the elbow. The gown for the Doctor degree is made of wool, serge, or silk with an open front faced with wide velvet panels. The sleeves are loose and bell-shaped with three bars of velvet in black or the color of the discipline in which the doctorate was obtained.

Hood

The most outstanding feature of the academic dress is the hood. It is usually worn only for the Master's and the Doctor's degrees. The Doctor's hood is longer than the Master's hood and has distinguishing panels. The college or the university granting the degree is indicated by the color or coloring of the hood lining. The velvet trim of the hood indicates the field in which the degree was granted.

Cap

The standard cap is the mortarboard, usually the color of the gown. The tassel is black for the Baccalaureate and Master degree and is worn over the left front quarter of the cap. The tassel for the Doctor's mortarboard is of gold thread. Undergraduates wear the tassel on the right side of the cap until the moment the degree is conferred by the President.

MEMORIAL FOUNDATION GIFTS

"They received, each for his own memory, praise that grows not old, and with it the grandest of all sepulchres, not that in which their mortal bones are laid, but a home in the minds of men, where their glory remains fresh to stir to speech or action as the occasion comes by. For the whole earth is the sepulchre of famous men; and their story is not graven only on stone over the native earth, but lives on far away, without visible symbol, woven into the stuff of other men's lives." —Thucydides

Jack Finegan, April 9, 1969

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Finegan provide a $50 annual award to an outstanding male English student who shows a tendency to write prose or poetry that is intended to make mankind aware of the needs of his fellow-man and that places an emphasis on the desire to make the world a better place in which to live. This award was established in memory of their son Jack Finegan, a former student at Edinboro State College.

Lois Caldwell North, Class of 1886

A $100 annual scholarship has been endowed in memory of Mrs. Lois Caldwell North by her daughter, Eleanor North of State College, Pa. The award is made each year to a student who plans to enter the ministry upon completion of his or her education.

Helen Sabin Reed, October 18, 1966

A $10,000 endowment was given to Edinboro State College in memory of Mrs. Helen Sabin Reed, a member of the Education faculty since 1961. Because Mrs. Reed was a specialist in the reading field, the yearly $500 scholarship will be awarded to an Elementary Education major. Mrs. Theo Sabin Meyer of Erie; Mrs. Mildred Sabin Young, Los Angeles, California, sisters; and a brother Robert W. Sabin, Long Beach, California, established the gift.

Vlahakis Award, January 15, 1972

Each year a $250 scholarship award is made available to a student at Edinboro State College who is majoring or planning to major in chemistry. The award has been established by Mrs. Thekla Vlahakis of Pittsburgh in memory of her late husband, George K. Vlahakis, and two sons, Walter and William.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Delta Kappa Gamma Scholarships

The Alpha Iota Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma professional sorority offers an annual award to an outstanding female education major. Academic achievement, service to the College and financial need are the criteria for selection of the recipient.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Hanna Kent Schoff Memorial PTA Scholarships

The Pennsylvania Congress of Parents and Teachers makes available each year two scholarships to outstanding high school students who will attend Edinboro State College. These yearly scholarships are continuous for four years, upon review of the scholarship committee. Awards are made on the basis of CEEB test results, grades, class rank, personal attributes, co-curricular activities, desire to teach and a personal interview.

Pennsylvania Women's Club Art Scholarships

Each year three art students who achieved sophomore or higher standing are recipients of awards. The Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs provide the grants with the selections being made by the Art Scholarship Award Committee.

Student Affairs Award

Awards are granted to students on the basis of leadership from which the student body of Edinboro State College has benefited. The awards are granted as a result of competition involving junior and senior students on the basis of their student leadership roles.

Traineeship in Mental Retardation

Seniors and juniors of Edinboro State College are awarded traineeship grants from the Federal Government. The awards are given for outstanding scholarship, campus citizenship and professional promise in the field of teaching the Mentally Retarded.

STUDENT EMERGENCY LOAN FUND

Dr. Harry W. Earley, Dean of Instruction, who was serving as acting President of the College at the time of his death, March 25, 1966.

Corporal Gary Leslie Norman, a former student at Edinboro State College killed in action in Vietnam, December 18, 1967.

Dr. L. W. Vanlaningham who served the College as Director of Student Teaching and Placement from 1949 until his death, December 2, 1967.

