

Clarion University Model United Nations
October 30, 2018
Carlson Library Conference Room B (122) 7:00PM

- I. Advisor's Report
 - A. Dr. Fenske came and spoke about her experience with Model UN Club.
 - 1. The ability to work with large groups and demonstrate her speaking and networking skills has only helped her in her career
 - 2. Model UN gives you real-world application in regards to networking and building relationships
 - 3. There is a competition mind-set to it
 - 4. Dr. Fenske prepared with a mock session and turned in research periodically to make sure she was on the right track
 - B. Dr. Fenske's Resources:
 - 1. Committee Resource Guides
 - 2. Position Paper guide
 - 3. Meeting with the Debate Team for tips and pointers
 - C. Dr. Trejos will be going this year to look into paralleling a course with our current club. She has received a grant to attend this year to network with other professors.
 - D. We may invite professor Lyle closer to conference to go over speaking with large groups
- II. President's Report
 - A. We will be working more with our Position Papers
 - a. We will be discussing them in the group
 - b. Make it an elevator speech
- III. Vice President of Service's Report
 - A. No Report
- IV. Treasurer's Report
 - A. Be sure to sell the Yankee Candles
 - B. There will be canning November 3 and November 4th from 11:00AM–2:00PM at Comet. If you have not signed up yet, please do so this week.
- V. Secretary's Report
 - A. No Report
- VI. Next Meeting
 - A. Position papers
 - B. Distributing the Position Paper Guides