Dear Mother:

I now have in my possession travel-orders to the "Old U.S.A." We leave here at 9:20 Thursday morning and embark for Brest at Liverpool some-time that day on the transport "Plattsburg". I do not know how long we shall be held up at

Brest. I hope, not long. I will not make this letter longer, except to say that we are all glad to get started
towards home.
I suspect this letter will please
you more than any other I have written.

Your son,
Guy.
