Conneautteean Staff

THE YEARBOOK STAFF was so busy producing the 1951 Conneautteean that there was really no time to enjoy the pictures. We are now going into the gallery to examine the exhibit at our leisure.

President's Message

The appearance of the Conneauttean is one of the outstanding events of the college year. It is a cumulative record that will be regarded with pleasure in years to come. Photographs of classmates and friends bring back memories of happy association. Then the book recalls that which is intangible, - the spirit of Edinboro. It is again a real pleasure to extend greetings to all of you by this medium. Best wishes go to those who finish their college career and are ready to enter the profession of teaching and to those who will return to carry on the work of this second oldest teacher education school in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. For the second time in less than ten years the end of this year means the departure of many of our young men for a period of service for our country. To them especially we wish Godspeed and an early return as a result of the restoration of a true peace throughout the world.

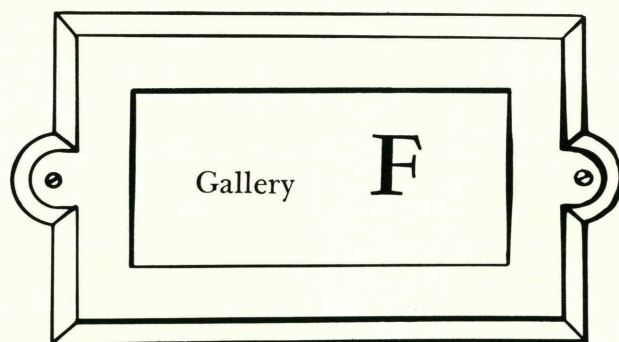

Dedication

To DR. CLAIR J. BUTTERFIELD, whose knowledge and understanding have been so great a source of help to the students of this college, this book is respectfully dedicated.

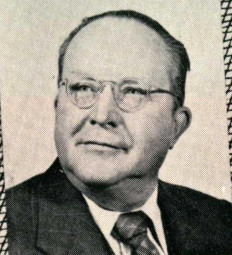

In his year's leave of absence, Dr. Butterfield has gone to South America to act as a Consultant in Education, putting his broad educational background to work for the State Department's Bureau of Inter-American Affairs.

Sophomore Class

The Harvest Ball, the biggest project of the sophomore class, had a fairy-tale atmosphere—a "Cinderella" background. A slipper was awarded to Queen Natalie Humeniuk.

The officers of the second year class were Chuck Bedogne, president; Richard Jensen, vice-president; Natalie Humeniuk, secretary; Adelaide Nowak, treasurer.

Freshman Class

The school year was begun according to tradition with freshman class elections. The results were: Mark Williams, president; Dick Graham, vice-president; Pat Recker, secretary; and Rose Trimble, treasurer. Plans were immediately begun for the Freshman float—a huge “dink” made entirely of Kleenex flowers carried on a horse-drawn wagon.

The next class project was the Sweetheart Ball commemorating Valentine’s Day. Ruling the ball were the “sweethearts,” Janet Conrad and Bob Finley, with their court of five girls and boys.

Row 4: J. Malicky, J. Faris, J. Mayer, E. Chamberlain, J. Perfilio, L. Dinkel, E. Babich, W. Sopchak, J. Kirby, B. Krieg.

This year the Newman Club was under the leadership of its president, Sam Fonzi; vice-president Adelaide Nowak; secretary, Dorothy Sullivan, and treasurer, Chuck Bedogne.

Among the activities of the Newman Club were the communion breakfasts held at the Culbertson Hills Country Club. Owing to a conflict of dates the annual club dance was limited to a record dance after one of the basketball games.

Who's Who

The students nominated to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges are seniors showing excellence in scholarship, cooperation and leadership in extra-curricular activities, citizenship and service to the school, and promise of future usefulness to society.

Y. W. C. A.

The Young Women's Christian Association is an organization established to further Christian ideals among students and to bind them close in Christian fellowship. With Miss McDonnell as faculty adviser, this group has enjoyed a varied program of activity. For the first semester the officers were as follows: president, Faith Gray; vice-president, Virginia Schumann; secretary, Marilyn Hyde; and treasurer, Evelyn White. The following members took office in the second semester: president, Marilyn Hyde; vice-president, Annabelle Ellis; secretary, Rita Bentley; and treasurer, Doris Fails.

Spectator Staff

The Spectator has worked to maintain high journalistic standards as well as to make its bi-weekly publication useful and interesting to the college. Heading the staff were co-editors Elsie Lyons and Frank Peterson. Others on the editorial board were Phyllis Davenport and Richard Swick, associate editors; Paul Nyberg, news editor; and Barbara Herold, features editor. Eugene Hardy and Alan Wolfe headed the sports staff, Ross Nelson acted as art editor, and Kent Swanson was business manager. Working with the staff as adviser was Mr. Lowder.

Student-Faculty Cooperative Government

The Student-Faculty Cooperative Government was headed this year by Frank Pinto as president; Charles Lodge as vice-president; and June Kerness as secretary. During the second semester Al Janazek was elected president.

