Adult Weekend

Weekend and club players, tournament competitors, and USTA teams are encouraged to register for a specially-designed weekend tailored for adults who are looking for fast-paced tennis action to enhance their game. The July 7-9 weekend is a 17 hour program of corrective stroke instruction, mental toughness, tennis nutrition, strength and speed tennis conditioning, strategy, and evaluation.

ADULT LODGING: Edinboro Tennis Camp offers three choices of accommodations to satisfy individual preferences.

Edinboro University: The $275 camp fee includes delightful residential housing with either single or double rooms. Own linens etc. are necessary. A complete 'kit list' is provided in the camp package.

The Edinboro Inn: Deluxe accommodations are available at The Edinboro Inn (814) 734-5650. Please identify yourself as an Edinboro Tennis Camp student, request the special discount rate, and pay the Inn charges when you leave. The camp cost is the non-resident rate.

Non-Resident: Stay at home or register at another area hotel and pay the $250 non-resident rate. Non-residents are required to attend the 8:45 a.m. Saturday breakfast meeting.

Edinboro University Camp Director: Andy Findlay

Andy Findlay is Edinboro University's men's and women's Head Tennis Coach. Also, he is head professional at the Pennbriar Athletic Club in Erie. Andy coaches at the USTA Area Training Center and has attended three consecutive national A.T.C. workshops in Indianapolis from where he brings back this year's camp theme-"Strength and Speed"

A 1981 communications graduate of nearby Mercyhurst College, where he posted an 81-32 singles and a 72-27 doubles record, Andy was a five-time All-American and Academic All-American. Also to his credit is the Erie College Athlete of the Year Award, Mercyhurst's Garvey Award and Scholar-Athlete Award.

Findlay brings to Edinboro tennis over 16 years of experience in tennis camps, teaching, coaching and administration. He serves as a USTA clinician, has directed USTA district, sectional and national tournaments and is well travelled, coaching national level players. In 1992, Andy was the Allegheny Mountain Tennis Association "Coach of the Year," was ranked #1, with Edinboro alum Dennis Ranalli, in the Middle States Tennis Association's 35 doubles division and achieved a #68 ranking in national 35's singles.

Andy is an active member of the United States Professional Tennis Association, serves on the East region rankings and awards committees for the ITA, is a member of the Head Tennis Staff and coaches the AMD Men's 35's team.

Camp Staff

Our certified camp staff members are selected to encourage campers' growth both physically and emotionally in an educational, fun and safe environment.

Top area college coaches and players are personally selected and trained by the director. Their energy, enthusiasm and friendliness are special to the camp and their leadership, personality and integrity equal their vast tennis experiences. Guest experts will enhance campers' tennis knowledge by lecturing on sports science principles.

Facilities/Directions

This camp fully uses Edinboro University's 12 outdoor tennis courts and uses indoor courts in Erie in case of bad weather. Campers may also use other recreational facilities; an AAU-size pool, basketball, complete gymnasium, racketball, pool, sand volleyball, bookstore, convenience store, bank, pro-shop, stringing and repair service.

Campers are housed in university dorms supervised full-time by coaching staff and counselors. All-you-can-eat meals will be served in Van Houten Dining Hall.

The University is only 18 miles south of Erie and 100 miles from the cultural centers of Buffalo, Cleveland and Pittsburgh.

When traveling north or south on I-79, take the Edinboro exit. Follow Rt. 6N to Edinboro.
