Scots Host Pitt-Johnstown in Regional Showdown!

6 p.m. Sunday Game at McComb Features NCAA Playoff Hopefuls

The Edinboro men's basketball team will host the University of Pittsburgh-Johnstown on Sunday (Feb. 15) at 6 p.m. at McComb Fieldhouse in a game featuring two teams battling for a coveted NCAA Division II playoff berth.

Edinboro has won 19 of its last 21 games, including six straight contests. Wednesday night's 95-90 victory over Indiana (Pa.) improved the Boro's record to 21-5 overall, and 9-1 in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference Western Division.

Edinboro can clinch a share of the PSAC West crown and a No. 1 seed in the conference post-season tournament with a win next Wednesday (Feb. 18) at Clarion, or next Saturday (Feb. 21) at California (Pa). The Scots can finish no lower than second in the PSAC West and are assured of hosting a PSAC tournament game on Tuesday, Feb. 24.

HOWEVER...as important as the conference race is, Sunday's game could be a key factor in Edinboro's hopes of securing an NCAA Division II post-season tournament berth.

UPJ is 20-3 on the season after nipping West Chester, 74-72, on the road Wednesday night. The Mountain Cats were ranked third in the NCAA Division II East region this week, while Edinboro was tied for sixth. UPJ also was ranked 13th nationally in the NABC/Division II Bulletin poll.

With two starters battling the flu on Wednesday, (leading scorer Warren Chance and point guard Adam Kaufman) sophomore forward Dwayne Butler came through in the clutch, scoring a career-high 28 points. Butler added five boards, four assists, three steals, and a blocked shot to lead four players in double digits.

Senior Jesse Ogden had 20 points as he connected on six three-point attempts. He now has hit 84 threes this season to lead the PSAC (3.2 per game) and 302 during his career. Only 18 players in Division II history had made 300 or more treys in a career entering this season. Ogden needs six more threes to tie Lock Haven's Mike Shue for fourth place on the PSAC all-time list. Chance, the PSAC West Player of the Week and the Scots' leading scorer this season, added 18 points for the Boro, while freshman center Amos Upshaw collected his sixth double-double in eight games, scoring 14 points and grabbing a team-best 10 rebounds.

Kaufman, a true freshman, added eight more assists to become just the second Edinboro player to top 200 in a season. He now has 201 this year and is currently ranked seventh in the country, and tops in the PSAC, in assists per game (7.7 per contest). Kaufman needs just 22 more assists to break Greg Fox's school-record of 222 set in 1992-93

The Scots have shown their depth in past weeks with several players stepping up in each game. In the win over the Indians, Edinboro received key minutes off the bench from guards Asmara Vasser and Dominic Robinson, and forward Troy Stout. Vasser dished out five assists and hit nine of 10 free throws. Robinson went three of four from the line and added two rebounds, a steal, and an assist. Stout provided the Scots with a physical inside presence in his nine quality minutes.

Fans are encouraged to bring a non-perishable food item to Sunday's game to benefit the Edinboro Food Bank in exchange for a coupon good for a McDonald's hamburger or cheeseburger.

Up Next:

The Fighting Scot men's and women's basketball teams will travel to Clarion on Wednesday (Feb. 18) for a PSAC West doubleheader. The Scots close out the regular season at California (Pa.) on Saturday (Feb. 21) The women tip-off at 6 p.m. both nights, with the men starting at 8 p.m. The Boro women, now 18-6 overall and 7-3 in the PSAC West, are assured of a playoff berth. A win at Clarion would lock up a first-round home game.
