WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

Don Whitman.... (Richard) Was first in the "Poor of New York" and appeared in the one act, "Bald Soprano", the same year (1960). He was then in "Much Ado About Nothing", (Sextant). The next year he appeared in "The Crucible" and "Beaux Strategem". This year, Mr. Whitman has his first leading role. He has directed a one act play, "Let There Be Farce" and he appeared in "The Clown Who Ran Away" (children's one act), and is currently directing a one act play for Play Productions class, "Hangs Over Thy Head".

Helen Purpich.... (Judith Anderson) She has appeared in "Much Ado", and "Poor of New York". Her first major role was Mrs. Smith in the "Bald Soprano". She played Mrs. Putnam in "The Crucible", and was in "Matchmaker" and directed a children's one act, "The Clown Who Ran Away". Miss Purpich has had two summers of stock at the Erie Playhouse. She has appeared in numerous one act plays while at Edinboro.

John DiNello....(Anderson) John has appeared in high school productions. Since in college, he has appeared in "The Matchmaker" and "Elizabeth the Queen". He has also appeared in a one act play. Mr. Di Nello is looking forward to continued work with the Collegiate Players.

Ed Zelinsky.... (Burgoyne) He appeared in the high school production of "Babes in Toyland". He had the title role in "The Colonel Comes to Kansas". He played Teddy in "Arsenic and Old Lace". He took dramatic instruction at the Pittsburgh Playhouse. He is a freshman this year.

Janice Gahagan....(Essie) This is Miss Gahagan's second college appearance. Last year she was in "Elizabeth the Queen". While in high school, she played in "Sabrina Fair". Miss Gahagan is a sophomore.

Charmaine DiMichael.... (Mrs. Dudgeon) This is Miss DiMichael's first college production, but she has appeared in high school productions of "The Man Who Came To Dinner", in which she had the lead, and also in "Kiss Me, Kate". While in high school Miss Di Michael was president of the Drama Club.

Sam Camp (Christy Dudgeon) This is Mr. Camp's first role in a college play, but he has appeared in several plays in high school. These include "Our Town", "Matchmaker", "Crucible", "Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker", and "Night of January 16th". He enjoys working with the Collegiate Players and was president of the Thespians in his high school.

Paul Dolby (Swindon) This is Paul's first college production. He appeared in the high school production of "Brigadoon". He plans on continuing his work with the Collegiate Players. He is a freshman this year.

Robert Callahan (Sergeant) This is Mr. Callahan's first college production. He appeared in both his junior and senior plays in high school. He is planning on being in the one act, "Hangs Over Thy Head" to be done later this semester. He is a junior this year.

Nick Fitzgerald (Lawyer Hawkins) This production is Mr. Fitzgerald's first try at acting and he enjoys it very much. He is looking forward to continued work with the Edinboro Collegiate Players.

Lee Vandall (Chaplain) Mr. Vandall is a freshman and has appeared in the high school production of "The Inner Willy". This is his first college production and he is working in two one act plays to be presented later this semester.
