Fighting Scots Seek To Continue Winning Ways Minus Marquee Player

To a veteran coach such as Greg Walcavich, it's all too common a scenario, Find a way to replace your star players when their eligibility is up, while continuing to win. The good ones are able to win year after year with a bump in the road here and there.

Then there's Greg Walcavich. The Edinboro University men's basketball coach's bumps are few and far between during his 18 years in charge of the Fighting Scot program. In fact, his Fighting Scots have finished either first or second in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference Western Division each of the last seven years. He has had just two losing seasons in 18 years, and the last one came in 1996-97, when Edinboro finished 13-14 but still found a way to take second place in the PSAC West.

Now along comes the 2007-08 campaign, and Walcavich must find a way to replace his top two scorers from a team which was 19-10 a year ago. "If you're going to be successful over a period of years, you're always going to lose good pieces," he related. "This year is no different, except we did lose two HUGE pieces. You take our top two scorers, our number one and three rebounders, and our best perimeter defender.

"But at the same time, we have a lot of people back," he continued. "People who had significant roles in what we did a year last year to win 19 games. Plus we had the injury thing going last year that I think cost us 20 wins."

Rather than concerning himself with replacing Daren Tielsch and Curtis Ingram, a pair of All-PSAC West performers who between them averaged just under 30 points per game, Walcavich is quick to point out that he continues to not only anticipate, but expect, continued success.

"It's no different than most years. I'm hoping we'll be every bit as good as we've been. And I feel that we will be. I've always believed records are not just a reflection of how good you are, but how good other teams are. We could be a better team this year and not have a better record. I'm confident we'll be everything we have been the last few years.'

If there is a difference, it's that in year's past the Fighting Scots have had a marquee player on the team or waiting in the wings. Last vear it was Daren Tielsch, and before him it was Jakim Donaldson, and before that Kenny Tate. No one fits that description this year.

"We don't have a star player back," Walcavich nodded. "We'll have to see if we have somebody who ultimately becomes a star. For a number of years we have had a first team all-conference caliber player coming back, even if the powers that be didn't necessarily vote that way. I feel as though we have people that are going to be to break through this year and have terrific years.'

The 2007-08 Fighting Scots feature eight returning letterwinners, including a trio of starters. It is a team blessed with speed and quickness, according to Walcavich. That bodes well for a team which has played strong defense in recent years. A year ago Edinboro gave up 61.9 ppg., good for first in the PSAC and 14th in Division II.

"I think our biggest assets are team speed and quickness," Walcavich pointed out. "I think we have adequate size. We have a pretty good number of minutes back. Their roles will have to be a little different. Devon (Knight), Ryan (McLemore), and Joe (Jones) started virtually every game they were healthy enough to start. Kyree (Brown) and Vlad (Kovalevsky) saw a lot of minutes, and Dan (Walsh) also got a lot of minutes. Dan's time was reduced due to injury and illness, but he still saw quality minutes. It would be nice to have a group that's unbelievably talented, but in that absence of that, I'll take experience.'

Walcavich also pointed out that seniors Devon Knight and Ryan McLemore are proven winners. During their first three seasons, they've registered a 64-27 record, and have a chance to set the record for most wins in a four-year period.

One area where Walcavich isn't quite sure what to expect is the team's outside shooting. In particular, from beyond the three-point arc, where the Fighting Scots shot an abysmal 29.9 percent as a team. That figure ranked 252nd out of 262 teams in Division II!

"We shot the ball so poorly as a team last year," he admitted. "We were at the bottom of the barrel when it came to three-point shooting. Unless, or until, I see us make a lot of shots. seeing is believing. We're aware of it, and we're working on it."

Another concern for Walcavich has to be a schedule which begins the year with three straight home games, but then finds the Fighting Scots playing their next eight games on the road. That extended road trip encompasses the entire month of December, although Edinboro has a pair of short trips with contests at Gannon and Mercyhurst, and will also play in the Porreco Cup, hosted by Gannon.

In fact, after opening the season on November 17 against Penn State New Kensington, followed by home contests with West Virginia Wesleyan and Allegheny, the Fighting Scots open up PSAC crossover action against Millersville and West Chester, two perennial favorites in the East. Millersville lost in the East Region championship game and was 28-5 a year ago.

After playing at Mercyhurst and Gannon, Edinboro plays its second PSAC crossover twinbill, facing East Stroudsburg (18-10) and Kutztown (17-11). The 2007 portion of the season ends with a matchup against Bowie State, a team which was 19-10 a year ago, in the opening round of the Porreco Cup. Throw in the annual PSAC West contests with the likes of California(Pa.), Clarion and Shippensburg, and the Fighting Scots will definitely be battle-tested.

