CLARION UNIVERSITY INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

By-Laws

PREAMBLE

We, the representative members of the fraternity system at Clarion University of Pennsylvania, believing that general fraternities are an integral part of the University community, do hereby establish this Constitution, and delegate to the Inter-fraternity Council such powers and responsibilities as outlined herein.

ARTICLE I: NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Clarion University Inter-fraternity Council, herein referred to the IFC.

ARTICLE II: OBJECT

The purpose of this organization shall be:

- A. To serve as the legislative body governing the member fraternities.
- B. To insure cooperation between the member fraternities and University authorities and to continually improve relations with appointed authorities.
- C. To establish and enforce rules governing recruitment, member education programs, risk management and other activities involving the member fraternities.
- D. To insure cooperation among the member fraternities and the general sororities recognized by the Clarion University Panhellenic Council.
- E. To discuss issues of mutual concern and propose recommendations for action.
- F. To grant recognition to new fraternities.
- G. To encourage scholastic, athletic and community service activities.
- H. To promote fraternity-community relations.
- I. To act as a judicial body for fraternity violations of IFC policies or other actions of a member fraternity that reflects unfavorably on the remaining member fraternities.
- J. To promote high standards of gentlemanly conduct and encourage the member fraternities to uphold the values upon which they were founded.

- K. To act in accordance with the rules and policies of all applicable laws, rules, regulations, and ordinances of the state and its divisions as well as the University.
- L. Work with administration on revision of policies relating to member organizations and inform them of any policy changes.

ARTICLE III: MEMBERSHIP & VOTING

Section 1. Individual membership in the IFC shall consist of those individuals listed on the official rosters of the member fraternities, as maintained by the IFC advisor. In order to appear on a member fraternity's official roster, an individual must have affiliated with their respective chapter in accordance with the IFC's Recruitment Policy.

Section 2. IFC member fraternities shall be divided into two classifications: full membership and colony and associate membership.

- A. Full membership and colony in the IFC shall consist of those national/international fraternities that have successfully met the criteria for such recognition, as outlined in the IFC Expansion Policy, and have been granted University recognition by the Student Senate of Clarion University of Pennsylvania.
- B. Associate membership in the IFC shall consist of those national/international fraternities that have successfully met the criteria for such recognition, as outlined in the IFC Expansion Policy, and are in the process of gaining University recognition from the Student Senate of Clarion University of Pennsylvania.

Section 3. Each member fraternity shall individually elect two representatives, to serve as their chapter's delegates to the IFC.

- A. No member of the IFC's Executive Committee may serve as a delegate for his chapter.
- B. All delegates from member fraternities in good standing shall be afforded speaking privileges at IFC meetings and shall have the privilege of serving on IFC committees. However, only those member fraternities in good standing, with the full membership and colony classification, are afforded voting privileges.
 - 1. Good standing is defined as being current with all financial obligations to IFC, having no more than two unexcused absences per semester, being current with Student Senate RSO paperwork and not on probation with the IFC Judicial Committee and/or the University Conduct Board.
- C. Each member fraternity's Chapter Advisor shall be allowed to attend IFC meetings. Chapter Advisors are granted speaking privileges at IFC meetings, but do not have voting privileges.

In the event that three officers are elected from the same fraternity, all remaining nominees from the fraternity will be withdrawn from the ballot. A member organization may exceed the three office limit in the event that an office is vacated and no other eligible candidates run for the position.
- D. In the event that an office is vacated, a special session will be call be the executive committee, to hold an election to fill the vacancy.
- E. During an emergency election nominations will begin during the vote for the elections and proceed for one week. The next week will open with further nominations and the motion to vote.

Section 6. Each officer's term will begin with two regular meetings remaining in the spring semester, under which the previous officers will serve as a guide. The incoming officers will be permitted into the Joint and executive meetings before starting their term. Incoming officers must shadow the former officers from the time they are elected until they take office. Former executives must attend the last two executive meetings to serve in an advisory capacity. The new executive board should focus on planning Greek retreat and fall recruitment. If the new officers have 2 absences from their shadow period without an excuse they must resign from their position. If a class conflicts the new officers must have a weekly one on one with the current office holder.

