Solid Gold Cadillac to be Presented November 18 and 19

Heading the list of not to-be-missed events is the performance of the "Solid Gold Cadillac" at the Price Auditorium on November 18 and 19.

Mary Clancy and Bob Schappell, in the stellar spots, head the outstanding cast selected for the performance of this uproarious comedy by George S. Kaufman and Howard Teichman. The "Cadillac" ran in New York for nearly three years and has been successful on the road and in the motion pictures. The plot is about the trials and tribulations of a "little old lady" who parlays ten shares of stock into the vice-presidency of the firm.

The "Cadillac", another College Players choice directed by Dr. Earle Winters of the speech department has been in rehearsal for several weeks. Carol Ogden is the student director.

Supporting roles for this big show of 1958 are played by Willis Kocher, Harry Price, Tom Mix, Joe Luce and Nancy Williams.

Also included in the cast are John Schroyer, Dee Ann Foreman, Sandra Woolever, Val Peterson, Bonnie Morrison, Tom Vaux, Roger Grigsby, Jack Newell, Guido Scacco, and Joe Vesnesky. Jackson Morris will play the part of the narrator.

Dallas Hunter, stage manager, and his hard-working group are busy whipping the stage settings into shape.
