PROGRAM NOTES

Academic Vestments

The gown, the cap and the hood, representing the major components of the academic dress, are a ceremonial inheritance from the medieval universities of the eleventh and twelfth centuries, where dress was the outward sign of privilege and responsibility. The academic dress worn by those participating in today's academic processional symbolizes the level of their academic attainment and the institution they attended.

Gown

Although the gown is more frequently black, certain universities have authorized the use of colored gowns. The Bachelor and Master gowns are fashioned from black serge. The yoke for the Bachelor gown is designed to be worn closed and features long, flowing and pointed sleeves. The Master gown is designed to be worn open or closed. Its sleeves are very long with square ends, and the front part has an arc cut away. The arms protrude through a slit at the elbow. The gown for the Doctor degree is made of wool, serge, or silk with an open front faced with wide velvet panels. The sleeves are loose and bell-shaped with three bars of velvet in black or the color of the discipline in which the doctorate was obtained.

Hood

The most outstanding feature of the academic dress is the hood. It is usually worn only for the Master's and the Doctor's degrees. The Doctor's hood is longer than the Master's hood and has distinguishing panels. The College or the University granting the degree is indicated by the color or coloring of the hood lining. The velvet trim of the hood indicates the field in which the degree was granted.

Cap

The standard cap is the mortarboard, usually the color of the gown. The tassel is black for the Baccalaureate and Master degree and is worn over the left front quarter of the cap. The tassel for the Doctor's mortarboard is of gold thread. Undergraduates wear the tassel on the right side of the cap until the moment the degree is conferred by the President.

MEMORIAL FOUNDATION GIFTS

"They received, each for his own memory, praise that grows not old, and with it the grandest of all sepulchres, not that in which their mortal bones are laid, but a home in the minds of men, where their glory remains fresh to stir to speech or action as the occasion comes by. For the whole earth is the sepulchre of famous men; and their story is not graven only on stone over the native earth, but lives on far away, without visible symbol, woven into the stuff of other men's lives."—Thucydides

Dr. Harry W. Earley, March 25, 1966

Friends, alumni, family and students established a monetary gift in memory of Dr. Earley, Dean of Instruction, who was serving as Acting President of the College.

Jack Finegan, April 9, 1969

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Finegan provide a $50 annual award to an outstanding male English student who shows a tendency to write prose or poetry that is intended to make mankind aware of the needs of his fellow-man and that places an emphasis on the desire to make the world a better place in which to live. This award was established in memory of their son Jack Finegan, a former student at Edinboro State College.

Dr. Thomas R. Miller, February 7, 1966

Dr. Miller became the twelfth president of the College in 1954. Envisioning and developing a Master Plan which is today under construction, the campus is comprised of 565 acres, a total final investment of $45,000,000 with a planned completion date of 1972. Friends, alumni, faculty and students have established a memorial gift in memory of this man for his many acts of kindnesses and understanding.

Corporal Gary Leslie Norman, December 18, 1967

Gary Norman, a former student at Edinboro State College, was killed in action in Vietnam. In his memory his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Norman, Erie, have set up a scholarship fund to which friends and business organizations have contributed.

Helen Sabin Reed, October 18, 1966

A $10,000 endowment was given to Edinboro State College in memory of Mrs. Helen Sabin Reed, a member of the Education faculty since 1961. Because Mrs. Reed was a specialist in the reading field, the yearly $500 scholarship will be awarded to an Elementary Education major. Mrs. Theo Sabin Meyer of Erie; Mrs. Mildred Sabin Young, Los Angeles, California, sisters; and a brother Robert W. Sabin, Long Beach, California, established the gift.

MEMORIAL FOUNDATION GIFTS

Dr. L. W. VanLaningham, December 2, 1967

A memorial Student Teacher Loan Fund was established by associates, relatives and friends of Dr. VanLaningham who served the College as Director of Student Teaching and Placement from 1949 until his death.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Delta Kappa Gamma Scholarship

The Alpha Iota Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma professional sorority awards annually a $200 scholarship to an outstanding female education major. Academic achievement, service to the college and financial need are the criteria for selection of the recipient.