Section 7. Any officer may be removed from office by a two-thirds vote of the full membership and colony of the IFC for any of the following reasons:

- 1. Non-performance of duties including unexcused absence from more than two IFC meetings.

2. Conduct not becoming of a gentleman and a member of the IFC.
- A. Any IFC member may initiate removal procedure.
 1. Written notice of the motion to impeach must be presented to the IFC President at a regular meeting.
 2. The President shall notify the officer in question.
 3. The officer in question shall have an opportunity to speak on his behalf to the IFC before the impeachment vote is taken.
- B. An officer shall be automatically dismissed from office if he is not in good academic standing with the University, his cumulative grade point average drops below 2.75, or his fraternity loses its University recognition.

ARTICLE V – ROLE OF THE IFC REPRESENTATIVE Section I.

IFC Representative

The duties and responsibilities of all IFC Representatives are as follows:

- A. Serve as a representative and voice for his Member Fraternity's concerns regarding the fraternity community.
- B. Represent the larger fraternity community's interests.
- C. Inform his Member Fraternity of the actions, discussions, and workings of the IFC General Body.
- D. Serve as a liaison between the IFC General Body and his respective Member Fraternity.
- E. Serve as an active member of IFC Standing Committees and Ad Hoc Committees, as necessary.
- F. Represent the highest ideals of fraternity life to the greater campus community.

ARTICLE VI: ADVISOR

Section 1. The IFC Advisor shall be a Clarion University staff member designated by the Division of Student & University Affairs and shall serve until a successor is appointed.

Section 2. The IFC Advisor is an ex-officio member of this body and all of its committees. While the Advisor does not have voting privileges, except in the case of a judicial hearing in order to break a tie, no action of the IFC or executive committees shall be considered official unless the Advisor, or an approved substitute, is present.

ARTICLE VII: MEETINGS

Section 1. Regular meetings of the IFC shall be held each week of the semester, provided that classes are in session. At the end of each semester, the IFC shall set a date, time, and location for the meetings of the upcoming semester. There shall be a minimum of 11 meetings per semester. All procedures are to follow the basic Roberts Rules of Order as applicable as possible

Section 2. Special meetings shall be called by the President at the request of a delegate of any member fraternity, the IFC Advisor, or the executive committee. The business of special meetings shall be limited to discussion of the matters for which the meeting was called. Notification of the special meeting shall be directed to chapter delegates at least 24 hours prior to the time of the meeting.

Section 3. The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the IFC in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with this Constitution and any special rules of order the IFC may adopt.

ARTICLE VIII: FINANCES

Section 1. By the third week of each semester, each member organization shall submit to the Treasurer a roster of members and the appropriate amount of dues, payable at $10.00 per member appearing on said roster.

A. A fraternity delinquent in its dues shall not be entitled to vote in IFC proceedings and may face other penalties as determined by the IFC.

Section 2. All fines levied must be paid before the start of the next meeting following the issuance of the fine, or the chapter will lose voting rights at that meeting.

Section 3. The IFC will annually petition the Clarion Student Association for access to additional funding for initiatives that will further the purpose of the organization and enhance the quality of life on campus.

Section 4. Attendance is defined as follows:

1. Any valid excused absence shall take away from the total number of members required to attend an event.
2. An excuse shall not represent an attendance.

Section 5. All events that have been voted upon to become mandatory shall carry the fine of $10 per member, under the required attendance relative to the individual chapter's membership.

ARTICLE IX: STANDING COMMITTEES

Section 1. All standing committees shall serve for a period of one election year(VP of Committees will assign committees, and if necessary, eliminate committees as he sees fit) .

They are;

- A. Recruitment: It shall be the duty of the Recruitment Committee to formulate, assist, and evaluate the guidelines set for Rush by the Inter-fraternity Council.
- B. Greek Week: It shall be the duty of this committee to organize and conduct Greek Week each year in cooperation with the Pan-Hellenic Council.
- C. Member Education: It shall be the duty of this committee to formulate, assist, and evaluate the individual fraternities' policies for new member education.
- D. Scholarship: It shall be the duty of this committee to recommend and make available a program for the improvement of scholarship for the fraternities represented in the Inter-fraternity Council; to collect and process the materials necessary to do this.
- E. Community Service: It shall be the duty of this committee to plan and carry out one community service project each year.
- F. Constitution Review: One member of each fraternity serves in the constitutional review committee, which meets twice a year in the early fall and early spring to review and propose amendments (as needed) to the Constitution. They are responsible for ensuring that there are no conflicts between this document and University/Student Senate Policy.
- G. Expansion Committee: President appointed committee that will be responsible for soliciting interest by fraternities not currently represented on campus, during an IFC initiated expansion period. This committee may be periodically assembled to review the IFC expansion Policy and will review all expansion requests and make a recommendation to the IFC for vote.

