Junior Allen Ruffner

GOLF

1978

OUTLOOK

Although a number of veterans are returning, improvement on last season's 7-4 record will be difficult as six of the eight matches will be on the road.

Mark Pringle, Allen Ruffner, George Hamlen, and Dave Cichan are the returning players who will be counted on heavily this year, but new head coach Bob Reeder is also expecting some new faces to challenge the above for some of the starting positions.

As a basic strategy for success, Reeder is relying on substantial improvement from the returning players who seem to have a greater golfing potential than they demonstrated last season.

HEAD COACH

Robert Reeder, an associate professor in the Anthropology Department of Bloomsburg State College takes over this spring as head golf coach replacing Michael Herbert who has moved to assistant tennis coach.

Reeder's golf experience is evident from his championship flight performances at nearby Frosty Valley Country Club where he won two tournaments last year. Prior to joining Frosty Valley, he was a low handicapper as a member of the Berwick Golf Club.

Before joining the BSC faculty in 1968, Reeder spent a year teaching at Lehigh University. He previously taught at Grove City College and Western Kentucky University. He earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees at the Pennsylvania State University. In addition, Reeder has earned a Master of Arts degree in anthropology from the University of Colorado.

Reeder is a member of the American Anthropology Association and the American Sociological Association. He is married to the former Florence Wynne of Canton, Pennsylvania and has three children—Kathy, age 17, Robbie, age 15, and Laurie, age 13.