Hanna Kent Schoff Memorial Scholarships

The Pennsylvania Congress of Parents and Teachers makes available each year two scholarships to outstanding high school students who will attend Edinboro State College. These yearly scholarships are continuous for four years, upon review of the scholarship committee. Awards are made on the basis of CEEB test results, grades, class rank, personal attributes, co-curricular activities, desire to teach and a personal interview.

Pennsylvania Women's Club Art Scholarships

Each year three art students who achieved sophomore or higher standing are recipients of awards. The Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs provide the grants with the selections being made by the Art Scholarship Award Committee.

Student Affairs Award

Seven awards are granted to students on the basis of leadership from which the student body of Edinboro State College has benefited. The president, vice president and secretary of the Student-Faculty Council each receives an award as a result of election to and serving in these offices. Four additional awards are granted as a result of competition involving junior and senior students on the basis of their student leadership roles.

Traineeship in Mental Retardation

This year four seniors and two juniors of Edinboro State College were awarded a traineeship grant from the Federal Government. This award is given for outstanding scholarship, campus citizenship and professional promise in the field of teaching the Mentally Retarded.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Weldon Levinson Scholarship

A $100 gift was presented to the Scholarship Foundation Fund through the generosity of Mr. Weldon Levinson of Meadville. The money is to be awarded on the basis of academic achievement and financial need to a worthy student from the Meadville area to help further this education.

FINANCIAL AID PROGRAM

Programs of financial assistance and the low cost of attending Edinboro State College have made higher education a reality for most students possessing the desire and ability to achieve such a goal.

In addition to the Scholarship awards listed above, over $3,000,000 in financial assistance will be received by students at Edinboro State College during the 1969-70 academic year through the following programs:

- College Work-Study Program*
- Educational Opportunity Grants*

The College Marshal

The College Marshal leads the academic procession. This honor is bestowed each commencement upon an outstanding faculty member. Mrs. Ruth Peck, Dean of Women, is honored today for 22 years of dedicated service to the women students of Edinboro State College.

Mrs. Peck came to Edinboro State Teachers College in 1948 as a critic teacher at Compton Elementary School. In 1956 she was named Dean of Women and placed in charge of the three dormitories, East, Haven and Heather, where total enrollment was approximately that of the number of girls now residing in Dearborn Hall, where her present apartment is located. Currently, she has been responsible for the girls in ten dormitories: Dearborn, Earp, Centennial, Scranton, Haven, Reeder, Heather, Scot, Edin and Manor.

Vitally interested in the women students, Mrs. Peck founded the Association of Women Students, an advisory board that formulates and enforces regulations and promotes individual and group responsibilities. To the work of this group she has dedicated years of service and inspiration.

Mrs. Peck earned the BS degree from Edinboro State College and the MA degree at Columbia University.

As an emeritus faculty member Mrs. Peck will continue to live in Edinboro and remain active as treasurer in the Alumni Association and Treasurer of the Edinboro Foundation and enjoy life on a day by day basis.

PROGRAM NOTES

The Junior Marshals

In the processional and recessional the degree candidates are escorted by the two Junior Marshals. The position of Junior Marshal is an honor awarded each Spring Commencement to a man and woman of the junior class having earned an outstanding cumulative scholastic average.

Junior Marshals for the Spring Commencement are Miss Deanna Cheryl Youngs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Maurice Youngs, North East, Pennsylvania, and Mr. John Joseph McCurry, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. McCurry, Bakerstown, Pennsylvania. Miss Youngs was graduated from North East High School and is an elementary education major. Mr. McCurry graduated from Richland Senior High School, Gibsonia, and is a secondary education major specializing in mathematics.

The Ceremonial Mace

The Ceremonial Mace, a symbol of presidential authority, is carried at the head of the academic procession by the College Marshal, Mrs. Ruth Peck. The Mace, a gift of the Alumni Association, was designed and executed by Dr. Seymour Blinderman and Mr. Henry Katzwinkel of the Art faculty and was first used at the Inauguration of President Chester T. McNerney.