Section 2. The President of the IFC is authorized to establish all necessary ad-hoc committees to serve at his pleasure with the approval of the General Body.

ARTICLE IX – IFC JUDICIAL POLICY

Section I. IFC Judicial Powers and Responsibilities

The IFC shall be a self governing organization with an independent Judicial Committee who shall have jurisdiction over cases involving alleged member fraternity violations of IFC policy, including but not limited to:

- A. the IFC Constitution, Bylaws, Code of Conduct, and policies;
- B. the rules and regulations of [Clarion University of Pennsylvania]; and
- C. the general values-based conduct of fraternity men.

Section II. Due Process

In appearing before the Judicial Board, each Member Fraternity shall be granted certain rights termed “due process.” Those rights are:

- A. Right to be notified, in writing, of all charges, as outlined in the Bylaws;
- B. Right to present a defense, including the calling of witnesses;
- C. Right to question witnesses;
- D. Right to be accompanied by an advisor for advisory purposes only, but not for representation;
- E. Right to be notified, in writing, of all findings and sanctions imposed, as outlined in the Bylaws;
- F. Right to appeal the decision, as outlined in the Bylaws.
- G. Right against double jeopardy.

Section III. Filing of Complaints

Any individual or group may file a complaint against a Member Fraternity, specifying in writing the particular alleged acts of the accused. This must be done by submitting an IFC Judicial Complaint Form to the IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs. The IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs shall promptly review and investigate the allegation. Upon determination that an allegation has merit, the IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs may charge a Member Fraternity with a violation.

Section IV. Notification of Charges

Once the IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs has determined the filed complaint has merit, the Member Fraternity is to be provided written notification of the charges at least one week in advance of the hearing. This written notification shall include the following:

- A. Date, time and location of their informal judicial hearing;
- B. Description of the alleged violation; and
- C. Due Process Rights.

Section V. Investigatory Evidence

All evidence related to a complaint shall be compiled and presented to all parties prior to any Informal Judicial Hearing or Formal Judicial Board Hearing. All evidence shall be directly related to the complaint(s) alleged against the Member Fraternity and shall be approved by the IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs prior to circulation.

Section VI. Informal Judicial Hearing

Upon a finding of the IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs that a filed complaint has merit, he shall offer the charged Member Fraternity the opportunity to participate in an Informal Judicial Hearing. In cases in which the charged Member Fraternity accepts an Informal Judicial Hearing, the IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs shall meet with a representative of the charged Member Fraternity to discuss the allegations of the complaint. Within three (3) business days of the Informal Judicial Hearing, the IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs may dismiss the complaint with a finding of no violations or provide the charged Member Fraternity with his finding of violations and recommendation for a resolution through disciplinary sanctions. The charged Member Fraternity has three (3) business days to accept or reject the terms of resolution. If the charged Member Fraternity accepts the resolution, the charged Member Fraternity waives all rights of appeal and the outcome is final. If the charged Member Fraternity rejects the resolution, a Formal IFC Judicial Board Hearing will be convened to hear the case.

Section VII. Prohibited Sanctions for Informal Judicial Hearings

The IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs shall not recommend suspension or loss of IFC recognition through an Informal Judicial Hearing. Should the IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs believe suspension or loss of IFC recognition is warranted, the case shall automatically be referred to a Formal IFC Judicial Board hearing.