"We have many familiar faces on this season's schedule," Walcavich deadpanned. "Unfortunately, none of them are at home in December. If we can get to the middle of January with our heads above water we should be in good shape."

Here's a look at the 2007-08 Fighting Scots:

Forwards

Without question, Darren Tielsch will be missed. The 6'8" forward led the Fighting Scots in both scoring (16.5 ppg.) and rebounding (9.4 rpg.). He was never truly healthy a year ago, yet was as good as any player in the PSAC West and earned first team All-PSAC West honors. Tielsch concluded his three-year career standing eighth in both career scoring (1,377 pts.) and career rebounding (739).

Those are big numbers to replace, but at least the Fighting Scots welcome back frontcourt partner Ryan McLemore. A thin 6'9", 210 lb. senior, McLemore's forte is rebounding and shot blocking. In his first season as a starter, he averaged 9.2 rpg., good for third in the PSAC, and had 91 blocked shots. That figure is the third-highest total in a season, and was good for second in the PSAC and fourth in Division II.

McLemore averaged 6.4 ppg., and Walcavich feels that figure can increase. "Ryan has proven to be a real positive member," related Walcavich. "He has some singular unique skills. He's so long, and so fast, making him a great defender. He has not scored a lot in the past, and we hope he can score more this year."

Vlad Kovalevsky and Rob Lowther also return up front. Both are young and still maturing. Kovalevsky, a 6'7", 230 lb. sophomore, saw considerable action a year ago as the first frontcourt player off the bench. He took his lumps at times, but he is now twenty pounds heavier and should be ready for the rigors of the PSAC. Kovalevsky averaged 3.0 ppg. and 4.1 rpg. while shooting 50.0 percent from the floor.

"Vlad enjoyed a pretty good first run," Walcavich pointed out. "He continues to be a positive contributor. He's worked hard and gotten better."

Lowther is a former walk-on who has built himself up to 6'6" and 226 lbs. The sophomore saw limited time a year ago, scoring 23 points and pulling down 15 rebounds in eight games. It is hoped he can play more meaningful minutes this season.

"Robbie has made progress," Walcavich commented. "We're hopeful he's ready to take a big step."

Walcavich has added a pair of transfers to the mix. Gerald Warrick is a thin 6'7", 202 lb. junior who played two seasons at nearby Mercyhurst North East. A year ago he averaged 9.4 ppg. and a team-high 8.4 rpg. for the Saints, helping them to a 21-9 record. He shot 58.9 percent from the floor.

"Warrick is a nice addition," Walcavich praised. "He possesses good length and good athletic ability. We think he will fit right in."

James Wallace is a muscular 6'6", 220 lb. who played his freshman season at Ohio Valley. Wallace played in all 28 games, with a pair of starts, averaging 6.2 ppg. and 2.2 rpg.

"We hope he'll be ready to help us right away," stressed Walcavich. "He has a lot of room for growth. He will just get better and better."

Guards

With four guards who saw considerable action returning, it might be assumed that Curtis Ingram won't be missed. However, his loss for the backcourt may be bigger than what the frontcourt lost in Tielsch. Ingram was an outstanding perimeter defender who regularly shut down the top scorers in the PSAC, and he was a great leader. Throw in his 13.1 ppg. and 37 three-pointers, and the second team All-PSAC West performer will indeed be missed.

That being said, the backcourt is deep and athletic. But can it shoot? Devon Knight joins McLemore as the lone seniors on the team. The diminutive 5'10" Knight is expected to be the primary ballhandler. While not necessarily the prototype point guard, he possesses great ability to break down defenders and get to the paint. Knight finished as the fourth-leading scorer at 10.4 ppg. while joining Ingram as the only players to start all 29 games. He was third ion the team in assists (50) and tied for the team lead in steals (49), in addition to finishing second on the team from the free throw line at

has in the past."

Junior college transfer Larry Bryant and freshman Bobby Stauffer look to push Knight. Bryant, a 6'1 junior, hasn't played since 2005-06 when he played for Community College of Beaver County. He averaged 9.1 ppg. for the Titans, making 29 of 78 three-pointers, and was second on the team in assists (112) and third in steals (80).

The Stauffer name is well-known in northwestern Pennsylvania. His father, Roy, played for the Fighting Scots in the early '70's and is a member of Edinboro's Hall of Fame after scoring 1.149 career points.

Bobby has already made a name himself. as well. He is a three-time all-state performer, earning third team honors as sophomore and senior and second team as a junior, and a year ago he helped General McLane High School to an unprecedented double, winning the PIAA football and basketball state championships in the same year.

