THE SENIOR CLASS

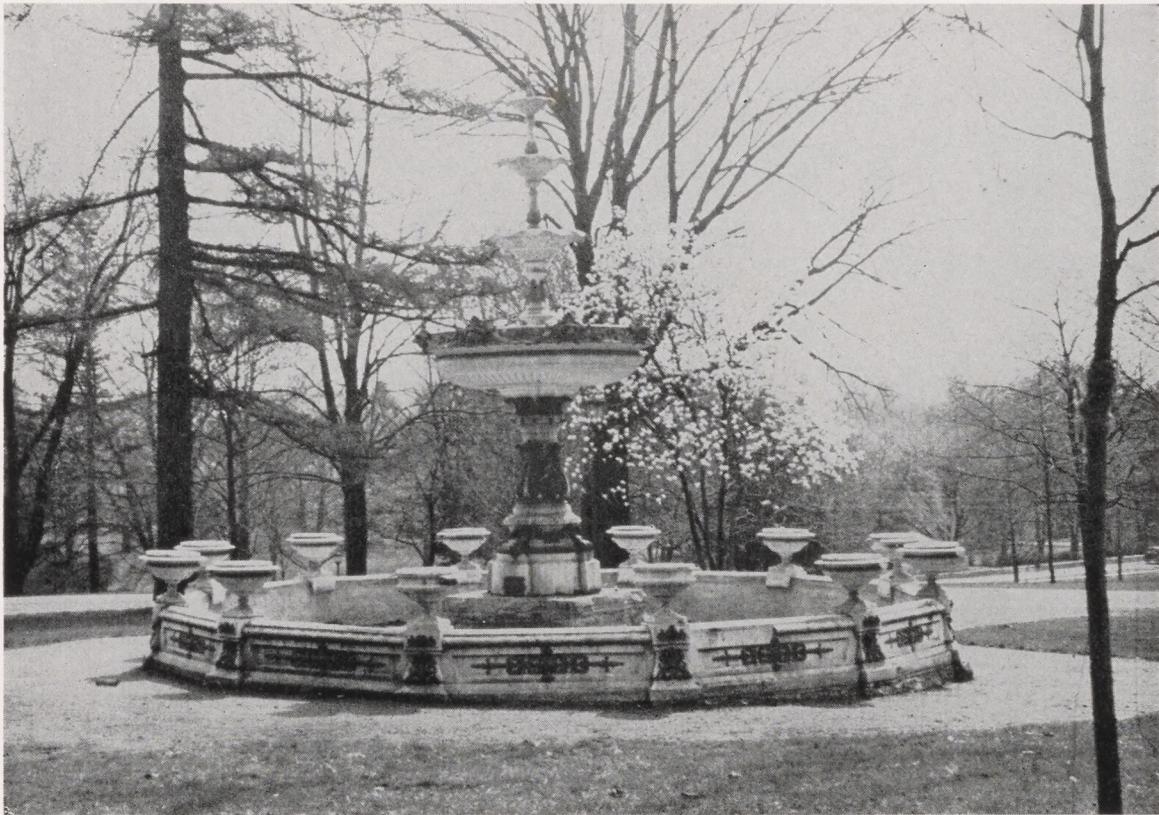

STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE

SHIPPENSBURG, PA.

CUMBERLAND

FOUNTAIN—scenic spot, especially popular during initiations

As we leave our Alma Mater, we also leave fond memories of our college days.

We, the class of 1947 have seen Shippensburg grow during these four years. Our first years were spent on a practically manless campus; the men were serving in the armed forces of our country; but our senior year, we were happy to welcome the men back to share the joys of college life with us.

Will we ever forget the excitement the freshmen caused this past fall with their overwhelming numbers; the return of football to the campus; these stimulating pep-rallies; the after-dinner dances each evening; our classes, the meetings; and most of all the friendships which we have made.

The members of the "Cumberland" staff have tried to picture all of these highlights of our campus life and all that Shippensburg has meant to us.

For His 25 Years —

OF DEVOTED SERVICE . . .

We, the members of the Senior Class, dedicate this thirtieth edition of the Cumberland to John W. Lackhove, who has brilliantly guided the financial destinies of this college for twenty-five years. He has been a loyal friend of countless undergraduates and alumni of Shippensburg, always ready to help solve difficult problems and lend a helping hand in time of need. His actions and influence have profoundly helped and will continue to mould the greater Shippensburg.

He also served his country

As a boy

President, Board of Trustees

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

To the Senior Class of 1947:

You are graduating at a time when the services of well trained teachers are in great demand. The opportunities are many and varied. It is the fond hope of the Board of Trustees that you will find your place of greatest service and having found it will give your best not only to the school in which you teach but to the community in which you live.

You will be teachers almost every waking moment of your lives. Much of your best teaching will be done outside of the classroom. You will do this teaching unconsciously. May it be constructive and helpful.

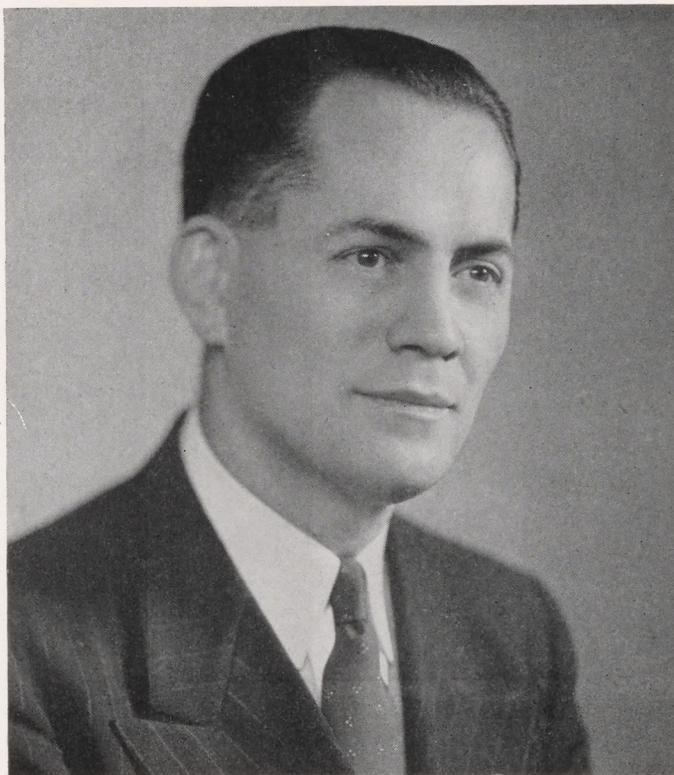

You will join the great host of alumni of Shippensburg State Teachers' College and as alumni you will have the opportunity to enrich and enhance the great traditions of the College. Shippensburg will become no greater than her alumni make her. When we help to raise the standards of our alma mater we help ourselves.

May your success be measured by the success of those whom you teach and may your joy and happiness be proportionate to the joy and happiness you bring to others.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees I congratulate you upon your graduation and wish for you the greatest satisfaction that can come from a life of unselfish service.

Very sincerely,
RAYMOND G. MOWERY

THE PRESIDENT SPEAKS . . .

"The Cumberland" has become almost an institution in the life of the College. It is now a part of the school tradition. It might be of interest to the students and the faculty to know a bit about the history of the Cumberland.

