

CLARION
UNIVERSITY

THE KING LEGACY: WHAT WOULD HIS DREAM BE TODAY?

01.22
2015

MARTIN LUTHER KING JR.
COMMUNITY CELEBRATION

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: JEANNETTE HUBBARD, EDUCATOR & PASTOR

Reverend Hubbard is employed at Westminster College as director of diversity services where she is responsible for promoting and advancing diversity among faculty, staff and the student body. Hubbard is one of the founding members of the Western Pennsylvania Diversity Directors Consortium (WPDDC), an organization committed to creating a professional academic network to diminish social isolation for affiliated institutions' directors and the students they assist. Hubbard has participated and completed numerous diversity workshops through the National Conference on Race and Ethnicity in Higher Education and is a certified trainer through the National Coalition Building Institute (NCBI) Train the Trainer.

Hubbard is the senior pastor of New Ebenezer African Methodist Episcopal Church in Aliquippa. Additionally, she is the conference secretary of the Pittsburgh Annual Conference where she assists the Right Reverend McKinley Young, presiding prelate of the Third Episcopal District of the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

POETRY, MUSIC, FOOD

THURSDAY, JAN. 22, 2015 AT 5 P.M.
GEMMELL MULTI-PURPOSE ROOM

SPONSORS: MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. COMMITTEE,
ACADEMIC AFFAIRS, MINORITY STUDENT SERVICES,
LEADERSHIP COUNCIL, AFRICAN AMERICAN CAUCUS