

---

RES LIFE REMINDS STUDENTS OF HOUSING CLOSURES DURING THANKSGIVING BREAK

November 18, 2024

Thanksgiving break begins Wednesday, Nov. 27. Residence Life reminds students living in university housing of the following dates.

On all PennWest campuses, residence halls will close at 6 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 26. All residents must be out of their building at this time unless they receive prior written permission to stay. The residence halls will reopen at 2 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 1.

Reinhard Villages exception: Students living in Clarion's Reinhard Villages are permitted to stay in their apartments during break without requesting permission. Watch for an email with information for Reinhard residents.

Classes resume Monday, Dec. 2.

Students must complete the Thanksgiving break application if they: are required to stay on campus for university-related reasons; are unable to vacate by 6 p.m.; cannot vacate at all; need to return before 2 p.m. Dec. 1. The break application is available through Nov. 21 on MyPennWest Housing and Dining Portal under “Contracts/Request Forms.” Please note that a nightly fee of $50 may apply, and no one will be permitted to stay without prior written approval from Residence Life and Housing.

For information about preparing your room before breaks and information and dates to keep in mind for winter break, click here.