TENNIS OUTLOOK—1967

Six returning team members and five eager sophomores indicate the tennis outlook for Bloomsburg State College to be the best that it has been for the past two decades. John Jones, last year's B.S.C. freshman tennis coach, will take over the reins as head coach this year. Two months of early indoor practice and an optimistic outlook by each team member should provide the impetus necessary for the Husky netmen to be classified as the "Dark Horse" among the competing Pennsylvania State College teams.

Returning veterans include Seniors—Franklin Rishel, William Gering, Mike Mellinger; Juniors—Ed Dietrich, Jeff Snyder, Robert Zalonis. Promising Sophomores include Ronald Dietrich, Jeff Miller, Dale Houk, Gerald Fulmer, Dennis Crim.

All of the seniors have been working extremely hard to improve their play over last year. Rishel is the top contender for the No. 1 position. Mellinger developed extensively towards the end of last season and is now playing a much steadier game. Zalonis has real potential and could develop into the best tennis player that a Maroon and Gold squad has had in recent years. Southpaw Gering has developed some new strokes that have added variety and depth to his game. Snyder and Ed Dietrich have been working extremely hard in preparing to break into the starting lineup. Rishel and Dietrich will co-captain the '67 Husky netmen.

Ron Dietrick appears to be the outstanding prospect among the sophomore candidates. Coach Jones has indicated it is too early to determine the full potential of the untried sophomores.

With the vast construction taking place on campus, the tennis courts have been temporarily eliminated, and the Huskies will have to do their practicing and playing on the Bloomsburg town courts and those of the Bloomsburg Tennis Club. Even under such unfortunate circumstances for practicing, there seems to be a new air of confidence and eagerness in the team which points to improving last year's record of 3 wins and 6 losses. There are several outstanding Freshmen working out and a 6-game schedule has been set for the frosh racketmen.

In addition to the regular Pennsylvania State College competition, there will be three newcomers to the varsity schedule this year—Mansfield State College, Cheyney State College, and Susquehanna University.

HEAD TENNIS COACH

JOHN H. JONES

A health education graduate of East Stroudsburg State College, Jones joined the Bloomsburg State College faculty in the fall of 1965 as an Assistant to the Dean of Men. He was awarded his Master of Education degree in December, 1965, from The Pennsylvania State University.

A former coach of soccer at Troupsburg (N. Y.) Central School, Jones has also had considerable experience in playground and recreational tennis programs. While attending East Stroudsburg State College, he was a member of the varsity tennis team for 2 years. Last summer he participated in the recreation program at Penn State.

Last spring Jones was freshman tennis coach at B.S.C. and last fall he was varsity and freshman cross country coach. He is also the director of the intramural program at Bloomsburg State College for the 1966-67 college year.