The Mace, twenty-seven inches high, is topped by a sterling silver sphere studded by cone-shaped rubies. The neck of the Mace is inlaid with rosewood, alternated with silver fleur-de-lis. Cultured pearls mounted on cups encircle the top of the staff. Discs of silver interspersed with rosewood compose the shaft which ends with tip-casted silver. Sunken cultured pearls encircle a rounded cone with textured silver to end in a small globe.

THE COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Mr. Gordon C. Hurlbert, executive vice president, power generator systems, Westinghouse Electric Corporation, is the May commencement speaker. Mr. Hurlbert is responsible for the design, production and sale of power-generating equipment used by electric utilities and industry.

A 22-year veteran with Westinghouse, Mr. Hurlbert served as Vice President, Manufacturing, from 1967 until his present appointment in January 1969. Previously, he was General Manager of the Westinghouse Power Transformer Division at Sharon, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Hurlbert joined Westinghouse following graduation from Marquette University with a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering in 1946. In 1954 he was among the first group selected by Westinghouse to attend the 15-month management program at Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration and received his master of business administration degree in June 1955. He later held a variety of design, purchasing and administrative assignments in the transformer, fractional horsepower and aviation gas turbine divisions.

THE REVEREND DONALD H. SPENCER

The Reverend Donald H. Spencer, former minister of the First Presbyterian Church, Warren, is being cited today for outstanding service and significant contributions to humanity.

He has actively participated in school activities of the Warren campus, where he was student chaplain representing the Warren Campus Ministerial Association. Dedicated to the interest of all young persons, Rev. Spencer visited the campus weekly to serve as confidant to those who needed his help.

In addition, he made possible the complete facilities of the church for the use of the students; and the church, at its own expense, established a paved parking lot for the exclusive use of students.

Rev. Spencer also was largely responsible for the establishment of the Zodiac coffee house, constructed with the help of students and towns persons, who act as chaperons.

MR. ROBERT K. BLOOM

Mr. Bloom was appointed executive secretary to the Governor, January 2, 1968.

He is cognizant of current higher educational needs having been a teacher in secondary education in Pennsylvania and Florida schools. He also served as assistant to the president of Channellock, Inc., Meadville, before his appointment to his present position.

Mr. Bloom earned the BS degree in education at Edinboro State College and the Master of Education degree at Temple University.

PROGRAM NOTES

Academic Vestments

The gown, the cap and the hood, representing the major components of the academic dress, are a ceremonial inheritance from the medieval universities of the eleventh and twelfth centuries, where dress was the outward sign of privilege and responsibility. The academic dress worn by those participating in today's academic processional symbolizes the level of their academic attainment and the institution they attended.

Gown

Although the gown is more frequently black, certain universities have authorized the use of colored gowns. The Bachelor and Master gowns are fashioned from black serge. The yoke for the Bachelor gown is designed to be worn closed and features long, flowing and pointed sleeves. The Master gown is designed to be worn open or closed. Its sleeves are very long with square ends, and the front part has an arc cut away. The arms protrude through a slit at the elbow. The gown for the Doctor degree is made of wool, serge, or silk with an open front faced with wide velvet panels. The sleeves are loose and bell-shaped with three bars of velvet in black or the color of the discipline in which the doctorate was obtained.

Hood

The most outstanding feature of the academic dress is the hood. It is usually worn only for the Master's and the Doctor's degrees. The Doctor's hood is longer than the Master's hood and has distinguishing panels. The College or the University granting the degree is indicated by the color or coloring of the hood lining. The velvet trim of the hood indicates the field in which the degree was granted.

Cap

The standard cap is the mortarboard, usually the color of the gown. The tassel is black for the Baccalaureate and Master degree and is worn over the left front quarter of the cap. The tassel for the Doctor's mortarboard is of gold thread. Undergraduates wear the tassel on the right side of the cap until the moment the degree is conferred by the President.