HISTORY

Edinboro State College lies in little Conneauttee valley in Northwestern Pennsylvania amid rolling wooded country 18 miles from Erie, 25 miles from Meadville and 125 miles from Pittsburgh. The rolling farm lands, the stately small town atmosphere and Edinboro Lake all enhance its beauty during the summer resort season and the picturesque winter months.

The town is easily accessible from the north and south by Routes 19 and Interstate 79 and from the east and west by National Highway 6.

Edinboro State College is the oldest Pennsylvania teacher training school west of the Allegheny Mountains and the second oldest such school in the State. Edinboro Academy was chartered in 1856 and became a State Normal School by the Act of 1857.

Under the original charter the school was privately administered until 1861, when the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania chartered it as a State Normal School. The school was purchased by the Commonwealth in 1914.

In 1926 the State recognized Edinboro as a four-year college and granted it the right to offer undergraduate degrees in elementary, secondary and art education.

In 1957 the College was authorized to begin its graduate program of teacher education which leads to the Master of Education degree in elementary and secondary education with specialization in the areas of English, Science and Social Studies. In 1964 the program was extended to include a Master of Education degree in Guidance and Counseling.

Edinboro State Teachers College became Edinboro State College in 1960.

A Liberal Arts program leading to a Bachelor of Arts degree with concentration in the Natural Sciences, Social Sciences and the Humanities was approved in 1962.

A considerable number of undergraduate and graduate programs culminating in the bachelor's and master's degrees have been added to the curriculum.

PROGRAM NOTES

DR. HARRIET LONG

The College Marshal

Dr. Harriet Long, a member of the Geography department, is serving as the College Marshal of the December 1972 Commencement.

Joining the faculty in 1958, Dr. Long has served as director of the Liberal Arts program and head of the Geography-Earth Sciences department. Currently, her interests are centered in teaching and traveling. She has visited Northwestern and Southern Europe, the Soviet Union, the Caribbean and special areas of the United States to remain current in her discipline.

She maintains a busy speaking schedule, lecturing on curriculum changes in Geographic Education on all academic levels, as well as on Northwestern Europe and the Niagara River from Source to Mouth.

Among her professional memberships are the Association of American Geographers, the Society of Women Geographers, the National Council for Geographic Education, Erie and Edinboro branches of the Association of American University Women, the Interaction Committee, Common Cause, plus APSCUF-PAHE. She has also served as a past vice president of the Faculty Association.

Her honorary memberships include Gamma Theta Upsilon, national honorary fraternity in Geography and Delta Kappa Gamma, national Education society for women. Dr. Long is listed in Who's Who of American Women and Who's Who in the South, and is author of "A Geographer's Role in Aerial Photo Interpretation" in Professional Geographer and book reviews.

Dr. Long is also a member of the U.S. Naval Reserve Unit 4-13, Erie, Pa. with the rank of Lieutenant Commander.

Dr. Long received the BS degree in Education from New York State Teachers College, Buffalo, New York, and the MA and PhD degrees from Clark University, Worcester, Massachusetts.

THE CEREMONIAL MACE

The Ceremonial Mace, a symbol of presidential authority, is carried at the head of the academic procession by the College Marshal, Dr. Harriet Long. The Mace, a gift of the Alumni Association, was designed and executed by Dr. Seymour Blinderman, formerly of the Art faculty, and Mr. Henry Katzwinkel. The Mace was first used at the inauguration of President Chester T. McNerney.

The Mace, twenty-seven inches high, is topped by a sterling silver sphere studded by cone-shaped rubies. The neck of the Mace is inlaid with rosewood, alternated with silver fleur-de-lis. Cultured pearls mounted on cups encircle the top of the staff. Discs of silver interspersed with rosewood compose the shaft which ends with tip-casted silver. Sunken cultured pearls encircle a rounded cone with textured silver to end in a small globe.

CHARGE TO THE GRADUATES

MR. JOHN ALLEGRETTI

Representative, Alumni Association

Members of the Clergy, the Board of Trustees, Faculty, Ladies and Gentlemen, and to you—members of the graduating class of December 23, 1972:

It is a privilege for me to speak to you this morning on behalf of the Alumni Association. I congratulate each of you in becoming an active member of the Alumni Association of Edinboro State College.

