

CIRCLE K CLUB OF CLARION UNIVERSITY BYLAWS CIRCLE K INTERNATIONAL

Article I: NAME

Section 1. The name of this organization shall be the Circle K Club of Clarion University of Pennsylvania. It shall be sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Clarion and shall be a member club of Circle K International and the Pennsylvania Circle K District therein, and shall also be known by its initials, "CKI".

Article II: OBJECTS

Section 1. The objects of this club shall be:

- To emphasize the advantages of the democratic way of life;
- To provide the opportunity for leadership training in service;
- To serve on the campus and in the community;
- To cooperate with the administrative officers of Clarion University;
- To encourage participation in group activities
- To promote good fellowship and high scholarship;
- To develop citizenship and the spirit of service for improvement of all relationships;
- To afford useful training in the social graces and personality development; and encourage and promote the following ideas;
- To give primacy to the human and spiritual rather than to the material values of life;
- To encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships;
- To promote the adoption and the application of high social, business, and professional standards;
- To develop, by precept and example, a more intelligent, and serviceable citizenship;
- To provide through Circle K clubs a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render altruistic service, and to build better communities; and
- To cooperate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism which makes possible the increase in righteousness, justice, patriotism, and goodwill.

Section 2. The vision of this club shall be:

Circle K is an organization that holds the promise of today's college student becoming tomorrow's leader. It exists to meet the personal needs of the individual collegian through the qualities of leadership, the rewards of service, and the unique spirit of friendship. Circle K's potential lies in its ability to positively influence those in our society who are facing ultimate personal decisions and those who will one day create the vision of mankind for generations to come. Circle K is the embodiment of those qualities necessary to shape the future, realized in the colleges and universities of today. The vision of Circle K International is dedicated to the realization of mankind's potential.

Article III: NAME AND EMBLEM

Section 1. Each member in good standing with this club shall be entitled to wear the official emblem and insignia of Circle K International.

Section 2. The name, emblem, and insignia of Circle K International shall be used for only such purposes as shall be authorized by the Circle K International Board of Trustees, subject to the approval of the International Director. In no case shall they be used as a trade name or trademark, nor in a way or for a purpose that demeans or impugns the name of Circle K or Kiwanis.

Article IV: MOTTO

Section 1. The motto of this club shall be “Live to serve, love to serve”, as is the motto of Circle K International.

Article V: CLUB MEMBERSHIP IN CIRCLE K INTERNATIONAL

Section 1. A Circle K club may be established in an institution of higher education as described by the Constitution, Article VI, Section 1, upon the request of Kiwanis club(s) which agrees to sponsor the proposed club. A petition for a charter will be made on a standard form provided by the Director of Circle K International and shall be signed by the minimum membership requirements and endorsed by an administrative officer of the institution in which the prospective club would exist. Each petition shall certify that the prospective club has adopted and complied with the provisions of the Standard Form for Club Bylaws, modified only as approved by the Board of Trustees of Circle K International and has agreed to be bound by the Constitution and Bylaws of this organization as adopted and amended. Upon completion of these requirements, the prospective club shall be issued a Charter of Membership in this organization. The postmarked date of the Petition of Charter shall serve as the official date of the Charter Membership.

Section 2. During the school year each club shall hold one weekly meeting on such day and at such place as shall be determined by the club officers. It may hold such other meetings as the officers or the membership may desire. In the event that unusual conditions prevent a weekly meeting, a club may hold a minimum of two meetings per month, with the officers and chairs meeting on all other weeks.

Section 3. Each club shall adopt the Standard Form for Club Bylaws, modified only as approved by their District Board of Officers and the Board of Trustees of Circle K International. The bylaws of a club may be amended by a vote at any regular meeting of the club, provided that written notice of such proposed amendments shall have been given to the membership at least two (2) weeks prior to the meeting at which they are considered. All such amendments must be consistent with the Constitution and Bylaws of this organization and shall become effective only after submission to and approval by their District Board of Officers and by the Board of Trustees of Circle K International.

Section 4. Each Circle K club shall pay to Circle K International for every club member the amount specified by International per annum, due on October 1 of each year. A club in good standing will be placed on past due status if no dues are received by November 30 (US clubs) of that same administrative year.

