Dear Shakespeare,
On behalf of the residents of Asque-Vue Home, I would like to thank you for sharing some holiday spirit with us.
We enjoyed your caroling
so much.

Best wishes for 1990. Please keep us in mind for any type of entertainment you may have to offer. We would love to have you.

Sincerely,
John Marcinkewicz

THE LOCK HAVEN UNIVERSITY

1989 ARTS REUNION

JUST A REMINDER TO THE FINE ARTS
FACULTY AND STAFF:

March 5th is the last day to make your reservations for the reunion. It is important for us and the campus perception of the Arts that we all show support for this event. As a group, we have not had the opportunity to get together, see ourselves as a unit, for others to recognize us as an interconnected positive force, standing for something important.
We have an opportunity to come together and see what we look like, all together in one place. 100% attendance at the reunion is not a goal, it is a commitment to your future as faculty members here at Lock Haven University.

Thank you.

Children's program Saturday

The free children's program "Trunk Toten Tails" will be presented Saturday at 10 a.m. in the Ross Library Community Room. All children ages five to 12 are invited to see tales like "The Worst Little Monster," and "Why Mosquitoes Buzz in People's Ears." Directed by John Gordon, seen at right in the suspenders, the Lock Haven University children's theater class rehearses for the show. Members are, from left, in front: Melissa Quick, Jackie Branz, Stephanie Fehr, Karen Keon, Lisa Colabrese of Lock Haven, Julie Opal of Lock Haven, Diana Metz in front, Doreen Gorbsky, and Kim Snyder in front; in the second row: Jamie Craft of Beech Creek, Debi Madrack, Camille Crane, Tammy Werkheiser and Stephen Middleton standing on a box, Shannon Green of Jersey Shore, Shannon Pringle, Kathy Schenck of Salona and Gordon; and in back: Megan Schaub, Michele Grove, Norum Stay, Scott Rossman, Annette Burkhart and Scott Hall standing on a ladder, Chris McCracken of Jersey Shore and Dusty Graves. DON'T FORGET

To bring in a baby picture of yourself from the age of newborn to five. Put your name and age on a 3x5 card in and envelope with picture and put on Callboard for me.

NEW IDEAS

Another new idea I have is to start a buddy system. This system would mean that all the new incoming Theatre Majors would receive a Theatre Buddy who would be there for any questions or help around campus, and after auditions anyone who wasn't a Theatre Major but a interested Theatre person would receive a Theatre Buddy also. I think this will help build relations between new and old Theatre family. Think about it and we will talk about it on Sept. 6 at our first General Meeting.

I hope to see you all soon with tons of energy for the upcoming year.

Hello University Player:

Well, Well, Well, Summer is over! I hope you all had enjoyable summers. Memories or nightmares to keep forever! I am getting ready to leave Michigan and head on back to PA and I wanted to give you some important dates, some reminders and just some good old mail.

First off here is a Calendar of Events

- On Sept. 6 there is a Theatre Workshop, TH 121, meeting at 7:00 p.m.
- Sept. 6 at tentatively 4:00 p.m. in 321 is the first board meeting.
- On SEPT. 10 is the first general meeting at 6:00 p.m. - this is a Sunday night. The meeting is tentatively scheduled for 321 Sloan, if that changes it will be posted on the 321 door.
- On Sept. 11 - 13 in Sloan Theatre there will be auditions for "By The Skin of Our Teeth" - I hope to see all of you there!
- On Sept. 18 and 19 there are studio #1 auditions for The One Acts.
- On Sept. 20 and 21 Alpha Psi Omega will be holding auditions for "Freshman Follies"
- On Sept. 29 "Freshman Follies" will take place in 321 Sloan at 7:30 p.m.
- On Sept. 29 the proposals for Studio #2 which opens Dec. 7 will be due to John Gordon.