Stauffer concluded his career with 1,463 points, ranking third all-time at General McLane, with the Lancers going 99-19 during his career. As a senior he averaged 12.9 ppg. and led the Lancers in assists (150) and steals (109). Walcavich looks for Joe Jones, Danny Walsh and Kyree Brown to see plenty of time at the two wings. A year ago Jones was a promising transfer from Roberts Wesleyan. Now he is one of Edinboro's top players. After returning from a preseason injury, the thin 6'3" junior burst onto the scene, and finished as the third-leading scorer at 12.5 ppg. He was a streaky shooter, but still led the Fighting Scots with 46 three-pointers in 131 attempts. A strong all-around performer, he led the Scots with 122 assists and tied Knight for the lead in steals with 49.

Walsh is a 6'2" sophomore who saw his season come to a premature end due to an ankle injury. It's a shame, because he was playing his best ball late in the season. He appeared in 23 games, averaging just under fifteen minutes per contest. He averaged 2.3 ppg. and 2.0 rpg.

Brown played his freshman season at Eastern Illinois before transferring to Edinboro a

"Joe will be a central figure," stressed Walcavich. "He had a terrific sophomore year. He has done nothing but work and improve and get better. He's a little better in all aspects of year ago. One of the top guards in Pennsylvania as a prepster, he saw little action his first year and had to shake off some rust. The 6'2" junior showed enough to insure that he will be a key performer in 2007-08. However, he may again get off to a slow start after suffering a foot injury late in the summer. Brown averaged 4.8 ppg.

"Kyree's foot has been in a cast since August, but our expectations are that it will heel," stressed Walcavich. "Our hope is that he can pick up where he left off. He will play a lot."

Gil Cummings is a newcomer at the wing. Cummings is a 6'1" junior who played two seasons at Columbus State CC, but is another player who may have some rust since he hasn't played the last two years. In 2004-05 he averaged 14.7 ppg., making 87 of 230 three-pointers. He also led Columbus State with 128 assists and 71 steals.

"Gil joined us midway through last season," pointed out Walcavich. "He will challenge for time. We think he can be a good player for us. He plays in a manner similar to the other three. All four wings can be a big help for us."

Walcavich included Chris Bess as part of the wings. At 6'1", 229 lbs., Bess has the height of a wing but the girth of a frontcourt player. A former football player who just recently turned his attention totally to basketball, the sophomore joined the Fighting Scots a year ago at the conclusion of the football season. He played in 22 games, scoring 39 points and pulling down 27 rebounds.

"Chris will challenge in there," stated Walcavich. "He certainly helped us last year. We hope he'll continue to progress."

During that seven-year period, Edinboro owns a 59-25 record in PSAC West action, the best figure in the league.

The Fighting Scots ultimately lost in the PSAC semifinals to Millersville, concluding Edinboro's attempt to win back-to-back-to-back PSAC Championships for the first time since Cheyney accomplished the fete in 1978-80.

As it was, the back-to-back league titles left Walcavich mentioned in the same breath with legendary Chevney and Temple coach John Chaney. After leading Edinboro to its second straight PSAC championship in 2005-06, Walcavich became the first coach to lead his team to back-to-back wns since Chaney did it from 1976-80 while coaching at Cheyney.

straight 20-win campaigns a year ago. He picked up his second PSAC West Coach of the Year plaque five years ago, guiding the Fighting Scots to a 21-7 finish. Edinboro captured its first PSAC West crown since 1985-86 thanks to a 9-3 finish in league play, earning the right to host the PSAC Tournament. Unfortunately, a possible NCAA Tournament berth was denied the Scots when West Chester posted an 82-72 upset in the PSAC semifinals.

After two straight years in first place in the PSAC West, the Scots dropped to second in 2002-03, but still finished 17-11 after being picked to finish fifth in the preseason. A similar scenario occurred in 2001-02, with the Scots going 18-9. The coaches' preseason poll had picked Edinboro fourth. Unfortunately, the threeway tie for first with Indiana(Pa.) and California(Pa.) saw the Fighting Scots have to go to California for the first round of the PSAC Playoffs, where the Scots lost, 82-70.

In all, Edinboro has made the NCAA Division II Playoffs five times under Walcavich, while qualifying for the PSAC Tournament fourteen times. His 1993-94 squad finished with a 20-8 ledger, defeating West Chester in a NCAA play-in game before losing to Indiana(Pa.) in the regional semifinals. Edinboro made it back to the tournament in '95-96, defeating Bloomsburg, 90-82, in the first round. The Scots squandered an 11-point lead to California(Pa.) in the semifinals, losing 84-76. That concluded the season with a 21-8 mark, with Walcavich capturing PSAC West Coach of the Year accolades for the second time.

