TEAM OUTLOOK

"There's no question about it, competition in the Pennsylvania Conference, along with that of our non-conference opponents, becomes stronger each year," BSC coach Eli McLaughlin states. "More stress in swimming is being applied at both the high school and college level, which is resulting in better competition everywhere."

Bloomsburg State embarks on another ambitious schedule of nine Pennsylvania Conference opponents plus five non-conference contests. McLaughlin and his Huskies will be hard pressed to improve on last year's 10-5 record. Bloomsburg is shooting for its seventh straight winning season. "We were particularly proud of our third place finish in the PC meet last year. We were fortunate in edging out East Stroudsburg, a team that defeated us in dual competition," McLaughlin stated. In addition to ESSC, four other teams that defeated Bloomsburg in dual competition—Temple, Monmouth, West Chester, and Clarion—comprise Bloomsburg's greatest challenges this year.

Leading the group of returnees is BSC's first All American swimmer, freestyler Dave Gibas, a junior from West Mifflin, Pa., where he also earned high school All American honors. Gibas, who was named NAIA 50 yd. freestyle champion, will continue to perform in the 50 and 100 yd. events and anchor either the 400 yd. medley or freestyle relay teams.

In addition, Jack Feyer, Bob Herb, Bob Jones, Ken Narsewicz, Jon Stoner, and Doug Yocom will be counted on to spread their talent over several events and carry the bulk of the load. There are four sophomores and five freshman also battling to make the squad.

McLaughlin is blessed with the best diving prospects he has had in a number of years. Steve Coleman and Bob Myers are back along with newcomers Eric Cureton, Dan Legosky, and Jim Smith.

Although the Huskies will be spotty in some events, overall team balance should provide keen competition. Everyone has shown an early desire and enthusiasm and McLaughlin points out that with this type of attitude, Bloomsburg should have another successful season.

SWIMMING COACH

ELI McLAUGHLIN begins his eleventh season at the helm of the Husky tankmen and is aiming for his seventh consecutive winning season.

McLaughlin received both his Bachelor of Science and Master of Education degrees from West Chester State College and has taken additional work towards his doctorate at West Virginia University. He is an associate professor in the Health and Physical Education Department and has developed the overall aquatic program at the college. McLaughlin has also served as varsity football line coach and has been associated with the baseball team in the past as a head coach and assistant coach.

His background both as a swimming coach and an official has been quite extensive. Many of his former swimmers have gained recognition as coaches and officials, while one in particular, Thomas Little, is currently a state legislator in Delaware.

Highlights of his coaching career have included victories over perennial powerhouses West Chester, Slippery Rock, and Monmouth (N.J.) College, along with producing BSC's first All American swimmer, freestyler Dave Gibas.

McLaughlin is married to the former Patricia Repash and they have two daughters, Beth, age 12, and Jane, age 8. The McLaughlins reside at 225 West Twelfth Street, Bloomsburg, Penna.

JIM CARLIN, a member of last year's BSC swimming squad and currently a graduate student, is serving as an assistant coach on a volunteer basis.