Section VIII. Formal IFC Judicial Board Hearing

If:

- A. the charged Member Fraternity rejects having an Informal Judicial Hearing;
- B. the charged Member Fraternity rejects the Informal Judicial Hearing recommendation for resolution; or
- C. the IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs determines the allegation is egregious enough to warrant potential suspension or loss of IFC recognition; the IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs shall convene a Formal IFC Judicial Board Hearing. In accordance with Article VI, Section VI, of the IFC Constitution, the IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs will select five (5) Judicial Committee justices, as predetermined by an alphabetical rotation of the Member Fraternities, to hear the case. In the event the IFC Judicial Committee rotation for service on a Judicial Board hearing falls upon an IFC Justice whose Member Fraternity is involved in the alleged violation, the rotation will skip to the next Member Fraternity in the alphabetical rotation. The IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs shall serve as a non-voting Chief Justice and the procedural officer for all Judicial Board hearings.

Section IX. Formal IFC Judicial Board Hearing Proceedings

For all IFC Judicial Board hearings, the following procedures shall be followed:

A. Participants: Attendance at all IFC Judicial Board hearings shall be limited to the Member Fraternities involved, any witnesses, the IFC Justices assigned to serve on the Judicial Board for the hearing, and the IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs. Additionally, the charged Member Fraternity may be accompanied by its chapter advisor during any Judicial Board hearing. The chapter advisor must be registered as the official chapter advisor of the Member Fraternity.

B. Confidentiality: All individuals involved in a hearing are required to agree to a statement of confidentiality. Individuals shall not disclose information regarding the following:

1. Any individuals, Member Fraternities, or IFC Justices involved.
2. Details of the proceedings
3. Witness testimony.

C. Hearing Process:

1. Initiation of the Hearing: The IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs shall inform all individuals present that the hearing will be conducted in an orderly manner and any person causing disruption will be asked to leave. Additionally, he shall advise the charged Member Fraternity of the formality of the hearing and the necessity of all parties to be truthful.

2. Overview of Judicial Hearing Process: The IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs shall outline the process for the remainder of the hearing as follows:

a. Presentation of alleged charges, violations, and investigatory evidence against the charged Member Fraternity shall be presented by the IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs:

- i. Charged Member Fraternity may ask questions;
- ii. IFC Justices may ask questions;

b. Presentation of charged Member Fraternity:

- i. IFC Justices may ask questions;

c Calling of Witnesses

- i. Charged Member Fraternity may ask questions;
- ii. IFC Justices may ask questions;
- d. Charged Member Fraternity may give final statement;
- e. IFC Justices deliberate in closed session to determine findings of responsibility and if necessary, appropriate sanction(s).

Section X. Conflicts of Interest

In the event the IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs' Member Fraternity is involved in the alleged violation, the highest ranking IFC Executive Board officer, starting with the IFC President, as listed in Article V, Section II of the IFC Constitution, shall serve in his stead.

Section XI. Prohibition on Recruitment Restrictions as a Sanction

The IFC Judicial Board may impose educational and punitive sanctions, as prescribed in the IFC Bylaws, but under no circumstances may it prohibit a Member Fraternity's ability to recruit.

Section XII. Non-Status Sanctions

The following are sanctions that may be imposed by the IFC Judicial Board and/or IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs (including, but not limited to):

- A. Letter of apology
- B. Fines
- C. Restitution
- D. Educational programming
- E. Public service to the campus or community
- F. Meetings with campus office/departments
- G. Loss of social event and/or campus event privileges
- H. Loss of eligibility for IFC Awards
- I. Censure

Section XIII. Status Sanctions

In the event of an egregious violation, the following are sanctions that may be imposed by the IFC Judicial Board for a specified period of time:

- A. Suspension: Loss of IFC voting rights, removal from Good Standing status, and any additional sanctions listed in Non-Status Sanctions.
- B. Loss of IFC Recognition: Loss of IFC recognition and its rights and privileges.

Section XIV. Duration of Sanctions

Judicial action shall specify the duration and deadlines of any sanctions imposed. After such specified time, if the Member Fraternity has fulfilled the requirements of the sanctions imposed, the Member Fraternity shall return to good standing. In the event the Member Fraternity does not fulfill all of the requirements of the sanctions imposed, the IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs shall convene a Formal IFC Judicial Board Hearing to determine future course of action.