To earn a minor in Fine Arts-Theatre, you will have to take 18 credit hours from the following courses:

A CORE OF 9 SEMESTER HOURS FROM THE FOLLOWING:

TH150 Introduction to Theatre	3 s.h.
TH370 Play Production	3 s.h.
[TH117 Technical Theatre]	3 s.h.
[or] [TH134 Acting]

ELECTIVES: 9 SEMESTER HOURS*

- TH137 Creative Dramatics
- TH188 Stage Make-up
- TH222 Children's Theatre
- TH236 Reader's Theatre
- TH300 Stage Lighting
- TH315 Intermediate Acting

ANNOUNCING...
A NEW MINOR

A COLLEGE MINOR WITH
"MAJOR CONSEQUENCES"

"...so I was interviewing this new college grad for our management program and he's telling me-- get this-- "all the things he has done".

- Worked in product development;
- Worked as a creative consultant;
- Researched and developed public projects;
- Worked in fund-raising;
- Put together a concept team for problem solving;
- Worked on a public education project;
- Set many self-development goals and met them on time!
- Developed cross-cultural awareness;
- Developed a heightened sense of self worth;
- Learned to meet all deadlines through persistence, dedication and hard work.

So I said to this kid, "How in the hell did you do all that with YOUR major?" And he says to me, "I did it with my minor--a minor in theatre."

The University Players say

"welcome." We are the student organization on campus which produces plays for you, your fellow students, the faculty and the community surrounding us. We would like your support whether through personal involvement in our theatrical presentations, or your regular attendance at our performances. We feel we select plays that have you and your college experience in mind.

To give you an idea of the range and scope of productions we do, here is a brief listing of plays we produced recently:

Shakespeare's classic comedy, THE TAMING OF THE SHREW, opened our mainstage season. The energetic cast of 30 people, six chickens, three goats, and two dogs, gave new meaning to the phrase, "never a dull moment." The studio theatre was brought to life by student directed productions of WHEN SHAKESPEARE'S LADIES MET and the U.S. premier of THE BREAKFAST TABLE. Our Spring studio production of TALKING WITH was quickly followed by our mainstage production of the award winning play, GETTING OUT. We closed out the year with excellent student productions of THE SANDBOX and FUMED OAK.

Our 1989-90 season opens with the slightly insane comedy/drama, THE SKIN OF OUR TEETH. The Spring production of THE MURDER ROOM will make you laugh at death and titter at calamity. Our studio theatre will host a record breaking four productions. It is going to be a very busy year.

We work hard at what we do for our audiences. We need your help to get the job done. We have maintained a high quality of performance by continuously involving new people and new ideas. We offer you an opportunity to contribute and to grow with us as a person in mind and spirit. Connect with the doing part of your college life both on stage and back stage.

We want to meet you September 7th, at 7:00 p.m., in Sloan Fine Arts Center, The Countdown Theatre, Room 321. The reception will be attended by the Speech and Theatre faculty and the University Players members.

We'll be expecting you.

When, in disgrace with fortune and mens eyes,
I all alone beweepe my outcast state,
And trouble deaf heaven with my bootless cries,
And look upon myself, and curse my fate,
Wishing me like to one more rich in hope,
Featured like him, like him with friends possess'd,
Desiring this man's art and that man's scope,
With what I most enjoy contented least;
Yet in these thoughts myself almost despising,
Haply I think on thee, and then my state,
Like to the lark at break of day arising,
From sullen earth, sings hymns at heaven's gate;
For thy sweet love remember'd such wealth brings,
That then I scorn to change my state with kings.

Attention All Students Interested In Theatre!
Auditions for "The Skin Of Our Teeth" will be held Monday, September 11 - Wednesday, September 13 at 7:00pm in the Sloan Theatre. The scripts are on reserve in the Stevenson Library. Come one come all! Don't be shy!

Attention Cast of "The Skin of Our Teeth"

Congratulations and good luck for the upcoming fall production! All those who auditioned did a wonderful job!

auditions, explained Director John B. Gordon, will be playing more than one role necessitating some "quick change artistry."