The 1947 issue of the Cumberland is the 30th issue published. The first yearbook was put out by the class of 1917. Over the years every class save one has published a yearbook.

In 1917 Dr. Ezra Lehman appointed a committee, made up of faculty members and students, for the purpose of making a study of the advisability of having a yearbook. The same committee was to suggest a name. The late Mrs. Harriet Wylie Stewart was the faculty leader and Mr. Guile Lefever, now Principal of the Gettysburg High School, was the student leader. Miss Irene Huber of Harrisburg and Mr. Hubert LeVan of Washington, D. C., were the Deans of the class of 1917 and did much work on this committee. Many names were presented. It was suggested that an Indian name be used. Conodoguinet, Conococheague, Susquehanna, Youghiogheny, were mentioned. The name finally agreed upon was "The Cumberland."

"The Cumberland" is a part of the school history. The period includes Dr. Lehman's and Dr. Rowland's administrations. Both world wars were fought during this period. Teachers have grown old during the time from 1917 to 1947. "The Cumberland" has meant much to the students and alumni of Shippensburg.

The class of 1947 is to be congratulated in putting out such a wonderful book in the face of the 1947 handicaps. I wish especially to commend the space given to our young men who served so well in the armed forces. They deserve all we can give to them.

To the members of the yearbook staff and the class deans, Miss Nora Kieffer and Mr. Harling Sponseller, I desire to express my gratitude for the publication.

Very kindly yours,
LEVI GILBERT, President

EARL WRIGHT, B.S., M.S., ScD., Ed.D.
Dean of Instruction

THE DEAN'S MESSAGE

Only those with trained minds can succeed in this complex world. All the knowledge accumulated in art, literature, philosophy, science, and society is available to the educated person of today. Adequate knowledge must be possessed by those who enter the teaching profession but an appreciation of the effect of a teacher's interest and enthusiasm on those we teach should also be constantly kept in mind by those striving for success in the teaching profession.

EARL WRIGHT
Dean of Instruction

HARLING E. SPONSELLER, B.S., A.M.
Director of Teacher Training

THE DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

I wish I were able to express to you in words the satisfaction I received as Director of Training in comparing the first few weeks of your practice teaching with the end of the semester. What a difference it made in self-confidence, in school-room management, and the manner in which you conducted the recitations. To me the progress of our student teachers is almost a miracle and it endorses fully the program of student teaching in the teachers colleges. My wish for all of you is that you will be successful in carrying the Shippensburg spirit into your class room as you become teachers in the Commonwealth. We cannot escape the solemn obligation to do our best.

Sincerely,
HARLING E. SPONSELLER

The social life of Shippensburg has been enlivened by the Juniors, who, in our association with them, have proved themselves to be one of the most active classes on the campus. Hayrides, weiner roasts, plays, dances—all have contributed to the stock of memories we share with the class of '48.

As we, the Senior Class, stand upon the threshold about to pass into the alumni world, we look to the Juniors to uphold and carry forth the traditions of Shippensburg which we have known and loved.

To the one who is so kind and wonderful to everyone
Best of luck and success

The distinction of being the first peacetime class in our college memory belongs to the Class of '49. The men they brought with them helped to swell the sadly depleted ranks of the inhabitants of the men's dormitory.

Passing quickly through that freshman haze, they took their place as active members in campus life. From their ranks have come leaders for many of our organizations; to assume their responsibilities as leaders of Shippensburg.

"Did you ever see so many new faces?" That was the general lament heard around the campus as the upperclassmen endeavored to become acquainted with the freshman class, the largest class in Shippensburg's seventy-five year history. Perhaps we have not learned to know them all, but we do know that they are a class of which Shippensburg can and will be proud.

They have made us laugh at their trials and tribulations during freshman customs; amused us with their efforts at pep rallies; and assured us that the traditions of Shippensburg which we love are passing into hands and hearts which will preserve them as we have preserved them.

PRESIDENT'S COUNCIL

Cousin,

It's so nice to talk in the books now and get a very greeting from you. Knowing you these two years has been grand. Thanks for straightening out my ancestors for me. Regards, Jeanette Kurtz

This body, under the presidency of Dr. Levi Gilbert, theoretically gives each student a voice in the government of the college. The student body is represented through presidents of classes, governing bodies, extra-curricular activities, and their Social Deans. A regular meeting is held the third Monday of each month at which time student activities are discussed and acted upon. As the executive body of the Student Cooperative Association it budgets the activity fee and allocates to each activity its share of available money. The general policy, sets, and standards of behavior are determined by the President's Council.

TRIBUNAL

The Tribal Union meets the first and third Wednesdays of each month up to Thanksgiving. This group advises freshmen on regulations and social activities and sits judgment of actions contrary to Freshman regulations.

STUDENT CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION

Mr. John Lackhove, discussing the budget with Kenneth Rineard, Jr., left, the president. Annually the association determines the amount of the activity fee for the ensuing year and approves the budget presented by the President's Council.

BOARDING WOMEN'S COUNCIL

This council, which meets twice a month under the guidance of Miss Gene Fister, the Dean of Women, and her assistant, Mrs. Mary Bloomfield, is composed of the president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer with representatives from each corridor and three representatives from the Freshman class. It is the duty of this council to assist in setting and maintaining high standards of conduct in the dormitory. Throughout the year the Council assists in entertaining faculty and student organizations.

The council, which meets twice a month under the guidance of Miss Gene Fister, the Dean of Women, and Miss Myra Esh, is composed of the president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, with representatives from each of the four classes. It is the duty of this Council to assist in setting and maintaining high standards of conduct for the day women. Throughout the year the council sponsors a Freshman picnic, a Scavenger Hunt, a Luncheon, a Christmas party, and Teas.

In the spring of 1946 the editor and business manager of this issue of the "Cumberland" were elected by the class of 1947. During the summer months plans were formulated in order to start work on the book upon returning to college in the fall. The editorial and business staffs were selected at this time. This group with the aid of Miss Nora Kieffer and Mr. Harling E. Sponseller, the Senior Class deans, and Mr. John W. Lackhove, Bursar, published this annual.

As this 30th issue of the "Cumberland" goes to press, we, the Senior Class, hope that it will serve not only as a lasting memento of college days for each of us Seniors, but, also as a permanent record of college activities for all Shippensburg students, faculty, alumni and friends.

This publication under the Advisory Board consisting of Mr. Charles F. Bellows and Mr. John W. Lackhove, brings to us fully and truthfully the news of the school in the best interest of the students, faculty, and alumni. All worthy enterprises are promoted by the Campus Reflector. A spirit of unity and cooperation among the student body is fostered by it. It provides activity for students whose interest lies in the direction of amateur journalism. For the past two years the Reflector has won a high rating in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association contest.

Dr. Earl Wright is the sponsor of this national honor society in education which holds monthly meetings. A full junior collegiate standing with high scholarship is required for membership. It is the only society of the college which has chapters of graduate membership. The purpose of the society is to encourage high professional, intellectual, and personal standards and to recognize outstanding contributions to education. Approximately one hundred fifty institutional chapters have been installed to date, some of them being located at Purdue University, Columbia University, Pennsylvania State Teachers College, and George Peabody College for Teachers.

