

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Lanford Wilson was born in Lebanon, Missouri. He began writing plays while attending the University of Chicago.

HOME FREE, his first off-Broadway production, was presented at Cherry Lane Theatre. It was followed by THIS IS THE RILL SPEAKING.

THE RIMERS OF ELDRITCH was presented by Theatre 1967 by Edward Albee at Cherry Lane Theatre. This brought Mr. Wilson the Drama Berk-Vernon Rice Award for the outstanding contribution to the off-Broadway season.

Mr. Wilson will be the playwright-in-residence for the 1967-68 school year at the Yale University School of Drama.

CAST

(in order of appearance)

JUDGE	John McGowan
WILMA	Jane Nelson
MARTHA	Jackie Enlow*
NELLY	Jane Bergstresser
MARY	Cheryl Van Haelst
ROBERT	Fred Brown
TRUCKER	Jim Hennessey
CORA	Shari Undercofler
WALTER	Tom Brown
EVA	Becky Pierotti
JOSH	Bob Mencer
SKELLY	Joe Neirle
PECK	Paul Preto
EVELYN	Laurel Honey
MAVIS	Jan Pearson
LENA	Ann Passuello
PATSY	Betty Lou Hadley

TIME: Present

PLACE: Small Midwestern Town

One Ten Minute Intermission

PRODUCTION STAFF

STAGE MANAGERSandy Burns

ASSISTANT STAGE MANAGERSandy Barber

HOUSE MANAGERElaine Houser*

PUBLICITYJackie Enlow*

BOX OFFICESherry Simmen

HEAD ELECTRICIANSSteve Tweed, Mary Logan

COSTUMES AND MAKE-UP

Joyce Miller

Shari Undercofler

Prudy Kio

Judy Romeo

Joe Breindel

CONSTRUCTION CREW

Cheryl Bates

Paul Preto

Cherilyn Holder

Ron Smith

Eileen Lagosky

Michele Taddeo

Ann Passuello

Cheryl Van Haelst

LIGHTING

Joe Breindel

Frank Haffley

Jane Plummer

Gail Hartsock

Carol Gudson

Jan Nader

Steve Waltz

* Members of Alpha Psi Omega

National Honorary Dramatic Fraternity

(No photos allowed during performance)

1965

THE COLLEGE PLAYERS

Present

The Rimers of Eldritch

By

LANFORD WILSON

Directed By

ROBERT A. McCORMICK

Setting

By

NATHAN GARNER

Lighting

By

MARY ANN TENNIS

Costuming

By

VICKI GODBEY