

JANET FOSTER

TO SPEAK!

on

FRIDAY, MARCH 23rd.
8:00 p.m.
SLOAN COUNTDOWN THEATRE
(SLOAN 321)

Ms. Foster is the Assistant Casting Director for Playwrights Horizons and an alumna of L.H.U.

Sponsored by the Department of Speech Communication and Theatre

E.E. 3/23/90

Speaker to offer students audition tips

By Steven Infanti
Eagle Eye Features Editor

A Lock Haven University alumna will be offering tips to students interested in pursuing a career in acting.

Janet Foster will speak on professional acting, Broadway productions and how to get work, Friday, March 23, at 8 p.m. in the Sloan Countdown Theatre.

Foster is the assistant casting director for Playwrights Horizons and a graduate of Lock Haven University. She has also worked in various movie and television shows including Heartland and Lean on Me. Foster also teaches classes on the "dos" and "don'ts" of auditioning at New York University.

The assistant casting director will be holding a special session to critique students' audition material Friday, at 4 p.m., in the Countdown Theatre (Sloan 321).

The event is sponsored by the Lock Haven University Department of Speech Communication and Theatre.

Spring concert to be held

'Canterb

By Joe Garrison
Eagle Eye Guest Reporter

Nearly 600 years ago, the Geoffrey Chaucer attempted massive undertaking, "The Tales," before his failing health up with him. Chaucer never 120 tale plan but he did per death in 1400.

The University community chance to see two of his ta May 1, at 6 p.m., in the Sloan cated outside Sloan Theatre.

Admission is free and open

The production is under the senior Debbie Markowitz, a Lock Haven University produ

Markowitz noted the project from other University P ors.

"The project is a very pers Markowitz said. "I feel that greater effect if I do it on my

Her words do carry a cert justification in that she is act val living historical society, a Chaucer to some extent as an

Confessions

So, I