Usually, this national honor scholastic fraternity in Business Education meets four times a year under the sponsorship of Dr. Etta Skene. National requirements for membership are ratings of 2.0 or better in Business Education and 1.5 in all other subjects. To gain membership one must express a desire and intention to teach in the field of commerce. The high ethical standards in business and professional life are encouraged by this fraternity. Another purpose is to teach the ideal of service as the basis of all worthy enterprise. A number of the fraternity's members attended the York Business Show this year.

This is a national honor fraternity, sponsored by Prof. S. S. Shearer, which meets monthly at the call of its president. To gain membership one must possess a high social spirit, a worthy character, and a noted scholastic ability. At the Founder's Day Banquet a noted educator or school man is admitted as an honorary member. An annual trip is made by members who wish to avail themselves of the opportunity to places of interest such as Niagra Falls, West Point, Detroit, Boston, and Washington. D. C. Debates, forums, and professional meetings constitute the regular meetings.

Dr. Etta Skene sponsors this club which is open to all Business Education students. Bi-monthly meetings are held plus meetings called by the executive officer. The objectives of the club are to encourage scholarship, to make contact with leaders in the field of commerce, and to sponsor social activities. One of this year's outstanding social events was in the form of a Weiner Roast, held in Shearer Grove, as a welcoming and get-acquainted meeting for the Freshman Business Education Students.

SECONDARY EDUCATION STUDENTS

All students in the secondary field of education who are interested are automatically members of the Secondary Education Club.

Under the leadership of Mr. Harling E. Sponseller and Mr. Harper J. Wentz, this organization meets at least once a month for the purpose of discussing and learning modern principles and practices of secondary education.

As a vital part of their education, the members of the secondary club visit various high schools to observe the methods of teaching used and to bring back with them an idea of materials used in their major field. Conferences with the principals and teachers of these schools in the form of follow up discussions helped the students integrate their observations into helpful material.

In addition to these trips prominent educators are asked to address the club from time to time on current educational problems.

Sponsored by Mrs. Ruth C. Harley, the Elementary Education Club is an organization of students of the Elementary Curriculum who, at their bi-weekly meetings, discuss current problems and trends in Elementary Education. It is an affiliated student branch of the State and National Education Association for Childhood Education. Visits are made to modern elementary schools such as the Oak Lane Country Day School in Philadelphia, Horace Mann-Lincoln in New York City, and the Riverside Building in Harrisburg. The stage play, "Dear Ruth", presented at the Ballet Theatre in Philadelphia last Fall was enjoyed by members of the club. Other activities include teas and social parties.

The Campus Christian Association under the leadership of Mr. S. S. Shearer is open to all men and women students of the college. Undemoninational in character this association assumes the leadership of religious activity on the Campus.

The cabinet members are responsible for numerous activities throughout the year, such as greeting the freshmen, entertaining on Parents' Day, and giving a Christmas party for the training school children.

The members of the Catholic Club under the leadership of Father Gerrity, of the Corpus Christi parish, of Chambersburg, meet twice a month to discuss the religious doctrines.

Once a month Father Gerrity comes to the school in the morning to say Mass and to distribute Communion.

The Bible Training Class under the leadership of the Rev. C. E. Manherz, pastor of the Methodist Church in Shippensburg, meets every Thursday afternoon at 4:15 in Rowland Hall.

It is the purpose of this club to help its members become better acquainted with the Bible, and to study and interpret the ideals of Christ in relation to the problems of present day life.

Under the leadership of Rabbi Phillip David Bookstaber, the members of the Jewish Club meet Tuesday evening at 6:45 to discuss world Jewish problems.

Although a new organization on the campus this year, the club cooperates in all religious activities of the college.

The Mixed Chorus is an organization of men and women who meet certain musical requirements. This chorus, under the direction of Miss Anna Smith, meets every Monday at 4:15 mainly for the enjoyment of participating in group singing. The members devote most of their time to studying some of the best choral music written for mixed groups.

The Mixed Chorus contributes to school events throughout the Year and puts on a special chapel program at Christmas.

The college band, which meets every Thursday afternoon under the direction of Mr. James C. Weaver, provides the necessary atmosphere for all the home football games. This year the band went to the Indiana and Millersville football games in chartered buses. During football season the band took an active part in "pep meetings."

Although primarily a marching and drill band the first semester, the organization takes in new members at the beginning of the second semester and becomes a grand concert band. It usually gives one concert each year.

The college orchestra under the leadership of Mr. James C. Weaver meets on Tuesdays at 4:15, or as frequently as activities necessitate.

This organization is open to all students who play a symphony orchestra instrument. Admission is by examination in the proper techniques of the instrument and the ability to read music.

The orchestra plays for special college programs, Masquers plays, Baccalaureate services, Commencement, and other special functions of the college.

A picnic in the early Spring provides the outstanding social function of the year for the orchestra members.

MASQUERS TROD

Masquers is the dramatic organization on campus, under the direction of Miss Mary E. York. Membership is limited and determined by competitive tryouts.

Short one or two-act plays, acted and directed by the students are presented at weekly meetings of the organization. The club presents two big plays a year, a Fall play and a Spring play. The Fall play for 1946 was "The Late George Apley."

The Masquers, which includes in addition to the thespians, the stage crew, make-up crew and prop girls, participate in various chapel programs throughout the year, and present plays during the holiday seasons.

In addition, the Masquers perform for May Day.

MATH CLUB

Every Monday afternoon this club meets under the sponsorship of Miss Nora Kieffer. The club is open to all students interested in mathematics. Over fifty per cent of its members are majors in mathematics. Phases of work studied by the club are the history of mathematics, the social significance of the subjects, mathematical recreations, and other activities of a mathematical nature. A visit was made to the Old Court House, in Shippensburg where many antiquated pieces of mathematics were observed.

The Round Table, under the direction of Miss Alma Winton, college librarian, meets once a month for social purposes or for book reviews.

Membership is open to any college student interested in gaining practical library experience. Each member must work at least one hour a week in the library.

In addition to the regular monthly meetings the Round Table members have a Christmas Party and a Spring Picnic.

With Miss Gertrude E. Kauffman as its sponsor, the Art Club meets every Monday evening to participate in specialized work in those fields of art which are of interest to club members.

In addition to fostering a growth of art appreciation, this club participates in many college-sponsored activities, such as decorating for college dances and entertainments, designing posters for special occasions, and decorating for May Day.

As its projects this year the members have chosen various phases of leather work, wood-work, metal work, chip-carving, oil painting, stenciling and textile painting.

VETERANS

All students who have served with the United States Armed Forces and have been Honorably Discharged belong to the organization. Once a month a representative from the Veteran's Administration meets with the group to discuss problems and answer questions concerning the rights and privileges of a veteran.

This organization has initiated a loan system for the veterans in the student body. Any veteran, who has kept up his club dues of fifty cents a semester, may apply for a loan to a student committee, consisting of Marlin Kessler, chairman, Richard Austin, Francis Brady, and Kenneth Rineard. The veteran obtaining a loan is under no obligation, other than repaying the amount borrowed, and all matters are kept confidential.

Should S. S. T. C. play night football games? Why? Why not? Should S. S. T. C. participate in swimming meets? These are the types of problems the Council discusses and solves.

With the return of the sports minded ex-G.I.'s and with this year's heavy enrollment, the Athletic Council was confronted with many new problems in their duty of regulating and determining the athletic policy of the college.