Section XV. Notification of Findings

Within three (3) business days of any Informal or Formal Judicial Hearing, the IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs shall communicate in writing to the charged Member Fraternity, its inter/national headquarters, and its chapter advisor, as well as any relevant [college/university] administrators, the alleged violation, the findings of the hearing, and any sanction(s) imposed.

The IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs shall notify the IFC General Body of any sanctions imposed upon a Member Fraternity through any Informal or Formal Judicial Hearing.

Section XVI. Appeals

The IFC Judicial Board's decision is subject to appeal by a Member Fraternity within two weeks of receiving written notification of the decision. Appeals shall be made in writing to the IFC President and shall be made solely on the following grounds:

- A. Error in the charge and/or Judicial Board Hearing process that materially affected the outcome.
- B. The severity of the sanction did not match the severity of the violation.
- C. New information that could not have been discovered prior to the IFC Judicial Board Hearing through the exercise of reasonable diligence. Sanctions imposed through the Judicial Process shall stand until an appeal is heard.

Section XVII. Non-Status Sanctions Appeals

The IFC Executive Board shall hear appeals for Non-Status Sanctions.

The IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs shall first present the IFC Judicial Board's decision and rationale for its actions. The appealing Member Fraternity shall then be afforded the opportunity to present its reasoning for seeking a reconsideration of the IFC Judicial Board's actions. Any individual from the appealing Member Fraternity serving on the IFC Executive Board shall not participate in the appeal proceedings. The IFC Executive Board may either dismiss the charge(s) with no sanctions or to alter the sanctions imposed by a two-thirds (2/3) vote. The decision of the IFC Executive Board shall be final for Non-Status Sanctions.

Section XIX. Status Sanctions Appeals

The IFC General Body shall hear appeals for Status Sanctions. The IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs shall first present the IFC Judicial Board's decision and rationale for its actions. The appealing Member Fraternity shall then be afforded the opportunity to present its reasoning for seeking a reconsideration of the decision. Upon completion of the Member Fraternity appeal presentation, all representatives of the Member Fraternity shall be dismissed from the meeting, including the Member Fraternity's IFC Representative and Alternate Representative.

The IFC General Body shall first vote on whether to uphold the status sanction, which shall require a two-thirds (2/3) vote. In the event the IFC General Body fails to uphold the decision, the IFC General Body shall determine by a two-thirds (2/3) vote to either dismiss the charge(s) with no sanctions or to alter the sanctions imposed. The decision of the IFC General Body shall be final with no further appeal rights.

ARTICLE X: AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Amendments to this Constitution may be submitted, in writing, by any member of the IFC at a regular or duly called special meeting.

Section 2. The amendment will be tabled for a period of two weeks, in order to allow the delegates to discuss the proposed changes with their chapters.

Section 3. The approval of two-thirds vote of the voting members of the IFC shall be necessary for the adoption of amendments to this Constitution.

ARTICLE XI: RATIFICATION

Section 1. Approval of the IFC Constitution by a two-thirds vote of the voting members of the IFC shall be required for the ratification of this Constitution.

Section 2. This Constitution shall take precedence over any and/or all previous IFC Constitutions, By-laws, and/or Rules and Regulations pertaining to the body.

Section 3. This Constitution, and its amendments, shall become effective upon ratification by the members of IFC and following the approval of the Student Senate of Clarion University of Pennsylvania, the Vice President for Student & University Affairs, and the President of Clarion University.

Clarion University Inter-Fraternity Council Constitution

IFC Expansion Policy

In accordance with Clarion University Student Senate's Recognized Student Organization Policy, general fraternity chapters are required to gain the approval of the Inter-fraternity Council before they can gain university recognition. In order to gain this approval, potential Fraternity chapters are required to meet the stipulations outlined in the Expansion Policy of the Council.

The IFC's expansion process can be initiated in one of three ways:

1. When a Clarion University student expresses an interest in starting a new fraternity.
2. When a member of a national/international fraternity headquarters staff expresses an interest in establishing/re-establishing a chapter at Clarion University.
3. When the IFC feels it appropriate to actively seek out a national/international fraternity interested in establishing/re-establishing a chapter at Clarion University.

