Approximately 46 candidates reported for early indoor practice a number of weeks ago. Thirteen ball players were lost from last year's squad due to graduation, signing of professional contracts, injuries, and other reasons.

The Huskies will be led by captain Tom Fleeger and co-captains Joe Accardi and Chris Perry, along with nine other lettermen. A staff of five returning pitchers include Bob Warner, Greg Stahora, Chris Perry, John Lepley, and Phil Jordan. First year pitching hopefuls are Gary Beatty, Phil Levine, John Fureman, Gary Eckenrode, John Heimbach, Jeb Bachman, and Tom Vottero. The only returning catcher is Tom Storer, who will be pushed hard by Paul Skrimcovsky, Jim Zanzinger, and Dick Bower.

The lone returnee at first base is Fleeger, and freshman Glenn Haas hopes to give him plenty of competition. Prospects for second base, along with returnees Bob Parry and Jeff Mosser, is Dave Nyce. Veteran shortstop Joe Accardi heads another candidate, Lester Gilbert. Third base is up for grabs among candidates Bob Herring, Mike Dougherty, and Bob Lavelle. Veteran outfielders are Mike Costanzo, and Steve Rudy; while Mike Devereux, Gary Hammer, Bob Dodge, Curt Muschock, Steve Andrejack, and Doug Heimbach are all first year hopefuls.

Coach Clark Boler indicates that the Huskies will need some outstanding pitching along with a respectable defense to come up with another winning season. Last year BSC had a 11-9 record.

Rodrick Clark Boler joined the Health and Physical Education Department at BSC in September, 1968.

A native of Northport, Alabama, Boler received his B.S. and M.S. degrees from the University of Alabama where he was a member of the 1961 National Championship Football Team and was a pitcher on the baseball team.

Three years prior to coming to Bloomsburg, he served as head baseball coach, assistant basketball coach, and assistant football coach at Gadsden High School in Alabama. While at Gadsden, his baseball record was 26 wins against 16 losses. In 1967 and 1968 his team won the Northeast Alabama Conference title, and in 1968, his team also won the Etowah County championships. In the past two years, his BSC teams have won 17, lost 12, and tied 1.

Assistant Coach Steve Bresett

Dr. Bresett joined the Health and Physical Education faculty at BSC in 1969, and is serving his second year as an assistant baseball coach.

He received his early education in New Jersey, his B.S. and D.P.E. degrees from Springfield College, and his M.E. degree from Rutgers University.

Prior to his present assignment, he taught in New Jersey public schools serving in the various capacities of teacher, coach, department chairman, and athletic director. He also assisted in coaching football while he was a doctoral-teaching fellow at Springfield. His baseball knowledge has been valuable to Boler particularly in helping the younger members of the team.

TRACK

Outlook

One of the most successful indoor track seasons in recent years at BSC should furnish the Huskies with the necessary early conditioning and competitive spirit to provide a better than average season. Bloomsburg chalked up an undefeated indoor season of four victories and in the process broke twelve indoor records and tied three more.

Outside of the loss of sprinters Greg Berger and John Lucysyn, and high jumper Mark Yancheck through graduation, last year's team (8-1 record, 2nd in Penna. Conference Championships) is basically in tact for this year's competition. Heading the varsity returnees are Rick Eckert—200 yard dash PC champion and Steve Ryznar—triple jump PC champion both in 1969 and 1970. Last year's tri-captains James Cavallero, javelin, Robert Lacock, high jumper, and sprinter Jim Davis, BSC's outstanding under-classman award winner, will provide keen leadership which is always necessary for a winning team.

Other valuable performers are Andy Kusma, who participates in the triple jump and is a team record holder in the 120 yard hurdles (2nd in PC last year); John Ficek, BSC shot put record holder; fine distance runners Terry Lee (mile), Tim Waechter (2, 3, & 6 miles); and Larry Strohl, 880 yard record holder who finished third in the PC last year.

Joining the above strong nucleus are hurdlers—Charles Graham, Andy Kropelak, and John Reeves; sprinters—John Boyer and Rick Geise; pole vaulters—Rich Brand, Randy Yocum, and Dale Muchler; discus thrower—Jor

Courter; javlin throwers—Gary Melhorn and Curt Zurn; long jumpers—Hank Plumly and Mark Constable; high jumpers—Kent Prizer and Gary Beers; distance runner—Larry Horwitz; along with Bruce Bittner, a fine quarter miler, and Bob Herb, 440 yard intermediate hurdler.

