

Another Indian bites the dust . . .

'Ten Little Indians' Bite the Dust

Final Performance
Forecast — Chiller

Tonight for the last time . . . an ear-shattering scream splinters the nebulous night of Indian Island. Which of Agatha Christie's TEN LITTLE INDIANS has met his horrible fate at the hands of the psychopath who prowls among them, unknown, but all-knowing, satisfying his lust for revenge? As each statuette of an Indian topples mysteriously from the mantle, another "guest" of the unknown murderer falls prey to his twisted vengeance.

Who will die? Will Anthony Marston (Larry Jones) drink a fatal draught of cyanide? Will Dr. Armstrong (Chick Hamlin) be pushed from a cliff? Could Sir Lawrence Wargrave (Rod Fowler) be found with a bullet hole right between the eyes? Will Emily Brent (Mona Mangan) suffer the modern bee sting of the fatal hypodermic needle? Will General MacKenzie (Walt Rudder) be outmaneuvered by the mad murderer and have his military medals pinned to his chest with a six-inch stiletto?

Did the butler (Bob Morgan) do it? Did he murder the playboy and then kill his wife (Vickie Steinburg)? Or was it the spinster who did away with the captain, Lombard (Jim Salmond) and Vera Claythorne (Pam Swartz) because they were immoral? Perhaps the detective (Wilbur Decker) killed the judge and the general because they knew he was acting under false pretenses. Was the doctor murdered by the boat driver (Roger Starzen) because the tip hadn't been large enough?

Maybe the murders were committed by someone not even mentioned in the cast. Maybe Dr. Handley has sworn his cast to secrecy concerning a 12th member who really is the culprit. Or . . . maybe Dr. Handley did it himself.

Don't ask who did it. All are sworn to secrecy. For the real solution to the crime, join Dr. Handley's College Players in Price Auditorium at 8:15 tonight when all the corpses will be revived to re-enact the murder mystery for those who missed last night's performance.

"Who dunnit? ? ?"

'Ten Little Indians' Provides Suspense

Players Winter Production
Promises Evening of Terror

February 20 and 21, Price Auditorium will be the scene of ear-shattering screams, surprised faintings, and terrifying murders. Dr. John G. Handley's cast will be killing and being killed, suspecting and being suspected starting at 8:15.

Larrie Jones, junior elementary major from Allentown, portrays Anthony Marston—a "gay blade" who doesn't mind admitting that the only moral and ethical principles he follows are those which suit him.

A reformed drunkard is Dr. Armstrong played by Chic Hamlin, sophomore English major from Media. He has been forced to channel his energies away from surgery because of his drinking.

Emily Brent, spinster and non-drinker, is played by Mona Mangan, freshman liberal arts major from Lock Haven, who last appeared on stage as the mother in Death of a Salesman.

Walt Rudder, sophomore English major from Philadelphia, acts as General MacKenzie who is a stickler for discipline. He appeared in The Monkey's Paw last semester.

Rod Fowler, junior elementary major from Lock Haven, who was Happy in Death of a Salesman changes character to interpret Sir Lawrence Wargrave—a retired judge.

The houseman/butler, Rogers, is played by Bob Morgan, junior English major from Williamsport. He recently appeared in Nude Washing Dishes.

Vickie Steinberg, junior English major from Wilkes-Barre, will play Rogers' wife, the housekeeper. Mrs. Rogers is the typical nervous complaining nag.

Jim Salmond, junior social science major from Altoona, who had a major role in The Game of Chess which was recently presented at Loyalsock High School, portrays Captain Philip Lombard.

Vera Claythorne, the mysterious Mrs. Owens' social secretary, is played by Pam Swartz who directed The Pot Boilers last semester.

LOCK HAVEN STATE COLLEGE PLAYERS

present

AGATHA CHRISTIE'S Mystery-Drama

"TEN LITTLE INDIANS"

THURSDAY & FRIDAY

FEB. 20, 21

8:15 P.M.

THE CAST

WILBUR DECKER (Blore) is a sophomore English major from Altoona. He played Signor Sirelli in Pirandello's RIGHT YOU ARE and had leading roles in A NIGHT AT THE INN and THE POTBOILERS.

ROD FOWLER (Wargrave) appeared as Happy in DEATH OF A SALESMAN, and had the lead in MR. DEATH AND THE RED-HEADED WOMAN and played Constantine in A GAME OF CHESS. Rod is a junior elementary major and Editor of THE EAGLE EYE.

