
The Late J. H. Hodder

The funeral of John H. Hodder will be held Sunday at 2:30 p. m. from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gimbel, 40 Westminster street, Revs. Samuel McDowell and R. B. Webster officiating.

Deceased was the only son of Mrs. Margaret Hodder and had received his honorable discharge from the navy two weeks prior to his death. He enlisted one year and three months ago and his time was spent mostly in convoy service. He was married on October 29 1917 to Miss Florence Peckham of Scranton, where he died after a few days' return from service. Deceased was a popular baseball pitcher and fine athlete and a student at the Bloomsburg Normal School when he enlisted; also a consistent member of Douglas Presbyterian Church. Interment will be in Nanticoke Cemetery.

• Buried With Military Honors

Throngs of sorrowing friends and relatives, attended the funeral of John H. Hodder, who was buried with military honors, Sunday afternoon. His funeral took place from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gimbel, 40 Westminster street, at 2:30 o'clock. Impressive services were conducted at the residence by Rev. Samuel McDowell and Rev. R. B. Webster. The many floral tributes were evidence of the high esteem in which the deceased was held. United States sailors acted as pall bearers. Burial was in Nanticoke Cemetery.