Typical of the organization's activities were the sponsorship of a school emblem contest, the formulation of rules for future homecoming parades, and similar projects for promoting and directing student affairs.

This year the Edinboro College Band in its bright new uniforms added colorful enthusiasm to our college activities. To raise money for the uniform fund, the band put on a winter concert with music to suit all tastes. Under the direction of Dr. Neel and student director Donald Turchan the band also played at football and basketball games and assembly programs.

The wiener roast at Green Point started off the choir activities of the year in fine style. Christmas events included the Christmas Vespers Service, caroling, and an exchange visit from the Slippery Rock State Teachers College Choir. The St. Patrick's Day dance, "The Shamrock Inn," was sponsored by the choir for all the students' enjoyment. The choir also appeared in the Spring Musicale and the commencement services. Representatives of the organization attended Pennsylvania's second Inter-Collegiate Choir Festival. First semester officers were Phyllis Henrikson, president; Douglas Steven, vice-president; Phyllis Legters, secretary; Natalie Humeniuk, treasurer. Second semester officers were Phyllis Henrikson, president; Donald Edmonds, vice-president; Phyllis Legters, secretary; Natalie Humeniuk, treasurer.

Alpha Delta

The members of the Iota chapter of the Alpha Delta Sorority are chosen for character, abilities, and scholarship. The object of the sorority is to develop these traits to better adjust the girls in their social life. Miss Forness is the faculty adviser. Members among the faculty are Miss Baron, Mrs. Campbell, Miss McClintock, and Miss Odell.

Outstanding activities of the year included winning the trophy for the prize float in the Homecoming Day parade, the formal initiation dinner, and a Christmas for underprivileged children. In the spring their program was concluded with the traditional Mother's Day Tea and Alumni Breakfast.

Modern Dance

The Women's Athletic Association program provides opportunity for all women students to participate in a great variety of sports with complete development of the individual as the goal. The functions of the organization include intramural competition, Phi-Delt competition, play days, marathon races, and parties. Two new activity groups, basketball referees and modern dance, have been organized this year. The activities of the W.A.A. are planned by the Council consisting of Helene O'Day, president; Carol Sundean, Delta leader; Margaret Lay, Phi leader; Jean Miller, secretary; Marion Robertson, treasurer; Phyllis Henrikson, chief custodian; Barbara Begeny and Lucia Downing, Phi custodians; Mary Benner and Gladys Crawford, Delta custodians.

Wrestling

A highly successful season of five wins and two losses identified the Edinboro matmen as trained and able athletes. In the State Teachers College Tournament E. S. T. C. placed seven out of eight men. Lou De Rubies starred as he captured a second in the 167 pound class at this event. Ray Bronzie was high in points, in 28 out of a possible 35. Mr. Reed's wrestlers finished eighth out of a field of twenty-four colleges and universities in the '51 Tournament to terminate the season in a highly satisfactory manner.

Chuck Cross, Bob McVeigh, Lou De Rubies.

Basketball

Nine wins balanced nine losses to close the 1951 basketball season. The thrills came thick and fast as the Edinboro quintet totaled an overall mark of 1,237 points to their opponent's 1,227.

Senior Bob McVeigh was high scorer with Sleepy Richardson not far behind. Skillful Keith Nicolls and steady-playing Dick Praetzel again proved their value as superior team members. Janaszek and Park with their adept ball-handling rounded out the squad which provided a season of exciting entertainment to Edinboro's sport fans.

Football

Edinboro's rampaging Raiders showed an all-season record of three wins and four losses. Edinboro rooters were thrilled when McComb's men battled against Clarion for their first victory. The outweighed Raiders took a 39-17 beating from Slippery Rock. Bad breaks at the Indiana and Thiel games kept the scores from indicating the brand of ball E. S. T. C. was really playing. Brockport was left behind in a third quarter tieup, when a flurry of TD's accounted for a 42-14 victory. At muddy Mansfield, Dixon scored a touchdown for the Raiders in the second period and converted to make the score 7-6. The Edinboro men stopped a desperate last ditch enemy drive, and the game ended with that score. The Edinboro spectators will not soon forget the 1950 season or the hard fighting players for whom they cheered.

Soccer

"Red" Zeiler, senior center forward, starred as the soccer team displayed its fighting spirit against strong opponents.

Dependables such as Muto, Sabatini, Nicolls, and Koshute made the games a far cry from the picture the scores seem to indicate.

Thrills of the season when highly-favored Wheaton booters were held to a tie and when the Raiders dominated the play in a win over Indiana.

Swimming

The Raider Ducks swam their way to a very outstanding season of seven wins and five losses. Six college records and three pool records were broken during the season as well as three pool records at other colleges. Free-styler Chuck Cross was a favorite as he scored 95 points throughout the year.

The Edinboro swimmers proved their excellence by placing second in the Penn-Ohio meet, missing first place by one lowly point. McComb's watermen were the pride of the campus as they continually exhibited good swimming and good sportsmanship..