Walcavich took over the Fighting Scot program in 1989-90, guiding the Scots to one of their best seasons ever. Edinboro won its first twelve games, the best start in nearly fifteen years, and was ranked in the Division II top twenty. The Scots eventually finished 22-5, the most wins since 1981-82. On three occasions the Fighting Scots were ranked in the nation's top twenty. The following season the Scots made their second straight appearance in the PSAC Playoffs under Walcavich, finishing with a 18-10 ledger

The Scots made it three straight seasons in PSAC postseason action the next year, and the second twenty-win season in three years, with a 20-9 finish. Walcavich picked up his first PSAC tournament win, an 81-78 triumph over East Stroudsburg, before falling to California(Pa.) in the finals.

The 1992-93 campaign brought a very unfamiliar result for Walcavich - a losing season. The Scots finished at 12-17, losing eight games by five points or less. The Boro more than made up for it the next year with the trip to the NCAA Playoffs. The '93-94 season also saw the Scots finish 14th in the Division II final rankings, their top finish ever. The 1994-95 edition added another milestone to Walcavich's resume, as the Scots handed number one ranked Indiana(Pa.) a 94-77 loss. The season ended at 15-11.

Walcavich's fourth 20-win campaign at Edinboro in '95-96 was followed by his second losing season, a 13-14 finish. Despite the losing record, the Scots made it to the PSAC Playoffs for the fifth time in his first eight years. That mark improved to seven out of ten the next two seasons, thanks to the 26-8 finish in '97-98 and the 16-12 ledger in '98-99. After replacing four starters from the '97-98 squad, Walcavich directed the Scots to three wins over nationallyranked opponents. The Boro upended IUP twice, including a 63-61 win in Indiana in the first round of the PSAC Tournament, and St. Rose, an Elite Eight team for the second straight season, a 50-

48 setback. The Scots appeared well on their way to a third straight PSAC postseason appearance in 1999-2000 when starting center Jason Roseto, the leading shot blocker in Division II, went down with a broken hand. Prior to injuring the hand, Edinboro was 10-6. The Scots would lose six of their final nine contests without Roseto to finish at 13-13.

But Walcavich isn't just about winning. He places a sincere emphasis on success off the court - in the classroom and the community. He expects his student-athletes to perform with the same winning attitude in the classroom as they do on the basketball court. In fact, his office is not adorned with pictures of past greats. It does, however, feature a photograph of every student-athlete to graduate from Edinboro. Walcavich received his bachelor's degree in Communications from Rutgers University in 1973, then completed work on his master's degree in Physical Education from the University of Alabama-Birmingham two years later. Walcavich took over as head coach at Edinboro after a successful two-year stint at West Virginia Wesleyan, where he posted a 40-19 mark. In his first season, he inherited a team which returned just four players, but quickly turned the Bobcats into a winner, finishing at 18-10. His second season concluded with a 22-9 ledger, including a pair of wins over Edinboro, while playing all underclassmen.

Walcavich began his coaching career at Birmingham Southern College in 1973, staying for four seasons before obtaining his first head coaching job at Alexander City (AL) Junior College in 1977.

After one year, Walcavich returned to Birmingham Southern as the school's head coach. During his five seasons as the head coach, the NAIA affiliate posted an impressive 114-44 record, with Walcavich named the Coach of the Year three times. His teams were ranked in the NAIA Top 20 four of the five seasons, as high as number two in 1979, and twice appeared in the NAIA National Tournament in Kansas City, Missouri.

While at Birmingham Southern, Walcavich was recognized nationally in 1981, being selected to serve as an assistant coach for the United States Olympic Festival in Syracuse, New York. He coached future NBA stars, including Michael Jordan.

In 1983, Walcavich moved on to the Division I ranks as an assistant coach at Rice University. He was involved in some of the biggest wins in the Owls' basketball history at Rice, including triumphs over Arkansas, Houston and Notre Dame. After four years as a member of the Rice staff, Walcavich left for the head coaching job at West Virginia Wesleyan.

Walcavich and his wife, Dr. Maureen Walcavich, a professor in the Education Department at Edinboro, have been married for 33 years. They have two daughters, Sarah (27), a graduate of Penn State and the Georgetown Law School, who is now practicing law in New York City, and Jennifer (24), who graduated from Penn State and is a teacher in LaPlata, MD.

t's easy to give all the credit to the head coach when a team is winning. Edinboro University head coach Greg Walcavich would be the first to point out that over the last six years praise must also be heaped upon assistant coach Patrick Cleary for the success enjoyed by the Fighting Scots.