Budgeting of finances for the support of athletics is also in the hands of the Council. This year we sponsored the purchase of football uniforms and the selection of all types of athletic equipment.

Evidence proves that sports have become a major part of college life, and their importance from the standpoint of health and leisure time hobbies will continue to develop in the future.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC CABINET

W. A. A. turned hobo during the first few weeks of school, and organized a Hobo-Hike for all co-eds, as their getting-acquainted activity. Dressed appropriately in slacks and plaid shirts, the group followed a winding trail of old rags and tin cans to picnic grounds located on Mean's Homestead for a supper around the camp fire. Hm-mm, that food sure tasted extra special, didn't it girls?

The cabinet became point minded, and on the happy day of October 10, the new point system was initiated. Before the second month of college elapsed, every co-ed had her own mimeographed copy of W. A. A. point system.

The sports leaders and the assistant sport leaders with the cabinet officers compose the W. A. A. cabinet. Miss Esther Henderson and Mrs. Mary Bloomfield are the sponsors of the organization.

THE 1947 RED RAIDERS

In their post war return to the gridiron the Shippensburg Red Raiders finished an unimpressive season with a record of two victories, five defeats, and one tie. Coach Edward Gulian returned from the Navy to resume his duties as head coach, ably assisted by Vinton Rambo, also discharged from the Navy, and Dave Day, Shippensburg High School physical education instructor.

Inexperience and injuries plagued the efforts of the squad all season. There were only five lettermen of pre-war days back to bolster the large squad comprised mostly of freshmen. These five were Cyril Ramsay, Danny Galbraith, quarterback and passer; Earl Strohm, sturdy guard; Floyd Wolfgang, place kick artist; and Wally Aspinwall, reserve guard. The thirty-nine man squad that finished the season was the remnants of the hundred odd men that reported for practice the opening day.

The only time during the season that the Red Raiders were at full strength was for the season opener, played at California State Teachers' College. The services of two possible starters were lost early in the season. Vic Crump, who was versatile enough to play end or center, was forced to retire or the remainder of the season after aggravating a previously injured knee. John Trephan, husky lineman, was injured in the first week's scrimmage, and failed to see any action. After sustaining a knee injury in the Bloomsburg game Marty Hubley, stellar fullback, was forced to retire for the remainder of the season. Rip Collins, Cy Ramsey, Byron Ashburn, Francis Brady and Dick Wilkinson were other regulars who lost time because of injuries.

With only three weeks practice the Red Raiders journeyed to California State Teachers' College to tangle with the Penn State recovering a Kutztown fumble in the end zone. Hatfield converted both points after the touchdowns.

East Stroudsburg's water-logged field was the setting for the Red Warriors second defeat, with a score identical to the first defeat, 32-7. Rosko and Goefert lead the strong East Stroudsburg attack. Shippensburg scored in the second quarter on a beautifully executed pass thrown by Galbraith from the Shippensburg eleven and taken by Hatfield, after he had momentarily juggled it on the forty-five and outrun the secondary for a score. Wolfgang converted the extra digit.

In their best appearance of the season Coach Eddie Gulian's charges outplayed a favored Slippery Rock team to garner a well earned 13-6 victory. The line played superb ball and Steve Hatfield and Jack Hopper did some fancy ball carrying. Hatfield scored twice for S'burg and Wolfgang converted the extra points.

Pepping up our boys

Elusive

Warm-up

A Mothers' and Dads' Day crowd was disappointed in the next tilt of the season, as a scrappy Bloomsburg squad upset the Red Raiders 12-6. The locals couldn't seem to duplicate the smooth offensive of the previous game. A pass from Galbraith to Hatfield accounted for the S'burg score. Bloomsburg's last touchdown was gained through a blocked kick rolled into the end zone.

A bad case of "fumbleitis" plagued the Red Raiders in the tilt with the Millersville Teachers played at Columbia. Several scoring opportunities were thwarted, and several Millersville scores were set up by Shippensburg fumbles. The Red Raiders scored twice in the final quarter. A lateral from Galbraith to Keefer produced the score from 10 yards out. A 16 yard end run by Hatfield accounted for the other six points. Hatfield kicked the only extra point score.

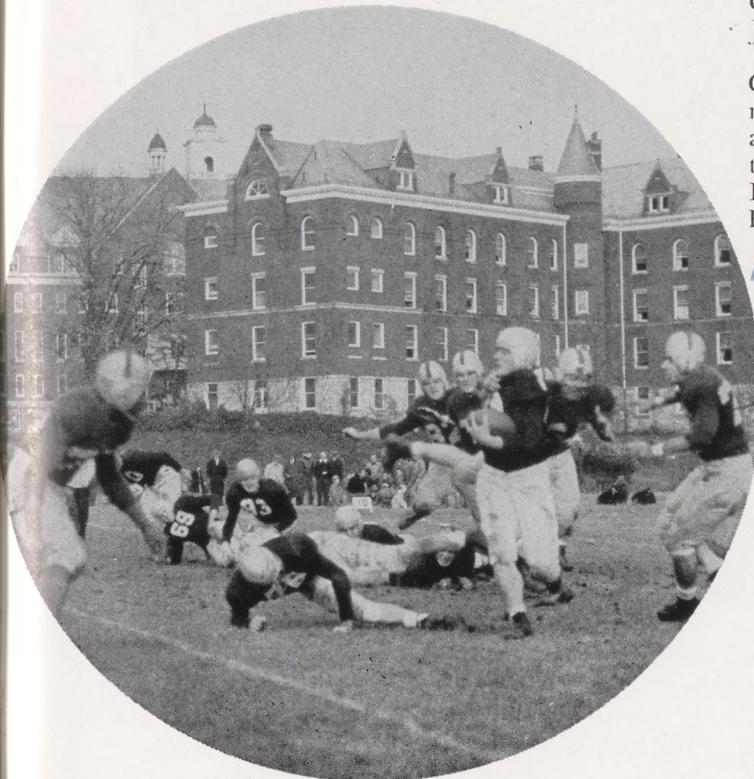

Lock Haven, traditional homecoming rival, came to Shippensburg highly favored, but ran into a stone wall in the Shippensburg line. Coach Gulian's charges jumped into an early lead, with Jack Hopper scoring after a sustained drive the length of the field. Wolfgang converted the extra point. Unable to penetrate the Red Raiders line on the ground, the Bald Eagles of Lock Haven took to the air, and after being held several times within scoring distance in the second half, finally scored on a short pass from Fuefee to Dombroski. A flat pass for the extra point which tied the ball game was successful.

The final game of the season found the Red Warriors suffering a second half relapse, and they were routed by Indiana State Teachers College. Scoring after a sustained drive on the kickoff with Hopper and Hatfield toting the pigskin, the Red Raiders served notice of an easy victory. Unable to gain against the Shippensburg line the Indians scored in the second quarter on a twenty-four yard pass from Carlson to Stroup. Both teams converted the try for extra point, and the score at half time read 7-7. The Indiana offensive exploded from the start of the second half, and the Shippensburg defense fell apart, as four touchdowns gave the Indiana team a 32-7 verdict.