Section 5. The annual dues and “Dues Invoice and Membership Forms” must be submitted to Circle K International by November 30 to maintain the status “in good standing”. This club shall also submit updated forms and the appropriate dues for each additional member that joins during the fiscal year.

Section 6. Any club more than thirty (30) days in arrears for any indebtedness to its sponsoring Kiwanis club(s), its district, or to Circle K International shall be considered not in good standing, and may have its charter and membership suspended or revoked by action of the Circle K International Board of Trustees, providing that notice of said indebtedness shall have been duly sent by the International Director to the president of the club in question. The Board of Trustees may restore such club to membership upon payment of its indebtedness.

Section 7. Any member club that fails to conform to the Constitution and Bylaws of Circle K International or that fails to conform to the policies for clubs established by the International Board of Trustees, may have its charter and membership suspended or revoked, or may otherwise be disciplined by action of the Board of Trustees, providing that a copy of the charges with a notice of the hearing thereof before the Board of Trustees of Circle K International shall have been sent by mail by the Director of Circle K International to the last reported president and secretary of said club at least thirty (30) days before said hearing shall be held. The hearing shall be held at the time of a regularly scheduled Board of Trustees meeting and the subject club shall be entitled to appear before the Board to present its case.

Section 8. Any member club may resign from this organization provided that all financial and other obligations of such club to this organization and its sponsoring Kiwanis club shall have fulfilled. If the club is incorporated, the corporation shall have been duly dissolved, and upon resolution of resignation, adopted and approved by a three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) vote of the active membership of such club, the resolution shall be certified by the clubs’ secretary and sent to the Director of Circle K International. Such resignation shall become effective when accepted by the Board of Trustees, and by such action of the club surrenders all rights to use the name, emblem, and other insignia of this organization. The Board of Trustees may, upon written application of such club, reinstate the club membership in Circle K International.

Section 9. Any Circle K club whose membership in Circle K International has been terminated in any manner shall forfeit all interest in any funds or other property and all right to use the name, emblem, or insignia of this organization.

Article VI: MEMBERSHIP AND CLASSIFICATION

Section 1. Any student of good character who is officially enrolled for at least part-time status, as defined by the institution in which a club exists, may be elected to active membership in said club. Membership shall become inactive when the above academic requirements are not met during the academic year. An academic year shall be defined by the institution.

Any other honorary in any other Circle K Club, or other Kiwanis-family organizations, shall not be eligible for active membership in this club.

Section 2. An active member of this club shall meet all minimum membership requirements as outlined in these bylaws and shall be entitled to all privileges of this club. The Board of Directors of this club shall review periodically the compliance of each member to the club's minimum membership requirements.

Section 3. Each Circle K club shall adopt criteria which will serve as minimum membership requirements for all members and prospective members of CKI. Criteria shall be adopted by majority vote of the club board of directors.

The criteria for students seeking membership shall include:

- a. Payment of all club, district, and International dues;
- b. Club meeting attendance requirements (active members must attend at least half of general meetings);
- c. Attendance requirements for Circle K-sponsored service, personal leadership development, and fellowship activities (a total 10 hours per semester per member)
- d. Fulfillment of any other requirements as set forth by the club, provided that these requirements do not violate the provisions of the Constitution and Bylaws of CKI.

The criteria for a student to retain active membership shall include:

- a. Payment of all club, district, and International dues by November 30 (members in US clubs);
- b. Club meeting attendance requirements (active members must attend at least half of general meetings);
- c. Attendance requirements for Circle K sponsored service, personal leadership development, and fellowship activities (a total 15 hours per semester per member);
- d. Maintain the minimum grade-point average as set forth by the institution for graduation (a minimum of 2.0 QPA);
- e. Fulfillment of any other requirements as set for the by the club, provided that these requirements do not violate the provisions of the Constitution and Bylaws of CKI.

The above stated criteria shall be met within a specific time period as set forth by the club, not to exceed one administrative year. The district and Circle K International shall have the right to request changes in club criteria in the event it does not comply with this section.

Section 4. In no instance shall this club place a "maximum" limit on its membership or have any special requirements of membership which may lead to discrimination based on race, color, religion, national origin, age, sex, familial status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or disability.