Cleary has become a tireless recruiter who has developed many contacts in his efforts to come up with the next great Fighting Scot. Cleary has become renowned for his ability to find talent and his relentless approach to recruiting. He has had direct input in tracking down players such as Kenny Tate, Blake Johnson, Rob Sims and Rob Green, among others. In addition to handling the day-to-day duties of recruiting and scouting, he

Terry Thompson 2nd Year Clarion '65

Ferry Thompson is in his second season as an assistant coach with the Edinboro University men's basketball team, but is no stranger to Fighting Scot athletics. He previously served four seasons as a volunteer assistant for the women's basketball team, assisting head coach Stan Swank from 2000-04.

Before joining Greg Walcavich's staff a year ago, Thompson spent the last two years serving as the boys basketball coach at Girard High School. In his second season the YellowJackets were 19-8 and reached the District 10 Playoffs, and the year before that they were 14-12 and also in the District 10 Playoffs.

Thompson's experience and enthusiasm are all too familiar to area basketball fans. He began his coaching career in 1965 as the boys basketball coach at East Brady High School, where he also served as a teacher. He led the team to the PIAA state runnerup spot in 1968, before leaving East Brady after the 1969 season.

After a one-year hiatus from coaching, in which Thompson completassists head coach Greg Walcavich with the running and promotion of summer basketball camps.

Seven years ago Cleary was hired as an interim assistant coach following the sudden death of assistant coach Bryant Houston. That designation changed in the spring of 2000, as Cleary was appointed a full-time member of the Edinboro University coaching staff. He served as a student assistant from 1997-99, helping the Fighting Scots reach the PSAC Playoffs both years, along with an NCAA Division II Playoff berth in 1997-98.

Now comes back-to-back PSAC championship teams and two straight trips to the NCAA Playoffs. All told, Edinboro has won 20-or-more games three times in his six seasons, and shows an overall record of 115-58. In addition, he has helped bring in two All-Americans and seven All-PSAC performers. Five players have moved on to play professionally.

Cleary attended Sharon High School where he played basketball for the Tigers. He completed work on his Bachelor of Arts Degree in 1999. In addition to his basketball duties he is the co-director of the Athletic Department Study Program. He was presented the Outstanding Supervisor Award for Peer Tutoring by Edinboro University in 2005 and '06.

Cleary is single and resides in Edinboro. An active member of the Sons of the American Legion, he currently serves as the chaplain for Post 162 in Sharpsville, PA.

ed work on his master's degree in Education from Slippery Rock University, he served as the assistant boys varsity coach at Butler High School for two years.

In 1971, Thompson took the head coaching position at Knoch High School, where he held a teaching and coaching position for nine years.

Next came a two-year stint as the head coach at Butler. Thompson then found his way to the Erie County League, wher he guided the Fairview High School boys team for seven seasons. During the 1985-86 season, Thompson led the Tigers to the ECL and District 10 championships. Fairview had a 124-56 record during Thompson's tenure.

In 1990, Thompson made the jump to the collegiate ranks, working for three seasons as an assistant men's basketball coach at Penn State Behrend.

Thompson returned to the high school level in 1992, taking the assistant girls coaching position at Girard High School. In nine seasons as an assistant for coach Larry Seneta, Thompson helped lead Girard to a PIAA state championship, a PIAA state runner-up, five District 10 titles and three Erie County League titles.

Thompson and his wife Donna have two daughters, T.L. and Courtney. After outstanding high school careers at Girard, both daughters played collegiately. T.L. played at Grove City College, and now serves as the basketball coach at Grove City City High School. Courtney was a standout at Edinboro for four season, concluding her career in 2003-04. She earned an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship, which she used to earn her master's degree at Bowling Green State University. She now serves as a professor in the Math Dedpartment at Penn State Erie.

Curtis Ingram to Serve as Student Assistant Coach

In his two seasons as a Fighting Scot, Curtis Ingram was highly-regarded for his defense, his tenacity, and most important, his leadership skills. Now he will attempt to instill those same qualities in his former teammates while serving as a student assistant coach. Ingram is finishing up work on his Bachelor's Degree in Forensics Accounting, along with a minor in History.

Ingram was a second team All-PSAC West selection a year ago after helping Edinboro reach the PSAC semfinals and finish with a 19-10 record. A 6'3" guard, Ingram finished as the second-leading scorer at 13.1 ppg., adding 4.8 rpg., making 37 of 111 three-pointers, and shooting a team-high 76.8 percent from the free throw line.

However, it is his defensive prowess which will be remembered the most. He regularly shut down the top scorers in the PSAC.