The task of moulding a varsity squad was a difficult one. A hundred and three men reported for practice when the call for candidates was issued. Along with this the coaching staff had only three weeks in which to prepare for the first game. Coach Gulian used the pre-war single wing unbalanced line, and also the well known T-formation. Danny Galbraith was the man down under and did nearly all the passing. Allen, Hubley, and Hopper shared the punting chores with him.

Victory for S.S.T.C.

Seven gridders played their last game for S. S. T. C. this season. They were: Cyril Ramsey, Danny Galbraith, Wally Aspinwall, Jack Roddick, Glenn Butler, and Earl Strohm, seniors, and Floyd Wolfgang, who will be ineligible to play next season. The men who earned letters this year were: Floyd Wolfgang, Byron Ashburn, Earl Strohm, Cyril Ramsey, Dan Galbraith, Glenn Butler, Steve Hatfield, Marty Hubley, Jack Hopper, Frank Pinge, Joe Nicely, Joe Lach, Rip Collins, Vic Crump, Gene Speacht, Bob Keefer, Charlie Shields, Xavier Brady, Jack Roddick, John Allen, and Tommy Durkin.

*Best wishes and I'll see you again next year.

THE 1947 QUINTET

The Shippensburg Red Raiders basketball quintet opened the season with a new mentor at the helm. O. H. Kramer, Lt. (j.g.) in the Navy during World War II, coached basketball at Shamokin High School (1935-37) and Lansdowne High School (1937-43). He played on the Susquehanna University quintet in 1932 and 1933.

After three hectic weeks of attempting to organize a twenty-five man squad from a list of seventy-five candidates Coach Kramer finally selected the squad which represented STC on the hardwoods for the 1946-47 season. The roster included players from pre-war teams, hold overs from last season and freshman who had a good deal of high school and service experience.

Coach Kramers' task of moulding a winning combination was made more difficult by virtue of the fact that the men on the squad, for the most part, have played under different styles of basketball. There were two points which Coach strongly advocated. The first was the necessity for height on a squad; the second was his inclination to favor a sliding zone defense.

Coach Kramer announced his squad as follows: Kessler (Captain), Fralick, Galbraith, Gordon, Ping, Goodling, McClellan, Leitch, Deibler, Harris, Collins, Hubley, Book, Dodson, Filling, Rupley, Wilkinson.

Kessler, Gordon, Goodling and Harris were members of last year's squad, and Galbraith, Leitch, and Wilkinson played varsity competition here before the war.

The quintet which started the first game in which the Red Raiders defeated Carlisle Barracks 58-40 was comprised of Kessler and Fralick, forwards; Hubley and Galbraith, guards; and Collins, center.

The first game of the State Teachers College Conference was played at home, January 8, against the Bloomsburg Teachers. After a bitter struggle in which the score stood tied at 10-10 at the end of the first quarter, the lead changed hands several times before a fourth period rally enabled Bloomsburg to triumph 47-42. The same combination that started the first game started this tilt.

BEST WISHES TO
YOUR FRIEND BOB HOLTZ

For the first time in the history of the college, a men's swimming team was organized. It is under the leadership of Bob Holtz.

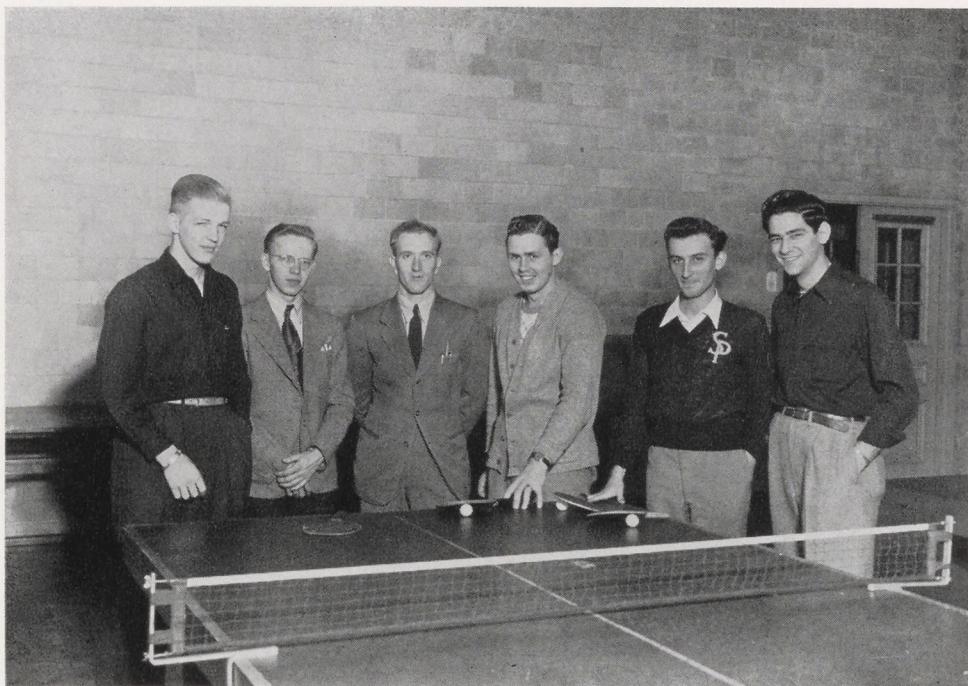

The aim of this group is to give opportunity for men interested in swimming to perfect their form and to participate in inter-mural and inter-collegiate swimming meets.

This group competed with the Dickinson, Millersville, Lock Haven, and Bloomsburg teams.

The Table Tennis Club was organized on an Inter-collegiate basis, under the leadership of Dick Lichtenberger. Matches were scheduled with Temple University, Swarthmore College, Franklin and Marshall College, and East Stroudsburg State Teachers College.

HOCKEY

Extensive autumn weather favored a long enjoyable hockey season. Every Tuesday and Thursday the hockey field was flooded with approximately 60 hockey enthusiasts. From these 60 co-eds, a squad was chosen for practice scrimmages every day.

Coached by Miss Esther Henderson, and assisted by Betty Buller and Anna Mae Lubold, W. A. A. sport leaders, a large program including inter-scholastic and intra-mural matches, was initiated.

On two occasions the upperclassmen trimmed the lower classmen by a small margin. These games were played on Saturday mornings as a feature before home football games, creating much class spirit.

Before a large crowd of Pops and Moms the team won its first inter-scholastic game of the season over Susquehanna University.

Traveling to Millersville our team was unable to overcome the hard hitting tactics of their opponents, and were defeated 5-0.

Tense moment

BASKETBALL

Wentz, guarding Erdman

Girls' basketball started with a bang this year. Soon after Thanksgiving vacation a color tournament, comprised of sixteen teams, was in full swing. Sixteen upperclassmen were chosen to captain these teams. Much team spirit, cooperation and experience were gained through this intra-mural program.

Using the old gymnasium, the basketball leaders, Elsie Erdman and Mildred Wentz, were on hand each day to offer any aid in team organization or refereeing.

The main event of the basketball program centered around a Basketball Clinic Day held on December 7th. At this time the basketball group headed by WAA members, entertained about seventy guests, including both high school and college girls, coaches, and six members of the Harrisburg Board of Women's National Officials Rating Committee.

Choosing an honor squad late in January, the team enjoyed a vigorous season of practice and intercollegiate games. The schedule of intercollegiate games followed the hockey schedule.

