

Fighting Scots Host Hilbert Wednesday at Home

Edinboro Victory Would Give Coach Walcavich Career Win No. 300

The Edinboro University Fighting Scots will host Hilbert College at McComb Fieldhouse on Wednesday, Dec. 3 at 8 p.m., hoping to give head coach Greg Walcavich his 300th career victory as a collegiate head coach! Greg is in his ninth season at Edinboro and his 16th year overall as a head coach and enters the game with a career mark of 299-148. His winning percentage (.669) is the best among the 14 PSAC men's head coaches.

At Edinboro, Walcavich has guided the Scots to four 20-win seasons, two NCAA Division II National Tournament berths, and a 145-85 overall mark. He enjoyed five successful seasons as head coach at Birmingham Southern and coached for two years at West Virginia Wesleyan prior to joining the Scots staff.

Edinboro is playing its fifth straight home game after opening the season at the Disney Division II Tip-Off Classic against three nationally-ranked teams. The Scots have won three out of their last four games, including solid victories last week over Lake Erie (OH) College and Point Park College to improve to 4-3 on the season.

Head coach Greg Walcavich used his entire bench against Lake Erie, and all 11 players lit the scoreboard. The Scots stretched a five-point half-time lead into a comfortable 90-69 victory. Jesse Ogden connected from behind the three-point arc on five of eight attempts, and led all Boro scorers with 17 points. Troy Stout added 15 points and 10 rebounds, and Adam Kaufman recorded four points, four steals and eight assists to help in the win.

Monday night, Edinboro hosted the Pioneers of Point Park College. Boro shooters were hot, shooting 50% (13-26) from three-point territory, led by Warren Chance, who hit 8 of 13 long-range shots. Chance led all scorers, matching his career-high of 29 points. Amos Upshaw had an outstanding all-around game, contributing 19 points, 10 rebounds and two steals, while Kaufman continued to dish out the assists, recording 10 for the game to bring his season total to 46 (with just 20 turnovers).

Edinboro travels to Pitt-Bradford for a 7:30 p.m. game Thursday. After finals next week, the Scots host Mercyhurst College on Dec. 17.
