 - A. Absent: Senator Barboza, Senator Portis, Senator Windt
- III. Additions to the Agenda
 - A. There are no additions to the agenda.
- IV. Approval of the Minutes
 - A. The minutes were approved as presented.
- V. Student Concerns
 - A. There is a lack of ADA accessibility at Starbucks with the doors. It is in the works, but it is not completely done. It's taking a while as the building is part of the foundation.
 - B. There are maintenance workers on campus that have not been wearing masks.
- VI. Officers' Reports
 - A. Vice President of Student Affairs - Dr. Fenske
 - 1. We're going to try to bring more students back to the residence halls during the Spring semester. We are looking at a one student to one bathroom ratio. Robust testing will happen throughout the semester.
 - 2. There are 12 positive cases on campus with quite a few in quarantine. We are looking at more ways to encourage students to make better choices off campus.
 - 3. There will be a survey sent out from student affairs about this past semester.
 - B. Advisor's Report - Mr. Shaffer
 - 1. As Halloween is coming up, please make sure you're being extra careful and make good choices, especially as we don't want to spread anymore COVID.
 - C. Director's/Board of Director's Report - Ms. Machokas
 - 1. No report.
 - D. President's Report - President Mason
 - 1. There will not be a Student Senate meeting on November 9th.
 - 2. Dr. Dale will be attending the Student Senate meeting on November 2nd.
 - E. Vice President's Report - Vice President Boyle
 - 1. No report.
 - F. Treasurer's Report - Treasurer Zavinski

1. CSA held the budget roundtables last week that were mandatory for all organizations. There was a lot of good attendance. The few organizations that could not attend will be sent a recording of the meeting.
2. Todd Spaulding is having a CU Connect training soon. It might be recorded for those who cannot make the meetings.

G. Vice President of Rules and Regulation - Vice President Engelmann

1. If you are a part of this committee, please keep an eye on the GroupMe and make sure you are participating and being active.

H. Secretary's Report - Secretary Robinson

1. The Middle States Standard II group is going well. Most of the work now is just writing the report for the steering committee. The working groups have been doing so well that our meeting for this week was cancelled so I won't have an update for a few weeks.
2. Student Senators should expect an email from me tomorrow to get a headcount for Trustee Krupa's town hall.
3. Senators should try to make sure they send out an excuse as soon as possible!

I. Faculty Senate - Senator Spang

1. Check out the email on Tuesday to go over what was talked about at the Faculty Senate meeting for the Spring semester. The whole conversation was confusing so Senator Spang wanted to make sure it was as clear as possible.
2. Trustee Krupa brought up academic concerns from students.
3. Quarantined students are contacted daily about mental health and whatnot.
4. Housing goes live on November 9th.
5. There is some confusion among students about the schedule for classes in regards to Thanksgiving break.

J. Student Trustee's Report - Trustee Krupa

1. We are entering Phase 2 of the integration process which will be looking at academics.
2. Trustee Krupa will be meeting with the other integrated Student Trustees.
3. Trustee Krupa has a Middle States meeting on Tuesday. If anyone has any concerns, please let her know so she can bring them up!
4. The final town hall will be Tuesday at 7:00 for general concerns. The information for that is on social media.
5. There were concerns at the Facilities town hall last week.
 - a) The SOMS door in the stairway is still not fixed even though there have been a ton of work order requests sent in.
 - b) There are maintenance people not wearing masks in the residence halls.

- c) Dining has not always been accommodating with food intolerances, even on the app.
- d) There is some old food left in the kitchens in the dorms.
- e) There are some concerns about the laundry rooms smelling bad.
- f) There is no decaf coffee at Starbucks offered.
- g) There are some concerns about the lighting from the library to the STC, especially at night because some students don't feel safe.
- h) There is not a ramp to make the parking lot ADA accessible in the side parking lot of North.
- i) SOMN does not have a side door swipe.