Over 110 girls participated in the basketball season, and it was one of the most successful of WAA sponsored sports.

SWIMMING

For the first time in the history of WAA, a swimming night was scheduled in which all WAA swimming classes were held. On Monday nights, under the supervision of Shirley Robinson and Jean Eberts, the various Red Cross courses were given.

7:00 P.M.—Beginners—Jean Eberts
7:30 P.M.—Advanced—Peggy Moyer
8:00 P.M.—Intermediate—Betty Buller
8:30 P.M.—Swimmers—Louise Bedger
8:30 P.M.—Senior Life Saving—Shirley Robinson

More than 50 girls were included in this program, taught by students certified by Red Cross as instructors.

TENNIS

Thanks to Peggy Traub and Mary Koser, the Tennis Club became one of the first active WAA organized sports of this year. During the extended mild weather this group was stimulated to enjoy the outdoors. Tournaments were posted and each girl was responsible for arranging her own time of playing.

Any girl interested in tennis, whether a beginner or advanced player was welcome to join the club. Appropriate instruction was available for all degrees of playing. The group included forty-five beginners, thirty-six intermediates, and two advanced players.

ARCHERY

Iris Seitz and Janet Pisle, WAA'S William Tells, instructed the "arrow chasing" group, which met every Monday at 4:15 P.M.

Thirty-five members were included in this group, chiefly made up of beginners. Wendell Ditmer, an experienced archer, aided the leaders in instructing the group to play the Columbian rounds.

As the archery club had been disbanded for over five years, this year marked a new era in the club's activities. The revised WAA point system provided a nucleus around which the club could work.

MODERN DANCE

To decrease bashfulness between the opposite sexes, and develop confidence in dancing, WAA, headed by the dancing leaders, Joyce Riley and June Bridge, sponsored an hour of social dancing Wednesday nights during September and October. During this time the dancing leaders, demonstrated the fundamentals of social dancing and jitterbugging.

In November the dancing club dissolved into a Modern Dance Club for girls. It met every Tuesday at 3:15. Under the supervision of Mrs. Mary Bloomfield the club was organized to develop free expression in rhythmic response to music.

Preliminary work included tumbling and rhythmic drills with the tom-tom. Each member had an opportunity to interpret musical numbers into dances and teach these to the group.

TABLE TENNIS

Becoming active in the second semester, the Table Tennis Club, led by Sylvia Clapper and Helen Smith, was organized. Its organization is similar to the Tennis Club.

Tournaments were set up by the leaders, and each girl was allowed a period of time in which to play off her match. The club met usually once a week to receive instruction in playing and to answer any questions that arose.

This club included many freshmen girls who were eager to obtain WAA points and to enjoy an indoor sport while the cold winter wind howled across the hockey field.

*Dear Mr. Clipp,
 Thanks for that everything that is all I can say Regards to
 Mr. Clipp.
 Good luck. SPRING SPORTS
 Sincerely, Jean
 "Zumbrum"
 Jean "Bertram"*

According to WAA's revision of points, Spring Sports was separated into badminton, volley ball and softball. Each separate sport had an organization of its own, run on a tournament basis.

Jean Zumbrum and Rose Lubold, Spring Sports leaders, were in charge of the volley ball tournaments; the leaders of badminton and softball were appointed by the president of WAA.

The old gymnasium was used as much as possible for volleyball and badminton.

Softball created much spirit and drew many spectators from the student body.

Beginning with the Hobo Hike, the Hiking Club, under the guidance of Margaret Jones and Ann Denkovitch, set up a tentative schedule for the year's hiking activities. In order to gain WAA points five hikes were required.

A moonlight hike was scheduled in October, but rain prevented the organization from taking the hike. Before Thanksgiving vacation a treasure-hunt was scheduled, but again rain intervened.