Section 5. The selection (election) and discipline of active members in this club shall be by majority vote of the Executive Board of this club, functioning under the rules of the institution and counsel of the sponsoring Kiwanis club.

Article VII: SUSPENSION AND TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Any active member who is thirty (30) days or more in arrears in the payment of dues and/or financial obligations shall , at the direction of a majority vote of the Board of Officers, be suspended and so notified in writing by the secretary (or secretary/treasurer). Any suspended member, upon payment of arrears and upon making application to the Board of Officers, may be reinstated by majority vote of the Board of Officers within thirty (30) days of aforesaid written notice. In the event the member is not reinstated within thirty (30) days of aforesaid written notice, the member may be removed from active membership as prescribed in Article VII.

Section 2. Any suspended member may be removed from active membership of the club by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire active membership of the club upon the recommendation of a majority of the Board of Officers. The Board of Officers shall make such recommendation only after they have held a hearing to determine whether just cause for dismissal exists, and have afforded the suspended member in question the opportunity to be heard. In the event any suspended member should be removed from active membership, he/she shall be so notified in writing by the secretary (or secretary/treasurer). Thereafter, the member may become an active member of the club only as provided for in Article VI, Section 1 of these Bylaws.

Section 3. The Board of Officers shall periodically assess the personal involvement and meeting attendance of each active member. Any active member who, without excuse, fails to meet the standards of attendance and participation set forth by the Board of Officers shall, using procedures as prescribed in Article VII, Section 2, of these Bylaws, be removed from the active membership of this club.

Section 4. Any active member who falls below the minimum scholastic standards set forth by this club may be placed on probation by the Board of Officers for a term not to exceed one full college term, and/or be removed from active membership using procedures as prescribed in Article VII, Section 2, of these Bylaws.

Section 5. Any member charged with conduct unbecoming of a Circle K member which may impugn or reflect unfavorably on the good name of Circle K International or Kiwanis International can be removed from active membership using procedures as prescribed in Article VII, Section 2, of these Bylaws.

Section 6.

- a. Any member of this club may resign his/her membership provided that all indebtedness to this club, to the Pennsylvania district, and to Circle K International has been paid in full. Such resignations shall be accepted in writing by the secretary (or secretary/treasurer) and shall become effective when accepted by the Board of Officers.
- b. Membership in this club shall automatically cease thirty (30) days after a member fails to meet enrollment, academic, or minimum membership requirements. In the event of a member's graduation, membership will cease on September 30 of the same Circle K administrative year.

Section 7. Any person whose membership in this club has been terminated in any manner shall forfeit all interest in any funds for other property belonging to the club and the right to use the Circle K name, emblem, or other insignia.

Article VIII: OFFICERS

Section 1. The officers of this club shall be a president, one or more vice presidents, and either a secretary/treasurer or a secretary and a treasurer and an editor. Additional officers may be elected to the board when requested by the club and approved by the Pennsylvania Circle K District Board of Officers. These officers shall constitute the Board of Officers for this club. All officers shall be active members in good standing with this club.

Section 2. Elections of new officers shall be held at a regularly scheduled meeting at least two (2) weeks prior to the district convention. All officers shall assume their duties on April 1 following their election. If the annual district convention is held later than March 31 in any given year, all officers shall assume their official duties on April 15. They shall serve for one (1) year or until their successors are duly elected and installed. The outgoing president and secretary (or secretary/treasurer) of this club shall promptly certify to the secretary (or secretary/treasurer) of the Pennsylvania Circle K District and to the International Director the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of the newly elected officers.