In his first season at Edinboro after transferring from Division I Wofford, Ingram came on after a slow start due to an injury to average 13.1 ppg. and 5.3 rpg. He made 41 of 108 three-pointers.

Ingram left his mark on Edinboro basketball history when he made the second of two free throws with no time showing to give Edinboro a 52-51 win over Shippensburg in the PSAC championship game, as the Fighting Scots won their second straight PSAC title.

Ingram is a native of Youngstown, OH and is a former standout at Cardinal Mooney High School. He played two seasons at Wofford before transferring to Edinboro.

Fighting Scots Fail in Three-Peat Bid but Finish at 19-10

he 2006-07 Edinboro Fighting Scots failed in their bid to win a third straight PSAC Championship, something which hadn't been done since 1980, when Cheyney concluded a run of five straight titles. But you can hardly term the campaign a failure.

On the contrary, under long-time head coach Greg Walcavich the Fighting Scots finished second in the PSAC West with an 8-4 league record. It marked the seventh straight year that Edinboro had finished either first or second. Overall, the final record was 19-10, as Edinboro fell one win shy of its third straight 20-win season.

Walcavich accomplished the fete with a relatively new cast of characters, as just two starters remained from the 2005-06 squad. However, he had a great base to build on with the likes of Daren Tielsch and Curtis Ingram. Add in Devon Knight and Ryan McLemore, a pair of bench performers who stepped in as starters, and the cupboard wasn't bare, it just needed a little bit of replenishing.

Walcavich did just that as he brought in a pair transfers who paid immediate dividends, as did freshmen Vlad Kovalevsky and Danny Walsh.

The good news began before the season even started when Daren Tielsch, Edinboro's standout 6'8" forward, was awarded an additional year of eligibility by the NCAA. Tielsch would be forced to miss the season opener after playing in the NABC Division II All-Star Game when it was assumed his eligibility was used up. But that still meant 28 games with Tielsch in the lineup.

He responded by averaging 16.5 ppg. and 9.4 rpg., both team highs. Despite playing in pain much of the year due to several injuries, Tielsch concluded a brilliant career ranking eighth both in scoring (1,377 points) and rebounds (739). He earned first team All-PSAC West honors for the second straight year.

Ingram, meanwhile, was accorded some respect by the league's coaches, as well, in his second season as a Fighting Scot. The 6'3" guard averaged 13.1 ppg. and 4.8 rpg., but more importantly, he stepped up night-in and night-out and shut down some of the top scorers in the PSAC. Ingrams was named a second team AII-PSAC West performer.

Knight joined Ingram as the only players to start all 29 games. The diminutive guard averaged 10.4 ppg. McLemore, meanwhile, joined Tielsch to join a powerful one-two punch on the glass. The lanky 6'9" junior only scored 6.4 ppg., but he ranked third in the PSAC in rebounding (9.2 rpg.) and was second in the conference and third nationally in blocked shots, finishing with 91.

It became immediately apparent that Joseph Jones, a former player at nearby Cathedral Prep, would be the fifth starter. His athleticism fit in well with Knight and McLemore, and he proved to be a multi-faceted performer.

Unfortunately, the Scots had to wait just a bit for Jones after he suffered a knee injury in preseason drills which required minor surgery. The transfer from Roberts Wesleyan missed the latter portion of those drills and sat out the first game. He would return to start 26 contests, finishing as the third-leading scorer at 12.5 ppg. In addition, Jones handed out a team-high 122 assists, tied Knight for the team lead in steals (49), and made a team-high 46 three-pointers in 131 tries.

With both Tielsch and Jones out of the lineup, Edinboro opened the season with a 61-57 loss at West Virginia Wesleyan. The Fighting Scots then went on to win three straight and six of seven. Most noteworthy were wins over local rivals Gannon and Mercyhurst, plus wins over West Chester and Charleston.

Edinboro jumped to big leads against both Gannon and Mercyhurst before holding on to claim bragging rights with the local rivals. Jones made his presence felt for the first time against the Golden Knights, finishing with 15 points in the 67-60 triumph. Edinboro later handed Mercyhurst a 63-57 defeat.

The lone loss in the stretch came to an extremely talented Millersville team that invaded McComb Fieldhouse and came away with an 82-78 win. The next day the Fighting Scots righted themselves with a 7567 win over West Chester as Jones exploded for 27 points.

Edinboro ended the 2007 portion of its schedule with a 7-3 record. the third loss coming at home via an 82-72 score to East Stroudsburg. The New Year began with an impressive 84-67 win over a strong Alderson-Broaddus team, as Tielsch contributed 30 points and 11 rebounds.