Edinboro College has just presented your degree in a field of your specific endeavor. Edinboro College in the past decade, like its sister institutions throughout this Commonwealth, has seen tremendous growth in student enrollment, faculty growth and expansion of plant facilities. These statistics are a matter of record. From this moment on your Alumni Association, your College and the faculty charges each of you with a responsibility; and that responsibility is not shown in these statistics.

Your achievements, as you go forth into the world, will reflect the purpose of your education here at Edinboro. Tomorrow you face many of the same problems that have confronted previous graduates—a nation that has not found a solution to world peace, a full employment picture for those who want to work and more evident today than ever before, a better understanding of each other, regardless of one's national origin or color.

Each of you has worked diligently for that diploma that you are now holding in your hand. I ask you not to forget the silent partners that helped you make this moment a reality—your family, your teachers, your advisers and your state, which provided the funds to make many of us graduates proud of the growth here at Edinboro State College. Their hands are also sharing that diploma with you.

Yours, then, is the responsibility of justifying the value and expansion of our education system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. You have spent four years of your life here on this campus; Edinboro has left its influences on you and you, in turn, have undoubtedly left many kinds of impressions on Edinboro.

This is the first time you have been together in one body as the graduating class of December 23, 1972. Make it not your last gathering. Come and join your fellow alumni in May and Homecoming in the fall of the year.

In conclusion, I extend to you best wishes for

Good health

A happy home life

The doing of work you will enjoy

A Merry Christmas!

AWARD RECIPIENT

MRS. JANE F. CONAWAY

Board of Trustees, Edinboro State College

Receiving a Certificate of Merit today is Mrs. Jane F. Conaway, senior member of the Board of Trustees, who has served Edinboro State College in this capacity since 1952. Entering into her second decade of responsibility to the College, she has seen Edinboro grow from a small teacher's school to the large and diversified institution that it is today.

Wife of the former mayor of Warren, Pa., Mrs. Conaway is a graduate of Randolph Macon Women's College with an AB in Sociology. She has also had several years' experience with social work at Carnegie Institute of Technology and has served for two years with the Southern Division of the American Red Cross.

Mrs. Conaway has also been a member of the Board of Warren General Hospital and has officiated in several organizations including the Women's Club of Warren and Children's Aid and Family services.

Her activities on the Board of Trustees include work with the off-campus centers of the College and representation of the College women's organizations. Mrs. Conaway also is a member of the Alumni Board.

During her long term of service on the Board, Mrs. Conaway recalls her involvement in the College's struggle for survival during the fifties. She was interested in the acquisition of land for the expansion of the College and states that Edinboro is the only state college where there is no shortage of land on which to build.

Mrs. Conaway is the mother of three children and enjoys golf and bridge in addition to her civic, college and church services.

AWARD RECIPIENT

MR. WESLEY G. REITZE

Board of Trustees, Edinboro State College

Dedication epitomizes Mr. Wesley G. Reitze, who was appointed a member of the Board of Trustees, March 6, 1961, by Governor George Leader. He has been reappointed by four subsequent Governors, David Lawrence, William Scranton, Raymond Shafer and Milton Shapp. In recognition for his services to Edinboro State College, he is today being honored by receiving a distinguished Certificate of Merit.

"The College is one of the most important entities we have in progress in Northwestern Pennsylvania, and I am very proud to be a part of it," Mr. Reitze stated.

Always concerned with development to provide adequate facilities for students, Mr. Reitze has been instrumental in working with the Master Plan, as well as helping to secure additional land for future use.

Analogous to the physical aspects of the College, Mr. Reitze has been interested in a strong administrative staff. He was chairman of the Board when President Thomas R. Miller and Dr. Harry Earley, his successor, died seven weeks apart and the Trustees faced the task of selecting another president. The Board named Dr. Clair Butterfield as interim president while they undertook the search for a particular man to serve as leader to a fast-growing College which was beginning to serve as an outstanding educational center in Northwestern Pennsylvania.

Mr. Reitze expressed his pride in the progress that is being made under the leadership of Dr. Chester T. McNerney and his deans in selecting the quality of faculty in their endeavors to move the College into a multi-purpose institution now serving the area in many aspects.

Now retired from the banking profession, Mr. Reitze still offers his experience and expertise in business matters to members of the Board.