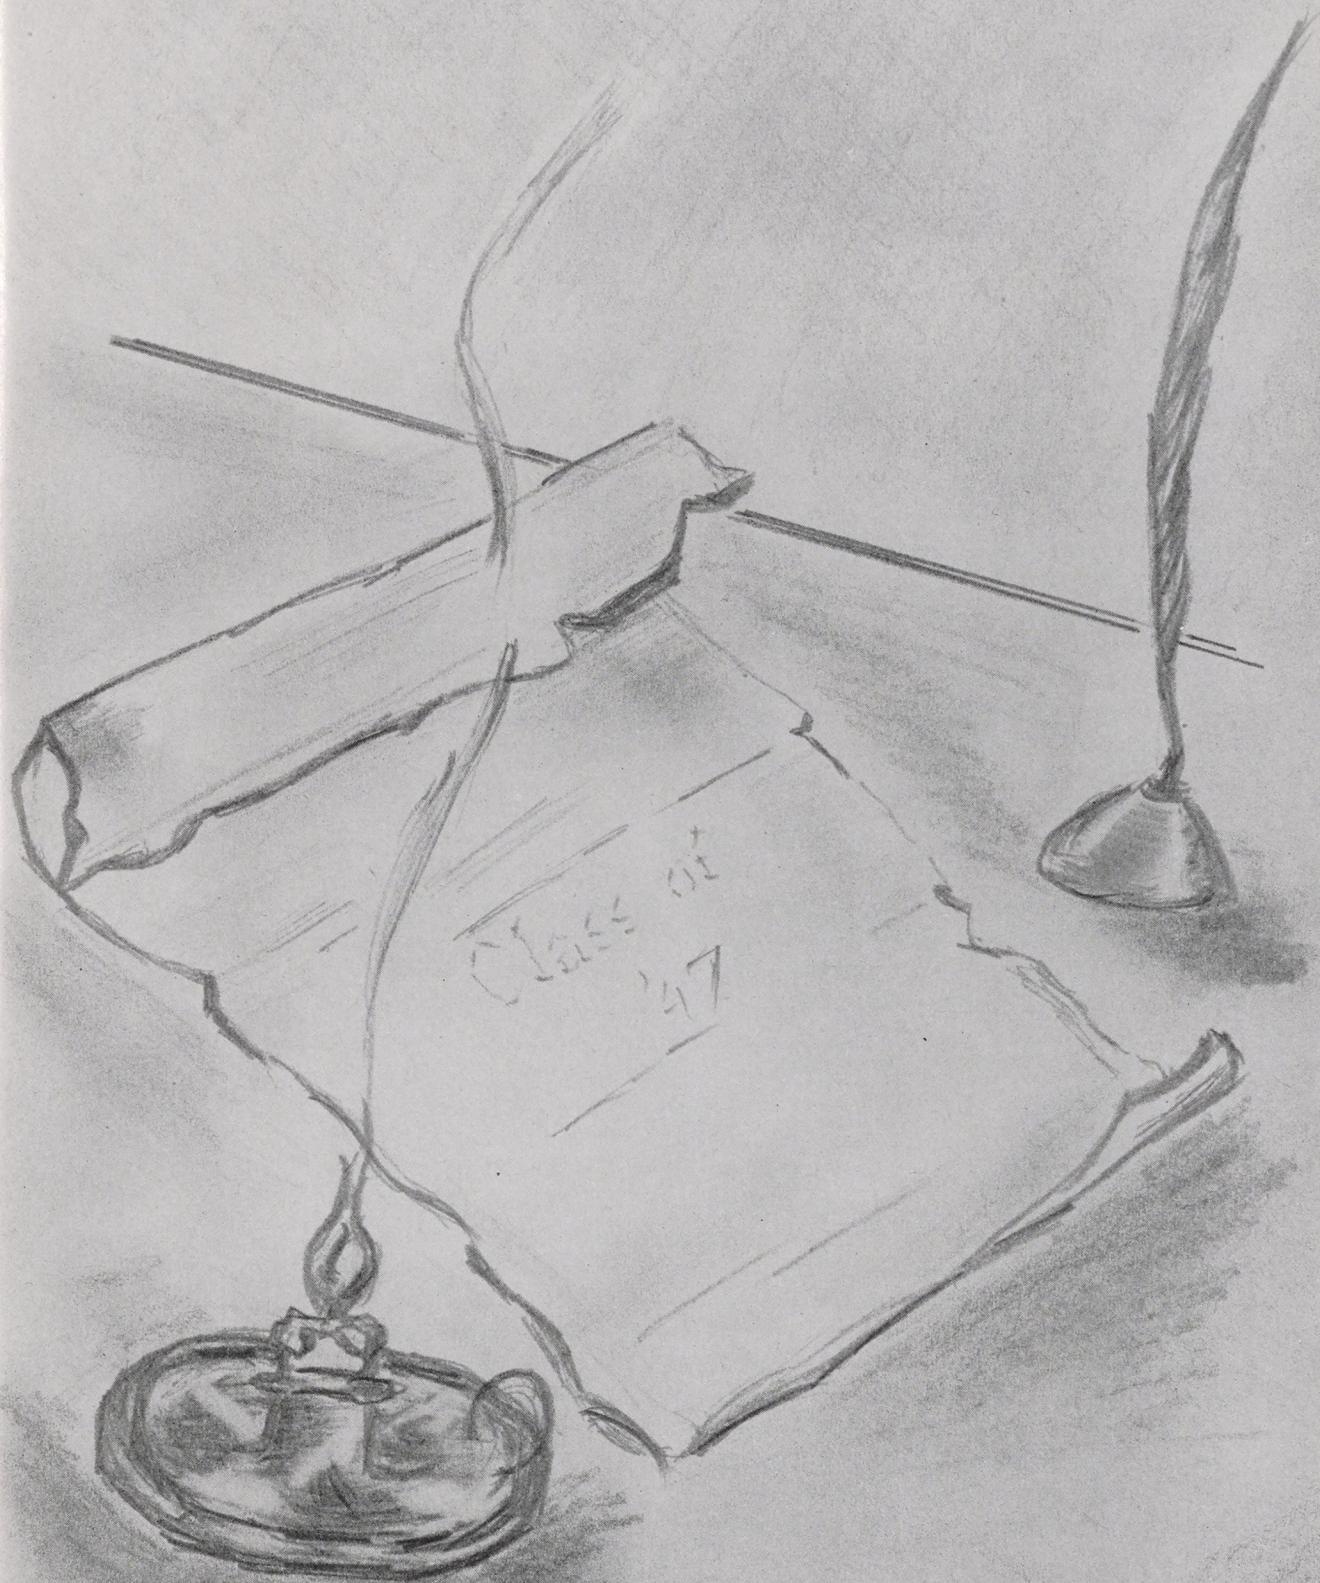

WAA voted to include men of their hikes as guests of the girls.

CLASS HISTORY

With a sinking heart and quaking knees we approached the first day of our first year at Shippensburg. Not knowing what to expect, and ready for anything, we set about the first task, that of registration, with a confident air which deceived no one but ourselves.

We were soon caught up in the whirl of parties given for freshmen during the first weeks. The memories are ones which we will always cherish, although we admit they are sometimes a bit hazy.

After that eventful week, we settled down, and began to establish ourselves in the school routine. Freshman tests; our first 8:15 class; which some of us almost missed; meeting our class deans, Miss Nora A. Kieffer and Mr. Harling E. Sponseller; joining the clubs in which we were interested, getting acquainted with the rest of the freshmen and the upper-classmen;—all these occupied our time for the next few weeks. Then we met with our class deans to elect our class officers and organize our class. Now we were settled, we had found our place and were looking forward eagerly to our years at Shippensburg.

As we began to notice our surroundings a bit more, we found that men on the campus were conspicuous by their absence; most of them having left for service in Uncle Sam's armed forces before our arrival. Though we missed them we carried on awaiting their return.

Classes, parties, bull-sessions in the dorm, Thanksgiving vacation, the Junior Prom to which we were invited, our first tree sing, Christmas vacation,—all passed more quickly than seemed possible; and before we knew it, exams had come upon us. Long did the midnight oil burn that seemingly unending week.

Exams were over at last and we began our second semester at college. Time somehow had a way of passing rapidly, for it seemed we had just started when it was time for Easter vacation. Then came May Day, exams again, commencement, when we lost some of our newly made friends, and finally summer vacation!

After summer vacation we came back ready for another year. We were Sophomores now, old hands at Shippensburg, ready to help the freshmen along the way and to renew friendships begun the year before. This year passed almost more rapidly than one could believe, highlighted by dances and even more fun and good times than we had had the year before.

Our Junior year—we were upperclassmen at last! The Junior-Senior prom which we were to give for the Senior class on December 8, 1945 was the thing that was uppermost in our minds as we returned to SSTC. We bent our best efforts toward this goal to make our prom the most successful ever held at Shippensburg. Winter Wonderland was the theme selected for the prom, and we all worked making snowflakes and snowmen to carry out this theme. The big night which we had been looking forward to all semester finally arrived; and before the evening was over we knew that our prom had been the success which we had hoped it would be.

CLASS HISTORY

We were so busy working on the prom that the first semester was over before we realized it.

The second semester found us welcoming back the veterans who were beginning to return to our campus. It was wonderful to see men walking around the campus. Once again Shippensburg began to assume the aspects of a co-educational institution.

Our Senior year found Shippensburg with a greatly increased enrollment,—returning veterans and an unusually large freshmen class accounted for this.

The return of men to our campus also meant the return of football, which had been so sorely missed during the war years. Pep meetings and football games—it was wonderful. Perhaps we Seniors appreciated these more than did the freshmen for we had been without them for a long time.

Student teaching,—those two magic words we had heard others talk about for three years was now upon us. Many of the members of our class chose to do their student teaching off the campus.