A 57-41 loss at Cheyney would follow, with Edinboro beginning PSAC West action with a 8-4 ledger. The league opener - against Shippenburg, the team Edinboro defeated in the PSAC finals to come away with its second straight PSAC championship. The contest wasn't close, as Edinboro used a big second half for a 76-51 victory.

PSAC crossover action concluded the next weekend. In year's past the Fighting Scots had excelled in contests against the Eastern Division. but in 2006-07 the other division got the better hand. A loss at Mansfield, followed by a win at Bloomsburg, left Edinboro with a 3-4 record in the crossover contests.

The Bloomsburg win started the Fighting Scots on a four-game winning streak, with two of those against PSAC West foes. That included a 63-51 win at Indiana(Pa.) behind 19 points from Tielsch and 18 from Knight.

The 3-0 start in PSAC West action was guickly interrupted by losses at Lock Haven and Clarion by a total of 11 points. Both contests served as reminders that winning on the road in the PSAC is never an easy thing, and the latter came despite a career-high 31 points from Ingram.

The Fighting Scots returned home to pick up a hard-earned 49-48 win over California(Pa.), but they then lost for the third time in four games with a 69-54 setback in the rematch at Shippensburg.

Another four-game winning streak ensued, however, leaving the Scots at 18-8 and clinching second place in the West.

The regular season concluded with a 73-59 loss at California(Pa.), as the Vulcans clinched sole possession of first place in the West.

Making its seventh straight appearance in the PSAC Playoffs, Edinboro hosted the rubber game with Shippensburg in a guarterfinal contest. The senior tandem of Ingram and Tielsch made sure they enjoyed a successful farewell in their home finale, as Ingram scored 21 points and Tielsch had 18 points and 11 rebounds.

That left the Fighting Scots facing Millersville in the PSAC Semifinals at California(Pa.). After losing to the Marauders by four points in the regular season, Edinboro suffered a 65-55 loss, as Millersville pulled away in the final four minutes. Appropriately enough, Tielsch finished with 23 points and 13 rebounds, and Ingram had 12 points.

Daren Tielsch began his career as a highly-regarded recruit at Penn State in 2001, and enjoyed a strong freshman campaign for the Nittany Lions. That was followed by a move to Robert Morris in an effort to be closer to his ailing father. Tielsch's journeys would continue to Edinboro, as he joined the Fighting Scot program for the 2004-05 season.

The 6'8" forward proceeded to etch his name among the greats to wear the red and white of the Fighting Scots. He concluded his brilliant career last season as the eighth all-time leading scorer with 1,377 career points, while also standing eighth in career rebounds with 739. Though not the greatest when it came to the free throw line, he ranks second in career free throws attempted (531) and is tenth in career free throws made (268).

As a senior, the McKees Rocks, PA native led the Fighting Scots both in scoring (16.5 ppg.) and rebounding (9.4 rpg.). He earned first team All-PSAC West accolades for the second year in a row after ranking fifth in the conference in scvoring and second in rebounding. Edinboro finished with a 19-10 record.

Tielsch enjoyed an outstanding junior year, as well, as he stepped out of the shadow of Jakim Donaldson to average 18.7 ppg. and 9.5 rpg. Those figures once again paced the Fighting Scots and led to his initial selection as a first team All-PSAC West choice. Tielsch led the Fighting Scots to a 21-10 finish, with Edinboro winning its second straight PSAC Championship and reaching the NCAA East Regional for the second straight year. Tielsch was named the Most Outstanding Player in the PSAC Championships.

In Tielsch's first year as a Fighting Scot, he teamed with Donaldson to lead Edinboro to a 24-7 finish, as Edinboro won the PSAC crown and reached the NCAA Playoffs for the first time since the 1997-98 season. Tielsch averaged 13.4 ppg. and 7.2 rpg.

Oddly enough, Tielsch performed in the NABC Division II All-Star Game following his junior season. He later was awarded an additional year of eligibility by the NCAA and was able to compete in 2006-07. All told, Edinboro posted a 64-27 record during his three campaigns. As important to head coach Greg Walcavich, Tielsch earned his bachelor's degree in Forensic Sciences.

Edinboro University of Pennsylvania is the largest and most comprehensive institution of higher education in northwestern Pennsylvania. This year we welcome the 16th President of the University, Dr. Jeremy D. Brown. Under his leadership we begin a new era: "Great Things Happen Here!" and have launched plans to grow the size and academic standards of the University.

Edinboro's 585-acre campus is home to nearly 8,000 students studying in more than 100 academic programs. The University's majors in art, animation, criminal justice, education, and speech language pathology have earned regional recognition and national accolades.