Coach Ron Puhl is extremely proud of this year's squad, all of whom display great enthusiasm and determination. Until the new athletic complex on the upper campus is completed, Bloomsburg will continue to use the facilities of the nearby Central Columbia Area High School for its home track and field events.

Coach Ronald Puhl

Ronald Puhl joined the Bloomsburg State College faculty and coaching staff in September of 1966. In addition to his teaching assignments in health and physical education, he also serves as head track coach and was named head football coach in January of this year. His track team record last season was 8-1.

A native of Pottstown, Pennsylvania, Puhl was a three letter winner in football, swimming, and field and track while at Lock Haven State College from 1957 to 1961. He began his coaching career at the Phoenixville Area Senior High School where he served as varsity track and field coach for four years, assisting wrestling coach for one year, head gymnastics coach for three years, and varsity back-field coach for several years. He was named to the N.A.I.A. "Little All-American Team" in 1960 for football and was a Pennsylvania State College Champion in the 220-yard low hurdles in 1961.

Puhl is an excellent conditioner of men and has the ability to bring out in his team members a great desire to win.

GOLF

Outlook

Losing three outstanding golfers through graduation leaves a question mark at this point as to whether the Huskies can top last year's 9-4-2- mark. However, a strong nucleus of returning veterans including seniors Ed Masich and Jeff Hock and sophomore Rick Jurbala, all of whom play their summer golf at the nearby Berwick Golf Club, plus junior Steve Neumyer, Harrisburg Area golfer, gives Coach Jack Jones a far from dim outlook for the season.

Masich, who was a varsity member two years ago but did not participate last year, is a two-time club champion at Berwick and along with Hock and Jurbala has had much tournament experience.

Two other players who performed in a fall quadrangular meet for Bloomsburg are senior Scott Hefflefinger and sophomore Tom Fudge. Other returning candidates include Bruce Leaby, Al Bigelow, Terry Maher, all of whom seem to have improved over last year.

The above group will be joined by a crop of six freshmen, Bernie McHugh, Bill Hunchar, Ernie English, Lanny Dietterick, Tom LaTourneau, Jeff Schwartz, and Keith Boyd.

If Coach Jones can get his squad in playing shape early enough, Bloomsburg should be in contention for a strong finish in the Pennsylvania Conference tournament in May. The Huskies will again use the Briar Heights Golf Course as its home course.

Coach Jack Jones

Dr. Jack A. Jones joined the faculty of Bloomsburg State College as Associate Professor of Physical Education in September, 1969. He succeeded Jerry Thomas as golf coach for the 1970 season.

A native of Fairfax, Alabama, Dr. Jones was awarded his Bachelor of Science degree from Livingston State College and his Master of Arts from the University of Alabama. He earned his Doctor of Physical Education from Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana. Dr. Jones has taught and coached football and basketball in a number of high schools in Alabama. He was also assistant football coach and head basketball coach at Livingston State College for a period of eight years. Prior to coming to Bloomsburg, he was a member of the faculty of Rhode Island University.

Dr. Jones has a keen interest in all sports and instills great enthusiasm in his golf team.

TENNIS

Outlook

With only two regular single players and one doubles regular returning from the 1970 squad, coupled with a handful of inexperienced players, the Husky racketmen will find it difficult to improve last year's 3-6 record.

Juniors Jim Brewer and Curt Hannaman, returning No. 3 and No. 5 singles performers, along with senior Charles Hess, doubles player who will probably be in the singles lineup, form the backbone of this year's squad. Other reserve players from last year's squad expected to bolster Coach Burt Reese's team will be senior Jim Fauth and juniors Barry Greb and Lee Sitler.

Vying for their share of the action will be newcomers junior Dwayne Greenly and freshmen Tom Jones, Tom Leedom, and Ken Gross.

Reese has had his squad working indoors for a number of weeks anticipating a break in the weather in order to move to the outdoor courts and conditions more conducive to the season's play.

Coach Burt Reese

Burton Reese joined the physical education staff at Bloomsburg State College in January, 1969 and since that time has served as head tennis coach and assistant basketball coach.

A native of Scranton, Pennsylvania, he earned both his Bachelor of Science and Master of Education degrees at East Stroudsburg State College. While working on his Master's degree, he coached basketball and tennis as a graduate assistant at East Stroudsburg State College. He then joined the faculty of Old Forge High School (Pa.) where he was assistant basketball and football coach. He served as athletic director at Abington Heights for three and one half years where he also coached tennis and j.v. basketball.

A former star athlete at Taylor High School and East Stroudsburg State College, Reese has remained active in amateur circles of tennis and basketball, both in which he excels.
