Junior Dave Cichan-1978 Team Medalist.

GOLF

1979

OUTLOOK

All indications point to a marked improvement of the 1979 Husky golf edition over last year's 6-5 team.

Coach Bob Reeder has returning veterans junior Dave Cichan (1978 team medalist), senior Allen Ruffner (match medalist twice last year), senior James Dalton, sophomore Keith Walz and senior Kevin Smith. An especially strong rookie group includes Eric McKee, Joe Roeder, John Labosky, Dave Ogden, Mike Miller, Sam Rubbico and Kevin Lemaire.

"The veterans have been working hard on their games during the past year, and most of the newcomers have had excellent high school experience," Reeder states. "We're all anxious for a good season."

For the first time, the Huskies got an early start on the links by going south during the spring break to play at Murtle Beach, South Carolina.

HEAD COACH

Robert Reeder, an associate professor in the Anthropology Department of Bloomsburg State College, is in his second year as head golf coach.

Reeder's golf experience is evident from his championship flight performances at nearby Frosty Valley Country Club. Prior to joining Frosty Valley, he was a low handicapper as a member of the Berwick Golf Club.

Before joining the BSC faculty in 1968, Reeder spent a year teaching at Lehigh University. He previously taught at Grove City College and Western Kentucky University. He earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees at the Pennsylvania State University. In addition, Reeder has earned a Master of Arts degree in anthropology from the University of Colorado.

Reeder is a member of the American Anthropology Association and the American Sociological Association. He is married to the former Florence Wynne of Canton, Pennsylvania and has three children—Cathy, age 18, Robbie, age 17, and Laurie, age 14.