Dr. Jeremy D. Brown

President, Edinboro University of Pennsylvania

Dr. Jeremy D. Brown became the 16th president of Edinboro University of Pennsylvania on July 1, 2007.

He succeeds Dr. Frank G. Pogue, who served as the University's president since July 1996.

Dr. Brown came to Edinboro from SUNY-Canton where he served as provost since 2003. As the 2,600-student university's chief academic officer, he steered campus-wide strategic planning, oversaw vigorous growth in distance learning opportunities and cultivated many international collaborations. During his tenure at SUNY Canton, the number of baccalaureate degrees doubled and external funding increased by 50 percent. While he was at SUNY Canton, many departments reported to Dr. Brown, including academic affairs, institutional research, library, information technology, grants, registrar, small business development, extended studies and national and international development initiatives. While there, Dr. Brown was elected Vice Chair of the SUNY Chief Academic Officers Association.

Dr. Brown is a native of Manchester, England, and earned both a Bachelor of Science and a Ph.D. in physics from the University of Birmingham, England. His doctoral work was in the area of experimental nuclear physics, conducted at both Birmingham University and the University of California-Berkeley. Immediately following the completion of his Ph.D., Dr. Brown spent two years at Indiana University doing nuclear physics research. Following his stint in Indiana, Dr. Brown accepted a faculty position in the Physics Department of Princeton University, where in addition to continuing his research, he taught undergraduate and graduate-level physics courses. During this period, he also served as a resident faculty fellow at Rockefeller College and was the fac-

The University is located just 100 miles from the metropolitan areas of Cleveland, Buffalo and Pittsburgh, and less than 20 miles south of Erie, Pennsylvania's fourth largest city. Meadville, Crawford County's seat, is located 20 miles to the south.

The University's Baron-Forness Library has more than 500,000 bound volumes and 1.4 million microform units, along with an online catalog access to numerous online databases and electronic reserves. The library is equipped with a wireless network, computer labs and equipment to assist users with visual impairments.

In the 2007-08 academic year the University will complete a $20 million expansion and renovation of the Frank G. Pogue Student Center and the construction of a $5 million, state-of-the-art music building, and Sox Harrison Stadium will have artificial turf, lighting, and a new scoreboard. Edinboro is beginning the largest construction project in the school's history - a 1,500-bed apartment-style housing complex to replace Scranton and Shafer Halls and Lawrence Towers.

In addition to a five-acre lake and wooded areas, there are more than 40 buildings on the spacious Edinboro campus, including residence halls with private or shared rooms, co-ed housing, honors housing, and living-learning floors - all wired for voice, video and data.

The University also operates Edinboro University in Erie - the Porreco Center, a beautiful 27-acre facility that includes classrooms, a computer laboratory, and a unique facility for hosting small conferences, business meetings and special events. Edinboro University in Meadville is the University's most recent expansion and is located in the city's historic Bessemer Building. All campuses are connected by convenient EMTA bus service free to students, faculty and staff.

ulty liaison for academic and social programs.

Transitioning into academic administration, Dr. Brown was named associate dean of the Graduate School at Yale University. His portfolio included the Science, Engineering and Biomedical Departments as well as recruitment of underrepresented minority students. In addition, Dr. Brown served as the Graduate School's chief budget officer.

Later, Dr. Brown returned to Princeton as associate dean of the faculty. During this appointment, Dr. Brown advised the dean of faculty and provost on long-range academic planning and budgeting. He also supervised appointments, promotions, salaries and personnel issues for the 960 members of the technical, research and library staffs.

In 2000, Dr. Brown was named rector of Florida State-Panama. serving as the chief executive officer of a small U.S. university operating in Latin America. While he was there, enrollment, the curriculum and revenues grew dramatically. He developed strategic plans for growth, and designed and implemented a national and international recruiting program.

During his career, Dr. Brown has published many scholarly articles and has been an invited speaker at international conferences, research institutions and universities. He served as a visiting scientist at the University of Stellenbosch, the University of Manitoba, the Department of Nuclear Physics at Oxford University and the National Accelerator Centre in Cape Town.

Dr. Brown and Rebeca, his wife, are leaving their farm in upstate New York to live in Edinboro. When not out in his apple orchard, Dr. Brown likes to play squash. He coached the St. Lawrence University men's and women's squash teams for the past three years, taking them to the national tournament. Weather permitting, Dr. Brown also enjoys sailing or skiing, and particularly takes delight in spending time with his two sons, Lucas and Gabriel, and visiting his family in England. Having taken film courses while on sabbatical at Oxford University, Dr. Brown likes, when time permits, to unwind by watching movies. Being from Manchester, Dr. Brown is an avid fan of the Manchester United soccer team.
