

9/8/24

Arts and Sciences

History

Arthur Lysiak Papers, 1968-2014

Box 1:

Arthur Lysiak taught in the Department of History from 1970 to 2014. The bulk of his papers consist of notes, drafts, and reviews of his dissertation, T.H.S. Escott the Victorian Journalist. Other folders contain correspondence with the department and university. Self evaluations and department reviews span a good portion of his career. Class notes, written exams, and few final essay exams were kept from 2012-2013.

Certificate of Appreciation, 2005

Formal Complaint about Dr. Howard, 2012

Arthur Lysiak Syllabi, 201 - 2013

MIL. 1 Class Notes

History of England, Monarch Publisher

Wole's Have, Research

War Lecture Notes

MIL. II, Military History

Int. History of Europe, 1972

MIL. History I note,

42-319-21 Final Student Essays, 2013

MLT. History Fall 2013 12 pm final essay, 2013

Student Essay, Test #3, 2014

Student Essay, Final Exam, 281-01, 2012

Student Essay, Final Exam, 2013

Personal Correspondence and Newspaper Clippings, 1973-1997

History Department, 1983-2003

Correspondence, 1987-2000

Evaluation and Promotion Correspondence, 1970-1978

Evaluations of Dr. Lysiak, 1982-2008

Bloomsburg University Correspondence, 1983-1988

Correspondence with other Institutions about positions, 1970

British Museum Escott Research

B.M. Reading Room

T.H.S. and the Working Class, undergraduate essay, c.1970

Escott Article with Corrections

Indiana University Review of Escott Article, 1971

T.H.S. Escott: A Radical's View of Late Victorian Society, c.1970

T.H.S. Escott, Victorian Journalist Draft, c.1970

Dissertation Draft, not complete copy, c.1970

T.H.S. Escott Victorian Journalist Early Draft and Notes, c.1970

Escott Notes/ Drafts, c.1970

Correspondence for Escott Information, 1969

Loyal University Grad School, Fall 1968

Draft of Book Written by fellow professor, Dr. Hans Karl Gunther, 1986