Student Initiated

1. The student(s) interested in starting the new fraternity must first meet with the Assistant Director of Campus Life to obtain Student Senate organizational paperwork.
2. The student(s) must petition the IFC to be granted Associate Membership standing in the council, as defined in Article III of the IFC Constitution. This petition should be sent to the attention of the IFC President and should include the following materials:
 - a. A letter formally requesting that the group be granted Associate Membership standing in the council. This letter should also explain why the members want to start a new fraternity and why they have selected the organization that they have.
 - b. A letter from the national/international headquarters of the fraternity the group has selected stating that the fraternity officially sanctions and is supportive of the group's effort to establish/re-establish a chapter on the Clarion University campus.
 - c. A copy of the fraternity's requirements for establishing colonies and chartering chapters.
 - d. A list of the present executive board members of the group, along with their current contact information (mailing address, telephone number, and email address).
 - e. A list of all present members and their Clarion University student identification numbers.

- f. A letter from a current university faculty/staff member indicating that they are willing to serve as the group's campus advisor.
 - g. A copy of the Constitution and By-laws of the organization, both national and local.
 - h. A copy of the organization's new member education program that details the length and day-to-day activities of the program.
 - i. Copies of the Pennsylvania Anti-Hazing Law and Clarion University Anti-Hazing Policy signed by all members of the group.
3. A vote on the group's request for Associate Membership standing will be taken at the IFC meeting two weeks after the materials have been submitted. A two-thirds vote of the IFC is required to grant the group Associate Membership standing for the period of one calendar year. During that year, the group must meet the Associate Membership requirements outlined in the policy, in order to be eligible for Full membership and colony standing.

Headquarters Initiated

1. If a headquarters wishes to gauge student interest in joining their organization, they must first send a letter to the IFC requesting approval. A simple majority vote is required to allow the organization to proceed in establishing an interest group.
2. Once an interest group is established the "Student Initiated" process will be followed.

IFC Initiated

1. In the event that the IFC decides that the addition of a new fraternity is warranted, the Expansion Committee will send an introduction packet to the headquarters of fraternities not currently represented on campus inviting them to apply for an on campus presentation. Their application packet should include:
 - a. A brief history of the organization.
 - b. A listing of all currently recognized chapters, along with the location of the last three expansion attempts.
 - c. A copy of the organization's expansion process.
2. The Expansion Committee will review the requests and invite up to three fraternities to campus for the presentations. The presentation should cover the following:
 - a. How the addition of the fraternity would enhance the Clarion University Greek community.
 - b. Details of the fraternity's new member education program.
 - c. A detail of the fraternity's continuing membership development programming.
 - d. Details of the fraternity's policies relating to academic achievement, alcohol and substance abuse, and hazing.
 - e. Regional alumni support.

- f. Resources and support available to the colony from the headquarters and/or foundation.
3. Once the fraternity selected to proceed with the expansion process attracts undergraduate members, the “Student Initiated” process will be followed.

Associate Membership Requirements

1. In order to be considered for Full membership and colony in the IFC, each Associated member organization must meet the following criteria:
 - a. The President of the group must hold monthly meetings with the IFC Advisor to update him on the group’s progress.

FIPG RISK MANAGEMENT POLICY (2013)

January, 2013

The Risk Management Policy of FIPG, Inc. includes the provisions, which follow and shall apply to all fraternity entities and all levels of fraternity membership.

ALCOHOL AND DRUGS

1. The possession, sale, use or consumption of ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES, while on chapter premises or during a fraternity event, in any situation sponsored or endorsed by the chapter, or at any event an observer would associate with the fraternity, must be in compliance with any and all applicable laws of the state, province, county, city and institution of higher education, and must comply with either the BYOB or Third Party Vendor Guidelines.
2. No alcoholic beverages may be purchased through or with chapter funds nor may the purchase of same for members or guests be undertaken or coordinated by any member in the name of or on behalf of the chapter. The purchase or use of a bulk quantity or common source(s) of alcoholic beverage, for example, kegs or cases, is prohibited.
3. OPEN PARTIES, meaning those with unrestricted access by non-members of the fraternity, without specific invitation, where alcohol is present, are prohibited.
4. No members, collectively or individually, shall purchase for, serve to, or sell alcoholic beverages to any minor (i.e., those under legal drinking age).
5. The possession, sale or use of any ILLEGAL DRUGS or CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES while on chapter premises or during a fraternity event or at any event that an observer would associate with the fraternity is strictly prohibited.
6. No chapter may co-sponsor an event with an alcohol distributor or tavern (tavern defined as an establishment generating more than half of annual gross sales from alcohol) at which alcohol is given away, sold or otherwise provided to those present. This includes any event held in, at or on the property of a tavern as defined above for purposes of fundraising. However, a chapter may rent or use a room or area in a tavern as defined above for a closed event held within the provisions of this policy, including the use of a third party vendor and guest list. An event at which alcohol is present may be conducted or co-sponsored with a charitable organization if the event is held within the provisions of this policy.

