OUTLOOK

Soccer is in its fourth year at BSC and the outlook continues to look bright as coach Lou Mingrone and his veteran squad aim for their third successive winning season.

Following an initial 4-5-1 record in 1975, the Husky booters improved to a 6-5-1 mark in 1976, and posted a solid 10-1 regular season record in 1977. "With 20 returning lettermen and some other upperclassmen who saw action, along with a number of talented freshmen candidates, I feel we'll be able to field a well skilled and accomplished team this year," Mingrone commented.

Bloomsburg won the eastern division of the Pennsylvania Conference last year and lost a 2-0 decision to Lock Haven in the play-offs. Lock Haven went on to become the National NCAA Division III champion. The Huskies also lost a 3-0 decision to Muhlenberg in the ECAC Southern Regional Tourney and ended up with a 10-3 overall mark.

Leading the returnees are: front line two-time All-American, two-time All-Conference, and team captain Jim Mailey; two-time All-Conference selectee Toby Rank; halfbacks—two-time All-Conference selectee Tim Delp, captain John Millhouse; fullback captain John Lockwood; and goalie, All-Conference selectee, captain Horst Bernhard.

Other veterans include: Sam Barone, Nick Ciliberto, Frank Ciliberto, Ken Curcio, Ken Krick, Rick Monaco, Leo Quinn, Steve Buch, Glenn Chestnut, Mark Fedele, Bob Fitzgerald, F. David Good, Robert Hanson, Jim Boyer, George Steele, Greg Malloch, Bryan Tarlecki, Cesar Marroquin.

Outstanding frosh candidates include: Scott McNulty, Wissahickon H.S.; Scott Troutman, Middleburg H.S.; Pat Elliot, North East Catholic H.S.; Lou Bucca, Livingston H.S. (NJ); Poa Kue, University City H.S.; Ken Neubeck, Hatboro-Horsham H.S.; Jeff Ehring, Central Bucks East H.S.; Dave Mullican, North Penn H.S.; Mark Rinkus, Bishop Hafey H.S.; Robert Krupka, Bethlehem Freedom H.S.; Ronald Mattern, Interboro H.S.

Mingrone will carry a squad of between 30-35 players, as he prepares for the future with this veteran studded team. He will be assisted by student coach and alumni team member Tim Knoster. Scrimmages with Lebanon Valley and a round robin scrimmage at Bucknell University Invitational will precede the season's opener against Shippensburg State College on September 16 at BSC.

HEAD COACH

Dr. Louis Mingrone, professor of biology, was instrumental in the return of soccer as a varsity sport at BSC two years ago. After a 20-year absence of the sport on campus, he initiated a club team in 1974 that posted a 2-4-1 record.

In 1975 when soccer was named BSC's 14th varsity sport, Mingrone posted a respectable 4-5-1 mark with his young squad. He improved to a 6-5-1 record in 1976. In 1977 the Huskies posted a 10-1 season becoming the Pennsylvania Conference Eastern Division Champions. BSC lost to Lock Haven, Division III National Champions in the State Conference Championship game, 2-0.

A native of Dormont, Pennsylvania, Mingrone received his degrees from Slippery Rock State College, where he lettered in soccer, Ohio University, and Washington State University.

Mingrone is very knowledgeable and accommodating in his coaching assignments. Bloomsburg is very fortunate in having an individual of his calibre behind its soccer program.