Section 3. The duties of the officers shall be as follows:

- a. The president shall be the executive officer of this club and shall preside over all meetings of the club and the Board of Officers. The president shall appoint committee members with the Board of Officers' approval, and be an ex-officio member of all standing and special committees. The president shall present the views of the club to the district in relation to the club. As the official representative of the club, the president shall promote the growth of Circle K on campus and within the community. The president shall cooperate fully with his/her sponsoring Kiwanis club and promote Kiwanis-family relations. The president shall attend at least one Kiwanis meeting per month if able. He/she shall act as one of the delegates of the club to the district convention, and it shall be this person's responsibility to have this club represented at both the district and International convention if able. The outgoing president, in conjunction with the Kiwanis and faculty advisors, shall make provisions for the training of the new Board of Officers prior to their installation. The president shall perform such other duties as usually pertain to the office of president.
- b. The vice-president of administration, in the absence of the president, shall preside at all meetings of this club and of the Board of Officers, shall be directly responsible to the president for all committee activities, and shall chair the Steering Committee, which shall be composed of all committee chairpersons and shall meet monthly. The vice-president shall also perform such other duties as usually pertain to the office, or as may be assigned by the president or the Board of Officers.

c. The secretary shall record accurate minutes of the meetings and send them out weekly within 3 days of the general meeting; shall maintain the club's permanent records; shall update all addresses; shall be the official club correspondent; shall communicate with International, both representatives and the office; shall order club supplies; shall maintain the records on the My Activities page; and shall perform such other duties as pertain to this office or as may be assigned by the club president.

d. The treasurer shall collect and disburse member dues; shall prepare and adhere to an approved budget; shall maintain accurate records; shall transact business through a bank or school account; shall keep the Board of Officers informed of financial strengths and weaknesses of the club; shall have the books audited; shall communicate with district officers, shall file appropriate forms with the IRS if necessary; shall inform the sponsoring Kiwanis club of this club's financial status; and shall perform such other duties as pertain to this office or as may be assigned by the club president. This committee shall be responsible for planning activities and events to raise revenue for the general mission of Circle K.

e. The secretary/treasurer shall keep the records of the club and its Board of Officers; shall collect all dues or fees of this club and shall disburse all monies as directed by the Board of Officers; shall publish a club bulletin; shall submit such reports as may be required by the district or Circle K International; shall perform such other duties as usually pertain to the office, or as may be assigned by the president or the Board of Officers.

f. The editor shall publish monthly club newsletters by the 5th of each month that an MRF is due; shall maintain the club webpage; shall create articles for District and International publications; shall photograph club activities; shall perform such other duties as usually pertain to the office, or as may be assigned by the president or the Board of Officers.

Section 4. An officer may be removed for just cause from office by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the entire active membership of this club upon the recommendation of a majority of the Board of Officers. The club shall consider the dismissal of an officer only after the Board of Officers has held a hearing to determine whether or not just cause for dismissal exists and have afforded the officer in question the opportunity to be heard. In the event any officer should be removed from office, the officer shall be so notified in writing by the secretary (or secretary/treasurer). Officers may be dismissed for not completing their duties outlined above.

Section 5. In the event of a vacancy in the office of president, the vice-president shall succeed to the office. If two or more vice-presidents hold office in this club, one of them shall be elected to fill the vacancy by a majority vote of the entire active membership of this club at the next regularly scheduled meeting. In the event of a club vacancy in any other office, a majority vote of the active membership of this club present and voting at the next regularly scheduled meeting shall elect a member in good standing to serve for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Section 6. No elected club officer may hold a district office or an International office in addition to their club office.

Article IX: BOARD OF OFFICERS

Section 1. The Board of Officers of this club shall consist of the elected officers, the faculty advisor, and the Kiwanis advisor. The faculty advisor and the Kiwanis advisor shall be non-voting, ex-officio members of the Board of Officers.

Section 2. The faculty advisor shall be a member of the administrative or academic staff of Clarion University of Pennsylvania. The faculty advisor shall be selected in consultation with the appropriate school officials and approved by a majority vote of the entire active membership of this club present and voting at a meeting designated by the Board of Officers for this purpose. The faculty advisor shall serve as liaison between the club and the school administration and help to gain approval for club activities with the proper authorities when necessary. The faculty advisor shall participate as much as possible in club activities.

Section 3. The well-being and strength of the Circle K club shall be the responsibility of the sponsoring Kiwanis club. The Kiwanis club shall provide a Kiwanis Circle K Committee to advise and counsel the Circle K club while it is being formed and throughout its existence. The chairperson of the Kiwanis Circle K Committee shall serve as Circle K advisor and shall be responsible to the Kiwanis club for all Circle K activities. The Kiwanis advisor shall participate as much as possible in club activities and encourage other Kiwanians to do the same.