MEMORIAL FOUNDATION GIFTS

"They received, each for his own memory, praise that grows not old, and with it the grandest of all sepulchres, not that in which their mortal bones are laid, but a home in the minds of men, where their glory remains fresh to stir to speech or action as the occasion comes by. For the whole earth is the sepulchre of famous men; and their story is not graven only on stone over the native earth, but lives on far away, without visible symbol, woven into the stuff of other men's lives."—Thucydides

Dr. Harry W. Earley, March 25, 1966

Friends, alumni, family and students established a monetary gift in memory of Dr. Earley, Dean of Instruction, who was serving as Acting President of the College.

Jack Finegan, April 9, 1969

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Finegan provide a $50 annual award to an outstanding male English student who shows a tendency to write prose or poetry that is intended to make mankind aware of the needs of his fellow-man and that places an emphasis on the desire to make the world a better place in which to live. This award was established in memory of their son Jack Finegan, a former student at Edinboro State College.

Dr. Thomas R. Miller, February 7, 1966

Dr. Miller became the twelfth president of the College in 1954. Envisioning and developing a Master Plan which is today under construction, the campus is comprised of 565 acres, a total final investment of $45,000,000 with a planned completion date of 1972. Friends, alumni, faculty and students have established a memorial gift in memory of this man for his many acts of kindnesses and understanding.

Corporal Gary Leslie Norman, December 18, 1967

Gary Norman, a former student at Edinboro State College, was killed in action in Vietnam. In his memory his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Norman, Erie, have set up a scholarship fund to which friends and business organizations have contributed.

Helen Sabin Reed, October 18, 1966

A $10,000 endowment was given to Edinboro State College in memory of Mrs. Helen Sabin Reed, a member of the Education faculty since 1961. Because Mrs. Reed was a specialist in the reading field, the yearly $500 scholarship will be awarded to an Elementary Education major. Mrs. Theo Sabin Meyer of Erie; Mrs. Mildred Sabin Young, Los Angeles, California, sisters; and a brother Robert W. Sabin, Long Beach, California, established the gift.

MEMORIAL FOUNDATION GIFTS

Dr. L. W. VanLaningham, December 2, 1967

A memorial Student Teacher Loan Fund was established by associates, relatives and friends of Dr. VanLaningham who served the College as Director of Student Teaching and Placement from 1949 until his death.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Delta Kappa Gamma Scholarship

The Alpha Iota Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma professional sorority awards annually a $200 scholarship to an outstanding female education major. Academic achievement, service to the college and financial need are the criteria for selection of the recipient.

Hanna Kent Schoff Memorial Scholarships

The Pennsylvania Congress of Parents and Teachers makes available each year two scholarships to outstanding high school students who will attend Edinboro State College. These yearly scholarships are continuous for four years, upon review of the scholarship committee. Awards are made on the basis of CEEB test results, grades, class rank, personal attributes, co-curricular activities, desire to teach and a personal interview.

Pennsylvania Women's Club Art Scholarships

Each year three art students who achieved sophomore or higher standing are recipients of awards. The Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs provide the grants with the selections being made by the Art Scholarship Award Committee.

Student Affairs Award

Seven awards are granted to students on the basis of leadership from which the student body of Edinboro State College has benefited. The president, vice president and secretary of the Student Government Association each receives an award as a result of election to and serving in these offices. Four additional awards are granted as a result of competition involving junior and senior students on the basis of their student leadership roles.

Traineeship in Mental Retardation

This year four seniors and two juniors of Edinboro State College were awarded a traineeship grant from the Federal Government. This award is given for outstanding scholarship, campus citizenship and professional promise in the field of teaching the Mentally Retarded.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Weldon Levinson Scholarship

A $100 gift was presented to the Scholarship Foundation Fund through the generosity of Mr. Weldon Levinson of Meadville. The money is to be awarded on the basis of academic achievement and financial need to a worthy student from the Meadville area to help further this education.

FINANCIAL AID PROGRAM

Programs of financial assistance and the low cost of attending Edinboro State College have made higher education a reality for most students possessing the desire and ability to achieve such a goal.

In addition to the Scholarship awards listed above, over $3,000,000 in financial assistance will be received by students at Edinboro State College during the 1969-70 academic year through the following programs:

- College Work-Study Program*

Dr. Long is a former director of the Liberal Arts program at Edinboro State College and former head of the Geography-Earth Sciences department.

