'WE HAVE OUR WILLS' AT COLLEGE TONIGHT

A dramatic plea for peace, "We Have Our Wills," a tragedy in two acts, will be given this evening at 8 o'clock at the Teachers College auditorium as the first major production of the college Dramatics Club this year. Miss C. Cordelia Brong, head of the dramatics department, will direct the play.

"We Have Our Wills" is an original play, written by Ray Kniss of this city and Joseph Ponuchalek of Altoona, students at the college.
 The co-authors will appear in leading roles in the drama.

The presentation of the peace play is part of the college's par-

 Campaign in which Y. W. C. A. active. Announcement of the play was made by some of the women students last Sunday evening in several of the local churches.

"...The world learns slowly but it learns finally.
 One of us must go back with the news and tell them that only their wills will save them from future war and disaster. Each man by himself must fight against the ignorance and selfishness of his leaders; but he must know that every other man is shoulder to shoulder with him."
