

KEEPING THE DREAM ALIVE!

2014-2015 Martin Luther King Jr. Series

NOVEMBER 3, 2014

GEMMELL MULTIPURPOSE ROOM 3:30 PM

Dr. Michael Miller

Speaker and Author

Mr. Miller was considered to be Learning Disabled and a 'troubled youth.' He became a father at the age of 14 and was frequently detained in the juvenile detention centers. As a result, he dropped out of high school at the age of 16.

However, recognizing the advantages of education, Dr. Miller later obtained a GED, and later college degrees. He set the national record as the first to graduate from a Community College with a 4.0 GPA in 3 semesters. In a matter of three years, he obtained his GED, A.A. degree, and a B.A. degree from Morehouse College and set a national record as the first person ever to do so.