Still maintaining his interest in the banking profession, he is an officer and director of the North West Pennsylvania Bank and Trust Company. He is also a director of the City Hosiptal, a member of the Crawford County Planning Commission, the Air Pollution Committee of Northwestern Pennsylvania and the Meadville Rotary Club. He is serving his third term as county commissioner of Crawford County.

Mr. and Mrs. Reitze reside in Uniontown and are members of the Methodist Church.

PROGRAM NOTES

Academic Vestments

The gown, the cap and the hood, representing the major components of the academic dress, are a ceremonial inheritance from the medieval universities of the eleventh and twelfth centuries, where dress was the outward sign of privilege and responsibility. The academic dress worn by those participating in today's academic processional symbolizes the level of their academic attainment and the institution they attended.

Gown

Although the gown is more frequently black, certain universities have authorized the use of colored gowns. The Bachelor and Master gowns are fashioned from black serge. The yoke for the Bachelor gown is designed to be worn closed and features long, flowing and pointed sleeves. The Master gown is designed to be worn open or closed. Its sleeves are very long with square ends, and the front part has an arc cut away. The arms protrude through a slit at the elbow. The gown for the Doctor degree is made of wool, serge, or silk with an open front faced with wide velvet panels. The sleeves are loose and bell-shaped with three bars of velvet in black or the color of the discipline in which the doctorate was obtained.

Hood

The most outstanding feature of the academic dress is the hood. It is usually worn only for the Master's and the Doctor's degrees. The Doctor's hood is longer than the Master's hood and has distinguishing panels. The College or the University granting the degree is indicated by the color or coloring of the hood lining. The velvet trim of the hood indicates the field in which the degree was granted.

Cap

The standard cap is the mortarboard, usually the color of the gown. The tassel is black for the Baccalaureate and Master degree and is worn over the left front quarter of the cap. The tassel for the Doctor's mortarboard is of gold thread. Undergraduates wear the tassel on the right side of the cap until the moment the degree is conferred by the President.

MEMORIAL FOUNDATION GIFTS

"They received, each for his own memory, praise that grows not old, and with it the grandest of all sepulchres, not that in which their mortal bones are laid, but a home in the minds of men, where their glory remains fresh to stir to speech or action as the occasion comes by. For the whole earth is the sepulchre of famous men; and their story is not graven only on stone over the native earth, but lives on far away, without visible symbol, woven into the stuff of other men's lives."—Thucydides

HISTORY

Edinboro State College lies in little Conneautee Valley in Northwestern Pennsylvania amid rolling wooded country 18 miles from Erie, 25 miles from Meadville and 125 miles from Pittsburgh. The rolling farm lands, the stately small town atmosphere and Edinboro Lake all enhance its beauty during the summer resort season and the picturesque winter months.

The town is easily accessible from the north and south by Route 19 and Interstate 79 and from the east and west by National Highway 6.

Edinboro State College is the oldest Pennsylvania teacher training school west of the Allegheny Mountains and the second oldest such school in the State. Edinboro Academy was chartered in 1856 and became a State Normal School by the Act of 1857.

Under the original charter the school was privately administered until 1861, when the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania chartered it as a State Normal School. The school was purchased by the Commonwealth in 1914.

In 1926 the State recognized Edinboro as a four-year college and granted it the right to offer undergraduate degrees in elementary, secondary and art education.

In 1957 the College was authorized to begin its graduate program of teacher education which leads to the Master of Education degree in elementary and secondary education with specialization in the areas of English, Science and Social Studies. In 1964 the program was extended to include a Master of Education degree in Guidance and Counseling.

Edinboro State Teachers College became Edinboro State College in 1960.

A Liberal Arts program leading to a Bachelor of Arts degree with concentration in the Natural Sciences, Social Sciences and the Humanities was approved in 1962.

A considerable number of undergraduate and graduate programs culminating in the bachelor's and master's degrees have been added to the curriculum.

ALMA MATER

Hail to Thee, our Alma Mater Glorious,
Fresh Wreaths we bring to bind Thy brow
Trials have past and Thou hast stood victorious
Never fairer never statelier than now,
O Edinboro, Edinboro
Ever praising Thee in song
While class speeds class as swift years pass
To Thee our hearts belong.