The Thornton Wilder play will be performed in Sloan Theatre November 16, 17 and 18.

"Wilder's comic treatment of the history of humankind as they escape the ice age, the great flood of Noah's ark fame and the ravages of many wars presents, a real challenge to the newly announced cast.

The students cast are as follows:

- George Tobler
- Shelly Callahan
- Matt Lovlie
- Lory Fedor
- Debbie Markowitz
- Robin Strouse
- Joe Garrison
- Angelina Cantalina
- Steve Middleton

University Players to start on production of "The Skin of Our Teeth"

The cast list posted on the call board backstage at the Sloan Fine Arts center announced the assignment of 35 roles to an eager and nervous group of auditionees.

After three nights of auditions lasting a total of 18 hours, Director John Gordon posted his final decision. Twenty-seven students were selected, which means that some of the students will be playing more than one role. Quick change artistry will have to be employed in some cases.

All the activity on stage and backstage is focused on efforts of the University Players to bring to life Thornton Wilder's masterwork "The Skin of Our Teeth." Wilder's comic treatment of the history of humankind as the escape from: the Ice Age, The Great Flood of Noah's Ark fame, and the ravages of many wars, presents a real challenge to the newly announced cast.

The production will open in the Sloan

Theater November 16, 17, and 18.

Much work lies ahead but the crowd that collected to search for their names on the newly posted cast list indicates a willingness to work hard on a worthwhile and energy packed project.

By Friday October 6, 1989.

CONCERT.

A total of 35 University students have been cast in the fall University Players production of "The Skin of Our Teeth."

Students elected to office at college

By Jeanne Schwarzer
Times Herald Staff

Three students from the county have been elected to office at their respective colleges.

Gregory S. Giamo, a third year student at the West Virginia School of Osteopathic Medicine in Lewisburg, has been selected to serve as national vice chairman of the Council of Student Council Presidents of the American Osteopathic Association. The council is composed of the student council presidents of each of the 15 colleges of osteopathic medicine in this country.

Giamo is a member of Sigma Sigma Phi, American College of General Practitioners, Undergraduate American Academy of Osteopathy, Atlas Club and was the 1988-89 WVSOM Student Government Association President.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Giamo of Collegeville, he attended Temple University and Montgomery County Community College. He is on rotation at Rainelle Medical Center, Rainelle, West Virginia.

At Susquehanna University, sophomore Julie Heckman of Norristown was elected president for the university's Accounting Club for the 1989-90 term. She is a graduate of Norristown Area High School and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heckman.

Gregory S. Giamo
elected

Aram Sarkisian, a 1989 graduate of Germantown Academy, has been elected treasurer of the freshman class at Lynchburg College in Lynchburg, Va. Sarkisian is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sarkisian of Abington.

Debbie Markowitz of Flourtown has been cast in Lock Haven University's production of "The Skin of Our Teeth" by Thornton Wilder.

Wilder's play commically portrays the history of mankind. The cast will be challenged to escape from the Ice Age, the Great Flood of Noah's Ark fame and the brutality of many wars.

Markowitz will portray the Dinosaur. The production will be held Nov. 16, 17 and 18.

And Markowitz isn't the only student from the area performing while at school.

Dawn Marie Dougherty, daughter of Mary Elizabeth Ursprung of Zieglerville, starred in the Mansfield University production of "Brighton Beach Memoirs," Oct. 10 through 15. The play focused on a few days in a crowded, lower-middle class Brooklyn home in 1937.

Dougherty, a junior public relations major, played the role of Nora, a 16-year-old who wants to join a Broadway show.

She is a 1987 graduate of Perkiomen Valley High School and has appeared in other college productions including "The Dining Room," "A Midsummer Night's Dream," and "Little Shop of Horrors."

An area resident was among the performers of Temple University Symphony Orchestra when it made its Lincoln Center debut Monday at Alice Tully Hall in New York. Sharon Stone of Lafayette Hill played the violin.