HARRISON HAMLIN (Armstrong) is a sophomore English major. President of College Players, Chic won the Drama Workshop "Best Actor" award for 1963. He has acted in DEATH OF A SALESMAN, RIGHT YOU ARE, ANTIGONE, ARIA da CAPO and THE MONKEY'S PAW. He directed A NIGHT AT THE INN.

LARRIE JONES (Marston) is a junior majoring in elementary education. He has acted in ARIA da CAPO, THE POT BOILERS, and THE MONKEY'S PAW.

MONA MANGAN (Emily) is remembered for her performance as Linda in DEATH OF A SALESMAN. Mona is a Liberal Arts-Humanities freshman major.

ROBERT MORGAN (Rogers), a junior English major, has appeared in NUDE WASHING DISHES and WAYS AND MEANS. He directed HALF AN HOUR.

WALTER RUDDER (Mackenzie) appeared as Mr. White in THE MONKEY'S PAW. He is a sophomore majoring in Social Science. JIM SALMOND (Lombard) is a junior Social Science major. Jim has acted in THE BROWNING VERSION, A GAME OF CHESS, and A NIGHT AT THE INN.

ROGER STARZAN (Narracott) appeared in THE BROWNING VERSION. He is a sophomore in secondary Social Science.

VICKI STEINBERG* (Mrs. Rogers), a junior English major, won the "Most Valuable College Player" award for 1962-63. She has acted in LOOK HOMEWARD, ANGEL, RIGHT YOU ARE and THE POT BOILERS. Vicki adapted and directed MR. DEATH AND THE RED HEADED WOMAN and directed SQUIRREL.

PAM SWARTZ* (Vera), a junior English major from Hanover, Pa., directed RIDERS TO THE SEA and THE POT BOILER. She has acted in SABRINA FAIR, WAYS AND MEANS and NUDE WASHING DISHES.

LOCK HAVEN STATE COLLEGE PLAYERS
present
AGATHA CHRISTIE'S Mystery-Drama
"TEN LITTLE INDIANS"
THURSDAY & FRIDAY
FEB. 20, 21
8:15 P.M.

Lock Haven State College Players

present

Ten Little Indians

by

Agatha Christie

Thursday, Friday, February 20, 21, 1964

8:15 P. M.

Price Auditorium

ROGERS	Robert L. Morgan
MRS. ROGERS	Vicki Steinberg*
FRED NARRACOTT	Roger Starzan
VERA CLAYTHORNE	Pam Swartz*
PHILIP LOMBARD	Jim Salmond
ANTHONY MARSTON	Larrie Jones
WILLIAM BLORE	Wilbur Decker
GENERAL MACKENZIE	Walter Rudder
EMILY BRENT	Mona Mangan
SIR LAWRENCE WARGRAVE	Rod Fowler
DR. ARMSTRONG	Harrison Hamlin

SCENE

The scene of the play is in the living room of a house on Indian Island, off the coast of Devon, England.

ACT I

A summer evening in August.

ACT II

Scene I—The following morning.
Scene II—The same day, afternoon.

ACT III

Scene I—The same day, evening.
Scene II—The following afternoon.

PRODUCTION STAFF

Director	Jack Handley*
Costumes	Claudia Wasko*
Lighting	John Crowley*, Charles Gummo*

CREWS

Wardrobe	Karen McMichael*, Melanie Thomas
Scenery	Vicki Andrus, Adrienne Aumiller*, Carol Billhartz*, Wilbur Decker, Karen Dodson, Douglas Dow, Merle Fegley, Harrison Hamlin, Frederick Hammer, Jr*, Sarah Iddings, Gail Koch, Walter Lebda, Mona Mangan, Karen McMichael*, George Mills, Robert Morgan, Gail Rainey, Walter Rudder, Monte Shepler, Vicki Steinberg, Linda Swelgin, Melanie Thomas, Carol Tarasi, Thomas Vaughn, Claudia Wasko*, Charles Webb, Martha Wentz, Joy Witherspoon

Program Cover	Dorothy Angele
Sound	Melanie Thomas
Make-Up	Maria Duval, Juddy Fogg, Karen McMichael*, Melanie Thomas, Claudia Wasko*
Stage Manager	Bill Parks*
Publicity	Allegro Chiesa, Chris Dwyer, Rod Fowler, Karen McMichael*, Melanie Thomas, Vicki Steinberg*
Properties	Gail Koch, Karen McMichael*, Janice Siciliano, Vicki Steinberg*, Claudia Wasko*
Ushers	Kappa Delta Rho Fraternity

One-Act Play Drama Workshops are scheduled in Price Auditorium at 7:30 p. m. on March. 11, April 3, 24, and May 8.

