GOLF OUTLOOK 1965

In early March, twenty-two Bloomsburg State College golf candidates started working out in an indoor hitting area on campus. With seven members from last year's team returning, prospects for improving last year's record of 3 wins and 5 losses and an 11th place finish in the Pennsylvania State College Meet appears promising.

Leading the returnees are two golfers, George Miller and Bill Bloom who, if their game shapes up early enough, will be tough competitors on most courses. These two players were comparatively equal last year and alternated at the one and two playing positions. Following close behind are three golfers who have worked hard on their game since last May with the hope of adding depth to the team. They are — John Kwasnoski, Ray Herbert and Phil Haile. The two remaining returnees, Alex Dubil and Rick Heller, have indicated their swings are better grooved and better scores are in the making.

Two newcomers, who appear to be good prospects, are Larry Edwards, Sophomore, and John Vasil, a transfer from Keystone Junior College. Other untired candidates are Mike Heitz, Fred Dute, Bob Marina, Ron Lovus, and Mike Morrow. Farina and Morrow were regular members of this year's Basketball Squad.

With the first match scheduled for April 9th, the Squad will be cut to about eight members by April 1st. There are several outstanding Freshmen candidates who, due to the Freshman rule, will have to wait a year for varsity competition. It is hoped a practice match or two can be scheduled for the Freshmen.

GOLF COACH

BRUCE DIETTERICK

Bruce 'Nick' Dietterick, a native of Berwick and a graduate of Penn State University, joined the Public Relations Department at Bloomsburg State College in August, 1963, after fifteen years in private industry. He was appointed Golf Coach this year when former coach, Craig Himes, took a year's leave of absence to pursue his graduate studies at the University of Pittsburgh.

Dietterick was a member of the Championship Basketball Team at Berwick High in 1939, being named to the second All-State Team. Entering Temple University on an athletic scholarship, he joined the Army Air Corps prior to his Junior year. Following his discharge, he completed his education in Journalism at Penn State in 1947.

He was a member of the varsity basketball and golf teams at both Temple and Penn State. After graduating, while working in private industry, he played six years in the Eastern Professional Basketball League. For a short period he coached the Berwick Car Builders in the Eastern League, while owner Paul Stenko (Stenn) completed his career with the Chicago Bears of the NFL. In recent years he has participated in area basketball clinics.

Dietterick has been playing area golf courses for over twenty-five years and has participated in many tournaments.
