LAB UPDATES

SMITH LAB NEWS

- Pregnant rats have arrived! We should have new babies in a couple of weeks!
- Prep Room is good: there was an NA broth bottle left on the bench in Smith Lab. Just make sure you don't use the stuff from prep room.
- Cell culture: cells aren't dead for Dr. Dias!
- Anti-Biofilm got pee cups!
- Bd added fresh media
- Compound P is planning a distillation soon.
- Annexin needs help! Carrie to the rescue! Maybe look at phagocytic pathways? How do we know they're macrophages?

- Still getting ahold of other clubs for Naloxone training. We need to give Jan a date!
- Next week we will figure out some more committees and bake sale
- Possible Breast Cancer Awareness Fundraiser with Tri-Beta. What if we put something in the Clarion Call? How about we do something with breast cancer treatment education video? Each club has a day! Venmo for donations?
- Will we be doing ALF? How about a Flu Pamphlet to hand out at ALF?
- We need to do a potty press flu