Section 4. The duties of the Board of Officers shall be to manage the business and to determine the policies of this club; to determine the nature and content of service activities in conjunction with input received from the active club membership; to plan and pursue membership recruitment and development; to maintain an operating budget and oversee disbursements of funds; to counsel all committees; to discipline members; and to perform such other duties as deemed necessary by the club, not inconsistent with the Constitution and Bylaws of Circle K International.

Section 5. The Board of Officers of this club shall meet at least twice per month during the school year at a time and place that it shall determine, and at such other times as the president or a majority of its voting members deem necessary.

Article X: COMMITTEES

Section 1. The membership shall elect standing committees for the purpose of assisting in the development of club programs. Such committees may include the following:

- a. Kiwanis-Family Relations: This committee shall work with other committees in preparing inter-club activities with Kiwanis, Key Club, Builders Club, and K-Kids and shall see that the membership of this Circle K club and its sponsoring Kiwanis club are cognizant of all areas of each organization thereof.
- b. Community Service: This committee shall plan projects and activities promoting supporting the International Service Initiative Program as well as the major emphasis programs of the Pennsylvania Circle K District during their administrative year. This committee shall plan projects and activities promoting campus, local, and international community service.

c. Public Relations: This committee shall be responsible for informing the campus and local community of the club's activities and goals through the use of articles, photographs, local and campus newspapers, radio, television, and through meetings with the administration for this college/university.

d. Historian: This committee shall be responsible for documenting community and campus events through photographs and incorporating these photographs into a scrapbook.

Section 2. The president shall be empowered to appoint assistants, individuals, or special committees to help with the administrative operation for this club. All appointments shall be approved by the Board of Officers in consultation with the faculty advisor and/or the Kiwanis advisor. The president shall clearly define the responsibilities of these appointments, and their terms shall expire at the end of the administrative year, or at such time during the year when the president determines that their responsibilities have been fulfilled.

Article XI: REVENUE

Section 1. Each active member shall pay to this club an annual dues as determined by International and District and agreed upon by the executive board. The amount of these dues shall be agreed upon by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the active members of this club present and voting at any regularly scheduled meeting.

Section 2. This club shall pay to the Pennsylvania Circle K District for every active member and annual dues determined by the District due on October 1 of each year and considered past due on the same day International dues are past due or on the days specified in the District Bylaws. In no case shall the district dues exceed the current Circle K International dues rate per annum per active member.

Section 3. Revenue may be derived from other sources in such a manner as may be determined by the Board of Officers. The Clarion University of Pennsylvania Circle K Club shall never sponsor or participate in any manner in a lottery, raffle, drawing, or game of chance for the purpose of raising funds, or shall employ a lottery, raffle, drawing, or game of chance in connection with any fund-raising activity, unless this club has received the prior approval of the Circle K District Board of Officers and the sponsoring Kiwanis District Board of Trustees. Such approval so granted does not constitute official endorsement of such activities by Circle K International or Kiwanis International. Any lottery, raffle, drawing, or game of chance so approved must not contravene any laws, mores, customs, or traditions of the country, state, or province in which the Circle K club exists. The club shall not directly or indirectly engage in any activity which may impugn or reflect unfavorably on the good name of Circle K or of Kiwanis.

Article XII: PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

Section 1. The current edition of “Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised” shall be the parliamentary authority for all matters of procedure not specifically outlined in these Bylaws, or in the Bylaws of the Pennsylvania Circle K District, or in the Constitution and Bylaws of Circle K International.

Article XIII: AMENDMENTS

Section 1. These Bylaws should be reviewed annually to maintain consistency with the Standard Form for Club Bylaws, Pennsylvania Circle K District Bylaws and the Constitution and Bylaws of Circle K International. Amendment procedure requires a two-third (2/3) vote at any regular meeting of this club, providing that written notice of any proposed amendments shall have been distributed to the active membership at least two (2) weeks prior to the meeting at which the proposals are to be considered. All such amendments must be consistent with the Bylaws of the Pennsylvania Circle K District and the Constitution and Bylaws of Circle K International, and shall become effective only upon their approval by the Pennsylvania Circle K District Board of Officers and the Circle K International Board of Trustees.
