SC Giving 'You Can't Take It With You'

LOCK HAVEN — Three area residents have been cast in the first two of the College Players productions of the 1975-76 season at the Lock Haven State College where Bicentennial Year will be observed with the theme, "Great American Dramatists."

The first production, "You Can't Take It With You," by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman, will run the first three evenings of the Lock Haven State College Homecoming Weekend, Oct. 16 through 19.

The zany Broadway comedy evolves around the slightly irregular activities of the Vanderhof family whose members indulge in everything from catering to Russian exiled royalty, to the operation of a fireworks factory in the basement of their home.

Rick Kline and Richard Mercury, both of Jersey Shore will appear in "You Can't Take It With You," the former as Grampa Vanderhof, and Mercury, in a supporting role.

"Bus Stop" is to be the second of the college dramas, to be presented Thursday through Saturday, Nov. 20-22.

This play by William Inge is set at a street corner restaurant in a small Kansas town, and deals with the conflict of the passengers of a snow bound bus.

The role of Virgil Blessing in "Bus Stop" will be played by Benny Shoemaker of Lock Haven R.D.

A COLLEGE PLAYERS PRODUCTION

Casts chosen for Players' first two shows of season

This week the College Players of Lock Haven State College announced casting for the first two shows of their 1975-76 season. Auditions for "You Can't Take It With You" and "Bus Stop" were held Thursday and Friday in the John Sloan Fine Arts Center's Theatre Upstairs and Main Stage.

The first production, "You Can't Take It With You" by Moss Hart and George S. Kauffman, is scheduled to run the first three evenings of LHSC's four day Homecoming Weekend October 16-19. The zany Broadway comedy evolves around the "slightly" irregular activities of the Vanderhof family who indulge in everything from catering to Russian royalty to the operation of a fireworks factory in their basement.

Those who were cast this week in the roles of residents of the Vanderhof household (Though not necessarily Vanderhofs) were Sharon Van Treck, Lorna Armstrong, Shiela Walker, George Lloyd, John St. John, Larry Harris, and Rich Kline. The often confused but always surprised visitors who enter the midsts of the clan will be played by Monty cousins, Dick Durburow, Dave Arnaldin, Cathie Keenan, Chris Flynn, Gail Hoffman, Dick Mecury, Dave Ritter, George Strunk, and Cathy Caper.

The show is under the direction of Dr. Denys Gary. "Theatre goers will see many new faces in 'You Can't Take It With You'. The cast ranges in experience from vetrans of our College Players and high school stages to those who have never acted before. Although I enjoy working with experienced actors I find it rewarding to work with people who are on stage for the first time," said Gary. Before coming to Lock Haven, Dr. Gary directed large musical production in Louisiana for many years where he started a large number of students in theatre work.

The second production is slated for preregistration weedeend, November 20-22, and is entitled "Bus Stop" by William Inge. The production is under the direction of Ken Showman, a senior theatre major. The play is set at a street corner restaurant in a small town west of Kansas City and deals with the conflict of the passengers of a snow-bound bus. The production's players are mostly experienced and established names of the College Players stage. They include Linda Orris, Linda Bailey, George Strunk, Cheryl Simpless, Howie Frieberg, George Lloyd, Benny Shoemaker, and George Frey.

These two shows are the first half of the College Players year long celebration of great American Dramatists.