A THURBER CARNIVAL will be presented as our next major production April 9, 10, 8:15 p. m., sponsored by Alpha Psi Omega.

The College Players welcome any donation of furniture, costumes and properties of any type or period. Phone 748-4425 and a member will go by to collect the gift.

We wish to thank THE EAGLE EYE, Lock Haven EXPRESS, WBPZ.

TEN LITTLE INDIANS was produced by a special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc.

* Denotes membership in Alpha Psi Omega, honorary dramatic fraternity.

Another Indian bites the dust . . .

'Ten Little Indians' Bite the Dust

Final Performance
Forecast — Chiller

Tonight for the last time . . . an ear-shattering scream splinters the nebulous night of Indian Island. Which of Agatha Christie's TEN LITTLE INDIANS has met his horrible fate at the hands of the psychopath who prowls among them, unknown, but all-knowing, satisfying his lust for revenge? As each statuette of an Indian topples mysteriously from the mantle, another "guest" of the unknown murderer falls prey to his twisted vengeance.

Who will die? Will Anthony Marston (Larry Jones) drink a fatal draught of cyanide? Will Dr. Armstrong (Chick Hamlin) be pushed from a cliff? Could Sir Lawrence Wargrave (Rod Fowler) be found with a bullet hole right between the eyes? Will Emily Brent (Mona Mangan) suffer the modern bee sting of the fatal hypodermic needle? Will General MacKenzie (Walt Rudder) be outmaneuvered by the mad murderer and have his military medals pinned to his chest with a six-inch stiletto?

Did the butler (Bob Morgan) do it? Did he murder the playboy and then kill his wife (Vickie Steinburg)? Or was it the spinster who did away with the captain, Lombard (Jim Salmond) and Vera Claythorne (Pam Swartz) because they were immoral? Perhaps the detective (Wilbur Decker) killed the judge and the general because they knew he was acting under false pretenses. Was the doctor murdered by the boat driver (Roger Starzen) because the tip hadn't been large enough?

Maybe the murders were committed by someone not even mentioned in the cast. Maybe Dr. Handley has sworn his cast to secrecy concerning a 12th member who really is the culprit. Or . . . maybe Dr. Handley did it himself.

Don't ask who did it. All are sworn to secrecy. For the real solution to the crime, join Dr. Handley's College Players in Price Auditorium at 8:15 tonight when all the corpses will be revived to re-enact the murder mystery for those who missed last night's performance.

"Who dunnit? ? ?"

'Ten Little Indians' Provides Suspense

Players Winter Production
Promises Evening of Terror

February 20 and 21, Price Auditorium will be the scene of ear-shattering screams, surprised faintings, and terrifying murders. Dr. John G. Handley's cast will be killing and being killed, suspecting and being suspected starting at 8:15.

Larrie Jones, junior elementary major from Allentown, portrays Anthony Marston—a "gay blade" who doesn't mind admitting that the only moral and ethical principles he follows are those which suit him.

A reformed drunkard is Dr. Armstrong played by Chic Hamlin, sophomore English major from Media. He has been forced to channel his energies away from surgery because of his drinking.

Emily Brent, spinster and non-drinker, is played by Mona Mangan, freshman liberal arts major from Lock Haven, who last appeared on stage as the mother in Death of a Salesman.

Walt Rudder, sophomore English major from Philadelphia, acts as General MacKenzie who is a stickler for discipline. He appeared in The Monkey's Paw last semester.

Rod Fowler, junior elementary major from Lock Haven, who was Happy in Death of a Salesman changes character to interpret Sir Lawrence Wargrave—a retired judge.

The houseman/butler, Rogers, is played by Bob Morgan, junior English major from Williamsport. He recently appeared in Nude Washing Dishes.

Vickie Steinburg, junior English major from Wilkes-Barre, will play Rogers' wife, the housekeeper. Mrs. Rogers is the typical nervous complaining nag.

Jim Salmond, junior social science major from Altoona, who had a major role in The Game of Chess which was recently presented at Loyalsock High School, portrays Captain Philip Lombard.

Vera Claythorne, the mysterious Mrs. Owens' . . .