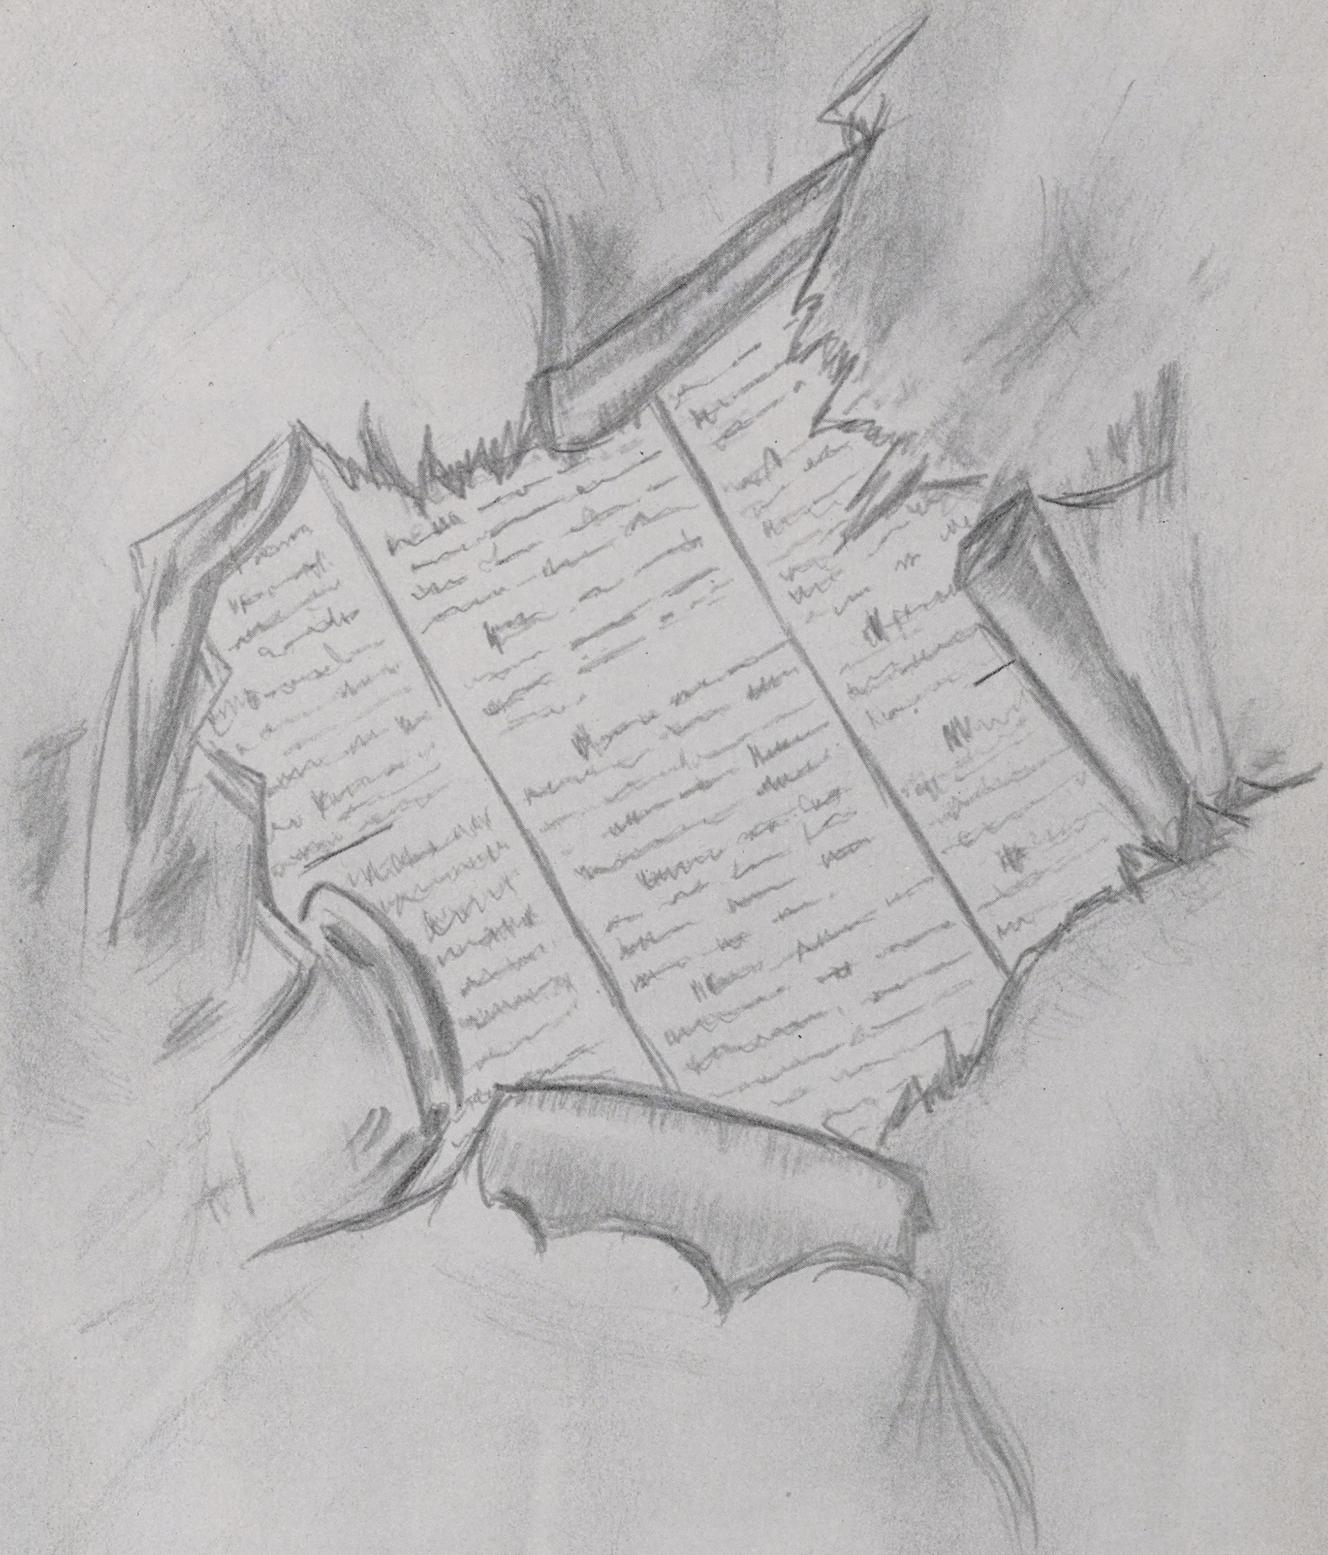

The 1947 edition of the Cumberland was our chief activity and worry this year. The editor, business manager, and their staffs worked long and untiringly to make it a success. Did they succeed? It is for you, the reader, to decide that.

Then we came to the last step of our Senior year—preparation for graduation. Choosing announcements and name cards, ordering our class rings, the Senior dinner-dance, these and many other things made us realize that our time as college students was nearly at an end. Finally, Baccalaureate services, Class Day, and Commencement—we were no longer students of Shippensburg, we were now numbered among her alumni.

In Appreciation . . .

On this, the last page of the 1947 Cumberland, we pull out of our by now cob-webbed brain the old chestnut "And last but not least" our most sincere thank you to . . .

The faculty for their understanding when classes were disrupted to take organization pictures.

Mr. Wilbur Kuhn for his fine photography work.

Mrs. Marion B. Reisner for her time in reading the copy before we sent it to the printer.

Mrs. Josephine Bohn for her able assistance in helping us type copy for the printer.

Miss Nora Kieffer, Mr. Harling E. Sponseller, our class deans, and Mr. John W. Lackhove for their advice and capable handling of financial and business matters.

Mr. John Ursprung, jr. of the Campus Publishing Company for his great assistance in helping us print this book.

The Conemaugh Engraving Company in Johnstown for their engravings.

Mrs. Commerer "Mom Clip" to us and Mr. Clippinger for their assistance in the distribution of this yearbook.

Those underclassmen who helped with identifications and who supplied information to us.

R. BRUCE CLIPPINGER