The Ceremonial Mace

The Ceremonial Mace, a symbol of presidential authority, is carried at the head of the academic procession by the College Marshal, Dr. Harriet Long. The Mace, a gift of the Alumni Association, was designed and executed by Dr. Seymour Blinderman and Mr. Henry Katzwinkel of the Art faculty and was first used at the Inauguration of President Chester T. McNerney.

The Mace, twenty-seven inches high, is topped by a sterling silver sphere studded by cone-shaped rubies. The neck of the Mace is inlaid with rosewood, alternated with silver fleur-de-lis. Cultured pearls mounted on cups encircle the top of the staff. Discs of silver interspersed with rosewood compose the shaft which ends with tip-casted silver. Sunken cultured pearls encircle a rounded cone with textured silver to end in a small globe.

THE COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Dr. Donald McGarey has been affiliated with Edinboro State College since 1967, when he assumed the position of curriculum coordinator. He has given hundreds of high school commencement and major addresses at 35 colleges and universities during his three years at the college. He has served as consultant to many curriculum councils and has served as chairman of the "Regional Sub-Committee on Needs of Children and Youth." Dr. McGarey has supervised 100 Doctoral studies, is the co-author of GUIDE TO CURRICULUM IMPROVEMENT IN ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS and is a contributor to many professional periodicals.

Holding numerous honors, Dr. McGarey was a U.S. delegate to the First World Conference of the Teaching Profession, a Pennsylvania Delegate to the White House Conference on Education and was given a special citation by the Governor of Pennsylvania and the Department of Public Instruction for "meritorious service in the improvement of curriculum in Pennsylvania schools."

Dr. McGarey received his B.A. degree from Thiel College, Greenville, Pa.; his M.A. from Columbia University; his Ed.D. from the Pennsylvania State University and has done post-doctoral work at the University of Wisconsin.

In August, Dr. McGarey will retire from public education to assume a position as professor of Education and Coordinator of Special Projects at Morris Harvey College, Charleston, West Virginia, where he held the chairmanship of the Department of Education and Psychology from 1940-47.

PROGRAM NOTES

Academic Vestments

The gown, the cap and the hood, representing the major components of the academic dress, are a ceremonial inheritance from the medieval universities of the eleventh and twelfth centuries, where dress was the outward sign of privilege and responsibility. The academic dress worn by those participating in today's academic processional symbolizes the level of their academic attainment and the institution they attended.

Gown

Although the gown is more frequently black, certain universities have authorized the use of colored gowns. The Bachelor and Master gowns are fashioned from black serge. The yoke for the Bachelor gown is designed to be worn closed and features long, flowing and pointed sleeves. The Master gown is designed to be worn open or closed. Its sleeves are very long with square ends, and the front part has an arc cutaway. The arms protrude through a slit at the elbow. The gown for the Doctor degree is made of wool, serge, or silk with an open front faced with wide velvet panels. The sleeves are loose and bell-shaped with three bars of velvet in black or the color of the discipline in which the doctorate was obtained.

Hood

The most outstanding feature of the academic dress is the hood. It is usually worn only for the Master's and the Doctor's degrees. The Doctor's hood is longer than the Master's hood and has distinguishing panels. The college or the university granting the degree is indicated by the color or coloring of the hood lining. The velvet trim of the hood indicates the field in which the degree was granted.

Cap

The standard cap is the mortarboard, usually the color of the gown. The tassel is black for the Baccalaureate and Master degree and is worn over the left front quarter of the cap. The tassel for the Doctor's mortarboard is of gold thread. Undergraduates wear the tassel on the right side of the cap until the moment the degree is conferred by the President.

MEMORIAL FOUNDATION GIFTS

"They received, each for his own memory, praise that grows not old, and with it the grandest of all sepulchres, not that in which their mortal bones are laid, but a home in the minds of men, where their glory remains fresh to stir to speech or action as the occasion comes by. For the whole earth is the sepulchre of famous men; and their story is not graven only on stone over the native earth, but lives on far away, without visible symbol, woven into the stuff of other men's lives." — Thucydides