7. No chapter may co-sponsor, co-finance or attend or participate in a function at which alcohol is purchased by any of the host chapters, groups or organizations.
8. All recruitment or rush activities associated with any chapter will be non-alcoholic. No recruitment or rush activities associated with any chapter may be held at or in conjunction with a tavern or alcohol distributor as defined in this policy.
9. No member or pledge, associate/new member or novice shall permit, tolerate, encourage or participate in “drinking games.” The definition of drinking games includes but is not limited to the consumption of shots of alcohol, liquor or alcoholic beverages, the practice of consuming shots equating to one’s age, “beer pong,” “century club,” “dares” or any other activity involving the consumption of alcohol which involves duress or encouragement related to the consumption of alcohol.
10. No alcohol shall be present at any pledge/associate member/new member/novice program, activity or ritual of the chapter. This includes but is not limited to activities associated with “bid night,” “big brother – little brother” events or activities, / “big sister – little sister” events or activities, “family” events or activities and initiation.

HAZING

No chapter, colony, student or alumnus shall conduct nor condone hazing activities. Permission or approval by a person being hazed is not a defense. Hazing activities are defined as:

“Any action taken or situation created, intentionally, whether on or off fraternity premises, to produce mental or physical discomfort, embarrassment, harassment, or ridicule. Such activities may include but are not limited to the following: use of alcohol, paddling in any form, creation of excessive fatigue, physical and psychological shocks, quests, treasure hunts, scavenger hunts, road trips or any other such activities carried on outside or inside of the confines of the chapter house; wearing of public apparel which is conspicuous and not normally in good taste, engaging in public stunts and buffoonery, morally degrading or humiliating games and activities, and any other activities which are not consistent with academic achievement, fraternal law, ritual or policy or the regulations and policies of the educational institution or applicable state law.”

SEXUAL ABUSE AND HARASSMENT

The fraternity will not tolerate or condone any form of sexist or sexually abusive behavior on the part of its members, whether physical, mental or emotional. This is to include any actions, activities or events, whether on chapter premises or an off-site location which are demeaning to women or men, including but not limited to verbal harassment, sexual assault by individuals or members acting together. The employment or use of strippers, exotic dancers or similar, whether professional or amateur, at a fraternity event as defined in this policy is prohibited.

FIRE, HEALTH AND SAFETY

1. All chapter houses should meet all local fire and health codes and standards.
2. All chapters should post by common phones and in other locations emergency numbers for fire, police and ambulance and should have posted evacuation routes on the back of the door of each sleeping room.
3. All chapters should comply with engineering recommendations as reported by the insurance company or municipal authorities.
4. The possession and/or use of firearms or explosive or incendiary devices of any kind within the confines and premises of the chapter house is prohibited.
5. Candles should not be used in chapter houses or individual rooms except under controlled circumstances such as initiation. EDUCATION Each fraternity shall annually instruct its students and alumni/alumnae in the Risk Management Policy of FIPG, Inc. Additionally, all students and key volunteers shall annually receive a copy of the Risk Management Policy and a copy of the policy shall be available on the fraternity website.

EDUCATION

Each fraternity shall annually instruct its students and alumni/alumnae in the Risk Management Policy of FIPG, Inc. Additionally, all students and key volunteers shall annually receive a copy of the Risk Management Policy and a copy of the policy shall be available on the fraternity website.

With the adoption of this policy as the official risk management policy of Clarion University's IFC, all member fraternities are required to adhere it, regardless of whether or not their respective fraternity is an FIPG member organization on a national/international level.
